ABOUT THE ACC

THE TRADITION

John Swofford,
ACC Commissioner

Consistency. It is the mark of true excellence in any endeavor.

However, in today's intercollegiate athletics, competition has become so balanced and so competitive that it is virtually impossible to maintain a high level of consistency.

Yet the Atlantic Coast Conference has defied the odds. Now in its 55th year of competition, the ACC has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture, the numbers support it.

Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 105 national championships, including 56 in women's competition and 47 in men's. In addition, NCAA individual titles have gone to ACC student-athletes 139 times in men's competition and 86 times in women's action.

If success is best measured in terms of wins and losses, then the ACC is unrivaled in NCAA annals. With North Carolina's victory over Illinois in the 2005 NCAA title game, ACC teams have captured 10 NCAA basketball championships, including six over the last 17 years.

No conference has posted a better NCAA Tournament record than the ACC since the NCAA's inaugural tournament in 1939. With an impressive 65-33 mark over the past six years, the 12 current conference members have posted an NCAA Tournament-best mark of 364-203 for a sterling .642 winning percentage against the nation's toughest competition.

In the 23 years of the current 64-team field, the ACC has produced 21 Final Four teams, an average of almost one per year and five more than any other conference.

Since 1985, when the NCAA Tournament was expanded to 64 teams, ACC teams have been even more impressive compiling a 227-111 (.672) NCAA record, including 62 "Sweet 16" appearances and 21 Final Four berths - all NCAA Tournament bests. Since 1985, 62 of the 116 ACC teams receiving NCAA berths have won at least two NCAA Tournament games.

Following their title run in 2005, North Carolina's Tar Heels lead all ACC schools with four NCAA basketball championships to their credit. Duke has claimed three national titles, NC State two and Maryland one. The Tar Heels have captured NCAA titles in 1957, 1982, 1993 and 2005 while the Blue Devils won their third title in 2001, following back-to-back championships in 1991 and 1992. The Wolfpack walked away with the coveted crown in 1974 and 1983 while the Terps claimed the 2002 national title.

The ACC has 10 or more NCAA Tournament wins in four of the last seven years and 13 times overall and the league has not posted a losing record in NCAA Tournament play since 1987. The conference's 18-year non-losing streak in NCAA Tournament play is tops among all conferences.

Since 1981, the ACC has produced 36 consensus All-Americans - 16 more than any other conference. Since 1981, the ACC has accounted for 26 percent of the nation's consensus All-Americans (36-of-140).

Six of the last 11 and eight of the last 15 consensus National Players of the Year have come from the ACC. Since 1975, the ACC has had 15 consensus national players of the year - 12 more than any other conference. Eight of the ACC's 15 National Players of the Year were unanimous selections.

A year ago the ACC led all conferences with 54 players in the NBA. In addition, over the past two years 23 ACC players have made their NBA debuts, including 15 in 2006 and eight last year.

This past June the ACC led all conferences with six players selected in the first round of the annual NBA draft. The ACC has had the most, or tied for the most, first round draft picks in four of the past six years and in 10 of the last 15. Since 1986, the ACC has had 88 first round selections - 19 more than any other conference.

The ACC became the first conference in NCAA history to have 10 teams finish the season with 20 or more wins and for the second-straight year, 10 ACC teams took part in post-season play in 2006-07, including an ACC record seven NCAA Tournament teams.

For the first time in league history, the ACC surpassed the 2.4 million mark in attendance in 2006-07. The 12 league schools totaled 2,435,441 over 213 regular season games and six ACC Tournament sessions.

The stature of ACC basketball is no where more clearly defined than by the league's regional and national television exposure. A year ago, a record-setting 278 television appearances involving ACC teams, highlighted the 2006-07 schedule, including 156 appearances on national television networks.

THE CHAMPIONSHIPS

The conference will conduct championship competition in 25 sports during the 2007-08 academic year - 12 for men and 13 for women.

The first ACC championship was held in swimming on February 25, 1954. The conference did not conduct championships in cross country, wrestling or tennis during the first year.

The 12 sports for men include football, cross country, soccer, basketball, swimming, indoor and outdoor track, wrestling, baseball, tennis, golf and lacrosse. Fencing, which was started in 1971, was discontinued in 1981.

Championships for women are currently conducted in cross country, volleyball, field hockey, soccer, basketball, swimming, indoor and outdoor track, tennis, golf, lacrosse, softball and rowing.

A HISTORY

The Atlantic Coast Conference was founded on May 8, 1953, at the Sedgefield Inn near Greensboro, N.C., with seven charter members - Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, North Carolina State, South Carolina and Wake Forest - drawing up the conference by-laws.

The withdrawal of seven schools from the Southern Conference came early on the morning of May 8, 1953, during the Southern Conference's annual spring meeting. On June 14, 1953, the seven members met in Raleigh, N.C., where a set of bylaws was adopted and the name became officially the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Suggestions from fans for the name of the new conference appeared in the region's newspapers prior to the meeting in Raleigh. Some of the names suggested were: Dixie, Mid South, Mid Atlantic, East Coast, Seaboard, Colonial, Tobacco, Blue-Gray, Piedmont, Southern Seven and the Shoreline.

Duke's Eddie Cameron recommended that the name of the conference be the Atlantic Coast Conference, and the motion was passed unanimously. The meeting concluded with each member institution assessed $200.00 to pay for conference expenses.

On December 4, 1953, conference officials met again at Sedgefield and officially admitted the University of Virginia as the league's eighth member. The first, and only, withdrawal of a school from the ACC came on June 30, 1971, when the University of South Carolina tendered its resignation.

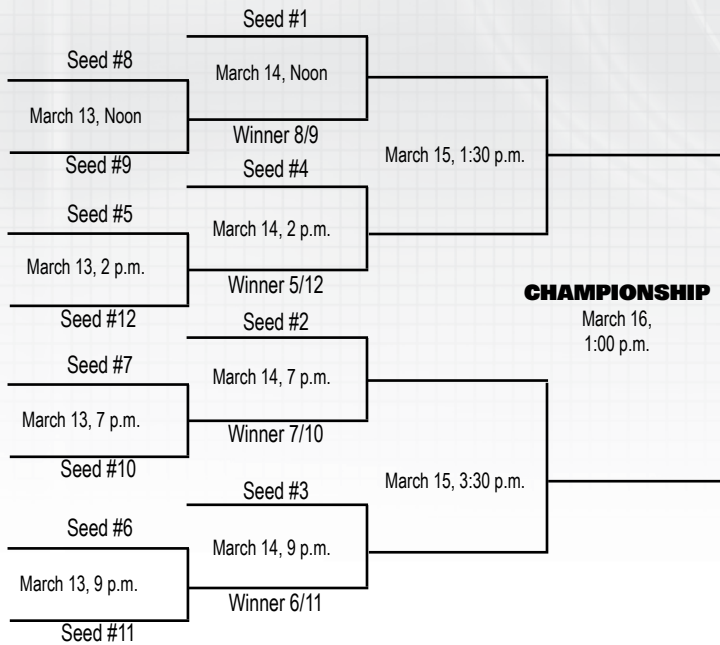

The ACC operated with seven members until April 3, 1978, when the Georgia Institute of Technology was admitted. The Atlanta school had withdrawn from the Southeastern Conference in January of 1964.

The ACC expanded to nine members on July 1, 1991, with the addition of Florida State University.

The conference expanded to 11 members on July 1, 2004, with the addition of the University of Miami and Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University. On October 17, 2003, Boston College accepted an invitation to become the league's 12th member starting with the 2005-06 academic year.
