Spring Prospectus

TERPS OPEN SPRING PRACTICE...

- Maryland opened spring football practice on Saturday, March 10, marking the first of 15 workouts. The team practiced three days before taking a week off for spring break. The Terps resumed workouts on March 27 and will practice each Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday leading up to the Red-White Spring game on Saturday, April 21. The game will kick off at 1 p.m. in Capital One Field at Byrd Stadium. Admission to the game is free.
- Head coach Randy Edsall and the Terps will have to replace a number of key performers from last season, but they do return 15 offensive and defensive starters, as well as punter/place-kicker Nick Ferrara.
- Senior defensive lineman Joe Vellano, a 2011 second team All-American, and linebackers Demetrius Hartsfield and Darin Drakeford headline the 10 starters back on defense. Vellano led the FBS last season in tackles by a defensive lineman (7.8 per game), Hartsfield was an honorable mention All-ACC pick and Drakeford had a league-high tying four forced fumbles.
- The offense returns five starters, including three of its top four receivers from last season in wideouts Kevin Dorsey and Kerry Boykins, and tight end Matt Furstenburg. Junior C.J. Brown, who started five games in 2011, assumes No. 1 quarterback duties. Brown rushed for 574 yards, a Maryland single-season record for a quarterback.

- Interview Availability: Coach Edsall will address the media at a news conference on March 6 as well as post practice on March 10, 27 and April 3, 10, 17. Players will be available on those days as well. Coach Edsall and players will also be available after the Red-White Spring game.

QUICK HITTERS...

- The five Maryland players who received 2011 postseason recognition return to the squad this year - DL Keith Bowers (freshman All-ACC), LB Lorne Goree (freshman All-ACC), LB Demetrius Hartsfield (honorable mention All-ACC), DL Andre Monroe (freshman All-American) and DL Joe Vellano (second team All-American).
- The Terrapins return 75 percent of the offensive and defensive two-deep from the end of last season. There are 17 of the 22 offensive players back and 16 of 22 defenders. In addition, eight of the 12 members of the final special teams two-deep is back in 2012.
- Maryland had 15 seniors on the 2011 roster, but just 12 of those players were listed on the two-deep at some point during the year. There are 18 seniors listed on the 2012 spring roster.
- Eleven of Maryland's top 13 tacklers from 2011 are back this season, including Hartsfield, who had a team-high 108 stops, and safety Eric Franklin, who was second with 106.
- Six of the top seven sack producers from 2011 are back this season, including leading sack producer Monroe who had 5.0, the second most by a Maryland freshman in the last nine years (Adrian Moten - 5.5 in 2007; Shawne Merriman - 5.0 in 2002).
- Three Terps ended 2011 ranked among the top 12 in the ACC in tackles. Hartsfield was second at 12.0 per game and Franklin was sixth at 8.8. Vellano was 12th with 7.8 per contest.
- There are 17 players on the roster who have started on the defensive side of the ball. In addition to the 10 returning starters (see chart on page 3), DL Justin Anderson, DB Matt Robinson, DL Isaiah Ross and LB Kenny Tate were all starters or significant contributors prior to suffering injuries in 2011. Goree, DL A.J. Francis and LB Bradley Johnson have also started games.
- There are just two returning starters (Bennett Fulper and Justin Gilbert) on Maryland's offensive line, but six players have started in their careers. De'Onte Arnett, Josh Cary, Sal Conaboy and Peter White have also started on the o-line.

- Despite last season's 2-10 record, recruits were not deterred. Maryland's 2012 recruiting class (see pgs. 22-28) was ranked as high as No. 35 in the nation (Rivals.com and 247Sports.com). In fact, the Terps were the only team among the Rivals' top 35, and one of only five (Colorado, Oregon St., Ole Miss, Arizona) in the top 50, to have less than five victories in 2011.
- Three new scholarship players joined the program this semester. DB Isaac Goins, DB Levern Jacobs and DL Quinton Jefferson will take part in spring practice. Goins is a junior-college player who will have two years of eligibility left. Jacobs attended prep school last fall and Jefferson signed with the Terps in 2011, but did not matriculate in the fall due to a medical issue. Jacobs and Jefferson will have four years of eligibility. In addition, WR Nigel King will be able to practice with the team. He joined the Terps last spring out of high school, but was unable to practice in the fall due an NCAA eligibility issue.
- Nine bowl teams from last year appear on Maryland's 2012 schedule: Temple (Gildan New Mexico Bowl), West Virginia (Discover Orange Bowl), Wake Forest (Franklin American Mortgage Music City), Virginia (Chick-fil-A Bowl), NC State (Belk Bowl), Georgia Tech (Hyundai Sun Bowl), Clemson (Discover Orange Bowl), Florida State (Champs Sports Bowl) and UNC (AdvoCare V100 Independence Bowl).

ON THE SHELF...

There will be a few Terps unable to participate during the spring due to offseason surgery and recovery. That list includes Tyrek Cheeseboro (knee), Makinton Dorleant (knee), Nick Ferrara (hip), Kenny Tate (knee) and Peter White (shoulder). In addition, Ian Evans, Bennett Fulper, Matt Robinson, Isaiah Ross and Dave Stinebaugh will have limited reps for a variety of ailments.

BROWN UNDER CENTER...

There will be no quarterback competition in the spring as junior C.J. Brown is the lone scholarship signal-caller on the roster. Brown, a dual-threat, has plenty of experience. After missing nearly all of 2010 with a shoulder injury, he saw action in 10 games (five starts) last year, setting a Maryland single-season rushing yards record (574) for a quarterback and throwing for 842 yards. He'll be getting acclimated with a new offense as former assistant Mike Locksley returned to College Park in the offseason as his positional coach and offensive coordinator. Locksley is installing a pro-style offense which will incorporate some spread principles. "C.J.'s a competitor," head coach Randy Edsall said. "Even though he knows he's the guy, he's gonna work his tail off every day. He's a guy who's a leader. The guys respect him and he's got a tremendous work ethic." Brown will be joined by a pair of freshmen quarterbacks - Perry Hills and Caleb Rowe - in the summer, but senior Ricky Schultz, a walk-on who joined the team this semester, will serve as the No. 2 signal-caller this spring.

Terps
...by the numbers

3...Three of the top seven leading returning tacklers in the ACC reside in College Park (Demetrius Hartsfield - No. 1; Eric Franklin - No. 2; Joe Vellano - No. 7).

4...Number of players who earned medical redshirts last season. Tyrek Cheeseboro, Matt Robinson, Isaiah Ross and Kenny Tate played in four of fewer games and were thus eligible to regain one year.

5...The Terps scored five times on defense in 2011 which was tied for sixth in the FBS.

6...Maryland ranked tied for sixth in the FBS last season in fewest penalties committed per game (4.1) and 11th in fewest yards penalized (36.2).

7...Number of defensive linemen who have started games. The list includes Justin Anderson, Keith Bowers, A.J. Francis, Andre Monroe, Isaiah Ross, Joe Vellano and Marcus Whitfield (now at OLB).

13.5...13.5 of the team's 26 sacks (52 percent) in 2011 were posted by freshmen – Andre Monroe had a team-high 5.0, Lorne Goree had 3.5 and Keith Bowers posted 2.5.

15...C.J. Brown's 574 rushing yards in 2011 rank No. 15 on the ACC single-season list for quarterbacks.

22...Number of freshmen (14 redshirts; eight true) who played in 2011.

25...Joe Vellano's 25 consecutive starts are tops on the team.

260...Demetrius Hartsfield has 260 career tackles which leads all active players. Kenny Tate is second with 197.

REPLACEMENTS ON THE O-LINE...

Maryland will have to replace three of its starters along the offensive line, but it does return six players who have started. Bennett Fulper, Justin Gilbert, Pete White and Josh Cary have the most experience among the returners. The Terps also redshirted five linemen last season and all figure to get a long look this spring. "We're looking for our five best," Randy Edsall said heading into the spring. Fulper, a two-time Academic All-ACC choice, has started the last two seasons at center, but has also played guard. Gilbert was the starting left tackle in 2010 before two knee injuries sidelined him until the second half of last season. He took over for Cary as the starting right guard for the final three games of 2011. However, Cary is back atop the depth chart at right guard this spring. White played in all 12 games last season. He started six games at left guard, taking over for Andrew Gonnella, who suffered a season-ending knee injury in the fifth game of the season. Junior De'Onte Arnett, a converted defensive lineman, is a promising possibility at guard. He started the final game of 2011 at left guard and sits atop the depth chart there entering the spring. "De'Onte Arnett did a good job towards the end of the year, and to me, he's only going to get better," Edsall said. Gilbert may eventually move back out to left tackle, but the staff will work junior Nick Klemm, sophomore Jake Wheeler and redshirt freshmen Andrew Zeller and Ryan Doyle at the two tackle positions this spring. Klemm, penciled in at left tackle, has the most experience of the four, playing in six games as a reserve right tackle last season. Doyle is listed No. 1 at right tackle. "He did some good things early in preseason camp, and he's a tough kid and has good knowledge of the game," Edsall said of Doyle. Zeller has been a serving as one of 16 captains of the team's offseason program. "Zeller is a guy who has worked extremely hard," Edsall said. Sal Conaboy, who started the last two games of 2011 for an injured Fulper, is listed first at center. Fulper, who will be limited due to injury in the spring, is second on the depth chart, while redshirt freshman Evan Mulrooney is third.

STABILITY AT TIGHT END...

Tight end is one of the most experienced positions on the team with all four players back this season. Senior Matt Furstenburg has started the last two years and has become one of the top tight ends in the ACC. A member of the 2011 John Mackey Award midseason watch list, he ranked third in the conference among tight ends in both receptions (2.6 pg) and receiving yards (29.0 pg). He had a capable backup in Devonte Campbell, who had a pair of touchdown catches last season. The senior is a strong, athletic presence who should see plenty of action in the team's two tight-end sets. "Devonte is the type of guy who wants to explode and wants to make something big happen in his senior year," Randy Edsall said. Campbell has played in 17 games over the last two years. Senior Ryan Schlothauer served as the No. 3 tight end a year ago, seeing most of his time on special teams. The wild card at the position is Dave Stinebaugh who has been relegated to the sidelines most of the last two years due to knee and shoulder injuries. The junior will be limited in contact drills during the spring due to offseason shoulder surgery, but should be completely healthy in the summer.

OPENINGS AT SKILL POSITIONS...

With the loss of its top tailback and second-leading receiver, the Terps have openings at a couple of key skill positions. Davin Meggett ended his career seventh on the Maryland career rushing list and Quintin McCree was productive over the last half of his senior season, posting 31 of his 40 catches in the final six games. But seniors Kevin Dorsey and Kerry Boykins are expected to lead a young, but talented group of wide receivers. Dorsey led the team in receptions (45), receiving yards (573) and touchdown receptions (three) last year, while Boykins was third in both catches (37) and receiving yards (430). Sophomores Marcus Leak and Devin Burns entered the spring atop the depth chart at two of the three wide-receiver positions (Dorsey sidelined with a knee injury). Leak, a speedy and physical player, saw extensive action in the first half of 2011. He ended up posting 12 catches for 85 yards as a true freshman. A converted quarterback, Burns played in seven games during his redshirt freshman season and should be more polished after a full year at wide receiver. Sophomore Nigel King and redshirt freshman Tyrek Cheeseboro should also be fighting for time. King is another big, physical presence who joined the team last spring, but was unable to practice with the Terps in the fall due to an NCAA eligibility issue. Cheeseboro was one of the team's better special teams players last season before his true freshman campaign was cut short with a knee injury. Levern Jacobs joined the program this semester after spending the fall at Milford Academy and figures to push for time. The Terps have a freshman and sophomore lined up at tailback for carries in the spring. Justus Pickett saw considerable time last season as a true freshman. The shifty back ranked third on the team in both carries (74) and rushing yards (274). He also caught 10 passes out of the backfield. "Justus is a little bit bigger now and stronger than he was in the fall," Randy Edsall said. Brandon Ross is stockier than Pickett, but was impressive during practice of his redshirt season in 2011. "Brandon Ross showed a lot of things last season on the scout team, so this is going to be the first time you really get to see him on a daily basis," Edsall said. Maryland also returns it's No. 1 fullback in sophomore Tyler Cierski who is a bruiser at 250 pounds. He played in all 12 games in 2011, seeing time on special teams as well.

SKILL HELP ON THE WAY...

The Terps will welcome one of the top running back and wide receiver classes this summer. Rivals.com had Maryland's incoming wide receivers rated No. 4 in the country, while Scout.com had the running backs listed second in the nation. Stephon Diggs from Good Counsel (Md.) High School was a consensus top-10 receiver in the country, as well as a five-star recruit, Maryland's first in five years. Wes Brown, Diggs' high school teammate, was listed as one of the top running backs in the country. Brown was a consensus four-star recruit who played in the 2012 Under Armour All-America game. The Terps also added another four-star player in Albert Reid, the 2011 D.C. Gatorade Player of the Year.

DEPTH ON THE D-LINE...

With all four starters back and the shift to a 3-4 defense, Maryland should have plenty of depth along the defensive line. All-American Joe Vellano will lead this group for the third straight season. Vellano, who led the FBS last season in tackles by a lineman, will move from tackle to end in coordinator Brian Stewart's scheme. Vellano is a two-time All-ACC performer who was one of four team captains last season. Senior A.J. Francis is slated to be the nose tackle, along with sophomore Darius Kilgo. A big, athletic presence, Francis will be counted on to clog up the middle. He has played in each of the last 37 games, with 23 starts to his credit. "It's right there for A.J.," Randy Edsall said. "He's the nose guard. How dominant can he be?" Like Francis, Kilgo is a 300-pounder, though he does not have the same level of experience. He played in just five games last season as a reserve. "Darius Kilgo has a chance to get a lot of playing time now," Edsall said. Keith Bowers, who started 11 games as a true freshman last season, is penciled into the other defensive end position, along with Andre Monroe. Both of those players earned 2011 postseason honors. Monroe, an undersized but extremely athletic lineman, was a freshman All-American after leading the team with 5.0 sacks in only nine games. Bowers earned freshman All-ACC honors, but he will miss the final four weeks of spring due to a heart condition, though he is expected back in the fall. A healthy Isaiah Ross would certainly add depth at end. Ross hurt his knee in the opening game last season and is working his way back to top form. Junior Justin Anderson is another player coming off injury. Anderson started all 13 games at anchor (hybrid defensive end position) in 2010 before being sidelined with an injury early last season and eventually serving a redshirt year. Defensive line coach Greg Gattuso says Anderson has the prototypical measureables to play end in Stewart's scheme. Sophomore Ian Evans and true freshman Quinton Jefferson are also expected to vie for time at end. Evans played in the last four games of 2011 and Jefferson joined the program this semester after signing in 2011 and sitting out the fall due to a medical issue. Evans strained an abductor muscle during the first week of spring is out til the summer.

CORE OF LINEBACKERS RETURNS...

The Terps have a number of productive linebackers returning to the team this season. Maryland is in possession of the leading returning tackler in the ACC and top forced-fumble producer in the league. Demetrius Hartsfield ranked second in the conference last season in tackles (12.0 per game), while Darin Drakeford tied for the ACC lead in forced fumbles (four) despite missing four games due to injury. Those two seniors will lead an experienced, but still young group. Hartsfield and Drakeford are penciled into the Mo (inside) and Will (outside) positions, respectively, in Brian Stewart's defense.

Alex Twine, Cole Farrand and Lorne Gorne all had significant reps last season as freshmen. Twine took over as the starter at Will at the end of last season and is penciled into the Sam (outside) spot this spring. He averaged 9.8 tackles in his four starts last season. Farrand and Goree will battle for time at the Mike (inside). Goree was an honorable mention freshman All-America pick last season after averaging 5.0 tackles per game (fourth in the ACC among freshmen). Farrand saw most of his time on special teams. He has readied himself to play inside by bulking up to 245 pounds in the offseason. Lukas Foreman, who served a redshirt season in 2011, is listed No. 2 at Sam behind Twine. Marcus Whitfield took over as one of the starting defensive ends in the second half of last season. He has been moved to the Will position where he will back up Drakeford, along with Clarence Murphy, another converted lineman. Bradley Johnson will serve as the No. 2 Mo.

SECONDARY ROLES..

The Terps lost a pair of cornerbacks with extensive starting experience, but return one starter at that position and will have three safeties with starting experience on the 2012 roster. Dexter McDougale started all 12 games last season at cornerback, leading the team with six pass breakups and tying for the team lead with three interceptions. The Terps will have options opposite McDougale. Jeremiah Johnson saw most of his time on special teams in 2011, but he did serve as the No. 4 cornerback for much of the season. Isaac Goins was added to the roster in December, joining the team from Contra Costa College where he was a 2011 first team All-Bay Valley Conference choice after posting six interceptions. Goins is listed second on the pre-spring depth chart behind McDougale. Tony Perry, a walk-on, is listed behind Johnson on the depth chart. The Terps should be well stocked at safety. After missing the final nine games last season, Matt Robinson is expected to be one of the key contributors on defense. When Robinson had season-ending shoulder surgery he ranked second in the ACC and tied for seventh nationally in tackles per game (12.0). He'll be limited in contact drills in the spring but is expected to give the Terps a physical presence in the defensive backfield. Eric Franklin is penciled in at the other safety position. He led the team in solo tackles (64), total tackles (106) and tied for second on the team with four pass breakups. He ranked sixth in the ACC in tackles (8.8 pg). A.J. Hendy ended the 2011 season as one of the starting safeties. He averaged 8.3 stops in his three starts and figures to push for time in the fall. Undray Clark, who redshirted last season, is listed as Franklin's backup in the spring. Senior Clarence Claiborne, who saw most of his time on special teams in 2011, gives the team depth at safety.

DEFENSIVE STARTERS RETURNING/LOST...

Starters Returning (10)

GETTING A LEG UP...

Nick Ferrara, who handed all three phases of the kicking game last season, will be back for what could be his third year as the No. 1 place-kicker and second as the punter. The senior ranks in the top 10 in career made field goals at Maryland. He will have competition from Nathan Renfro, who redshirted last season, and Michael Tart, who replaced Ferrara in the final game of 2011 due to injury. Renfro and Tart will handle all of the kicking chores in the spring as Ferrara recovers from offseason hip surgery. He is expected to be 100 percent by the summer. Sophomore Justus Pickett is back as the No. 1 kick returner, though the Terps will have to replace Tony Logan, who is third in school history in punt return yards. But the Terps didn't get many big plays out of the return game last year and hope to improve upon that in 2012. The team is unlikely to settle on kick returners until the preseason. One of the team's unsung players - Tim Downs - will need to be replaced as the long snapper. Downs started the last three years, but Greg Parcher has been waiting in the wings and should be an ample replacement.

TERPS SHINE IN THE CLASSROOM...

Maryland football is coming off one of its best academic semesters in recent memory.

The 2011 fall semester team grade-point average was 2.544:

- This was the second highest (spring 2011 was 2.589) team semester GPA in eight years (16 semesters).
- This was only the second time in eight years (16 semesters) that football had a semester team GPA above 2.50.
- This is the only time in eight years (16 semesters) that football posted semester team GPA's of 2.50 or higher in consecutive semesters.

The cumulative team GPA at the end of the fall semester was 2.554:

- This was the highest team cumulative GPA in eight years (16 semesters).
- This marks the only time in eight years (16 semesters) that football posted a team cumulative GPA above 2.5.

STAFF ADJUSTMENTS...

During the offseason there were some changes to the Maryland coaching staff.

- Mike Locksley was hired in December as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. Locksley, a native of Washington, D.C., returned to Maryland after previously spending six years (1997-02) as an assistant coach on the Terrapins staff. A veteran coach with over 20 years experience, Locksley most recently spent four years (2005-08) as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach for the University of Illinois and two-plus years (2009-11) as head coach at the University of New Mexico. Locksley helped the Fighting Illini offense improve from No. 86 nationally in total offense (338.1 yards per game) in 2005 to No. 19 (438.3 yards per game) in 2008. The Illinois offense ranked in the top 10 nationally (No. 10 in 2006; No. 5 in 2007) in rushing yards. Known for strong recruiting skills, Locksley was listed as a top-25 recruiter in the nation three different times (2003, 2005, 2006) and was a finalist for 2007 recruiter of the year by Rivals.com.

- Brian Stewart was hired in January as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach. A former NFL defensive coordinator, Stewart recently completed a successful two-year stint with the Houston Cougars, who ended 2011 with a 13-1 record and a No. 14 ranking in the final USA Today poll. The Cougars had one of the best defenses in the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) in 2011, ranking in the top 15 in five categories: red-zone scoring (second – 67 percent), interceptions (t-third – 21), tackles for loss (sixth – 7.7 per game), turnovers gained (t-10th – 31) and opponent passing efficiency (12th – 111.75 rating). Houston also improved from 96th nationally in scoring defense (32.2 points per game) in 2010 to 35th (22.4) this past year. Stewart went to Houston after an eight-year run as an NFL assistant, including two years (2007-08) as the defensive coordinator with Dallas.

- With the change to a 3-4 defense, Lyndon Johnson will now oversee both outside linebacker positions (Sam and Will), while Andre Powell will take over as special-teams coordinator, in addition to his running back chores. Last season, Johnson was responsible for the Star position on the defensive side of the ball. Powell was a special-teams coordinator during each of his last two stops – Clemson (2007-10) and North Carolina (2001-06). He handled both running backs and special-teams duties the final three seasons at each job.

- Defensive line coach Greg Gattuso was elevated to assistant head coach. The former head coach of Duquesne (1992-04), Gattuso spent six seasons (2005-10) as the defensive line coach at Pittsburgh.

- Former offensive lineman Pete DeSouza is now a student assistant coach. DeSouza, who had not played since his redshirt freshman season (2010) when he was injured in a traffic accident, took a medical hardship.

RANDY EDSALL

Head Coach

Syracuse '80 • Second Year

With a reputation as a top-notch builder, leader and recruiter, Randy Edsall is in his second season as Maryland's head football coach.

Edsall, who is originally from nearby Glen Rock, Pa., spent the previous 12 seasons as head coach at the University of Connecticut where he took the program from Football Championship Subdivision (formerly Division I-AA) status to five bowl games, including a BCS contest.

Edsall was hired in January, 2011, as the 34th head coach in Maryland history.

While the Terps struggled on the field last season due to the loss of many key performers, that did not deter a number of high profile recruits from choosing Maryland. Edsall and his staff still managed to haul in a 2012 recruiting class which was ranked as high as No. 35 in the nation and included many of the most talented players in the fertile Maryland/Washington, D.C., area.

Edsall had quite a bit of success guiding the Huskies to a pair of Big East Conference titles (2007, 2010) and postseason appearances in each of his final four years, including the 2011 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

The 2010 Big East Coach of the Year, who also had a successful run as an NFL assistant, led UConn to eight or more wins in each of his last four seasons as the Huskies successfully made the ascent to the FBS (formerly Division I-A). In fact, Connecticut was 33-19 over his last four seasons, including a pair of bowl wins.

UConn is also the first program to go from FBS newcomer to BCS bowl participant in only seven years.

During his time in Storrs, the program blossomed from a major college football newcomer upon his arrival to a team that made five bowl appearances in the final seven years. He left as the school's all-time leader in career wins (74) and most games coached (144). Edsall was also an impressive 65-46 (.586) in the school's first nine FBS seasons (since 2002).

The 2010 Huskies were typical of a hard working, blue-collar Edsall team. After starting out 3-4, including 0-2 in the league, UConn finished the year with five consecutive Big East wins to earn the conference championship and a spot in the BCS.

UConn's trip to the 2011 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl marked its fifth bowl trip since 2004. The Huskies defeated South Carolina, 20-7, in the 2009 Papa-johns.com Bowl. Edsall guided Connecticut to a 38-20 win over Buffalo in the 2009 International Bowl, led the team to a victory in the 2004 Motor City Bowl and an appearance in the 2007 Meineke Car Care Bowl.

The Huskies won their final three regular season games in 2009 - including a historic double-overtime win over Notre Dame. UConn posted a 7-5 regular season record facing the 25th-toughest schedule in the country. In 2007, the Bryant and Munger Coach of the Year Award finalist helped guide UConn to a share of its first-ever Big East Championship in a season where the Huskies were picked to finish seventh in the league.

Edsall is a two-time recipient (2007, 2010) of the Bowl Championship Division Head Coach of the Year in New England by the Gridiron Club of Greater Boston.

Edsall has been a prominent voice in the college football community as he was a member of the American Football Coaches Association Board of Trustees and the NCAA Football Rules Committee.

UConn joined the Big East Conference in 2004, finishing just one win shy of tying for the league championship. The Huskies led the conference in total defense each of their first two years and again in 2008. During its debut season in 2004, UConn also led the Big East in total offense. UConn finished in the national top 20 for total offense (2003, 2004) and total defense (2002, 2005, 2008) in multiple seasons. The Huskies finished an impressive sixth in the country in total defense in 2008.

Under Edsall's guidance, the Huskies defeated members of the Atlantic Coast Conference, Big East, Big Ten, Big 12, Conference USA and Southeastern Conference during their Football Bowl Subdivision tenure.

In addition to the great success on the field, UConn performed admirably in the classroom under Edsall. In five of his final seven years, including 2007, '08 and '09, UConn was recognized by the American Football Coaches Association for its high graduation rate.

UConn was the top team in the NCAA's Graduation Success Rate (GSR) in both October 2008 and '09 among league schools. The Huskies were third in the Big East in the 2010 GSR release and within four points of second.

In 2008, UConn had the highest GSR for African-American student-athletes among all state universities that participated in a bowl game following the 2008 season.

In 2009, the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate (APR) for the UConn football team was an impressive 951, which was third in the Big East Conference and just five points behind the second-place team. That mark also placed Connecticut ahead of the Bowl Subdivision average of 941 and among the top 30 percent of schools in the country.

In 2007, UConn was one of just six schools to play in a bowl game and also boast a GSR over 80 percent for both its Caucasian and African-American student-athletes. In 2003, UConn was the only public Division I-A school to graduate at least 90 percent of its football players and in 2005, UConn was one of only eight schools to both graduate 70 percent and win a bowl game.

Even in its first season at the Division I-A level, UConn was able to make its mark on the national scene.

Edsall guided the 2002 team to a 6-6 record in its first year with a full complement of 85 scholarships. UConn ended the 2002 season impressively, registering four straight wins to reach the .500 mark, including season-ending road wins at Navy and at bowl-bound Iowa State.

UConn's .500 season was its best record since the squad won 10 games in 1998. The Huskies' six wins were more than the Huskies posted in 2000 (three) and 2001 (two) combined. In 2002, the Huskies were the most improved Division I-A team in the country, according to preseason and postseason ratings by College Football News.

The excitement for Edsall and his team continued to swell in 2003 as the Huskies moved into their new home, Rentschler Field, and enjoyed the nation's largest attendance increase (+21,252 fans per game).

Finishing with a 9-3 record, many national media outlets, including Bristol-based ESPN, proclaimed that UConn should have received a bowl berth, a feat highly-uncommon for an independent team.

With their membership in the Big East for the 2004 season, another strong campaign by the Huskies resulted in a bowl berth. UConn went 8-4 against a challenging slate that fall as the program gained its highest-ever level of exposure. The Huskies capped their historic season with a resounding 39-10 win over Mid-American Conference Champion Toledo in the Motor City Bowl.

The 2007 season witnessed a new level of excitement in Storrs as the Huskies earned their first ever national rankings, peaking at No. 13 in the BCS standings on Nov. 5. UConn became just the second Big East team to ever go 7-0 at home and defeat three teams there which were ranked in the Top 10 at some point during the season. The Big East Champion Huskies finished that season at 9-4 with a berth in the Meineke Car Care Bowl, earning Edsall New England Division I Coach of the Year accolades.

Edsall was named the 27th head football coach at the University of Connecticut on December 21, 1998. He brought 19 years of coaching experience to the Husky program, including 15 seasons on the collegiate level and three in the NFL.

Edsall joined the Huskies after completing the 1998 season as the defensive coordinator at Georgia Tech, where he helped the 14th-ranked Yellow Jackets complete a 9-2 campaign.

Prior to joining the staff at Georgia Tech, Edsall spent three seasons as the secondary coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars. In his three seasons on Tom Coughlin's staff, Edsall was a part of one of the most successful expansion franchises in the history of the NFL. The Jaguars reached the playoffs twice, including a berth in the 1996 AFC Championship Game.

Edsall began his coaching career in 1980 at his alma mater, Syracuse University. A former quarterback for the Orangemen, Edsall started as a graduate assistant from 1980-82. In 1983, Orange head coach Dick MacPherson named Edsall to oversee the running backs.

Edsall coached running backs for three seasons (1983-84 and 1986) and oversaw the tight ends in 1985 before making the switch to the defensive side of the ball. He coached the Syracuse defensive backs from 1987-1990 and during that period the Orangemen were ranked among the Division I-A leaders in pass defense.

He remained in the Big East for the next three years as he moved on to become the defensive backs coach at Boston College. Edsall served under Coughlin who was hired as head coach prior to the 1991 season.

Fran Foley, who serves as Maryland's director of football operations, was also on the staff during that time, a period which saw the Eagles reach a pair of bowl games.

Edsall was a three-year letterwinner in football, basketball and baseball at Susquehannock High School (Pa.). He was an all-state selection in all three sports in his senior season and was inducted into the York Area Sports Hall of Fame.

He went on to Syracuse, where he was a member of the football team and earned one varsity letter as a quarterback for the Orangemen. He was a member of the Syracuse squad that captured the 1979 Independence Bowl title under head coach Frank Maloney.

Edsall earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Syracuse in 1980 and added a master's degree from the Big East school in health and physical education in 1982.

Edsall was honored with the Leadership Award at the Martin Luther King, Jr., Holiday National Liberty Bell Ringing Celebration in Hartford, Conn., in January, 2010. He was honored this last fall by the UConn Alumni Association as an honorary alumnus of the school.

Edsall is an active member of the community and has supported a number of charitable events over the years.

He and his wife, Eileen, a former basketball and volleyball letterwinner at Syracuse, have a daughter, Alexi (22), and a son, Corey (19).

2012 RECRUITING CLASS OVERVIEW

Maryland made a significant boost to its roster in February with the addition of 25 recruits, including 21 who signed national letters-of-intent.

The class includes 13 offensive players and 12 on the defensive side of the ball. There are also six incoming players labeled as either four- or five-star recruits.

The Terps kept quite a bit of local talent at home as 12 of the prospects hail from the Maryland/Washington, D.C., area, more than double last year's total.

"I'm excited about the depth and quality of this class," head coach Randy Edsall said on National Signing Day. "All of these student-athletes are outstanding individuals who come from winning programs, have a great work ethic and leadership skills, and understand the team concept. Our staff did a great job in identifying the players who fit the profile we're looking for in a Maryland football player."

According to ESPN.com, six of the top 18 players in the state are heading to Maryland, including three SuperPrep All-Americans in wide receiver Stefon Diggs, offensive lineman Mike Madaras and running back Wes Brown, who were all teammates at Good Counsel (Md.) High School.

Diggs, a consensus five-star prospect and overall No. 1 player in the state of Maryland, is one of the Terps biggest recruits in recent years. He is listed as the No. 2 wide receiver and eighth overall recruit in the nation by Rivals.com. Diggs is the first five-star product to attend Maryland since Bruce Campbell (five-star by Rivals.com in 2007).

"We were able to make some inroads in our prime recruiting areas of Maryland, Washington, D.C., and Pennsylvania," Edsall said. "We got into some areas and schools which we haven't been able to in a long time."

With a class ranked as high as No. 35 in the country, Maryland fulfilled a number of needs on both sides of the ball with running back, wide receiver, linebacker and defensive back the most represented positions.

"I'm really pleased with the balance of this class," Edsall said. "This is a class which will come in and blend in well with our returning players."

In addition to Brown, the Terps added another four-star player in Albert Reid, the 2011 D.C. Gatorade Player of the Year, as well as Kenneth Goins and Joe Riddle, to their backfield. That group comprised the second-best running back class in the nation, according to Scout.com.

Abner Logan is the most highly regarded of the five linebackers who will join the team in the fall. Logan was a four-star selection by Rivals.com and 247Sports.com. Rivals.com has the Maryland linebacker class pegged as 20th-best in the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS).

All-state performers Brock Dean, one of five players from Pennsylvania, Stefan Houston, Shawn Petty and Avery Thompson will join Logan as first-year linebackers in the program.

The Terps also added five defensive backs, including Sean Davis of Maret School in Washington, D.C., Alvin Hill, one of three signees from the state of Georgia, and Anthony Nixon, the lone New Jersey recruit.

Isaac Goins and Zach Dancel are a pair of transfers who will join the secondary. Goins, who played at Contra Costa (Calif.) College the last two years, enrolled in classes in January and will have two years of eligibility remaining. Dancel, who played at Good Counsel with Brown and Madaras, will join the team in the fall. He is transferring from the University of New Mexico at the end of the spring semester.

The Terps only recruited two offensive linemen, but both are four-star products. In addition to Madaras, Nick Brigham, who hails from Atlanta, will join the team in the fall.

Amba Etta-Tawo is the third product from the state of Georgia and one of four wide receivers in the class, joining Malcolm Culmer and Levern Jacobs, who enrolled in classes in January after spending the fall semester at Millford (N.Y.) Academy.

Rivals.com has the Maryland wide-receiver class ranked No. 4 in the nation.

Defensive lineman Quinton Jefferson of Pittsburgh, who signed with the Terps in 2011, is the third spring enrollee. Roman Braglio, a consensus All-Maryland player, is the other addition along the defensive line.

The Terps are adding a pair of quarterbacks with Scout.com ranking that position No. 10 in the nation.

Caleb Rowe of Landrum, S.C., is the 26th-ranked pro-style QB in the country and Perry Hills, of Pittsburgh, is viewed as the No. 29 signal-caller in the nation.

Maryland also has a quality addition at tight end. P.J. Gallo of Holland, Pa., is the 23rd-ranked tight end in the nation according to Scout.com.
