2011 Football Notes

Spring Prospectus

TERPS KICK OFF FIRST SPRING UNDER EDSALL...

- Maryland opened spring football practice on March 29 when the Terps held their first of 15 workouts over the course of a five-week period. The Terps practiced three times per week (Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday), concluding spring with the annual Red-White Game on Saturday, April 30. The spring game will kick off at 3:30 p.m. at Capital One Field at Byrd Stadium. The game is the culmination of Maryland Day, a university-sponsored family celebration.
- Maryland, under first-year head coach Randy Edsall, returns 45 letterwinners, including 13 offensive and defensive starters, from last season's 9-4 squad that won the Military Bowl.
- Quarterback Danny O'Brien, the 2010 ACC Freshman of the Year, and four offensive linemen headline the seven starters back on offense. O'Brien posted the sixth-highest passing yardage total (2,438) for a freshman in ACC history last season. Davin Meggett and D.J. Adams also form a formidable backfield tandem. Meggett posted a team-high 720 rushing yards in 2010, while Adams posted a freshman school-record 11 rushing TDs. The Terps will have to replace their top two receivers in first team All-ACC pick Torrey Smith and Adrian Cannon.
- Kenny Tate, Joe Vellano and Demetrius Hartsfield highlight the seven starters back on defense. Tate (100), a 2010 first team All-ACC pick, and Hartsfield (88) are the top two tacklers back for the Terrapins. Vellano was also an all-league pick a year ago, earning second-team honors after posting a team-best 5.0 sacks. The Terps also welcome back their top two cornerbacks in seniors Cameron Chism, a two-year starter, and Trenton Hughes. Chism had 70 tackles and eight pass breakups last season, while Hughes had a team-high nine PBUs.

- Practice Access: Spring workouts, which will be held at the football practice facility, are closed. The exceptions are March 29, April 14 and April 28 when the first 40 minutes will be open to the media.
- Interview Availability: Edsall will address the media prior to practice on April 14 and April 28. Players will be available prior to practice on March 29, April 14 and April 28. Edsall and the players will also be available after the Red-White Spring game. Assistant coaches will not be available during spring practice.

QUICK HITTERS...

• The Terrapins return 75 percent of the offensive and defensive two-deep from the end of last season. There are 16 of the 22 offensive players back and 17 of 22 defenders. However, on special teams Maryland will need to replace Travis Baltz, who served as the punter and place-kicker last season, and Torrey Smith, one of the top kick returners in the nation during his three-year career.

• Despite having 45 letterwinners on the roster, the opening spring two-deep features just 10 seniors on offense (5) and defense (5).

• The Terps welcomed three scholarship newcomers to the roster in the spring. Joining the team were WR Tyrek Cheeseboro, OL Nate Clarke and WR Nigel King. Cheeseboro and Clarke signed last season, but attended prep school in the fall. King concluded his prep work in the fall.

• Danny O'Brien's passing efficiency rating of 134.5 in 2010 is tops among returning ACC signal-callers.

• Tony Logan's career punt-return average of 13.6 yards ranks second in the FBS among returning players.

• Despite starting just six career games, Davin Meggett ranks 20th in school history (see chart on pg. 4) in rushing yards (1,515).

• Eight bowl teams from last year appear on the Terps' 2011 schedule: Miami (Hyundai Sun Bowl), West Virginia (Champs Sports Bowl), Georgia Tech (AdvoCare V100 Independence Bowl), Clemson (Meineke Car Care Bowl), Boston College (Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl), Miami (Champs Sports Bowl), Florida State (Chick-fil-A) and NC State (Champs Sports Bowl).

BACK UNDER CENTER...

The Terps are fortunate to have one of the top young quarterbacks in the nation. Danny O'Brien, the 2010 ACC Freshman of the Year, showed poise and accuracy in the pocket in 2010 and was a key to the Terps' nine-win campaign. O'Brien started the last 10 games of the season and posted a 7-3 record.

Despite not starting the first three games, his 22 TD passes were third in the ACC, third in the country among freshmen and second in school history. On the season, O'Brien had an efficiency rating of 134.5, a mark that was fourth-best in the ACC and fifth among freshmen FBS QBs. The freshman All-American did a good job spreading the ball around, hitting nine receivers in one start, eight different receivers in six starts, seven receivers in one start and six in two starts. Head coach Randy Edsall was impressed with what he's seen from O'Brien. Heading into spring practice, the first-year coach called O'Brien "a student of the game." Edsall has also been impressed with the third-year player's leadership skills

LOOKING FOR PLAYMAKERS...

The Terps, who ended 2010 ranked 29th in the FBS in scoring offense (32.2 points per game) will need to replace two of their home-run threats in WR Torrey Smith and RB Da'Rel Scott. Smith, a two-time All-ACC player, posted a school record 12 touchdown receptions last season and scored three times on kickoff returns in his career. Scott was one of the top breakaway threats in the ACC during his four-year career. He was one of only four players in school history to post more than 2,000 rushing yards and 500 receiving. Scott was an all-league choice in 2008.

• Senior Quintin McCree and junior Kevin Dorsey are the top returning receivers in terms of catches. McCree had 16 receptions in 2010 and Dorsey posted 15. Surprisingly, TE Matt Furstenburg recorded a team-best 17.2 yards per reception. The junior had 206 receiving yards and is one of seven returning players who caught a TD pass last season.

• A number of other receivers will be vying for time including seniors Ronnie Tyler and Tony Logan, junior Kerry Boykins, and freshman Adrian Coxson. Tyler and Boykins spent time at slot receiver last season and combined for 23 receptions. Logan has spent most of his career as a punt returner, but has the shiftiness to be effective at receiver. Coxson impressed on the scout team last season after transferring from Florida in the summer. Others expected to get a look are freshmen Devin Burns, Nigel King and Tyrek Cheeseboro. Burns moved from quarterback to receiver in the off-season.

• Despite not starting a game last season, senior Davin Meggett led the team in rushing. He posted a career-high 720 rushing yards and showed a quicker burst than he had his first two years. Meggett had eight offensive plays (six rushes/two receptions) of 20 or more yards, which was second on the team behind Smith's 15. Sophomore D.J. Adams was the short-yardage specialist last season. He only averaged 3.6 yards per carry but posted a freshman school-record 11 rushing TDs. That mark was tied for second in the ACC last season. Gary Douglas also hopes to get in the mix at tailback. The junior, who is one of the team's shifter backs, played in just two games last season due mostly to injuries.

OFFENSIVE STARTERS RETURNING/LOST...

Starters Returning (6)

OL Andrew Gonnella Sr.-2V 6-5, 295
• A two-year starter at guard ... started all 13 games at left guard in 2010 ... only o-lineman to start every game at the same position.

OL Bennett Fulper Jr.-2V 6-4, 295
• Played in all 13 games in 2010, starting the final seven games at center.

OL Justin Lewis Jr.-2V 6-3, 315
• Started 12 of 13 games at right guard in 2010 ... has 15 career starts, all at right guard.

OL R.J. Dill Jr.-2V 6-7, 300
• A two-year starter at right tackle ... can also play left tackle, starting there for 10 games last season due to Justin Gilbert's knee injury.

TE Matt Furstenburg Jr.-2V 6-4, 245
• Has played in 26 career games with 12 starts ... posted 12 receptions last season which ranks fourth on the team among returnees.

QB Danny O'Brien So.-1V 6-3, 215
• One of the top young QBs in the nation ... 2010 ACC Freshman of the Year and freshman All-American ... 22 TD passes rank No. 2 on single-season school list.

Starters Lost (5)

WR Torrey Smith 3V 6-1, 200
• A two-time All-ACC choice ... ended his career No. 7 on the ACC's all-purpose yardage chart (5,264) ... third on the Terps' career receptions list (152) and second in receiving yards (2,215)

WR Adrian Cannon 4V 6-2, 204
• Had 23 career starts at wide receiver ... second on the team in receptions in 2010 (36) ... ended his career ranked 17th in school history with 86 receptions.

OL Paul Pinegar 4V 6-4, 290
• A 2010 honorable mention All-ACC choice ... played in 36 career games, starting 25 contests at four of the five positions (all but right guard).

RB Da'Rel Scott 4V 5-11, 200
• A 2008 first-team All-ACC choice ... ended his career seventh on the Maryland career rushing chart (2,401) ... one of four players in school history to post 2,000 career rushing yards and 500 receiving yards.

RB Taylor Watson 3V 6-2, 240
• Played in 28 career games ... after a 2010 preseason injury, played in the final 11 games, including three starts at fullback ... began the spring with the team, but will graduate this summer and not play in the fall.

DEFENSIVE STARTERS RETURNING/LOST...

Starters Returning (7)

DL Joe Vellano Jr.-2V 6-2, 285
 • A 2010 second team All-ACC selection ... started at defensive tackle in all 13 games and posted a team-high 5.0 sacks last season.

DL A.J. Francis Jr.-2V 6-4, 295
 • Has played in all 25 games the last two seasons at nose tackle ... a 2009 freshman All-American.

DL Justin Anderson Jr.-2V 6-5, 275
 • Started all 13 games an anchor last season ... ranked tied for seventh on the team in tackles for loss (5.5) in 2010.

LB Demetrius Hartsfield So.-1V 6-2, 235
 • A two-year starter at Will LB ... ranked third on the team in tackles (88) and fourth in TFL (6.5) last season ... a 2009 freshman All-ACC choice.

DB Cameron Chism Sr.-3V 5-10, 190
 • A two-year starter at cornerback ... has played in all 25 games the last two seasons ... tied for second on the team in PBUs (eight) last season ... had a team-best four INTs in 2009.

DB Trenton Hughes Sr.-3V 5-10, 190
 • Started all 13 games at cornerback last season ... led the team in pass breakups (nine).

Starters Lost (4)

DL Drew Gloster 3V 6-2, 255
 • Played in 35 career games, including 12 starts, all in 2010 ... found a home at DE after moving there in the spring of 2010.

LB Alex Wujciak 3V 6-3, 245
 • A three-time All-ACC selection (second team in 2008; first team in 2009 and 2010) ... started every game (38) of his career at middle linebacker ... 10th in school history with 381 career tackles.

LB Adrian Moten 4V 6-2, 230
 • Started all 25 games his final two seasons ... 15.5 career sacks ranks 12th in school history ... also 14th on the book in career tackles for loss (24.0) and eighth in yardage (145).

SS Antwine Perez 3V 6-1, 210
 • Played in all 38 games during his three seasons after transferring from USC ... tied for sixth in the ACC and tied for 64th nationally in passes defended (0.85 pg) in 2010.

MORE EXPERIENCED O-LINE...

After suffering through injuries on the offensive line the last two seasons, the Terps appear to have a more stable unit this year. Maryland has four starters back from last season - Andrew Gonnella, Bennett Fulper, Justin Lewis and R.J. Dill - and three other players who have started games - Justin Gilbert, Pete White and Pete DeSouza. Gonnella and Dill are the most experienced of the linemen, having each played in 25 career games with 21 starts a piece. Lewis has 15 starts under his belt and Fulper has 11, including the final seven last season at center. Gilbert was the starter at left tackle for the first three games in 2010 before suffering a left knee injury and missing the remainder of the year. He entered the spring back atop the depth chart, but injured the same knee in the first week of practice during a non-contact drill. He had surgery and is expected to be out of action until October. DeSouza, who was injured in a scooter accident last season, will not practice this spring while continuing his rehabilitation. Max Garcia is a highly-regarded tackle prospect. Garcia played in two of the final three games last season as a true freshman. He moved to the top of the depth chart at left tackle with the injury to Gilbert. White played in eight games at guard last season and had one start on the right side. Others hoping to figure into the mix with the second unit include De'Onte Arnett, Sal Conaboy, Josh Cary and Nick Klemm.

ADJUSTMENTS AT LINEBACKER...

One of the strongest units on the defense the last two seasons was linebacker. But with three-year starter and three time all-league performer Alex Wujciak gone, along with two-year starter and playmaker Adrian Moten, the Terps have holes to fill. Junior Demetrius Hartsfield has the most experience at the position having started two years at Will. Hartsfield, who has 152 career tackles (second on the team), will move inside to the Mike position with Darin Drakeford, the top LB reserve last season, switching from Sam to Will. Junior Ryan Donohue (Mike) and redshirt freshman Lorne Goree (Will) are among those expected to contribute in reserve roles. Senior Kenny Tate, a 2010 first team All-ACC pick, has moved from safety to the Star position (hybrid strong safety and outside linebacker position) in order to get the best 11 defenders on the field. "When you take a look at his abilities, he's better suited to being a linebacker," head coach Randy Edsall said. Tate, who had 8.5 tackles for loss and 3.5 sacks last season, made the move to Star along with redshirt freshmen Mario Rowson and Desmond Kearse. Tate, who played at all three levels of the defense in 2010, ranked seventh in the ACC in tackles (7.7 per game). He also led the conference and tied for 15th in the FBS in forced fumbles (0.31 per game). Kearse saw limited action early last season before his true freshman year was cut short with an injury.

...by the numbers

1...Andrew Gonnella is the only senior offensive lineman on the Maryland roster.

1...Kenny Tate is Maryland's active career leader in tackles (162) and interceptions (five).

2...Former head coaches (Gary Crowton, Greg Gattuso) on Randy Edsall's staff.

2...Maryland's seven-game improvement in the win column from 2009 to 2010 ranked second in the FBS (Miami [Ohio] - eight).

3...Number of full-time punters (Brooks Barnard, Adam Podlesh and Travis Baltz) the Terps have employed in the last 10 years. Baltz started the last four seasons.

4...The Terps scored four times on defense in 2010 which was tied for sixth in the FBS.

4...Maryland tied for fourth nationally in turnover margin (+1.15 pg) last season. The Terps, plus-15 on the year, won the turnover battle in 10 of 13 games.

6...The Terps have scored six defensive touchdowns in their last 16 games.

7...The Terps have seven of their top 10 tacklers back from last season.

13...R.J. Dill and Andrew Gonnella have each started 13 consecutive games which leads the offense.

19...Despite starting just 10 career games, Danny O'Brien's passing yardage total (2,438) already ranks 19th in school history (see chart on pg. 4).

20...Number of points the opposition scored off 14 Maryland turnovers last season. In contrast, the Terps scored 100 points off 29 opponent turnovers.

23...Cameron Chism's 23 consecutive starts are tops on the team.

137...The Terps have not had a punt blocked since Nov. 13, 1999 (Florida State), a stretch of 137 games, which is the longest active streak in the nation.

SECONDARY ROLES...

With Kenny Tate's move to linebacker, Maryland has two returning starters in the secondary in senior cornerbacks Cameron Chism and Trenton Hughes. Chism, a two-year starter, has 144 career tackles (third on the team) and four interceptions, while Hughes had a team-high nine PBUs in 2010. That duo combined to start all 13 games last season. Dexter McDougale served as the No. 3 cornerback last season and is listed as the backup to Hughes this spring. Redshirt freshman Jeremiah Johnson is backing up Chism this spring. Sophomore Avery Graham has seen most of his time on special teams, but should figure into the cornerback rotation in the fall. He is rehabbing from shoulder surgery and will be limited in the spring. Graham will however run sprints on the track team. Junior Eric Franklin and sophomore Matt Robinson enter the spring atop the depth chart at safety and while neither has been a full-time starter, both played extensively last season. Franklin played in 11 games, posting 23 tackles and three interceptions (tied for second on the team). Robinson, meanwhile, played in all 13 games and posted 29 tackles and forced a pair of fumbles (tied for second on the team). Austin Walker, a three-year letterwinner, is a veteran reserve safety. He has played sparingly in the secondary, but has been a standout on special teams. Redshirt freshman Titus Till, a highly-regarded prospect, is also one of the reserves at safety. Anthony Green and Desmond Haynes will provide depth behind the first and second-team safeties.

ON THE D-LINE...

The Terps need to replace just one starter along the defensive line in Drew Gloster. They have seven players back, including three starters, who saw extensive action in 2010. All-ACC pick Joe Vellano and A.J. Francis should man the interior, along with Maurice Hampton and Justin Anderson, who played the anchor (strongside DE) in 2010. Vellano posted a team-high five sacks last year, while Francis chipped in a career-high 44 tackles. Isaiah Ross and Bradley Johnson each saw time at defensive end. Ross chipped in 4.5 tackles for loss and 2.5 sacks, which ranked tied for fourth on the team. Johnson is a converted outside linebacker who gave the team speed off the edge. New to the position is sophomore David Mackall, a gifted defender, who moves from Mike LB to Rock, a defensive end position. Mackall had three sacks last year in passing situations which ranked third on the team. He also chipped in an interception in the Military Bowl. Redshirt freshmen Clarence Murphy and Ian Evans are behind Ross at defensive end, while Johnson and Marcus Whitfield will back up Mackall. Whitfield is another speedy defensive end, but he is coming off a knee injury suffered early in the 2010 season. Andre Monroe, Zachariah Kerr, Darius Kilgo will also battle for time.

SPECIAL TEAMS MAKEOVER...

Maryland will have to replace a number of its special-teams performers from last season as punt returner Tony Logan and long snapper Tim Downs are the lone holdovers. Travis Baltz was the punter the last four seasons and also handled the place-kicking last year. Baltz ended his career ranked fifth in school history in punting average (41.2) and third in punting yards (9,224). He also set the Maryland single-season school record for consecutive PATs

SPECIALISTS STARTERS RETURNING/LOST...

Starters Returning (2)

PR Tony Logan Sr.-3V 5-10, 180
 • A 2010 first team All-ACC performer ... returned two punts for scores last season ... averaged 18.1 ypr which was third in the FBS.

LS Tim Downs Sr.-2V 6-0, 230
 • Has not had a punt blocked in his two seasons as starter; Terps have not had a punt blocked in last 137 games.

Starters Lost (3)

P/PK Travis Baltz 4V 6-3, 210
 • Four-year starter at punter (2008 All-ACC) ... also served as No. 1 place-kicker in 2010 ... ended his career ranked fifth in school history in punting average (41.2).

KR Torrey Smith 3V 6-1, 200
 • Ranks first in both school and ACC history in career kickoff return yards (2,983) ... had three career kickoff returns for TDs.

(47 in 2010) and connected on 14 of 18 field goals last season. The Terps also have to replace the production of Torrey Smith, the team's kick returner the last three seasons. Smith had 2,983 career kickoff return yards (ACC record) and three touchdowns (school record). Maryland has options as replacements for both Baltz and Smith. Nick Ferrara was the team's starting place-kicker in 2009 and went on to earn freshman All-America honors. Ferrara got hurt during preseason camp last season and was unable to wrestle the job back from Baltz. Ferrara did serve as the kickoff specialist in 2010. Ferrara and redshirt freshman Michael Tart are the lone kickers on the spring roster and will split duties between the two jobs. Nate Renfro, who signed in February, will join the team in the summer and figure into the kicking rotation this fall. Logan seems to be the likely candidate as the punt returner after earning first team All-ACC honors and ranking third in the FBS in average (18.1) last season. Dexter McDougale, Trenton Hughes, Avery Graham and Logan are among those who returned kickoffs last season in Smith's absence.

POSITION CHANGES...

There were a few position changes in the off-season:

- Justin Anderson: Anchor (strongside DE) to DT
- Devin Burns: QB to WR
- Darin Drakeford: Sam LB to Will LB
- Demetrius Hartsfield: Will LB to Mike LB
- Desmond Kears: Safety to Star (OLB/Safety)
- David Mackall: Mike LB to DE
- Mario Rowson: Safety to Star (OLB/Safety)
- Kenny Tate: Safety to Star (OLB/Safety)
- Jeremiah Wilson: DB to RB

COACHING STAFF AT-A-GLANCE...

With Randy Edsall taking over the reins of the Maryland football program in January most of the staff has turned over. Tom Brattan (11th year as offensive line coach) and Lee Hull (fourth year as wide receivers coach) and lone holdovers. Here are brief sketches of the seven new assistant coaches:

• Todd Bradford (defensive coordinator/secondary) has served as a coordinator on both sides of the ball, including the last three seasons as the DC and secondary coach at Southern Mississippi. The Golden Eagles' rushing defense ranked No. 13 (113.0 yards per game) in the FBS in 2010. They were also No. 14 in third-down conversions (34 percent) and No. 30 in turnovers gained. Bradford has also coached at Oklahoma State, BYU and Louisiana. Bradford was hired by Edsall in January as the inside linebackers coach, but was elevated to defensive coordinator (as well as handling the secondary) when Don Brown left for UConn.

• Gary Crowton (offensive coordinator/QBs) spent the last four seasons as offensive coordinator at LSU. Despite having three different starting quarterbacks in his tenure, the Tigers set a number of offensive records. The Tigers averaged over 30 points a game in his first two seasons, including a school-record 38.6 points a contest in 2007 when LSU won the national title. He has also been a head coach at BYU (2001-04) and Louisiana Tech (1996-98) and an offensive coordinator with the Chicago Bears (1999-00) and Oregon Ducks (2005-06). Crowton has coached seven quarterbacks who have gone on to be selected in the NFL Draft.

• Keith Dudzinski (inside linebackers) served as the defensive coordinator at UMass-Amherst the last seven years, including five under former Maryland assistant Don Brown, who was the Minutemen's head coach from 2004-08. During Dudzinski's time as defensive coordinator at UMass, the Minutemen maintained one of the top units in the nation. They finished among the top 20 in total defense three times (third in 2005; 20th in 2006; 13th in 2007). UMass was also first nationally in scoring defense in 2005 and fifth in 2006.

• John Dunn (tight ends/recruiting coordinator) spent the last three seasons as a graduate offensive assistant under Crowton with the LSU Tigers who went 11-2 in 2010. Dunn played quarterback and tight end for North Carolina from 2001-03 before spending four seasons on the Tar Heels staff.

• Greg Gattuso (defensive line) spent the last six seasons at Pittsburgh. The Panthers were one of the top sack producers in the nation the last two years. Brandon Lindsey (10.0) and Jabaal Sheard (9.0) both ranked in the top 20 nationally in sacks during the 2010 regular season and Pittsburgh led the nation in that category in 2009 (3.6 per game). Gattuso, the former head coach at Duquesne (1992-04), initially joined the Pitt staff as tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator. In his first season, he helped the Panthers sign a recruiting class rated 10th in the nation by Scout.com. Gattuso was twice named the national Mid-Major I-AA Coach of the Year at Duquesne and was a seven-time MAAC Coach of the Year.

• Lyndon Johnson (special teams/outside linebackers) was on Edsall's staff at Connecticut, serving in a variety of roles. The UConn graduate coached tight ends and special teams his first three seasons (1999-01) before handling the outside linebackers his final nine years. He also coached special teams from 2005 through 2010. The Huskies were ninth in the FBS in kickoff returns in 2009 (25.8 yards per return) and Robert McClain ranked 18th nationally in punt returns (12.6 ypr). Johnson had the top kick returner in the nation this past season in Nick Williams who averaged 35.3 yards per attempt and had two touchdowns.

• Andre Powell (running backs) spent the last four seasons at Clemson where he coached running backs and coordinated the special teams his final three years. He tutored All-ACC running backs James Davis and C.J. Spiller, two of the top three rushers in Clemson history. Spiller finished his career No. 2 in NCAA FBS history in all-purpose running. The Tigers went to a bowl game every year Powell was at Clemson and finished in the top 25 of the final AP poll in 2007 and 2009. Maryland is Powell's fourth stop in the ACC, having also coached at Virginia (1996-00) and North Carolina (2001-06).

TERPS AND THE NFL DRAFT...

• Maryland, which has another potential first-round draft choice in wide receiver Torrey Smith, had two players (Bruce Campbell, Nolan Carroll) selected in the 2010 NFL Draft. The year before, the Terps had five players taken in the NFL Draft (WR Darrius Heyward-Bey, CB Kevin Barnes, LB Moise Fokou, OL Jaimie Thomas, and TE Dan Gronkowski), which was the most since 2004 when the Terps also had five players chosen. The five selections were also the most for an ACC school in 2009.

• The Terps have had 20 players drafted in the last seven seasons and at least two players selected in

On the coaching staff's general philosophy:

"It's going to be Maryland's system. It's not Randy Edsall's system, it's not any west coast system. It's going to be Maryland's system. Our systems will be based on our players, but we're going to be multiple. We have the personnel where we can be multiple on both sides of the ball. That's what we're going to do. We're going to incorporate a lot of things that we want to do. We'll find out - what do we do best? And that's what we'll find out this spring."

On his offensive philosophy and OC Gary Crowton:

"You always take your personnel, look at it, and determine your strengths and weaknesses. We want to accentuate those strengths and improve on the weaknesses. In terms of putting an offensive staff together, the one thing that I wanted to be able to do was to make sure that we would be balanced in terms of running the ball and throwing it. I want to be multiple offensively. Again, you want to put the pressure on the defense, you want to be multiple, but yet you want to be simplistic so the guys can play fast and hard. When the opportunity presented itself to get Gary Crowton from LSU, it was something that I was very excited about. I had the opportunity to work with Gary at Boston College and we had a very good relationship. I brought him in to talk to my staff before, and so we developed a relationship. I just thought it would be a great fit. We're expecting really good things, but we'll have a balanced attack. We're a team that's going to be aggressive and be able to stretch the field both horizontally and vertically. We're also going to balance the run and the pass so defenses can't get a bead on us and they're not sure exactly what we're going to be doing."

On sophomore QB Danny O'Brien:

"I really like Danny. He's a guy who is a student of the game. He's a leader. He's a worker. He's a guy who loves the game of football and the mental part of football. What he's got to do is go out there and work to be better, learn a new system and be a leader on the football team. Everything I've seen from him so far I like, I like the fact that we have C.J. Brown, Tyler Smith and those guys. I think we're in a very good situation at the quarterback position."

On his defensive philosophy and DC Todd Bradford:

"Todd was the defensive coordinator at Louisiana Tech and Southern Miss so when he was hired I knew he could eventually be elevated, as well as other guys on staff who I feel very comfortable. When the opportunity presented itself, I sat down with Todd and Greg Gattuso and some other people, and it became apparent Todd Bradford was the best fit for our philosophy. We're going to be a multiple defense. We're going to be a defense that is going to be sound fundamentally. We're going to do things right technically. We're going to concentrate on creating turnovers, and that's always been a philosophy of mine. I think it has to be an aggressive, attacking style where we can dictate to the offense and not let the offense dictate to us. The biggest thing is having a system that the kids feel comfortable in. One they can learn, and then go out there and play fast in because the faster they play, the more plays they make and the more turnovers we can create."

On switching Kenny Tate from strong safety to linebacker:

"When you watch the tape of Kenny from a year ago, almost 90 percent of the time he was playing down. He wasn't playing back in the deep half, the quarters or a post player. When you take a look at his abilities, he's better suited to being a linebacker. And he's better suited for being a linebacker for his future after playing at the University of Maryland. In terms of my having coached in the NFL and had an opportunity to work with guys at that level - when you watch Kenny, his best position as far as we're concerned, is being a linebacker."

On the 2011 schedule:

"When you take a look at the schedule, it is demanding, but that is the way you want it. We get Miami in the season opener, then we have a week off and we get West Virginia at home. We follow that up with two more non-conference games (Temple and Towson) and then we're into the heart and soul of ACC play."

"Our bye comes the second week, so we have to make sure we are in tremendous condition. We have to be in the best shape possible because we're going to play a week, then have a week off and play 11 straight weeks. We have seven home games, and play an eighth game right here at FedExField against Notre Dame, then we end up with two on the road against Wake Forest and NC State. It is challenging, but as a competitor that is something you want. You want a schedule that is challenging because it is going to bring more focus and attention to all of the workouts."

RANDY EDSALL

Head Coach
Syracuse '80 • First Year

With a reputation as a top-notch builder, leader and recruiter, Randy Edsall is in his first season as Maryland's head football coach.

Edsall, who is originally from nearby Glen Rock, Pa., spent the previous 12 seasons as head coach at the University of Connecticut where he took the program from FCS (formerly Division I-AA) status to five bowl games, including a BCS contest.

Edsall, who was hired in January as the 34th head coach in Maryland history, guided the Huskies to a pair of Big East Conference titles (2007, 2010) and postseason appearances in each of his final four years, including the 2011 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

The 2010 Big East Coach of the Year, who also had a successful run as an NFL assistant, led UConn to eight or more wins in each of the last four seasons as the Huskies successfully made the ascent to the FBS (formerly Division I-A). In fact, Connecticut was 33-19 over the last four seasons, including a pair of bowl wins.

UConn is also the first program to go from FBS newcomer to BCS bowl participant in only seven years.

During his time in Storrs, the program blossomed from a major college football newcomer upon his arrival to a team that made five bowl appearances in the past seven years. He left as the school's all-time leader in career wins (74) and most games coached (144). Edsall was also an impressive 65-46 (.586) in the school's first nine FBS seasons (since 2002).

The 2010 Huskies were typical of a hard working, blue-collar Edsall team. After starting out 3-4, including 0-2 in the league, UConn finished the year with five consecutive Big East wins to earn the conference championship and a spot in the BCS.

UConn's trip to the 2011 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl marked its fifth bowl trip since 2004. The Huskies defeated South Carolina in the Papajohns.com Bowl by a 20-7 score. Edsall guided Connecticut to a 38-20 win over Buffalo in the 2009 International Bowl, led the team to a victory in the 2004 Motor City Bowl and an appearance in the 2007 Meineke Car Care Bowl.

Edsall's Huskies won their final three regular season games in 2009 - including a historic double-overtime win over Notre Dame. UConn posted a 7-5 regular season record facing the 25th-toughest schedule in the country. In 2007, the Bryant and Munger Coach of the Year Award finalist helped guide UConn to a share of its first-ever Big East Championship in a season where the Huskies were picked to finish seventh in the league.

Edsall is a three-time recipient (2007, 09, 10) of the Bowl Championship Division Head Coach of the Year in New England by the Gridiron Club of Greater Boston.

Edsall has also become a prominent voice in the college football community, as he is a member of the American Football Coaches Association Board of Trustees and the NCAA Football Rules Committee.

UConn joined the Big East Conference in 2004, finishing just one win shy of tying for the league championship. The Huskies led the conference in total defense each of their first two years and again in 2008. During its debut season in 2004, UConn also led the Big East in total offense. UConn finished in the national top 20 for total offense (2003, 2004) and total defense (2002, 2005, 2008) in multiple seasons. The Huskies finished an impressive sixth in the country in total defense in 2008.

Under Edsall's guidance, the Huskies defeated members of the Atlantic Coast Conference, Big East, Big Ten, Big 12, Conference USA and Southeastern Conference during their Football Bowl Subdivision tenure.

In addition to the great success on the field, UConn has performed admirably in the classroom under Edsall. In five of the past seven years, including 2007, '08 and '09, UConn was recognized by the American Football Coaches Association for its high graduation rate.

UConn was the top team in the NCAA's Graduation Success Rate (GSR) of both October 2008 and '09 among league schools. The Huskies were third in the Big East in the 2010 GSR release and within four points of second.

In 2008, UConn had the highest GSR for African-American student-athletes among all state universities that participated in a bowl game following the 2008 season.

In 2009, the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate (APR) for the UConn football team was an impressive 951, which was third in the Big East Conference and just five points behind the second-place team. That mark also placed Connecticut ahead of the Bowl Subdivision average of 941 and among the top 30 percent of schools in the country.

In 2007, UConn was one of just six schools to play in a bowl game and also boast a GSR over 80-percent for both its Caucasian and African-American student-athletes. In 2003, UConn was the only public Division I-A school to graduate at least 90 percent of its football players and in 2005, UConn was one of only eight schools to both graduate 70 percent and win a bowl game.

Even in its first season at the Division I-A level, UConn was able to make its mark on the national scene.

Edsall guided the 2002 team to a 6-6 record in its first year with a full complement of 85 scholarships. UConn ended the 2002 season impressively, registering four straight wins to reach the .500 mark, including season-ending road wins at Navy and at bowl-bound Iowa State.

UConn's .500 season was its best record since the squad won 10 games in 1998. The Huskies' six wins were more than the Huskies posted in 2000 (three) and 2001 (two) combined. In 2002, the Huskies were the most improved Division I-A team in the country, according to preseason and postseason ratings by College Football News.

The excitement for Edsall and his team continued to swell in 2003 as the Huskies moved into their new home, Rentschler Field, and enjoyed the nation's largest attendance increase (+ 21,252 fans per game).

Finishing with a 9-3 record, many national media outlets, including Bristol-based ESPN, proclaimed that UConn should have received a bowl berth, a feat highly-uncommon for an independent team.

With their membership in the Big East for the 2004 season, another strong campaign by the Huskies resulted in a bowl berth. UConn went 8-4 against a challenging slate that fall as the program gained its highest ever level of exposure. The Huskies capped their historic season with a resounding 39-10 win over Mid-American Conference Champion Toledo in the Motor City Bowl.

The 2007 season witnessed a new level of excitement in Storrs as the Huskies earned their first ever national rankings, peaking at No. 13 in the BCS standings on Nov. 5. UConn became just the second Big East team to ever go 7-0 at home and defeat three teams there which were ranked in the Top 10 at some point during the season. The Big East Champion Huskies finished that season at 9-4 with a berth in the Meineke Car Care Bowl, earning Edsall New England Division I Coach of the Year accolades.

Edsall was named the 27th head football coach at the University of Connecticut on December 21, 1998. He brought 19 years of coaching experience to the Husky program, including 15 seasons on the collegiate level and three in the NFL.

Edsall joined the Huskies after completing the 1998 season as the defensive coordinator at Georgia Tech, where he helped the 14th-ranked Yellow Jackets complete a 9-2 campaign.

Prior to joining the staff at Georgia Tech, Edsall spent three seasons as the secondary coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars. In his three seasons on Tom Coughlin's staff, Edsall was a part of one of the most successful expansion franchises in the history of the NFL. The Jaguars reached the playoffs twice, including a berth in the 1996 AFC Championship Game.

Edsall began his coaching career in 1980 at his alma mater, Syracuse University. A former quarterback for the Orangemen, Edsall started as a graduate assistant from 1980-82. In 1983, Orange head coach Dick MacPherson named Edsall to oversee the running backs.

Edsall coached running backs for three seasons (1983-84 and 1986) and oversaw the tight ends in 1985 before making the switch to the defensive side of the ball. He coached the Syracuse defensive backs from 1987-1990 and during that period the Orangemen were ranked among the Division I-A leaders in pass defense.

Edsall was a three-year letterwinner in football, basketball and baseball at Susquehannock High School (Pa.). He was an all-state selection in all three sports in his senior season and was inducted into the York Area Sports Hall of Fame.

He went on to Syracuse, where he was a member of the football team and earned one varsity letter as a quarterback for the Orangemen. He was a member of the Syracuse squad that captured the 1979 Independence Bowl title under head coach Frank Maloney.

Edsall earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Syracuse in 1980 and added a master's degree from the Big East school in health and physical education in 1982.

Edsall was honored with the Leadership Award at the Martin Luther King, Jr., Holiday National Liberty Bell Ringing Celebration in Hartford, Conn., in January, 2010. He was honored this last fall by the UConn Alumni Association as an honorary alumnus of the school.

Edsall was an active member of the community and has supported a number of charitable events over the years.

He and his wife, Eileen, a former basketball and volleyball letterwinner at Syracuse, have a daughter, Alexi (21), who is a junior at UConn, and a son, Corey (18), a senior at East Catholic High School in Manchester, Conn., who plays football and baseball.

2011 RECRUITING CLASS OVERVIEW

Maryland signed 19 student-athletes to national letters-of-intent for the 2011 football season in February.

Head coach Randy Edsall said the Terps fulfilled a number of needs on both sides of the ball. There are five offensive linemen and five defensive backs in the class.

"We were able to add speed and athleticism in the skill positions," Edsall said. "We also added depth in the offensive line. There are guys on defense who can run and have the ability to make plays."

Four of the recruits hail from the Maryland/Washington, D.C., area, including WR Tyrek Cheeseboro, OL Nathaniel Clarke and DB A.J. Hendy, all ranked nationally among the top prospects are their positions.

Cheeseboro and Clarke, who both attended Fork Union Military in the fall, as well as WR Nigel King did not sign letters. That trio enrolled in classes in January and will take part in spring practice.

Four more student-athletes are from talent-rich Florida, including DL Keith Bowers and DBs Undray Clark, Makinton Dorleant and Lukas Foreman.

King is one of three North Carolina products, joining OL Ryan Doyle and WR Marcus Leak. King was the 11th-ranked prospect in the state according to Scout.com. Leak is the 24th-ranked player in the state according to Rivals.com.

King and Leak helped the Terps reel in the 20th-best wide-receiver class in the nation according to Rivals.com.

"It was important that we add quality depth at receiver with three seniors on the roster," Edsall said.

The Terps also added a pair of players from both Pennsylvania and Delaware.

DE Quinton Jefferson, a Pittsburgh native, should add even more speed and play-making ability to the defensive line after posting 16 sacks in 2010, while OL Andrew Zeller (Red Lion, Pa.) was a second-team all-state choice in the fall.

OL Evan Mulrooney and RB Brandon Ross are two of the top four players in the state of Delaware.

"We helped ourselves at the running back position," Edsall said.

FB Tyler Cierski is the second-ranked fullback in the nation according to Scouts, Inc., while Ross was a 2010 second team all-state choice.

With the loss of four-year starter Travis Baltz, the Terps went out and signed a punter. Nathan Renfro was an All-Tennessee selection last season after handling both of the kicking chores.

The Terps also added a pair of linebackers in Cole Farrand and Alex Twine and an all-state offensive lineman in Stephen Grommer, who hails from Spartanburg, S.C.

2011 University of Maryland Football Notes: Spring Prospectus

GAME1

Sept. 6, 2010

Maryland 17, Navy 14

BALTIMORE - Navy dominated the time of possession, outgained Maryland by nearly 200 yards and made 15 more first downs.

None of this lessened the enjoyment the Terrapins derived from their 17-14 victory.

Kenny Tate stopped Ricky Dobbs at the goal line with 34 seconds left, and Maryland stunned their in-state rivals to break a seven-game losing streak that began last October.

The Midshipmen (0-1) held the ball for nearly 19 minutes longer than Maryland (1-0), amassed 485 yards and collected 26 first downs. But in a game influenced by untimely turnovers and huge penalties, the outcome was decided by a gritty goal-line stand.

Trailing 17-14 with a fourth down at the 1, Navy decided to go for the win. Dobbs took the snap, went to his left and was met by Tate, who would not relent to the momentum Dobbs brought to the line.

Maryland raced to a 14-0 lead in the first quarter and then held on behind a defense that repeatedly excelled after Navy got inside the 20.

The Midshipmen had a 7 1/2-minute edge in time of possession in the first half, yet trailed 14-7 after coming up empty on drives of 52, 63 and 66 yards.

In the second half, Dobbs lost a fumble at the Maryland 1 and was stuffed by Tate on the game's pivotal play. Dobbs ran for 63 yards and a touchdown, but the senior quarterback fumbled three times -- losing two of them at the Maryland 1.

Navy didn't punt until early in the fourth quarter, and the short kick was returned 57 yards by Tony Logan to the Navy 16.

Maryland promptly fumbled the ball away on a missed exchange.

The Midshipmen pulled even at 14 with 1:52 left in the third quarter when Dobbs scored from the 1 on a drive that began with wide receiver Greg Jones running 53 yards on a reverse.

A crowd of 69,348 showed up for the second meeting between the teams since 1965.

GAME2

Maryland 62, Morgan State 3

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - With Maryland coming off an emotional win and playing with only four days rest, coach Ralph Friedgen was worried about how the Terrapins would fare against in-state foe Morgan State. He got the answer rather quickly.

Maryland scored on its first three possessions Saturday night, and the Terrapins enjoyed their highest-scoring performance in 35 years with a 62-3 rout.

Despite the quick turnaround following Monday's win over Navy, the Terrapins reached the 62-point mark for the first time since a 62-24 blowout against Virginia on Nov. 22, 1975. It was also Maryland's largest victory margin since a 61-0 win over the Citadel on Sept. 13, 2003.

Maryland has already matched its victory total from last season and owns its first winning streak since 2008.

Morgan State (1-1) gained only six yards in the first half and finished with 85 - the fewest allowed by Maryland since Friedgen arrived in 2001.

Morgan State's lone score came on a 39-yard field goal by Kemar Scarlett in the third quarter.

Maryland backup quarterback Danny O'Brien entered for starter Jamarr Robinson in the second quarter with the score 24-0. On his third play, O'Brien unleashed his first career throw: a 27-yard touchdown pass to wide-open tight end Matt Furstenberg.

A 37-yard punt return by Tony Logan led to a 24-yard TD pass from O'Brien to Torrey Smith, and O'Brien closed out Maryland's prolific first half by connecting with running back Da'Rel Scott on a 22-yard score.

Robinson also had his first game with multiple touchdown passes, connecting with Smith on a 5-yarder and Adrian Cannon for 19 yards to end Maryland's first two possessions.

Late in the first quarter, a 6-yard punt by the Bears set up a 47-yard field goal by Travis Baltz for a 17-0 lead.

With the Bears backed up on their own 11, Maryland's Demetrius Hartsfield intercepted a Dickinson pass at the 14 and coasted into the end zone for a 24-0 lead.

No. 21 West Virginia 31, Maryland 17

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. - Jamarr Robinson had third-quarter touchdown passes of 60 and 80 yards to Torrey Smith, but a fast start lifted No. 21 West Virginia past Maryland, 31-17, on Saturday.

Geno Smith threw a career-high four touchdown passes for the Mountaineers, while Noel Devine rushed for a season-high 131 yards.

Smith, a sophomore making his third career start, had two scoring tosses apiece to sophomore Tavon Austin and redshirt freshman Stedman Bailey as West Virginia (3-0) jumped ahead 28-0 early in the third quarter.

Except for Geno Smith's 5-yard scoring toss to Bailey to start the third quarter, West Virginia struggled on offense after halftime as it tried to eat up clock time. Smith finished 19 of 29 for 268 yards.

Torrey Smith caught three passes for 149 yards. His TD catches cut Maryland's deficit to 28-14. Terps added a 35-yard field goal from Travis Baltz in the fourth quarter.

West Virginia then put the game out of reach behind fullback Ryan Clarke, who carried eight straight times on the ensuing 16-play drive that ate up nearly nine minutes of clock and ended with Tyler Bitancurt's 23-yard field goal with three minutes left for the final margin.

Maryland was trying for a 3-0 start for the first time since coach Ralph Friedgen's first season in 2001.

Austin had a big day against the Terrapins with seven catches for 106 yards to add to his team-leading totals. Early in the game, he caught a 15-yard pass, threw a key block that sprang Devine on a 50-yard run, then caught a 6-yard scoring pass from Smith on a crossing route.

After West Virginia got the ball back near midfield, Geno Smith avoided the blitz and hit Sanders on a 32-yard pass play to set up Smith's 5-yard TD toss to a wide-open Austin for a 14-0 lead.

Bailey took over from there, stretching high to snare a 26-yard scoring pass in the back of the end zone early in the second.

Maryland entered the game averaging 241 yards rushing but was held to minus-10. Bruce Irvin had three of West Virginia's eight sacks.

Maryland 42, FIU 28

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Redshirt freshman quarterback Danny O'Brien threw for 250 yards and two touchdowns, and the Terrapins got an 85-yard punt return from Tony Logan in a 42-28 victory over winless FIU.

O'Brien completed 18 of 27 passes despite being bothered by a high ankle sprain for two weeks. His backup was Logan, a wide receiver, because junior Jamarr Robinson couldn't even lift his arm before the game.

O'Brien brought the Terps back from an early 7-0 deficit and directed two long scoring drives after FIU pulled into a tie at 21.

Da'Rel Scott ran for 103 yards and two touchdowns for the Terrapins (3-1), who have already exceeded their win total of last year. Torrey Smith had eight catches for 159 yards and a score.

Wes Carroll went 35 for 58 for 355 yards for FIU (0-3). He threw two TD passes but was intercepted twice.

FIU amassed 472 yards on a whopping 98 snaps, but the Terrapins made the big plays when it counted most.

After the Panthers got within a touchdown with 4:16 left, Maryland's Davin Meggett ran for a 76-yard touchdown on the next play from scrimmage to clinch the victory.

Down 21-14 at halftime, FIU got a 5-yard touchdown pass from Carroll to Jonathan Faucher with 5:34 left in the third quarter.

After the kickoff, a pass interference call wiped out a third-down incompletion. On the next play, O'Brien lofted a 68-yard touchdown pass to Smith to put the Terrapins on top to stay.

A 9-yard run by Scott made it 35-21, and FIU subsequently missed two chances to get within a touchdown after getting inside the Maryland 11.

Maryland 21, Duke 16

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Maryland was in desperate need of a big play when Tony Logan wrapped his arms around a punt at his own 16-yard line.

Eight-four yards later, the Terrapins had their first lead against Duke.

Logan's electrifying punt return in the third quarter provided Maryland with the push it needed, and the Terrapins opened the ACC portion of their schedule with a 21-16 victory.

Maryland (4-1, 1-0) trailed 9-0 midway in the second quarter and 9-7 at halftime before coming back. Logan's touchdown made it 14-9, and the Terps held on.

Logan sidestepped a potential tackler immediately after catching the punt. He then headed upfield, juked to his left and then cut right at his own 25 before sprinting down the sideline to the end zone. It was Logan's second punt return for a score in two weeks.

Duke (1-4, 0-2) lost for the fourth-straight time. Sophomore Sean Renfree completed 28 of 56 passes for 351 yards and a touchdown, but he was intercepted twice.

Donovan Varner had eight catches for 128 yards, and Conner Vernon gained 99 yards on six receptions.

A 2-yard touchdown pass from Renfree to Brandon King made it 21-16 with 7:20 to go, and after a Maryland punt the Blue Devils moved from their own 19 to the Maryland 39 with two minutes left. Facing a fourth-and-15, Renfree threw a pass to Austin Kelly that was tipped away.

Duke has been tormented this season by too many turnovers and the Terrapins got their first touchdown late in the first half following an interception, and in the second half Logan and Scott scored on long plays.

But the Duke defense - which was allowing 44.5 points per game - made it tough on O'Brien, who was playing in place of injured starter Jamarr Robinson for a second straight week. O'Brien went 9 for 26 for 170 yards, including his TD pass to Scott.

Davin Meggett capped off an eight-play, 80-yard drive with a 3-yard TD plunge which cut Duke's lead to 9-7 with under two minutes left in the first half.

Will Snyderwine kicked three first-half field goals when the Maryland defense stiffened in the red zone three times.

Clemson 31, Maryland 7

CLEMSON, S.C. - Danny O'Brien threw for a career-high 302 yards, but Clemson made key plays on special teams to outlast Maryland, 31-7.

Andre Ellington had an 87-yard kickoff return score and added a rushing touchdown as Clemson broke a three-game losing streak.

The victory for the Tigers (3-3, 1-2 Atlantic Coast Conference) came when former Clemson star C.J. Spiller had his No. 28 retired. And Ellington did his best to emulate the excitement Spiller brought Death Valley the last four years.

Ellington broke through the Terps early in the second quarter for Clemson's first kickoff return score since Spiller had one against South Carolina last November.

Ellington also had a 1-yard touchdown in the third quarter and Jaron Brown set up a TD later in the period with a 41-yard punt return.

Maryland (4-2, 1-1) had won three of its past four against Clemson, but got its lone TD on a 4-yard halfback pass from Da'Rel Scott to O'Brien who completed 24 of 45 passes.

Clemson defensive end Da'Quan Bowers had three sacks, giving him nine on the season. Cornerback Xavier Brewer had a 61-yard interception return touchdown in the final quarter.

Maryland's best chance at a late rally came in the third quarter, driving to the Clemson 29 down 24-7. However, the Terps were flagged for an illegal shift and the Tigers took over on downs.

The Terps had Clemson's number the past few meetings, including the past two at Death Valley where they left with stunning victories against the favored Tigers.

Maryland outgained Clemson 350 to 213, but the Tigers made plays when they needed them.

Scott and Davin Meggett combined for just 47 yards on the ground, and receiver Torrey Smith was held to four catches for 55 yards.

Maryland 24, Boston College 21

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass. - Antwine Perez had two interceptions and a fumble recovery, and Danny O'Brien matched a career high with three TD passes to lead Maryland to an emotional 24-21 win over Boston College.

O'Brien completed 27 of 40 passes for 182 yards, hitting Torrey Smith, Ronnie Tyler and Kerry Boykins on touchdown passes for Maryland (5-2, 2-1 ACC) which held off a fourth-quarter rally by the Eagles.

The Terps were playing without Pete DeSouza, who was lost for the year in a traffic accident less than 48 hours before kickoff. Despite the emotions, O'Brien, also a redshirt freshman, didn't seem rattled.

He did not turn the ball over and connected with eight different receivers. Smith had receptions and Tyler added five catches for 57 yards for the Terps who utilized a short passing game to counter the ACC's top-ranked rush defense.

Maryland went ahead late in the first quarter on a 2-yard scoring pass from O'Brien to Smith. The score completed a 13-play drive which was set up by a 29-yard punt return from Tony Logan, the nation's second-leading returner.

After BC tied the game at 7-all with 12:09 left in the second quarter on a Chase Rettig to Bobby Swigert 3-yard TD connection, the Terps cashed in two of the Eagles' three turnovers.

Kenny Tate forced Montel Harris to do something he rarely does, fumble the football. The junior knocked the ball free and Perez recovered at the BC 38. Nine plays later O'Brien hit Tyler on a 9-yard TD pass.

On BC's next offensive play, Rettig was intercepted by Perez and he returned it to the Eagles' 22. O'Brien directed another short TD march, connecting with Boykins on a 6-yard scoring toss on third-and-goal with 2:38 to go in the opening half.

Maryland got a 26-yard field goal from Travis Baltz to go ahead 24-7 with 13 seconds to play in the third quarter before BC started to get things going.

Rettig hit Ifeanyi Moma for a 23-yard pass to the Maryland 7, and Harris ran it three times for the score that made it 24-14 with 11:20 to play. After BC forced a punt, Rettig threw a long pass to Moma that was high and off his fingertips, only to be caught by Swigert for a gain of 63 yards.

Maryland 62, Wake Forest 14

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Danny O'Brien threw a career-high four touchdown passes, Kenny Tate and Ryan Donohue each scored on interception returns and Maryland rolled past Wake Forest 62-14 to become bowl eligible.

The Terrapins (6-2, 3-1 ACC) scored on their first four possessions and blocked two punts in taking a 27-7 halftime lead. During a 28-point third quarter, Tate and Donohue sandwiched their scores around a touchdown pass by O'Brien to assure Wake Forest (2-6, 1-4) its sixth straight defeat.

It was Maryland's most lopsided ACC win since a 59-7 rout of North Carolina in 2002, and the 62 points tied the school record for a conference game, set in 1975 in a 62-24 win over Virginia.

O'Brien, a redshirt freshman, went 13 for 20 for 168 yards before being lifted in the third quarter. He has seven touchdown passes in his last two games and 12 overall.

Davin Meggett ran for 94 yards and a touchdown for the Terrapins, whose sixth win made them bowl eligible for the seventh time in 10 years under Friedgen.

Wake Forest freshman quarterback Tanner Price completed 16 of 31 passes for 156 yards and a touchdown. Backup Skylar Jones played briefly in the third quarter, but one of his three passes was picked off by Donohue, who took it 25 yards into the end zone.

Wake's running game was held down by Maryland, finishing with minus-3 yards on 21 attempts. Josh Harris, coming off a 241-yard rushing performance against Virginia Tech, was limited to 24 yards on nine carries.

Miami 26, Maryland 20

MIAMI - True freshman Stephen Morris threw for 286 yards in his first college start and hit Leonard Hankerson for a 35-yard score with 37 seconds left, rallying Miami past Maryland 26-20 in a game which had four lead changes.

The touchdown capped an 82-yard drive that began with 3:06 left and Miami trailing 20-18. The Hurricanes overcame 10 penalties, including one that negated a defensive score, and two blown extra-points.

Morris had an interception returned 60 yards for a touchdown by Alex Wujciak, but still managed to finish 18 for 30. He was filling in for Jacory Harris, who was sidelined by a concussion.

Maryland (6-3, 3-2) had a chance to win at the end. The Terps drove to Miami's 30 before Danny O'Brien's pass into the end zone was incomplete on the final play.

Travis Baltz put the Terps ahead 20-18 with 9:19 left in the fourth quarter on a 23-yard field goal. He also had a 27-yard field in the second quarter.

O'Brien was 9-for-28 for 134 yards, setting the Maryland freshman single-season passing yards record in the process. His 42-yard TD pass to Kevin Dorsey in the opening quarter gave the Terps a 7-6 lead.

Despite the loss, the Terps still control their own destiny in the Atlantic Division race with three games left to play.

Maryland 42, Virginia 23

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. -- D.J. Adams ran for three touchdowns and Danny O'Brien ran for one and threw for two, leading Maryland to a 42-23 victory against Virginia.

The Terrapins (7-3, 4-2 ACC) remained in control of their chance to play in their first ACC championship game. Maryland will gain the Atlantic Division's berth if they win their final regular season games, both at home, against Florida State and North Carolina State.

Virginia (4-6, 1-5) saw its three-game winning streak in the series end on Senior Day, and lost to its northern border rival for only the fifth time in the last 19 meetings.

Adams scored his third touchdown on a 2-yard run just 35 seconds into the fourth quarter, capping a drive kept alive by a pass that went through the hands of Virginia linebacker Darnell Carter and into the arms of LaQuan Williams for a 26-yard gain on third-and-14.

After Virginia backed up inside its own 5 yard-line and punted, with the Terps taking over at the Cavaliers' 42, O'Brien drove them for the clinching score in eight plays. His 2-yard toss to Da'Rel Scott pushed the lead to 35-23, and the outcome was determined.

Two interceptions of Virginia's Marc Verica followed on the Cavaliers' ensuing possessions, and O'Brien hit Torrey Smith with a 12-yard TD pass with 2:35 remaining.

The Terps freshman finished 17 for 28 for 289 yards, and Smith caught seven for 157 yards. Verica was mistake-free before the final quarter, and was 25 for 43 for 265 yards.

The Terps led 21-20 at halftime, and all three scoring drives included a long pass.

Florida State 30, Maryland 16

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- Christian Ponder threw for 170 yards and a touchdown, and Florida State beat Maryland 30-16 to remain in the hunt to play in the ACC title game.

The Terrapins (7-4, 4-3) were eliminated from contention. Maryland, which became the last ACC team to lose at home this season, needed to beat the Seminoles and Wolfpack to win the division crown for the first time.

Down 23-16, Maryland drove to the Florida State 19 in the final minute before Nick Moody intercepted a fourth-down pass by redshirt freshman Danny O'Brien and took it 90 yards for the clinching score with 36 seconds left.

The Seminoles took advantage of four Maryland turnovers, including two interceptions and a fumble in the fourth quarter after FSU took a 20-16 lead. The Terrapins came in with an ACC-low eight turnovers in 10 games.

Neither team led by more than seven points until the closing seconds and the lead changed hands three times.

Chris Thompson ran for 95 yards, including a 70-yard touchdown, Ponder completed 16 of 26 passes and Bert Reed had six catches for 93 yards and a touchdown for the Seminoles.

Da'Rel Scott gained 84 yards rushing for the Terrapins and Davin Meggett ran for 72 yards. O'Brien went 25 for 45 for 269 yards and a touchdown.

Maryland took a 16-13 lead in the third quarter on a 32-yard field goal by Travis Baltz after Thompson lost a fumble at the FSU 47.

Florida State answered with a 44-yard touchdown pass from Ponder to Reed, who caught a short throw over the middle and weaved his way into the end zone.

Greg Reid then intercepted a pass by O'Brien at the Maryland 43. The Seminoles punted, but the kick hit Maryland's Cameron Chism and was recovered by FSU. That led by a field goal by Dustin Hopkins for a 23-16 lead with 4:37 left.

The Terrapins wore black helmets for the first time this season, along with black jerseys and pants with camouflage trim to support the Wounded Warrior Project. Maryland fans were also dressed in black.

Maryland 38, No.21 NC State 31

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Danny O'Brien threw for a career-high 417 yards and four touchdowns, all to Torrey Smith, and Maryland denied No. 21 North Carolina State a spot in the Atlantic Coast Conference title game by defeating the Wolfpack, 38-31.

Needing a victory to win the league's Atlantic Division, the Wolfpack (8-4, 5-3) scored touchdowns on their first two possessions to take a 14-0 lead. But the Terrapins (8-4, 5-3) rallied behind O'Brien, who made up for a running game that finished with negative yardage.

North Carolina State ended up in a second-place tie with Maryland behind Florida State, which will face Virginia Tech in the championship game on Dec. 5.

O'Brien, a redshirt freshman, completed 33 of 47 passes in the first 400-yard game by a Terp quarterback since Scott Milanovich in 1993.

Smith had a career-high 14 catches for 224 yards and became the first Maryland player with four touchdown receptions in a single game.

Smith scored on passes of 11, 10, 12 and 71 yards. The last touchdown came with 6:26 left immediately after Maryland's Drew Gloster sacked Russell Wilson on a fourth-down play from the Maryland 8 with the Terrapins ahead 31-17.

Wilson scored on a 1-yard run with 2:39 remaining. The Wolfpack recovered the onside kick and Wilson threw a TD pass with 1:16 left, but Maryland pounced on the ensuing onside kick.

Travis Baltz had the wind behind him when he kicked a career-long 52-yard field goal to put the Terrapins up 17-14 at halftime.

Maryland made it 24-14 in the third quarter when O'Brien capped an 80-yard drive with a pass to Smith, who wriggled free in the left side of the end zone. O'Brien completed four passes on the drive, including three to Smith for 44 yards.

GAME13*Dec. 29, 2010 - Military BowlMaryland 51, East Carolina 20

WASHINGTON - The Maryland Terrapins forced four turnovers and Da'Rel Scott ran for 200 yards with a 51-20 victory over East Carolina in the Military Bowl.

Scott had second-half touchdown runs of 61 and 91 yards on back-to-back offensive plays and posted the school's first 200-yard rushing game since 2003. D.J. Adams had four short touchdown runs for the Terrapins, who finished 9-4.

Dominique Davis completed 33 of 54 passes for 255 yards with one touchdown and two interceptions for East Carolina (6-7), which scored a season-low in points and committed 15 penalties.

The first half included 12 penalties, four turnovers, a blocked extra point and a missed 25-yard field goal. The Terrapins scored on a 45-yard touchdown pass from ACC rookie of the year Danny O'Brien to Kevin Dorsey, a 1-yard run by Adams and a 23-yard field goal by Travis Baltz.

East Carolina didn't score until Mike Barbour's 37-yard field goal with 6:08 left in the half - the longest the Pirates had gone into a game without scoring this season.

The Terrapins began scoring at will in the second half. They added to a 16-3 halftime lead when David Mackall returned a tipped interception 35 yards to East Carolina's 1, setting up Adams' second touchdown.

Dwayne Harris' 36-yard punt return led to East Carolina's first touchdown, a 20-yard pass to Lance Lewis that made the score 23-10, but the Terrapins responded with a 69-yard drive capped by another touchdown from Adams.

Scott ran up the middle untouched for a 61-yard score on the first play of a drive late in the third quarter, and did virtually the same from 91 yards on the first play of the next drive early in the fourth.
