PREVIEW / NOTES

First-and-Goal...

- Head coach Randy Edsall, beginning his second season, and the Terps will have to replace a number of key performers from 2011. They will look to 41 returning letterwinners, including 15 offensive and defensive starters, as well as punter/place-kicker Nick Ferrara, to replace some of the firepower lost from last season's squad.
- Senior defensive lineman Joe Vellano, a 2011 second team All-American, and linebackers Demetrius Hartsfield and Darin Drakeford headline the 10 starters back on defense. Vellano, a preseason All-American who should vie for a number of national awards, led the FBS last season in tackles by a defensive lineman (7.8 per game), Hartsfield was an honorable mention All-ACC pick and Drakeford had a league-high tying four forced fumbles. Senior safety Eric Franklin ranked second on the team (106) and sixth in the ACC in tackles (8.8 per game) last season. He also had four PBUs which was tied for second on the squad.
- The offense returns five starters, including three of its top four receivers from last season in wideouts Kevin Dorsey and Kerry Boykins, and tight end Matt Furstenburg. Junior C.J. Brown, who started five games in 2011, assumes No. 1 quarterback duties. Brown rushed for 574 yards, a Maryland single-season record for a quarterback. Seniors Bennett Fulper and Justin Gilbert are expected to provide leadership on the offensive line. Fulper started at center the last two seasons, while Gilbert returned late last season after injuries derailed his 2010 campaign. He is penciled in at right tackle, but has also played guard.

Quick Hitters...

- The five Maryland players who received 2011 postseason recognition return to the squad this year - DL Keith Bowers (freshman All-ACC), LB Lorne Goree (freshman All-ACC), LB Demetrius Hartsfield (honorable mention All-ACC), DL Andre Monroe (freshman All-American) and DL Joe Vellano (second team All-American; first team All-ACC).
- The Terrapins return 75 percent of the offensive and defensive two-deep from the end of last season. There are 17 of the 22 offensive players back and 16 of 22 defenders. In addition, eight of the 12 members of the final special teams two-deep is back in 2012.
- Maryland had 15 seniors on the 2011 roster, but just 12 of those players were listed on the two-deep at some point during the year. There are 17 seniors listed on the 2012 preseason roster.
- Eleven of the top 13 tacklers from 2011 are back this season, including Hartsfield, who had a team-high 108 stops, and safety Eric Franklin, who was second with 106.
- Six of the top seven sack producers from 2011 are back this season, including leading sack producer Monroe who had 5.0, the second most by a Maryland freshman in the last nine years (Adrian Moten - 5.5 in 2007; Shawne Merriman - 5.0 in 2002).

- Three Terps ended 2011 ranked among the top 12 in the ACC in tackles. Hartsfield was second at 12.0 per game and Franklin was sixth at 8.8. Vellano was 12th with 7.8 per contest.
- There are 17 players on the roster who have started on the defensive side of the ball. In addition to the 10 returning starters (see chart on page 3), DL Justin Anderson, DB Matt Robinson, DL Isaiah Ross and LB Kenny Tate were all starters or significant contributors prior to suffering injuries in 2011. Goree, DL A.J. Francis and LB Bradley Johnson have also started games.
- There are just two returning starters (Bennett Fulper and Justin Gilbert) on Maryland's offensive line, but six players have started in their careers. De'Onte Arnett, Josh Cary, Sal Conaboy and Peter White have also started on the o-line.
- Nine bowl teams from last year appear on Maryland's 2012 schedule: Temple (Gildan New Mexico Bowl), West Virginia (Discover Orange Bowl), Wake Forest (Franklin American Mortgage Music City), Virginia (Chick-fil-A Bowl), NC State (Belk Bowl), Georgia Tech (Hyundai Sun Bowl), Clemson (Discover Orange Bowl), Florida State (Champs Sports Bowl) and UNC (AdvoCare V100 Independence Bowl).

Byrd Gets a Facelift...

- Maryland in June formally announced plans for and unveiled renderings of the new FieldTurf Revolution surface that will be installed at Capital One Field at Byrd Stadium. The privately funded $3 million project will result in the "coolest" synthetic turf field in the nation and will be completed in time for the 2012 season opener. In order to enhance playability for all sports expected to use the facility, and after various tests and discussions, it was decided the playing surface will be a traditional green in color. The end zones for football will have a design reminiscent of the Maryland state flag and reinforcing the "Maryland Pride" theme of Maryland Athletics. The project at Maryland is the first of its kind in the United States and will feature exclusive new heat-reducing technology - CoolPlay - which, coupled with the patented silica sand and cryogenic rubber infill, will provide the facility with the "coolest" infill technology. FieldTurf has done extensive temperature testing which shows that CoolPlay infill provides for a difference of up to 15 degrees Fahrenheit versus traditional rubber infill systems. The many benefits of the new field include protecting the health of the student-athletes, improved playability in inclement weather, annual savings on field maintenance, a fantastic recruiting tool and tremendous revenue-generating opportunities through events such as concerts, high school games and other outside athletic events. "This is an exciting time for our program," head coach Randy Edsall said. "We have had a great off-season with recruiting and with our players working very hard in preparation for the upcoming season. The addition of this new field will excite our entire student body and will be invaluable when it comes to recruiting in the future."

Terps By The Numbers

1...Demetrius Hartsfield is the ACC's active career leader in tackles (260).

2...Former head coaches (Greg Gattuso, Mike Locksley) on Randy Edsall's staff.

3...The team's grade-point average over each of the last three semesters (since Randy Edsall arrived) was higher than in any of the previous six semesters.

4...Randy Edsall has taken his teams to bowl games in four of the last five seasons.

5...The Terps scored five times on defense in 2011 which was tied for sixth in the FBS.

6...Maryland ranked tied for sixth in the FBS last season in fewest penalties committed per game (4.1) and 11th in fewest yards penalized (36.2).

11...The Terps scored 11 defensive touchdowns in their last 28 games.

11...The Terps have seven of their top 13 tacklers back from last season.

17...Number of seniors on Maryland's preseason roster.

35...Despite last season's 2-10 record, recruits were not deterred. Maryland's 2012 recruiting class (see pgs. 34-37) was ranked as high as No. 35 in the nation (Rivals.com and 247Sports.com).

972...The program's Academic Progress Rate (APR), which measures eligibility and retention, has begun to trend upward after declining for five straight years. The multiyear score increased from 922 (2009-10) to 931 (2010-11) and its single-year score from 905 to 972.

Alone at the Top...

- There is not likely to be a quarterback competition in the preseason as junior C.J. Brown is the lone signal-caller on the roster with playing experience. After missing nearly all of 2010 with a shoulder injury, Brown, a dual-threat, saw action in 10 games (five starts) last year, setting a Maryland single-season rushing yards record (574) for a quarterback and throwing for 842 yards. He began getting acclimated to a new scheme in the spring as former assistant Mike Locksley returned to College Park in the offseason as his positional coach and offensive coordinator. Locksley is installing a pro-style offense which will incorporate some spread principles. Both he and head coach Randy Edsall like the intangibles Brown brings to the offense. "I think we're going to be in good shape with C.J.," Edsall said. "The guys really play hard for him and he handles himself extremely well. I'm very impressed with his leadership." Brown will be joined in the preseason by a pair of true freshmen quarterbacks - Perry Hills and Caleb Rowe. "Obviously, we're going to have to get one of the younger guys ready to play," Edsall said. That duo will be battling for the No. 2 role once camp opens on Aug. 6. Hills was the 29th-ranked quarterback prospect in the nation according to Scout.com after throwing for over 2,000 yards as a senior. Rowe was rated 22nd among pro-style signal-callers by 247Sports.com in 2011. He passed for 2,722 yards and 33 touchdowns with only seven interceptions as a senior. The Terps will also gain the services of Ricardo Young, a transfer from New Mexico, though he will sit out the 2012 season, but will be able to practice and aid the scout team.

Openings at Skill Positions...

With the loss of its top tailback and second-leading receiver, the Terps have openings at a couple of key skill positions. Davin Meggett ended his career seventh on the Maryland career rushing list and Quintin McCree was productive over the last half of his senior season, posting 31 of his 40 catches in the final six games. But seniors Kevin Dorsey and Kerry Boykins are expected to lead a young, but talented group of wide receivers. Dorsey led the team in receptions (45), receiving yards (573) and touchdown receptions (three) last year, while Boykins was third in both catches (37) and receiving yards (430). "We expect [Kevin and Kerry] to lead the way and then we've got to have some young guys step up," Randy Edsall said. Sophomores Marcus Leak and Devin Burns will look to build upon the experience of their freshman season in expanded roles this year. Leak, a speedy and physical player, saw extensive action in the first half of 2011. He ended up posting 12 catches for 85 yards as a true freshman. A converted quarterback, Burns played in seven games during his redshirt freshman season and should be more polished after a full year at wide receiver. Sophomore Nigel King and redshirt freshman Tyrek Cheeseboro should also be fighting for time. King is another big, physical presence who joined the team in spring 2011, but was unable to practice with the Terps in the fall due to an NCAA eligibility issue. Cheeseboro was one of the team's better special teams players last season before his true freshman campaign was cut short with a knee injury. Levern Jacobs joined the program this semester after spending the fall at Milford Academy and figures to push for time. The addition of freshmen Stefon Diggs, Malcolm Culmer and Amba Etta-Tawo will add competitiveness to the position. "It's a youthful group led by two seniors that I have a lot of confidence in," said Edsall. The Terps have a freshman and sophomore lined up at tailback for carries in the spring. Justus Pickett saw considerable time last season as a true freshman. The shifty back ranked third on the team in both carries (74) and rushing yards (274). He also caught 10 passes out of the backfield. "Justus is a little bit bigger now and stronger than he was in the fall," Edsall said. Brandon Ross is stockier than Pickett, but was impressive during practice of his redshirt season in 2011. "Brandon Ross showed a lot of things last season on the scout team, so this is going to be the first time you really get to see him on a daily basis," Edsall said. Maryland also returns it's No. 1 fullback in sophomore Tyler Cierski who is a bruiser at 250 pounds. He played in all 12 games in 2011, seeing time on special teams as well. Highly-touted newcomers Wes Brown, Joe Riddle and Albert Reid will compete for time at tailback, while senior Jeff Hernandez and freshman Kenny Goins will back up Cierski.

Stability at Tight End...

Tight end is one of the most experienced positions on the team with all four players back this season. Senior Matt Furstenburg has started the last two years and has become one of the top tight ends in the ACC. A member of the 2011 John Mackey Award midseason watch list, he ranked third in the conference among tight ends in both receptions (2.6 pg) and receiving yards (29.0 pg). He had a capable backup in Devonte Campbell, who had a pair of touchdown catches last season. The senior is a strong, athletic presence who should see plenty of action in the team's two tight-end sets. "Devonte is the type of guy who wants to explode and wants to make something big happen in his senior year," Randy Edsall said in the spring. Campbell has played in 17 games over the last two years. Senior Ryan Schlothauer served as the No. 3 tight end a year ago, seeing most of his time on special teams. "At tight end, I think we've got three guys that have demonstrated they can play well," said Edsall. "We expect a big year out of Matt Furstenburg, Devonte [Campbell] and Ryan Schlothauer." The wild card at the position is Dave Stinebaugh who has been relegated to the sidelines most of the last two years due to knee and shoulder injuries. The junior is healthy now though and ready to contribute. "Hopefully getting Dave Stinebaugh back will help us have four guys that will be able to utilize," said Edsall.

Replacements on the O-Line...

The Terps will have to replace three starters on the offensive line, though six players who have started are returning. Bennett Fulper, Justin Gilbert, Pete White and Josh Cary have the most experience among the returners, while De'Onte Arnett and Sal Conaboy have also started. "What we have to do up front is get our five best guys out there and I think we have that solidified with guys in the right position with Justin Gilbert, Sal [Conaboy], Bennett Fulper and Nick Klemm," Randy Edsall said "Those are four of our five best guys." Fulper, a two-time Academic All-ACC choice, has started the last two seasons at center, but has also played guard and is slotted at the left guard spot, with Conaboy taking over at center. White, who played in all 12 games last season with six starts at left guard, will back up Fulper. Gilbert was the starting left tackle in 2010 before two knee injuries sidelined him until the second half of last season. He slides over to right tackle to start this season, and is expected to be backed up by talented redshirt freshman Andrew Zeller. Zeller served as one of 16 captains during the team's offseason program. "Zeller is a guy who has worked extremely hard," Edsall said. Arnett, a junior and a converted defensive lineman, is a promising possibility at guard. He started the final game of 2011 at left guard and sits atop the depth chart with Cary at right guard entering 2012. "De'Onte Arnett did a good job towards the end of the year, and to me, he's only going to get better," Edsall said in the spring. Cary played in all 12 games with nine starts as a sophomore and will battle Arnett for the starting job. Klemm is penciled in at left tackle, having the most experience of the three players

Offensive Starters Returning/Lost... Starters Returning (5)

OL Bennett Fulper Sr.-3V 6-5, 295
• Has played in 31 career games with 22 starts ... started 10 games at center in 2011 before being sidelined with an injury ... two-time Academic-All-ACC choice.

OL Justin Gilbert Sr.-3V 6-6, 300

WR Quintin McCree 4V 6-1, 190
• Played in 10 games in 2011 all of which were starts... averaged 71.3 receiving yards per game in the last six games of the year.

RB Davin Meggett 4V 5-9, 215
• Led the team in rushing as a junior and senior ... played in all 50 games dating back to his true freshman season ... ranks seventh in school history in career rushing yards (2,411).

Defensive Starters Returning/Lost... Starters Returning (10)

DE Marcus Whitfield Jr.-1V 6-3, 245

- Played in eight games and started the final five of 2011 ... had 11 total tackles, including 3.5 tackles for loss... recorded 2.5 sacks and one forced fumble.

DE Keith Bowers So.-1V 6-1, 260

- Played in all 12 games and made 11 starts as a true freshman ... tied for fourth on the team in tackles for loss with six... had a career high-nine tackles against BC.

DT Joe Vellano Sr.-3V 6-1, 285

- A 2011 second team All-American by AP and Walter Camp ... had a career-high 20 tackles against Georgia Tech last year ... led the FBS in tackles by a DL in 2011 (7.8 pg).

DT Andre Monroe So.-1V 6-0, 265

- A 2011 freshman All-American who had five starts on the season ... tied Joe Vellano for team-high with 7.5 tackles for loss ... team-high 5.0 sacks in 2011.

LB Demetrius Hartsfield Sr.-3V 6-2, 240

- Honorable mention All-ACC in 2011 ... active career leader in tackles (260) ... ranked second in ACC in tackles in 2011 (12.0 pg).

LB Darin Drakeford Sr.-3V 6-0, 235

- Started all eight games he appeared in last season ... averaged 8.5 tackles for game... tied for conference lead with a team-high four forced fumbles.

LB Alex Twine So.-1V 6-0, 225

- Played in 11 games with four starts as a true freshman last season ... had a career day against Notre Dame with career highs in tackles (12), solo tackles (7), tackles for loss (3.0) and had a sack.

S A.J. Hendy So.-1V 6-1, 205

- One of only two true freshmen to start at safety for Maryland since 1993 ... played in nine games including starting the final three games of the season.

S Eric Franklin Jr.-2V 6-2, 215

- Started all 12 games at safety in 2011 ... led the team in total tackles (106) and solo stops (64) ... ranked sixth in the ACC in tackles per game with 8.8.

CB Dexter McDougale So.-1V 5-11, 190

- Started all 12 games ... led the team with six pass breakups and tied for the team lead with three interceptions.

Starters Lost (1)

CB Cameron Chism 4V 5-10, 190

- Played in 44 career games including 32 starts... finished his career with seven interceptions and 16 pass breakups... had two interception returns for a touchdown in 2011 against Miami and Clemson.

listed on the depth chart after playing in six games as a reserve right tackle last season. Redshirt freshman Ryan Doyle is listed as his backup. "He did some good things early in preseason camp, and he's a tough kid and has good knowledge of the game," Edsall said of Doyle in the spring. Highly-touted freshman Mike Madaras will also compete for time at left tackle. Newcomer Nick Brigham hopes to push for time at guard.

Depth on the D-Line...

- With all four starters back and the shift to a 3-4 defense, Maryland should have plenty of depth along the defensive line. "We've got guys who have experience and we have young guys that are going to make their mark," Randy Edsall said. "We also have some depth there and some guys who have shown the ability to make plays." All-American Joe Vellano will lead this group for the third straight season. Vellano, who led the FBS last season in tackles by a lineman (7.8 per game), will move from tackle to end in new coordinator Brian Stewart's scheme. Vellano is a two-time All-ACC performer and a two-time team captain. Senior A.J. Francis is slated to be the nose tackle, along with sophomore Darius Kilgo. A big, athletic presence, Francis will be counted on to clog up the middle. He has played in each of the last 37 games, with 23 starts to his credit. "It's right there for A.J.," Randy Edsall said. "He's the nose guard. How dominant can he be?" Like Francis, Kilgo is a 300-pounder, though he does not have the same level of experience. He played in just five games last season as a reserve. "Darius Kilgo has a chance to get a lot of playing time now," Edsall said. Keith Bowers, who started 11 games as a true freshman last season, is penciled into the other defensive end position, along with Andre Monroe and Justin Anderson. Bowers and Monroe both earned 2011 postseason honors. Monroe, an undersized but extremely athletic lineman, was a freshman All-American after leading the team with 5.0 sacks in only nine games. Bowers earned freshman All-ACC honors, but missed most of the spring due to a heart condition. He is back to full health. Anderson started all 13 games at anchor (hybrid defensive end position) in 2010 before being sidelined with an injury early last season and eventually serving a redshirt year. Defensive line coach Greg Gattuso says Anderson has the prototypical measurables to play end in Stewart's scheme. A healthy Isaiah Ross would certainly add depth at end. Ross hurt his knee in the opening game last season and was working his way back to top form in the spring. He and true freshman Quinton Jefferson are listed as backups to Vellano heading into the preseason. Jefferson joined the program in the spring semester after signing in 2011 and sitting out the fall due to a medical issue. Sophomore Ian Evans, who played in the last four games of 2011, will battle for time behind Monroe, Anderson and Bowers. Alex Walker and Nate Clarke, who moved from the offensive line in the spring, will battle for time at nose tackle behind Francis and Kilgo.

Core of Linebackers Return...

- The Terps have a number of productive linebackers returning to the team this season, as well as an influx of four talented freshmen. Maryland is in possession of the leading returning tackler in the ACC and top forced-fumble producer in the league. Demetrius Hartsfield ranked second in the conference last season in tackles (12.0 per game), while Darin Drakeford tied for the ACC lead in forced fumbles (four) despite missing four games due to injury. Those two seniors will lead an experienced, but still young group. Hartsfield and Drakeford are penciled into the Mo (inside) and Will (outside) positions, respectively, in Brian Stewart's defense. Alex Twine, Cole Farrand and Lorne Gorne all had significant reps last season as freshmen. Twine took over as the starter at Will at the end of last season. He averaged 9.8 tackles in his four starts and is penciled into the Sam (outside) spot, along with Kenny Tate, who hopes to return to his healthy form of 2010 when he was a first team all-conference performer. Tate played in just four games last season due to a knee injury. "We'll have to see how he is in preseason camp, but everything looks like he is going to be 100 percent and ready to go," Randy Edsall said. Edsall expects Tate, as well as Drakeford, to be key cogs on the defense. "Those are two guys who have the ability to run well, make plays and understand what's going on," Edsall said. Farrand and Goree will battle for time at the Mike (inside). Goree was an honorable mention freshman All-America pick last season after averaging 5.0 tackles per game (fourth in the ACC among freshmen). Farrand saw most of his time on special teams. He has readied himself to play inside by bulking up to 245 pounds in the offseason. Marcus Whitfield took over as one of the starting defensive ends in the second half of last season. He has been moved to the Will position where he will back up Drakeford, along with Clarence Murphy, another converted lineman. Bradley Johnson will serve as the No. 2 Mo behind Hartsfield. The freshmen will have to work to crack the two-deep, but all four have solid pedigrees. Abner Logan is the most highly decorated of the four linebackers who will join the team in the preseason. Logan was a four-star selection by Rivals.com and 247Sports.com. All-state performers Brock Dean, Shawn Petty and Avery Thompson will join Logan. Logan and Petty will work at Mike, Dean at Mo and Thompson at Sam.

Secondary Roles...

- The Terps lost a pair of cornerbacks with extensive starting experience, but return one starter at that position and will have three safeties with starting experience on the 2012 roster. Dexter McDougale started all 12 games last season at cornerback, leading the team with six pass breakups and tying for the team lead with three interceptions. "I think Dexter is going to have a good year for us," Randy Edsall said. The Terps will have options opposite McDougale. Jeremiah Johnson saw most of his time on special teams in 2011, but he did serve as the No. 4 cornerback for much of the season. Isaac Goins was added to the roster in December, joining the team from Contra Costa College where he was a 2011 first team All-Bay Valley Conference choice after posting six interceptions.

Special Teams Starters Returning/Lost...

Starters Returning (2)

KR Justus Pickett So.-1V 5-10, 185

- Led the team in kick returns (30) and kick return yards (568).

PK/P Nick Ferrara Sr.-3V 6-0, 190

- Ranks ninth in school history in made field goals (30)... a 2009 freshman All-American at place-kicker ... handled all three phases of the kicking game in 2011.

Starters Lost (2)

PR Tony Logan 4V 5-10, 180

- Three-year starter at punt returner (2010 All-ACC) ... led the ACC and ranked third nationally with average of 18.1 ypr in 2010 ... ranks third in school history and 16th in the ACC in career punt return yards (805).

LS Tim Downs 3V 6-0, 230

- Three-year starter at long snapper... played in all 37 games in his final three seasons... named the team's unsung hero after the 2011 season.

Goins and Johnson are listed atop the preseason depth chart at one cornerback spot. A.J. Hendy ended the 2011 season as one of the starting safeties (he averaged 8.3 stops in his three starts), but he moved to cornerback in the spring and will push for time behind McDougale. Redshirt freshman Makinton Dorleant, who missed last season with a knee injury, Tony Perry, a walk-on, and Regis Whittington, a converted wide receiver, will give the team depth at cornerback. True freshman Alvin Hill hopes to push for time in the preseason. The Terps should be well stocked at safety. After missing the final nine games last season, Matt Robinson is expected to be one of the key contributors on defense. When Robinson had season-ending shoulder surgery he ranked second in the ACC and tied for seventh nationally in tackles per game (12.0). He was limited in contact drills in the spring but is expected to give the Terps a physical presence in the defensive backfield this season. Eric Franklin is penciled in at the other safety position. He led the team in solo tackles (64), total tackles (106) and tied for second on the team with four pass breakups. He ranked sixth in the ACC in tackles (8.8 pg). "We've got two veterans in Eric and Matt who have played there and have a number of starts under their belt," Randy Edsall said. "The biggest thing there is finding out who backups are going to be," Edsall said. Undray Clark, who redshirted last season, is listed as Franklin's backup on the preseason depth chart. Senior Clarence Claiborne, who saw most of his time on special teams in 2011, gives the team depth at safety. Anthony Nixon and Sean Dixon could be asked to supply snaps in their true freshman season.

Special Teams Makeover...

- Nick Ferrara, who handed all three phases of the kicking game last season, will be back for what could be his third year as the No. 1 place-kicker and second as the punter. The senior ranks in the top 10 in career made field goals at Maryland. He will have competition from Nathan Renfro, who redshirted last season, and Michael Tart, who replaced Ferrara in the final game of 2011 due to injury. Ferrara missed the spring while rehabbing from offseason hip surgery, but will be 100 percent in the preseason. Renfro and Tart handled all of the kicking chores in the spring. The hope is that Renfro will take over as the punter with Ferrara handling place-kicking and kickoff chores. Sophomore Justus Pickett was kickoff returner for much of last season, though the Terps will have to replace Tony Logan, who is third in school history in punt return yards. But the Terps didn't get many big plays out of the return game last year and hope to improve upon that in 2012. Redshirt freshman Brandon Ross and sophomore Marcus Leak will get first crack at the kickoff return job. Dexter McDougale and Isaac Goins are listed first and second, respectively, as punt returners on the preseason depth chart. One of the team's unsung players - Tim Downs - will need to be replaced as the long snapper. Downs started the last three years, but Greg Parcher has been waiting in the wings and should be an ample replacement.

Coaching Staff At-A-Glance..

- Mike Locksley was hired in December as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. Locksley, a native of Washington, D.C., returned to Maryland after previously spending six years (1997-02) as an assistant coach on the Terrapins staff. A veteran coach with over 20 years experience, Locksley most recently spent four years (2005-08) as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach for the University of Illinois and two-plus years (2009-11) as head coach at the University of New Mexico. Locksley helped the Fighting Illini offense improve from No. 86 nationally in total offense (338.1 yards per game) in 2005 to No. 19 (438.3 yards per game) in 2008. The Illinois offense ranked in the top 10 nationally (No. 10 in 2006; No. 5 in 2007) in rushing yards. Known for strong recruiting skills, Locksley was listed as a top-25 recruiter in the nation three different times (2003, 2005, 2006) and was a finalist for 2007 recruiter of the year by Rivals.com.
- Brian Stewart was hired in January as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach. A former NFL defensive coordinator, Stewart recently completed a successful two-year stint with the Houston Cougars, who ended 2011 with a 13-1 record and a No. 14 ranking in the final USA Today poll. The Cougars had one of the best defenses in the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) in 2011, ranking in the top 15 in five categories: red-zone scoring (second - 67 percent), interceptions (t-third - 21), tackles for loss (sixth - 7.7 per game), turnovers gained (t-10th - 31) and opponent passing efficiency (12th - 111.75 rating). Houston also improved from 96th nationally in scoring defense (32.2 points per game) in 2010 to 35th (22.4) this past year. Stewart went to Houston after an eight-year run as an NFL assistant, including two years (2007-08) as the defensive coordinator with Dallas.

List as of July 5

- With the change to a 3-4 defense, Lyndon Johnson will now oversee both outside linebacker positions (Sam and Will), while Andre Powell will take over as special-teams coordinator, in addition to his running back chores. Last season, Johnson was responsible for the Star position on the defensive side of the ball. Powell was a special-teams coordinator during each of his last two stops - Clemson (2007-10) and North Carolina (2001-06). He handled both running backs and special-teams duties the final three seasons at each job.
- Defensive line coach Greg Gattuso was elevated to assistant head coach. The former head coach of Duquesne (1992-04), Gattuso spent six seasons (2005-10) as the defensive line coach at Pittsburgh.
- Former offensive lineman Pete DeSouza is now a student assistant coach. DeSouza, who had not played since his redshirt freshman season (2010) when he was injured in a traffic accident, took a medical hardship.

NEWCOMER PROFILES

Maryland made a significant boost to its roster in February with the addition of 25 recruits, including 21 who signed national letters-of-intent.

The class includes 13 offensive players and 12 on the defensive side of the ball. There are also six incoming players labeled as either four- or five-star recruits.

The Terps kept quite a bit of local talent at home as 12 of the prospects hail from the Maryland/Washington, D.C., area, more than double last year's total.

"I'm excited about the depth and quality of this class," head coach Randy Edsall said on National Signing Day. "All of these student-athletes are outstanding individuals who come from winning programs, have a great work ethic and leadership skills, and understand the team concept. Our staff did a great job in identifying the players who fit the profile we're looking for in a Maryland football player."

According to ESPN.com, six of the top 18 players in the state are heading to Maryland, including three SuperPrep All-Americans in wide receiver Stefon Diggs, offensive lineman Mike Madaras and running back Wes Brown, who were all teammates at Good Counsel (Md.) High School.

Diggs, a consensus five-star prospect and overall No. 1 player in the state of Maryland, is one of the Terps biggest recruits in recent years. He is listed as the No. 2 wide receiver and eighth overall recruit in the nation by Rivals.com. Diggs is the first five-star product to attend Maryland since Bruce Campbell (five-star by Rivals.com in 2007).

"We were able to make some inroads in our prime recruiting areas of Maryland, Washington, D.C., and Pennsylvania,"

Edsall said. "We got into some areas and schools which we haven't been able to in a long time."

With a class ranked as high as No. 35 in the country, Maryland fulfilled a number of needs on both sides of the ball with running back, wide receiver, linebacker and defensive back the most represented positions.

"I'm really pleased with the balance of this class," Edsall said. "This is a class which will come in and blend in well with our returning players."

In addition to Brown, the Terps added another four-star player in Albert Reid, the 2011 D.C. Gatorade Player of the Year, as well as Kenneth Goins and Joe Riddle, to their backfield. That group comprised the second-best running back class in the nation, according to Scout.com.

Abner Logan is the most highly regarded of the four linebackers who will join the team in the fall. Logan was a four-star selection by Rivals.com and 247Sports.com. Rivals.com has the Maryland linebacker class pegged as 20th-best in the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS).

All-state performers Brock Dean, one of five players from Pennsylvania, Shawn Petty and Avery Thompson will join Logan as first-year linebackers in the program.

LB Stefan Houston of Clarksburg, Md., also signed, but will attend prep school in the fall.

The Terps also added five defensive backs, including Sean Davis of Maret School in Washington, D.C., Alvin Hill, one of three signees from the state of Georgia, and Anthony Nixon, the lone New Jersey recruit.

Isaac Goins and Zach Dancel are a pair of transfers who will join the secondary. Goins, who played at Contra Costa (Calif.) College the last two years, enrolled in classes in January and will have two years of eligibility remaining. Dancel, who played at Good Counsel with Brown and Madaras, will join the team in the fall. He is transferring from the University of New Mexico at the end of the spring semester.

The Terps only recruited two offensive linemen, but both are four-star products. In addition to Madaras, Nick Brigham, who hails from Atlanta, will join the team in the fall.

Amba Etta-Tawo is the third product from the state of Georgia and one of four wide receivers in the class, joining Malcolm Culmer and Levern Jacobs, who enrolled in classes in January after spending the fall semester at Milford (N.Y.) Academy.

Rivals.com has the Maryland wide-receiver class ranked No. 4 in the nation.

Defensive lineman Quinton Jefferson of Pittsburgh, who signed with the Terps in 2011, is the third spring enrollee. Roman Braglio, a consensus All-Maryland player, is the other addition along the defensive line.

The Terps are adding a pair of quarterbacks with Scout.com ranking that position No. 10 in the nation.

Caleb Rowe of Landrum, S.C., is the 26th-ranked pro-style QB in the country and Perry Hills, of Pittsburgh, is viewed as the No. 29 signal-caller in the nation.

Maryland also has a quality addition at tight end. P.J. Gallo of Holland, Pa., is the 23rd-ranked tight end in the nation according to Scout.com.

Randy Edsall

Head Coach

Syracuse '80 • Second Year at Maryland

Randy Edsall enters his second season as head football coach at the University of Maryland coming off a tremendous offseason for the program in the areas of recruiting and academics.

Edsall was named the 34th coach in Maryland football history in January 2011 when he signed a six-year contract.

In the area of recruiting Edsall and his staff placed a great emphasis on the local Maryland/Washington, D.C. market which is heavily recruited by schools across the nation and is considered a football hotbed. The result of this focus was the signing of 25 athletes, 13 of which are from the area.

In addition, under Edsall's command and following a pattern he started at the University of Connecticut, the football program's Academic Progress Rate (APR) moved significantly upward. The football team's APR, which measures eligibility and retention, increased its multi-year score from 922 (2009-2010) to 931 and its single year score from 905 to 972.

Edsall, who is originally from nearby Glen Rock, Pa., spent the previous 12 seasons as head coach at Connecticut where he took the program from FCS (formerly Division I-AA) status to five bowl games, including a BCS contest.

Edsall guided the Huskies to a pair of Big East Conference titles (2007, 2010) and postseason appearances in each of his final four years, including the 2011 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

Edsall now looks to return Maryland to postseason play while putting his stamp on the program, including upgrading recruiting, especially in keeping local talent at home, and improving academics.

In addition to signing 13 players from the Maryland/Washington, D.C. area, his recently completed second recruiting class included six players with four- or five-star grades.

Under Edsall, who serves as the team's liaison with the new academic support staff, Maryland has shown a marked improvement in the classroom.

The team's grades over the past three semesters were higher than in the six semesters before he arrived in College Park.

Edsall can draw on the experiences at his five previous coaching stops where he was accustomed to winning.

The 2010 Big East Coach of the Year, who also had a fruitful run as an NFL assistant, led UConn to eight or more wins in each of the last four seasons as the Huskies successfully made the ascent to the FBS (formerly Division I-A). In fact, Connecticut was 33-19 over the last four seasons, including a pair of bowl wins. UConn is also the first program to go from FBS newcomer to BCS bowl participant in only seven years.

During his time in Storrs, the program blossomed from a major college football newcomer upon his arrival to a team that made five bowl appearances in the past seven years. He left as the school's all-time leader in career wins (74) and most games coached (144). Edsall was also an impressive 65-46 (.586) in the school's first nine FBS seasons (since 2002).

The 2010 Huskies were typical of a hard working, blue-collar Edsall team. After starting out 3-4, including 0-2 in the league, UConn finished the year with five consecutive Big East wins to earn the conference championship and a spot in the BCS. UConn's trip to the 2011 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl marked its fifth bowl trip since 2004. The Huskies defeated South Carolina in the 2009 Papajohns.com Bowl by a 20-7 score. Edsall guided Connecticut to a 38-20 win over Buffalo in the 2009 International Bowl, led the team to a victory in the 2004 Motor City Bowl and an appearance in the 2007 Meineke Car Care Bowl.

Edsall's Huskies won their final three regular season games in 2009 - including a historic double-overtime win over Notre Dame. UConn posted a 7-5 regular season record facing the 25th-toughest schedule in the country. In 2007, the Bryant and Munger Coach of the Year Award finalist helped guide UConn to a share of its first-ever Big East Championship in a season where the Huskies were picked to finish seventh in the league.

Edsall is a two-time recipient (2007, 2010) of the Bowl Championship Division Head Coach of the Year in New England by the Gridiron Club of Greater Boston.

Edsall has been a prominent voice in the college football community as he was a member of the American Football Coaches Association Board of Trustees and the NCAA Football Rules Committee.

UConn joined the Big East Conference in 2004, finishing just one win shy of tying for the league championship. The Huskies led the conference in total defense each of their first two years and again in 2008. During its debut season in 2004, UConn also led the Big East in total offense. UConn finished in the national top 20 for total offense (2003, 2004) and total defense (2002, 2005, 2008) in multiple seasons. The Huskies finished an impressive sixth in the country in total defense in 2008. Under Edsall's guidance, the Huskies defeated members of the Atlantic Coast Conference, Big East, Big Ten, Big 12, Conference USA and Southeastern Conference during their Football Bowl Subdivision tenure.

In addition to the great success on the field, UConn has performed admirably in the classroom under Edsall. In five of the past seven years, including 2007, '08 and '09, UConn was recognized by the American Football Coaches Association for its high graduation rate.

UConn was the top team in the NCAA's Graduation Success Rate (GSR) in both October 2008 and '09 among league schools. The Huskies were third in the Big East in the 2010 GSR release and within four points of second.

In 2008, UConn had the highest GSR for African-American student-athletes among all state universities that participated in a bowl game following the 2008 season. In 2009, the APR for the UConn football team was an impressive 951, which was third in the Big East Conference and just five points behind the second-place team. That mark also placed Connecticut ahead of the Bowl Subdivision average of 941 and among the top 30 percent of schools in the country.

In 2007, UConn was one of just six schools to play in a bowl game and also boast a GSR over 80-percent for both its Caucasian and African-American student-athletes. In 2003, UConn was the only public Division I-A school to graduate at least 90 percent of its football players and in 2005, UConn was one of only eight schools to both graduate 70 percent and win a bowl game.

Even in its first season at the Division I-A level, UConn was able to make its mark on the national scene.

Edsall guided the 2002 team to a 6-6 record in its first year with a full complement of 85 scholarships. UConn ended the 2002 season impressively, registering four straight wins to reach the .500 mark, including season-ending road wins at Navy and at bowl-bound Iowa State.

UConn's .500 season was its best record since the squad won 10 games in 1998. The Huskies' six wins were more than the Huskies posted in 2000 (three) and 2001 (two) combined. In 2002, the Huskies were the most improved Division I-A team in the country, according to preseason and postseason ratings by College Football News.

The excitement for Edsall and his team continued to swell in 2003 as the Huskies moved into their new home, Rentschler Field, and enjoyed the nation's largest attendance increase (+ 21,252 fans per game).

Finishing with a 9-3 record, many national media outlets, including Bristol-based ESPN, proclaimed that UConn should have received a bowl berth, a feat highly-uncommon for an independent team.

With their membership in the Big East for the 2004 season, another strong campaign by the Huskies resulted in a bowl berth. UConn went 8-4 against a challenging slate that fall as the program gained its highest-ever level of exposure. The Huskies capped their historic season with a resounding 39-10 win over Mid-American Conference Champion Toledo in the Motor City Bowl.

The 2007 season witnessed a new level of excitement in Storrs as the Huskies earned their first ever national rankings, peaking at No. 13 in the BCS standings on Nov. 5. UConn became just the second Big East team to ever go 7-0 at home and defeat three teams there which were ranked in the Top 10 at some point during the season. The Big East Champion Huskies finished that season at 9-4 with a berth in the Meineke Car Care Bowl, earning Edsall New England Division I Coach of the Year accolades.

Edsall was named the 27th head football coach at the University of Connecticut on December 21, 1998. He brought 19 years of coaching experience to the Husky program, including 15 seasons on the collegiate level and three in the NFL.

Edsall joined the Huskies after completing the 1998 season as the defensive coordinator at Georgia Tech, where he helped the 14th-ranked Yellow Jackets complete a 9-2 campaign.

Prior to joining the staff at Georgia Tech, Edsall spent three seasons as the secondary coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars. In his three seasons on Tom Coughlin's staff, Edsall was a part of one of the most successful expansion franchises in the history of the NFL. The Jaguars reached the playoffs twice, including a berth in the 1996 AFC Championship Game.

Edsall began his coaching career in 1980 at his alma mater, Syracuse University. A former quarterback for the Orangemen, Edsall started as a graduate assistant from 1980-82. In 1983, Orange head coach Dick MacPherson named Edsall to oversee the running backs.

Edsall coached running backs for three seasons (1983-84 and 1986) and oversaw the tight ends in 1985 before making the switch to the defensive side of the ball. He coached the Syracuse defensive backs from 1987-1990 and during that period the Orangemen were ranked among the Division I-A leaders in pass defense.

He remained in the Big East for the next three years as he moved on to become the defensive backs coach at Boston College. Edsall served under Coughlin who was hired as head coach prior to the 1991 season.

Edsall was a three-year letterwinner in football, basketball and baseball at Susquehannock High School (Pa.) and was an all-state selection in all three sports as a senior which led to induction into the York Area Sports Hall of Fame.

At Syracuse he earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Syracuse in 1980 and a master's degree in health and physical education in 1982.

Edsall and his wife, Eileen, met at Syracuse University where she was a basketball and volleyball standout who was later inducted into the Syracuse University Hall of Fame. They have a daughter, Alexi (22) and a son, Corey (19).

He and his wife, Eileen, a former basketball and volleyball letterwinner at Syracuse, have a daughter, Alexi (22), and a son, Corey (19).

What They're Saying About Edsall ...

"Randy Edsall is an excellent football coach. He teaches and believes in the physical nature of the game. He is a great recruiter and his success at Connecticut earned his program compliments and recognition from college football's finest coaches. Randy is a very positive thinking person, and perhaps his greatest attribute is his persistence. He will persevere and he will win at Maryland and he will do it the right way!"
- Tom Coughlin, NY Giants head coach

"Maryland made a great choice in Randy Edsall. They not only have an excellent football coach but also have a man of high integrity and morality. He did one of the great coaching jobs in America at Connecticut. All you have to do is look at where they came from in the old Yankee Conference to the Fiesta Bowl."
- Ernie Accorsi, former NY Giants general manager

"I have always thought very highly of Randy. He is a proven talent, a straight talker and of the highest character. He is a terrific football coach and Maryland has gotten itself a tremendous hire."
- Dick Jauron, former defensive coordinator of the Jacksonville Jaguars and head coach of the Buffalo Bills and current defensive coordinator of the Cleveland Browns

"I've been around Randy quite a bit as members of the AFCA board of directors. I think a lot of him. He cut his teeth coaching with guys like Dick MacPherson and Tom Coughlin at Syracuse so you know he got a great introduction into coaching and had tremendous mentors. Randy's a guy with great character and integrity who has done a tremendous job throughout his career. What he did at Connecticut was amazing, taking them from a I-AA program to a BCS Conference and eventually a BCS game in a short period of time. With his sound fundamentals, toughness and recruiting contacts on the East Coast I think he'll be a huge hit at Maryland."
- Mack Brown, Texas head coach

"First and foremost, Coach Edsall makes you a better man on and off the field. He teaches you to become responsible and cares about you away from football."
- Darius Butler, 2008 UConn captain and current member of the Carolina Panthers

"Coach Edsall pushes you to be your best. It's not all about football. He teaches you to be a better man, a good family person and how to adapt to different situations. He prepares you for life after football."
- Julius Williams, former Husky defensive lineman and former member of the Jacksonville Jaguars

"Coach Edsall is very committed to setting goals that you can reach, and then daring you not only to reach them as fast as you can, but challenging you to want to achieve more."
- Dan Orlovsky, 2004 UConn captain and current Tampa Bay Buccaneers quarterback

Mike Locksley

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks
Towson '92 ■ Seventh Year at Maryland

Mike Locksley is in his seventh overall season with Maryland, including first as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

A native of Washington, D.C., Locksley return home after the 2011 season. He was an assistant coach at Maryland for six seasons (1997-02).

A veteran coach with over 20 years of experience, Locksley most recently spent four seasons (2005-08) as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach for the University of Illinois and two-plus years (2009-11) as head coach at the University of New Mexico.

He possesses a well-rounded coaching resume, having tutored every offensive or defensive position except offensive line.

Locksley is also known for strong recruiting skills. He was listed as a top-25 recruiter in the nation three different times (2003, 2005, 2006) and was a finalist for 2007 recruiter of the year by Rivals.com. He also engineered top 10 recruiting classes during each of his two seasons (2003-04) as running backs coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Florida.

Locksley's first stint as an offensive coordinator was quite a success. He took over an Illinois offense which was ranked No. 86 nationally in total offense (338.1 yards per game) and gradually improved it to a top 20 unit.

The Illini went from No. 72 nationally in total offense (354.6 ypg) in 2005 to No. 19 (438.3 ypg) in 2008. They led the Big Ten in rushing in 2006 (188.8 ypg) and 2007 (256.7 ypg), and in passing (269.3 ypg) in 2008. The rushing attack was twice ranked in the top 10 nationally (No. 10 in 2006; No. 5 in 2007).

Locksley also cultivated a number of players at Illinois under head coach Ron Zook.

Quarterback Juice Williams passed for more than 6,000 yards and rushed for over 2,000 in his three years under Locksley and was a 2008 All-Big Ten choice. Williams set school records for rushing yards by a quarterback and single-season total offense. Williams led the Big Ten in passing (3,173 yards) and total offense (3,892 yards) in 2008 and was third in passing efficiency (136.15 rating).

Wide receiver Arrelious Benn was a first team all-conference pick as a sophomore in 2008 after leading the league in receiving yards (1,055). He went on to become a second-round pick of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the 2010 NFL Draft.

The 2007 Illinois offense became just the third unit in school history to surpass the 5,000-yard mark and first to top 3,000 rushing yards. Led by Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year Rashard Mendenhall, the Illini led the league in rushing for the second straight year and finished fifth nationally at 256.7 yards a game.

Mendenhall, who averaged 129 rushing yards, was a first-round pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 2008 NFL Draft.

Illinois played USC in the 2008 Rose Bowl and finished the season ranked 18th in the nation in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches' poll and 20th by the Associated Press following a 9-4 season.

In 2006, Locksley led an Illinois offense that paced the Big Ten and ranked 10th in the nation in rushing, averaging 188.8 yards. He tutored versatile running back Pierre Thomas, a two-time honorable mention all-league Ten pick, who wrapped up his career as the No. 6 all-time rusher at Illinois and has gone on to star with the New Orleans Saints.

Locksley helped put the players in place to aid in Illinois' resurgence. He was named the No. 5 recruiter in the Big Ten and ranked among the top 20 in the nation by Sports Illustrated. In 2005, Rivals.com named him a top-25 recruiter.

Prior to his arrival at Illinois, Locksley worked two seasons for Zook at Florida, serving as running backs coach and recruiting coordinator. Both of those seasons ended with bowl-game appearances.

In 2004, Gators' running back Ciatrick Fason led the SEC and ranked 19th in the NCAA in rushing (105.6 yards a game) en route to second-team all-league honors.

That season, Florida finished first in the SEC in both passing yards (271 per game) and total offense (426.9 ypg) and was second in scoring (31.8 points per game).

The year prior, three Gator rushers logged more than 500 rushing yards and each averaged at least 5.5 yards per carry.

Locksley had success both recruiting and grooming players in his first stint in College Park. He oversaw the running backs during his entire tenure, including the final five as recruiting coordinator.

Three different running backs - Chris Downs, Bruce Perry and Lamont Jordan - gained more than 1,000 yards and were named first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference.

Jordan spearheaded a 1999 rushing attack that led the ACC (234.1 ypg) and ranked 12th in the nation. Jordan was the runner-up for 1997 ACC Rookie of the Year and finished as a Doak Walker semifinalist. He went to be selected in the second round of the 2001 NFL Draft and totaled more than 3,700 yards for four teams in a nine-year professional career.

Perry was the 2001 ACC Offensive Player of the Year, a first for a Maryland running back, and the first sophomore to win the award. Both Perry and Jordan earned All-America honors under Locksley's watch.

Locksley, 42, played safety at Towson University, where he was the team's defensive MVP as a senior in 1991. He finished his career ranked 19th on the school's all-time tackles list and graduated with a bachelor's degree in business administration and marketing.

He got his coaching career started the following year at Towson, overseeing the defensive backs coach and special teams unit. He went on to coach at the U.S. Naval Prep School (1993-94), Pacific (1995) and Army (1996).

He helped Army reach the 1996 Independence Bowl and has coached in five other postseason games.

Locksley and his wife, Kia, have four children: three sons (Mike, Jr., Meiko and Kai) and one daughter (Kori).

Brian Stewart

Defensive Coordinator/Defensive Backs
Northern Arizona '95 ■ First Year at Maryland

Brian Stewart is in his first season as Maryland's defensive coordinator and secondary coach.

A former NFL defensive coordinator, Stewart completed a successful two-year stint with the Houston Cougars, who ended 2011 with a 13-1 record and a No. 14 ranking in the final USA Today poll.

Stewart oversaw a Cougars defense which was one of the best in the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) in 2011, ranking in the top 15 in five categories: red-zone scoring (second - 67 percent), interceptions (t-third - 21), tackles for loss (sixth - 7.7 per game), turnovers gained (t-10th - 31) and opponent passing efficiency (12th - 111.75 rating).

After taking hold of Stewart's aggressive 3-4 scheme, Houston also improved from 96th nationally in scoring defense (32.2 points per game) in 2010 to 35th (22.4) last year.

Stewart has a history of grooming players and a pair of senior linebackers flourished last season in his defense.

Marcus McGraw totaled 141 stops in 2011 to set a school record for career tackles (509) and Sammy Brown finished the year with 30 tackles for a loss (a school record), including 13.5 sacks (second on the all-time Houston list). Brown led the FBS in TFL (2.1 per game) en route to All-America honors.

Another reason for Houston's defensive improvement was the play of cornerback D.J. Hayden. The junior-college transfer was named the 2011 Conference USA Newcomer of the Year after posting 11 pass breakups, two interceptions and five forced fumbles.

Stewart went to Houston after an eight-year run as an NFL assistant, including two years (2007-08) as the defensive coordinator with Dallas, where he guided the Cowboys to two top-10 rankings in fewest yards allowed.

The Cowboys led the league with 59 sacks in 2008 and ranked third in that category in 2007 (46). An NFL-best five Cowboys defenders (DeMarcus Ware, Roy Williams, Greg Ellis, Ken Hamlin and Terence Newman) earned Pro Bowl selections after the 2007 campaign.

Stewart spent the 2009 season as a defensive special assistant with the Philadelphia Eagles, where he coached the NFL's top cornerback interception tandem of Asante Samuel (nine) and Sheldon Brown (five). Samuel led the league in interceptions in 2009 and was named to the 2010 Pro Bowl.

Stewart served as the secondary coach with the San Diego Chargers for three seasons (2004-06). During his final year, the Chargers posted a 14-2 record and ranked seventh in the NFL in scoring defense (18.9 points allowed per game), while cornerback Quentin Jammer had a career-high four interceptions.

Stewart began his NFL career as an assistant defensive backs coach with the Houston Texans (2002-03).

Before joining the professional ranks, Stewart spent his first nine years of coaching at the collegiate level.

He served as the defensive backs coach at Syracuse in 2001 when he helped lead the Orange to a 10-3 overall record and No. 14 ranking in final Associated Press poll.

Stewart also coached the secondary at San Jose State (1997-98) and Missouri (1999-00).

During his tenure at SJSU, his unit tied for seventh nationally with 20 interceptions in 1997, while the Spartans' pass defense ranked 37th nationally, its highest finish in the 1990s.

Stewart also mentored Missouri all-league free safety Julian Jones, who had a Big 12-best six interceptions in 1999.

A former college cornerback and free safety with Northern Arizona and Santa Monica City College, Stewart earned his bachelor's degree in criminal justice from NAU in 1995.

His first coaching position came as offensive assistant at Cal Poly, where he worked with the wide receivers in 1993 and running backs in 1994, when the Mustangs won the American West Conference title.

The native of West Covina, Calif., also coached tight ends at Northern Arizona University (1995) and was a graduate assistant at Missouri (1996).

Stewart is involved with a number of off-the-field endeavors.

He is the president of the Urban Football Coaches Association which conducts an annual coaching clinic in Los Angeles.

He attended Nogales High School in La Puente, Calif., and annually conducts a free, one-day football camp there for kids 7-19. He also serves as host for ASR - a sports retreat for minority coaches and administrators.

Stewart and his wife, Kimberly, have three daughters: Leila, Mya and Zara.

Tom Brattan

Offensive Line

Delaware '72 • 12th Year at Maryland

After coaching in the Big Ten and Pac-10, Tom Brattan has found a home with Maryland in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

The veteran coach is in his 12th season as the Terps' offensive line coach. He boasts more than 36 years of coaching experience, including 30 at the collegiate level.

The Maryland offensive line has been one of the team's strengths since 2001, producing seven first team All-Atlantic Coast Conference performers and a handful of other players honored by both the league and national media, including Paul Pinegar in 2010 (honorable mention All-ACC).

Brattan has also prepared a number of players for the next level as six of his former Terp pupils were on NFL rosters last season, including Bruce Campbell, a fourth-round choice of Oakland in the 2010 NFL Draft.

In 2008, Edwin Williams was a first team All-ACC selection, while Jaimie Thomas and Scott Burley were honorable mention choices. Williams and Thomas have been in the NFL the last three seasons.

In 2007, Andrew Crummey, another current professional, was tabbed a second team All-American, while Burley earned all-conference honors.

Over the last six seasons, Brattan's offensive line opened holes for four of the top backs in school history.

Davin Meggett ended his career last season ranked seventh on the Terps career rushing yards list (2,411).

In 2008, Da'Rel Scott rushed for 1,133 yards, the seventh-highest single-season total in school history. Scott ended his career in 2010 ranked seventh (now eighth) on the Maryland career rushing list.

One year before that, Lance Ball completed his career ranked fourth in school history in rushing yards and Keon Lattimore ended his tenure No. 14 on the rushing list (now 16th). Ball has totaled the football for the Denver Broncos the last three seasons.

In 2006, Crummey and Stephon Heyer were recognized as part of the All-ACC team. Heyer also earned a spot on ESPN.com's All-Bowl team for his performance in the Champs Sports Bowl vs. All-American and 2007 first-round NFL Draft choice Anthony Spencer of Purdue.

The 2006 unit allowed Ball and Lattimore to each rush for over 700 yards and yielded just 19 sacks, the second-lowest total in the ACC.

In 2005, he mentored Jared Gaither to third team freshman All-America honors. Brattan also oversaw a young line to a season that helped Ball earn second team All-ACC recognition at tailback, all despite losing its top player (Heyer) prior to the season. The season was reminiscent of the 2003 campaign when an injury-plagued unit still produced the nation's 24th-best rushing offense, allowed just 20 sacks and had a first team All-ACC performer in C.J. Brooks.

In previous seasons, the Maryland line had similar success. In 2002, Brattan had four of five linemen earn All-

ACC recognition while the team had the league's second-rated rushing attack (198.8 ypg) and scoring offense (32.2 ppg) while allowing 21 sacks in 14 games.

In his first year (2001), the Terps averaged 35.5 points per game, allowed just 18 sacks and paved the way for a 1,242-yard season from Doak Walker finalist Bruce Perry. In doing so, Melvin Fowler earned All-ACC recognition en route to being drafted by the Cleveland Browns in the third round and Todd Wike earning a first team all-league nod.

Prior to coming to Maryland, Brattan spent two years (1999-00) at Stanford, where he served as the Cardinal's line coach in charge of centers and guards. Stanford went 8-4 in 1999 en route to a Rose Bowl bid. The 1999 Stanford offense scored at least 31 points in all but three games and hit the 50-point plateau three times. That year, Brattan's offensive line allowed just 15 sacks despite 385 passing attempts (one sack for every 27 attempts).

Brattan took his first full-time job at the collegiate level at William & Mary in 1983 as an offensive backfield coach. After just one season, he was promoted to offensive coordinator and served the remainder of his tenure (1984-91) in that capacity. He also worked with the offensive line at William & Mary. In that time, the Tribe advanced to the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs on three occasions. From 1986 to 1990, William & Mary earned national rankings in three seasons (No. 9 in 1986; No. 13 in 1989; No. 7 in 1990). The success was largely a product of Brattan's offensive design as his unit ranked in the top 20 in offense in 1985 and 1986, while it had the top-rated attack in Division I-AA for the 1990 season and the sixth-best in '91.

Brattan took his success at the I-AA level to his next job, Northwestern, where he resided from 1992-98 as offensive line coach. In Brattan's first three years at the school, the Wildcats continued to struggle, pushing their streak of seasons without a winning mark to 23.

Then in 1995, the Wildcats were in the national spotlight as they came seemingly out of nowhere to win the Big Ten championship for the first time in 47 years and advance to the Rose Bowl where they ultimately fell to USC. They finished the year ranked No. 7 in the nation with a 10-2 mark. Brattan's line allowed just eight sacks all year while helping propel Darnell Autry to a new school rushing record. Northwestern finished fifth nationally in rushing.

The Wildcats posted a combined 15-1 league record in 1995 and 1996, taking the Big Ten crown both years after having won just five league games in the previous three years. In 1996, they earned a bid to play Tennessee in the Citrus Bowl.

Brattan got his start in coaching as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Delaware, in 1972. After one year in Newark, he took his first full-time coaching post at Highland Springs (Va.) High School as an offensive line coach. After three years (1973-75) at Highland Springs, he moved back to his home state of Delaware and took his first head coaching job at McKean High School in 1977. He spent one year at McKean - the same high school that helped produce Maryland legend Randy White - before moving back to Virginia and taking over as the head coach at Lloyd C. Bird High School. After serving at Bird in 1978, he returned to Highland Springs -- this time as a head coach -- for his final four years (1979-82) at the prep level.

A native of Newark, Del., Brattan is a 1972 graduate of his hometown school where he earned his bachelor's degree in history and later earned his master's degree in education in 1977. He was a member of the Blue Hen football team, lettering in 1971. He and his wife, Anne, have three children -- Kristen, Kate and Megan.

Keith Dudzinski

Inside Linebackers

New Haven '91 ■ Second Year at Maryland

A long-time defensive coordinator, Keith Dudzinski is in his second season as a Maryland assistant coach, overseeing the inside linebackers.

He served as the defensive coordinator at UMass-Amherst the previous seven years, his second stop at the school and second career stint as a coordinator, and the Minutemen maintained one of the top units in the nation during that span.

UMass finished among the top 20 in total defense three times (third in 2005; 20th in 2006; 13th in 2007) and the Minutemen were also first nationally in scoring defense in 2005 and fifth in 2006.

Dudzinski has coached a number of standout performers at his five stops as a collegiate coach.

Demetrius Hartsfield ranked second in the ACC and fifth nationally in tackles (12.0 per game) in 2011 en route to honorable mention all-league honors.

In addition, L.A. Goree earned freshman All-America honors last season after starting at both the Mike and Will positions, and averaging 5.0 tackles per game.

UMass linebacker Tyler Holmes was a finalist for the 2010 Buck Buchanan Award, honoring the top defensive player in the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS).

In 2009, Holmes had a tremendous season as he was named All-Colonial Athletic Association after racking up 100 tackles. In 2008, guided by Dudzinski UMass had one of the top linebacker corps in the nation led by first team all-conference selection Josh Jennings who racked up 90 tackles.

The 2007 season was no different as the Minutemen led the CAA in total defense (309.6 yards per game), scoring defense (19.2 points per game), sacks, tackles for loss and passing efficiency defense. The UMass defense had five first-team All-CAA selections that year including linebackers Jason Hatchell and Charles Walker, who both worked directly with Dudzinski.

Hatchell was an All-American and Buchanan Award candidate in 2007 after piling up 115 tackles. He finished his career with 360 stops, sixth in UMass history. Walker had a team-high 116 tackles in 2007 and finished ninth in career stops (340).

UMass' defense was impressive throughout the 2006 season as the Minutemen advanced to the National Championship game. The Minutemen led the nation in scoring defense until that championship game, finishing fifth, giving up 13.3 points per game. The Minutemen finished in the top 20 nationally in nine defensive statistics.

Dudzinski worked directly with three all-league linebackers in Hatchell, Walker and Brad Anderson. All three players racked up more than 100 tackles on the season. Hatchell, also an All-American that season, emerged as one of the nation's top tacklers after finishing second in the conference with 134 stops.

The Minutemen had a league-best 20 all-conference honorees in 2006, including eight on defense.

During his second season in Amherst, Mass., Dudzinski oversaw a defense which led the nation in fewest points allowed (13.3 ppg). The Minutemen also led the Atlantic 10 in five defensive categories and ranked in the nation's top five in four. UMass topped the conference in total yardage defense, passing defense, pass efficiency defense, net punting and scoring defense.

Working with the linebackers, he coached two A-10 second-team honorees in two-time team captain Serge Tikum and Hatchell, who had a team-high 107 tackles. The defense also included two-time consensus first-team All-American Shannon James and all-league selections defensive end Keron Williams and safety James Ihedigbo.

In 2004, Dudzinski headed up a defense which featured consensus first-team All-American Shannon James, who led the nation in interceptions.

Dudzinski spent two seasons (2002-03) as linebackers coach at Northeastern, including defensive coordinator his final year.

He directed the career of first team All-American and two-time first team All-Atlantic 10 selection Liam Ezekiel, who made 140 total tackles in 2003.

During the 2002 season, the Huskies allowed opponents only 299.3 total yards and 16.0 points per game. During the 2002 campaign, Dudzinski helped lead Northeastern to a record of 10-3, a share of the Atlantic 10 Conference title and the school's first-ever trip to the NCAA Division I-AA (now FCS) Playoffs.

During his first stint as an assistant coach at UMass under Mark Whipple, Dudzinski served in a variety of roles on the defensive side of the ball. He coached the secondary in 2001, the linebackers in 1999 and 2000, and the defensive line in 1998. He also oversaw the special teams his final three seasons.

Dudzinski guided the career of Kole Ayi, who was a two-time first team All-American (1999-00) and two-time Buck Buchanan Award finalist.

Dudzinski first joined the UMass staff after spending four years at Brown under Whipple as the defensive line coach for the Bears. Dudzinski helped the Brown defense hold opponents to just 194 total points during the 1997 season (19.4 points per game) -- the fewest number of points allowed by the school in 10 years. While at Brown, he helped develop two-time first-team All-Ivy defensive tackle Brendan Finneran (1996 and 1997).

Prior to coming to Brown, Dudzinski was a defensive assistant at New Haven under Whipple for three years (1991-93), working with the outside linebackers. He has also worked as an assistant coach at Kolbe Cathedral High School in Bridgeport, Conn., and St. Joseph's High School in Trumbull, Conn.

John Dunn

Tight Ends/Recruiting Coordinator
North Carolina '05 ■ Second Year at Maryland

John Dunn is in his second season with Maryland after stops at LSU and North Carolina.

Dunn, who spent the previous three seasons as a graduate offensive assistant with the Tigers, is serving as the tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator.

The Hendersonville, N.C., native will coach an experienced group of tight ends this season with seniors Matt Furstenburg, Devonte Campbell and Ryan Schlothauer, and junior Dave Stinebaugh all set to return.

He helped the Terps pull in a top-40 recruiting class in 2012, which included a number of high-profile local prospects.

The Terps landed six recruits who were rated with four or five stars. They also hauled in five of the top 16 players in the state of Maryland and two of the top five in Washington, D.C.

At LSU, Dunn helped coach the tight ends, offensive line and quarterbacks and ran meetings with those position groups. Dunn also had primary responsibility for the assimilation of the playbook and all computer drawings, as well as all practice scripts and game plans.

In 2010, the Tigers went 11-2 and defeated Texas A&M in the Cotton Bowl, their fifth victory over a ranked opponent that season. In his three years at LSU, the Tigers had a 28-11 record and went 2-1 in bowl games.

Dunn also assisted with all on-campus recruiting for the Tigers, as they pulled in the No. 11 class in 2008, the No. 1 class in 2009 and the No. 8 class in 2010, according to ESPN.com's rankings.

Dunn walked on at North Carolina in 2001 and played there until 2003 before his career was cut short by a neck injury. He served as a student assistant while finishing his undergraduate studies. In his second season on the Tar Heel staff Dunn became a quality control assistant and then worked as a graduate coaching assistant on the offensive side of the ball his final two years (2006-07) in Chapel Hill.

At Carolina, Dunn helped tutor wide receiver Hakeem Nicks who finished the '07 season ranked in the top 35 nationally in receptions (6.2) and receiving yards per game (79.83) while earning All-ACC first team honors. Nicks was taken 29th overall by the New York Giants in the 2009 NFL Draft.

Dunn played quarterback and tight end for the Tar Heels, lettering in 2003. He is married to the former Lindsay Moffitt who played volleyball at UNC Wilmington.

Greg Gattuso

Defensive Line

Penn State '83 • Second Year at Maryland

A former collegiate head coach, Greg Gattuso is in his second year as the defensive line coach at Maryland after spending the previous six seasons at the University of Pittsburgh.

Gattuso was promoted to assistant head coach in February 2012 and will assist Randy Edsall in some day-to-day duties.

Gattuso has a long history of success, winning a national title in 1982 as a defensive lineman at Penn State, leading Duquesne to a 97-32 record during his head-coaching tenure and building Pittsburgh's defensive line into one of the best in the nation as an assistant head coach. He has also developed a name as a top recruiter, having hauled in a top-10 class while serving as recruiting coordinator at Pittsburgh.

Gattuso has gotten the most out of the players under his wing.

He helped mold defensive lineman Joe Vellano into an All-American last season. Vellano led the FBS in tackles by a defensive lineman (7.8 per game) en route to second team All-America honors by both the Associated Press and Walter Camp.

During his time at Pittsburgh, Gattuso turned the Panthers' defensive line into one of the team's major strengths. In his last two seasons, the line was one of the top sack producers in the nation.

Brandon Lindsey (10.0) and Jabaal Sherard (9.0) both ranked in the top 20 nationally in sacks during the 2010 regular season and Pittsburgh led the nation in that category in 2009 (3.6 per game).

Sheard was the 2010 Big East Defensive Player of the Year, the second straight season Gattuso coached the award winner. Pitt defensive linemen Greg Romeus and Mick Williams shared the award in 2009.

Three starters on Pitt's defensive front were honored on the 2009 All-Big East Team, as tackle Gus Mustakas earned second-team honors.

Gattuso initially joined the Pitt staff in 2005 as tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator. In his first season, he helped the Panthers sign a recruiting class rated 10th in the nation by Scout.com, 16th by ESPN.com and 21st by Rivals.com. He began coaching the defensive line in 2006 and was promoted to assistant head coach in 2008.

Prior to his time at Pitt, Gattuso had a successful 12-year stint (1993-04) as head coach at Duquesne University, where he built the Dukes into one of the elite I-AA football programs in the nation. The winningest coach in school history, the Dukes went 97-32 (.752) under his direction, won eight Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) titles, made five bowl appearances and captured the 2003 consensus Mid-Major Division I-AA national championship.

The Western Pennsylvania native was twice named the national Mid-Major I-AA Coach of the Year and was a seven-time MAAC Coach of the Year. The Dukes dominated the conference during his tenure, going 66-7 (.904) in league play, including a 33-game winning streak.

Gattuso was an assistant coach at Duquesne in 1992 before taking over the head-coaching post the following year.

From 1989-91, he served as head coach at his high school alma mater, Seton-LaSalle. Taking over a team that went 6-34 during the four seasons prior to his arrival, Gattuso led the Rebels to a 28-10-1 mark (.731), including three WPIAL playoff berths, a WPIAL championship and Parkway Conference title.

During his playing career, Gattuso was named the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette's Class AA Player of the Year his senior season at Seton-LaSalle and was a two-time All-East defensive lineman at Penn State. He was a member of the Lions' 1982 national title team and graduated in 1983 with a bachelor's degree in administration and criminal justice.

Gattuso and his wife Colleen have two daughters, Jacqueline and Kaitlin.

Lee Hull

Wide Receivers

Holy Cross '88 ■ Fifth Year at Maryland

With a background that includes a professional playing career and a diverse coaching resume, Lee Hull is in his fifth season as wide receivers coach at Maryland.

Hull, who spent the previous five seasons as an assistant coach at Oregon State University, tutored some of the top receivers in Maryland history the last four years.

In his first season in College Park, Hull helped prepare first-round NFL Draft pick Darrius Heyward-Bey for the next level and oversaw a unit which featured senior standouts Isaiah Williams and Danny Oquendo.

Under Hull's guidance, Torrey Smith was a two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference performer. Smith posted 67 receptions for 1,055 receiving yards and a school-record 12 touchdown catches in 2010. Smith was selected by the Baltimore Ravens in the second round of the 2011 NFL Draft, making it two Terrapin receivers taken in the first two rounds over a three-season span.

In addition, LaQuan Williams earned a spot on the Ravens' squad in 2011 after signing as a free agent.

Hull has also groomed Kevin Dorsey and Kerry Boykins who should play important roles in 2012.

Hull has experience coaching other positions.

He tutored running backs his first two seasons in Corvallis and wide receivers the last three. He coached three OSU All-Americans, including a pair of wideouts, and was a part of four bowl wins.

The 46-year-old had three receivers catch 30 or more passes in 2007, including Darrell Catchings, who was a freshman All-American along with fellow wideout James Rodgers.

In 2006, he coached Sammie Stroughter to All-America status in one of Oregon State's best seasons. The Beavers posted a 10-4 record, second-best in school history, including a win over Missouri in the Sun Bowl. That season, Stroughter led the Pac-10 Conference and ranked 10th in the country in receiving yards per game (92.4).

Stroughter was on the watch list for the 2007 Biletnikoff Award, which honors the top receiver in the nation. He went on to be selected in the 2009 NFL Draft by Tampa Bay.

In Hull's first season in charge of OSU wide receivers, Mike Hass ended his stellar career as a first-team All-America selection and the winner of the 2005 Biletnikoff Award. Hass posted the third-highest receiving yards total (3,924) in league history. He is currently a member of the Seattle Seahawks.

Hull also coached current St. Louis Rams' running back Steven Jackson during the 2003 season. Jackson was a first-team All-Pac-10 and third-team All-America choice as a junior, his final season at OSU. He was a first-round draft choice in the 2004 NFL Draft.

Prior to his five seasons at Oregon State, Hull spent five years (1998-2002) at his alma mater, the College of the Holy Cross. He coached linebackers for one season before becoming wide receivers coach, as well as overseeing the kickoff coverage and kickoff return units. He also went on to become the passing game coordinator.

Hull was a standout wide receiver at Holy Cross from 1984-87, playing under former Maryland coach Mark Duffner his final two seasons. The Crusaders posted a 21-1 record his last two years and were ranked No. 1 in Division I-AA in 1987. Holy Cross also won the Colonial League title and the Lambert Cup that season. He was a preseason All-America choice as a junior.

He went on to play professionally with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the CFL. Hull spent 1990-92 with Winnipeg where he was coached by Mike Riley in his first season. Riley was the head coach at Oregon State during Hull's five-year tenure. The Blue Bombers won the 1990 Grey Cup. He also played for Toronto in 1992.

Hull was also a free-agent signee of the New England Patriots in 1998.

Prior to joining Holy Cross, he coached at the prep level in Massachusetts for five years. He was offensive coordinator at South High School in Worcester, Mass., for three years (1992-94) and the passing game coordinator at Auburn High School in 1995. He returned to South High in 1996 as head coach.

During his coaching career, Hull has participated in a number of internships. In 1999 he interned in the CFL. In 2000 and 2001 he took part in the NFL's Minority Internship Program. In addition, he attended the 2007 Minority Coaches Forum in Chandler, Ariz., and the 2012 NFL and NCAA Coaches Academy in Dallas.

Hull earned his bachelor's degree in economics from Holy Cross in 1988 and a master's in secondary education from Worcester State in 1995.

He had a stellar high school career as both a football player and track performer.

A native of Vineland, N.J., Hull lettered twice as a wide receiver for Vineland High School. He was selected All-Cape League, first-team All-South Jersey, first-team All-New Jersey Group-4, honorable mention all-state and the Vineland Student-Athlete of the Year. He was a long jumper and ran the 400 meters.

Hull and his wife, Stacey, have two sons, Alexander and Jordan, and one daughter, Laila.

Lyndon Johnson

Outside Linebackers

Connecticut '92 ■ Second Year at Maryland

After spending 12 seasons in a variety of roles on head coach Randy Edsall's staff at Connecticut, Lyndon Johnson is in his second season at Maryland.

Johnson oversees the outside linebackers (Sam and Will positions).

He had the dual role of outside linebackers coach and special teams coordinator in 2011, but with a change to a 3-4 scheme will concentrate on the outside LB position.

The UConn graduate coached tight ends and special teams his first three seasons (1999-01) with the Huskies.

He became Edsall's recruiting coordinator from 2002-05 before moving back to special teams for his final four seasons.

Johnson handled the outside-linebacker position throughout his final nine years in Storrs, Conn.

Johnson had the top kick returner in the nation in 2010 in Nick Williams who averaged 35.3 yards per attempt and had two touchdowns. As a team the Huskies ranked third nationally in kickoff returns, bolstering a run to the Big East Championship and a berth in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

The Huskies were ninth in the FBS in kickoff returns in 2009 (25.8 yards per return) while setting a school record with three returns for touchdown, and Robert McClain ranked 18th nationally in punt returns (12.6 ypr).

UConn's special teams also aided its run to the 2007 Big East Championship. The team returned two punts for touchdowns and also returned two kickoffs for touchdowns.

The season saw Tony Ciaravino score an even 100 points, a record for a UConn kicker, and punter Desi Cullen record a 40.7 yard average, fifth-best in UConn history.

Cullen concluded his career in 2009 and had the career record for punting average with 41.1 yards per punt and set the single-season record at 42.8.

During the 2007 and '08 seasons, Johnson coached linebacker Scott Lutrus to postseason honors. Lutrus was a first-team freshman All-America selection after the 2007 campaign and an All-Big East pick in 2008.

Johnson began his coaching career at Brien McMahon High School in Norwalk, Conn., where he spent four seasons (1993-96) including the final two as defensive coordinator.

He made his collegiate coaching debut at Sacred Heart in Bridgeport, Conn., where he served as defensive coordinator in 1997, before moving on to Fordham to coach the defensive line in 1998.

Johnson, a four-year letterwinner for UConn from 1989-1992, started all 33 games on the offensive line over his final three seasons. He served as team captain in 1991 and was named the team's Most Valuable Offensive Player that year. He was a second team All-Yankee Conference pick in 1989 and a second team All-ECAC selection in 1990.

A native of Norwalk, Conn., Johnson received his degree in sociology from UConn in 1992. He and his wife Cynthia have two sons, Taren and Trace.

Andre Powell

Running Backs/Special Teams
Indiana '89 ■ Second Year at Maryland

A veteran of the Atlantic Coast Conference, Andre Powell is in his second season with Maryland.

Powell oversees the Terrapin running backs. He also assumed the duties of special teams coordinator in February, 2012.

Powell came to Maryland after spending the previous four seasons at Clemson where he coached running backs and coordinated the special teams his final three years.

He has 20 years of experience coaching college football and is making his fourth stop in the ACC. In addition to his four seasons with the Tigers, Powell coached at Virginia (1996-00) and North Carolina (2001-06).

At Clemson, he coached unanimous first-team All-American running back and return specialist C.J. Spiller, helping him become the No. 9 overall selection of the Buffalo Bills in the 2010 NFL Draft. Spiller was the ACC Player of the Year in 2009 and finished his career No. 2 in NCAA FBS history in all-purpose running.

Spiller ranked in the top 15 in the FBS in kickoff returns in each of his final three years (2007-09) and became the first running back in ACC history with 1,000 rushing yards and 500 receiving yards in the same season (2009). He also set the FBS record for career kickoff returns for touchdowns (seven) and tied the record for total kick returns for a score (eight).

Powell also tutored All-ACC running back James Davis in 2007 and 2008, who along with Spiller, is among the top three rushers in Clemson history.

Along with the success of his running backs, Powell oversaw a kickoff-return unit that finished in the top 25 nationally his first three seasons and in the top 40 in 2010. In 2009, the Tigers ranked seventh in the country in punt returns, including a pair of touchdowns.

In addition, Clemson was 113th in the nation in kickoff return yardage defense the year before Powell arrived in Death Valley. The first year he took over the unit (2008) the Tigers were No. 47 nationally and the following season they reached No. 24 in the country.

That success translated to consistent winning as the Tigers went to a bowl game every year Powell was at Clemson and finished in the top 25 of the final AP poll in 2007 and 2009.

While at North Carolina, Powell coached a future NFL standout in running back Willie Parker, as well as Ronnie McGill, who finished his career 10th in school history with 2,393 rushing yards.

Powell also coached special teams his final three seasons at UNC. He steered the Tar Heels' kickoff return unit to a No. 7 national ranking in 2005 and second in the ACC in 2006.

Prior to his time at North Carolina, Powell spent five seasons with the Cavaliers where he coached the running backs in 1996, the wide receivers from 1997-99 and the running backs again in 2000. At Virginia, he tutored future NFL players Tiki Barber, Germaine Crowell, Thomas Jones, Charles Kirby, Pat Washington and Terrence Wilkins.

Powell also had two different stints as an assistant coach at Army (1991, 95), along with graduate assistant positions at Indiana (1989) and South Carolina (1990). He coached running backs for the first time at Virginia Military (1992) and spent two seasons (1993-94) coaching the same unit at Rhode Island.

A native of Lockhart, S.C., Powell played two seasons at Lees-McRae (1984-85) prior to earning two letters at Indiana where he was a member of two bowl teams (1986 All-American; 1988 Peach Bowl). He earned Indiana's Most Improved Player award during his senior season and was the lead blocker for 1,000-yard rusher Anthony Thompson that season.

Powell earned a bachelor's of science degree in health, physical education & recreation from Indiana in 1989. He and his wife Joann have a son, Andre II, and two daughters, Alayna and Mikala.

2011 GAME RECAPS

	Game 1
Maryland	32
Miami	24

Sept. 5, 2011

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Nick Ferrara kicked a 32-yard field goal to put Maryland ahead with 1:39 left, Danny O'Brien threw for 348 yards and a touchdown, and defensive back Cameron Chism played a part in two touchdowns as Maryland won its ACC opener, 32-24, over Miami before a sellout crowd.

The Terrapins emerged from the locker room with new white uniforms patterned after the state flag. They wore helmets spashed with red and white on the left side and black and yellow on the right, and the pattern continued to the shoulders.

Maryland amassed 311 yards and 19 first downs in the first half alone and finished with 499 yards, including 92 yards on 21 carries by Davin Meggett.

The seesaw contest came down to the closing minutes. Soon after O'Brien completed a 52-yard pass to Kevin Dorsey down the right sideline, Ferrara entered only one series after missing from 23 yards out. This one, however, was right down the middle, giving the Terrapins a 26-24 lead.

Chism then provided the clincher.

Miami was playing its initial game under Al Golden without eight suspended players.

Stephen Morris capably filled in for Harris, going 19 for 28 for 195 yards and running for a touchdown. But on a fourth-and-4 in the final minute, the sophomore threw an interception that Chism took 54 yards to put the game out of reach with 39 seconds remaining.

The Hurricanes took a 21-20 lead early in the third quarter on a 5-yard run by Morris. Maryland regained the lead when Ferrara kicked his third field goal to end a 14-play drive.

Morris then directed a 67-yard march that ended with a 30-yard field goal by Jake Wieclaw for a 24-23 lead with 4:01 remaining.

The Terrapins led 20-14 at halftime. After blowing a 10-0 advantage, Maryland moved back in front when Chism caused Mike James to fumble and defensive lineman Joe Vellano lumbered 30 yards for a score.

	Game 2
#18 West Virginia	37
Maryland	31

Sept. 17, 2011

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Danny O'Brien completed 34 of 52 passes for 289 yards and a touchdown, but threw three interceptions in a 37-31 loss to 18th-ranked West Virginia before a sellout crowd.

The last turnover, with 1:13 remaining, came after Maryland reached the West Virginia 35 and ended a strong comeback bid that brought the Terrapins back from a 24-point deficit.

WVU's Geno Smith threw for a career-high 388 yards, and the Mountaineers needed every one of them to hold of the Terps.

One week earlier, West Virginia (3-0) trailed Norfolk State at halftime before pulling away. The Mountaineers addressed that deficiency and built a 27-10 lead at the break against the stunned Terrapins.

The margin swelled to 24 points before Maryland rallied, closing to 34-31 with 10:29 remaining.

Both teams used the no-huddle offense with uncanny efficiency. West Virginia averaged six yards per play and Maryland amassed 477 yards on a whopping 87 snaps.

Smith had 232 yards passing in the first half to help the Mountaineers take a 17-point lead. The junior then threw a 34-yard touchdown pass to Stedman Bailey on West Virginia's first possession of the third quarter to make it 34-10.

The Terrapins scored three straight touchdowns to cut the gap to 34-31, thrilling the sellout crowd of 53,627. But Maryland couldn't complete the comeback.

	Game 3
Temple	38
Maryland	7

Sept. 24, 2011

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Bernard Pierce set a school record with five rushing touchdowns, and Temple built a 31-point halftime lead in a 38-7 win over Maryland.

Temple (3-1) defeated Maryland (1-2) for the first time. The Terrapins fell to 6-1 against the Owls.

Temple led 21-0 with just over 11 minutes elapsed, boosted the margin to 31-0 at halftime and played conservatively to the finish. It was 38-0 before the Terrapins got their only score, on a touchdown pass by backup quarterback C.J. Brown with 4:31 remaining.

Pierce ran 32 times for 149 yards, including 108 in the first half. He had touchdown runs of 1,9-4, 44 and 13 yards, giving him 12 TDs for the season.

Starting for the first time this season, Temple senior Chester Stewart completed all six of his passes in the first half and finished 9 for 9 for 140 yards. He also ran for 43 yards.

Danny O'Brien was 17-for-33 for 153 yards and an interception, and he also absorbed his first three sacks of the season. The running game produced only 45 yards, and the defense allowed scores on all five of Temple's first-half possessions.

The Terrapins had a tough day on special teams, too. Maryland had a punt blocked for the first time since 1999 and missed an opportunity to get a comeback going in the second quarter by roughing the kicker on a fourth-and-14 punt at the Temple 16.

Given a second chance, the Owls completed a 93-yard drive to increase its lead to 28-0.

After holding the Terrapins to one yard on three plays on the opening drive, the Owls' first offensive snap produced a 54-yard completion from Stewart to tight end Evan Rodriguez, setting up the first of Pierce's four first-half scores.

Following another three-and-out for Maryland, Stewart ran for 18 yards on a third-and-5 and connected with Rodriguez on passes of 18 and 18 yards before Pierce made it 14-0.

Temple again forced a punt, and Rod Streater blocked the kick to set up a touchdown. Maryland had gone 139 straight games without having a punt blocked.

Game 4

Maryland	28
Towson	3

Oct. 1, 2011

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Danny O'Brien threw two second-half touchdowns and Maryland's defense forced four turnovers, all after halftime, helping the Terrapins pull away to a 28-3 win over in-state foe Towson.

O'Brien completed 14 of 21 passes for 123 yards. Davin Meggett added 102 rushing yards as Maryland finished with 335 total yards of offense, including a season-high 198 on the ground.

Towson came in leading all Football Championship Series teams in scoring defense, allowing an average of 10 points per game, but the Maryland (2-2) offense scored three second-half touchdowns.

The Tigers (3-1) had the ball for 21:30 of the game's first 30 minutes, keeping Maryland's offense off the field.

Maryland needed just 85 seconds to score against the Tigers when D.J. Adams ended a 65-yard drive with a 15-yard touchdown run. The score came one play after a roughing the passer penalty on an incompletion allowed the Terps a first down rather than facing a fourth down at the 30.

D.J. Soven's 23-yard field goal at the end of a nine-minute possession in the second quarter by the Tigers made it 7-3 after they were stopped on a goal-line stand by the Terps.

The Tigers missed a 24-yard field goal try as the first half ended, rushing to get the kick off with no timeouts left and the clock ticking down.

Maryland extended its lead to 14-3 on its first possession of the second half, which followed an interception by Kenny Tate at the Towson 45. Maryland scored eight plays later with Justus Pickett going in from the 5. The true freshman had career highs in attempts (12) and rushing yards (82).

Following a Towson punt, Maryland drove 78 yards and scored on a 7-yard pass from O'Brien to Kenny Dorsey for a 21-3 advantage with 7:09 to play.

Another Towson fumble gave Maryland the ball at the Tigers 26, leading to a 5-yard pass from O'Brien to Tyler Cierski, the first touch of the freshman's career.

Game 5

#13 Georgia Tech	21
Maryland	13

Oct. 8, 2011

ATLANTA - Sophomore quarterback C.J. Brown ran for a 77-yard touchdown early in the fourth quarter, sparking a Maryland rally that fell just short as No. 13 Georgia Tech held on for a 21-16 win over the Terrapins.

Georgia Tech led 21-3 before holding off the Terrapins' fourth-quarter comeback, as the Maryland defense held the Yellow Jackets well under their scoring and offensive averages for the season.

Georgia Tech (6-0 overall, 3-0 Atlantic Coast Conference) matched its wins total from 2010, when it finished 6-7. The Yellow Jackets averaged almost 52 points in their first five wins and began the day ranked first in the nation in rushing and second in scoring.

Following Brown's run to begin the rally, Davin Meggett, who had 86 yards rushing, scored from the 1 with 7:33 remaining to cut the lead to 21-16.

But Maryland was stopped on a fourth-and-8 play from its 46 on Brown's incomplete pass with 2:31 remaining, ending its comeback bid.

Brown was 4-of-17 passing for 36 yards and an interception. He had nine carries for 124 yards. O'Brien was replaced after completing only 1 of 6 passes for 17 yards and an interception.

Quarterback Tevin Washington, who ran for 120 yards and two touchdowns for Tech, had scoring runs of 7 yards in the first quarter and 3 yards in the third. Orwin Smith had a 10-yard scoring run in the second quarter.

Maryland's only points in the first three quarters were Nick Ferrara's 30-yard field goal at the end of a 14-play drive on the Terrapins' first possession.

Washington was Georgia Tech's leading rusher, but he struggled as a passer as he completed only 6 of 19 passes for 114 yards and an interception.

Coach Randy Edsall pulled O'Brien after the sophomore's second-quarter interception, his sixth of the year. Brown took over and remained in the game after he was picked off by Rod Sweeting in the end zone in the third quarter.

Georgia Tech led 14-3 at halftime but wasted two second-quarter chances to stretch the lead.

Maryland left guard Andrew Gonnella, one of four team captains, was taken off the field in an ambulance after suffering a season-ending knee injury.

Game 6

#8 Clemson	56
Maryland	45

Oct. 15, 2011

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - C.J. Brown ran for 162 yards, a single-game record for a Maryland quarterback, scored one touchdown and passed for three, but it wasn't enough to prevent Maryland from losing to No. 8 Clemson, 56-45.

In addition to his rushing total, Brown completed 17 of 35 passes for 177 yards.

Tajh Boyd threw four touchdown passes and freshman Sammy Watkins scored three TDs for the Tigers (7-0, 4-0 ACC), who trailed 28-10 late in the first half and 35-17 in the third quarter. Boyd went 26 for 38 for 270 yards as the catalyst of an offense that amassed 576 yards.

Watkins scored on an 89-yard kickoff return that put Clemson up 49-45 with 7:24 left. Watkins' 345 all-purpose yards set a school record.

Andre Ellington rushed for a career-high 212 yards and two touchdowns for the Tigers, who have scored at least 35 points in all but one game this season.

After Brown threw a 32-yard TD pass to tight end Matt Furstenburg to put Maryland up 45-42, Watkins took off on his decisive kickoff return and Ellington clinched it with a 44-yard touchdown run with 3:55 to go.

Maryland took its second 18-point lead early in the third when Brown capped a 78-yard drive with a 22-yard pass to Furstenburg, who had a career-high 104 receiving yards.

Boyd responded with a 13-yard TD pass to Watkins to make it 35-24. After each team kicked a field goal, Boyd connected with Watkins for 51 yards, ran for 4 and threw a 15-yard touchdown pass to Watkins. The 2-point conversion got Clemson to 38-35 entering the fourth quarter.

The comeback became complete when Boyd threw a 12-yard touchdown pass to Jaron Brown with 11:26 left to end an 80-yard drive.

Maryland led 28-17 at halftime.

Game 7

Florida State	41
Maryland	16

Oct. 22, 2011

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - C.J. Brown and Danny O'Brien combined for 272 passing yards, but a balanced attack by Florida State helped it outlast Maryland, 41-16.

E.J. Manuel passed for 264 yards and a touchdown, and freshman Devonta Freeman ran for 100 yards a second straight week for the Seminoles.

Jermaine Thomas chipped in with 86 yards and a 35-yard rushing score for the Seminoles (4-3, 2-2 Atlantic Coast Conference.)

Maryland (2-5, 1-3) got its first touchdown on O'Brien's 5-yard run in the third quarter. O'Brien replaced Brown, who left the game four minutes into the second half after a vicious helmet-to-helmet collision with Florida State's Nigel Bradham, who was penalized for the hit.

Florida State built its largest lead at 41-10 on Debrale Smiley's 1-yard TD run with 47 seconds left in the game. Freeman's 41-yard TD with 5:57 left had put the Seminoles into a 34-10 lead.

Manuel started red-hot for the second straight week. He hit 8 of his first 9 passes for 120 yards, including a 26-yard TD throw to Kenny Shaw to climax a 90-yard drive and give Florida State a 14-0 lead 10 minutes into the game. Manuel earlier scored the game's first touchdown on a 7-yard run.

Maryland running back Davin Meggett led the Terps with 44 yards and moved past 2,000 career rushing yards on his first carry of the game.

Hopkins' 38-yard field goal boosted Florida State's lead to 17-0 with 2:35 left in the half and Maryland answered on Nick Ferrara's 23-yard field goal on the final play of the half.

O'Brien's 69-yard pass to Quintin McCree gave Maryland a first down at Florida State's 6 to set up his own scoring run in the third quarter. O'Brien, last year's ACC Rookie of the Year, completed 9 of 18 passes for 180 yards and a touchdown - a 15-yard throw to Marcus Leak with 5 seconds left in the game.

McCree had a big game with 9 catches for 177 yards.

Game 8

Boston College	28
Maryland	17

Oct. 29, 2011

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Rolandan Finch ran for 243 yards and two touchdowns, and Boston College beat Maryland 28-17 for its first conference win.

Maryland (2-6, 1-4) gave up a touchdown on the Eagles' first possession and never caught up. It was 21-3 early in the second quarter, and it stayed that way until the Terrapins reached the end zone with 6:39 left in the game.

Maryland has dropped four in a row and needs to win its final four games to become bowl eligible.

A mix of rain and snow fell throughout the game, contributing to a number of turnovers. The Eagles (2-6, 1-4) committed four turnovers, completed only five passes for 32 yards and botched two field goal tries.

Edsall started C.J. Brown at quarterback, then switched to Danny O'Brien in the second quarter. Both threw an interception, and neither moved the offense until O'Brien threw a 55-yard touchdown pass to Adrian Coxson.

That made it 21-10, and after a failed onside kick, Finch scored his second touchdown to clinch it.

Brown went 2 for 6 for 14 yards, and O'Brien completed 14 of 35 passes for 165 yards, including 141 in the fourth quarter.

Linebacker Luke Kuechly had 12 tackles and an interception to help Boston College snap a three-game skid.

Maryland got off to a bad start, beginning with the opening kickoff bouncing out of bounds. Boston College went 60 yards on six plays on the opening drive to go ahead 7-0.

Brown threw an errant pitch on the Terrapins' first offensive play, but he recovered the loose ball and got a field goal out of the drive.

Maryland's next possession ended when Sean Sylvia intercepted a deflected pass, and two plays later wide receiver Alex Amidon scored on a 21-yard touchdown run for a 14-3 lead.

Game 9

Virginia	31
Maryland	13

Nov. 5, 2011

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Danny O'Brien threw for 241 yards and senior receiver Quintin McCree had 117 yards receiving, but Virginia beat Maryland, 31-13.

The Terrapins (2-7, 1-5) committed five turnovers in a loss that ended any chance they had to earn a bowl invitation.

O'Brien started at quarterback but C.J. Brown also played. O'Brien went 16 for 36 for 241 yards and two interceptions; Brown was 4 for 7 for 28 yards and an interception.

Perry Jones ran for 139 yards and two touchdowns, Michael Rocco threw for two scores, and Virginia (6-3, 3-2) qualified for a bowl bid for the first time since 2007.

Playing on the road against a fierce rival, the Cavaliers trailed 13-7 in the second quarter. They responded by scoring the game's final 24 points for their fourth win in six games.

Rocco completed 23 of 36 passes for 307 yards in his second game since Virginia Coach Mike London ditched a two-quarterback rotation.

Jones scored on the game's initial play from scrimmage and added a 1-yard touchdown run in the pivotal third quarter, when the Cavaliers outscored the Terrapins 14-0 to take a 28-13 lead. He had 100 yards rushing in the first half alone.

Rodney McLeod has three interceptions for Virginia, which yielded only 121 yards in offense after halftime.

With Virginia up 14-13 in the third quarter, London kept his offense on the field for a fourth-and-goal at the Maryland 1. Jones bounced off left tackle for a touchdown, ending a 95-yard drive that lasted nearly six minutes.

O'Brien responded with a 39-yard completion to McCree, but two plays later the quarterback threw an ill-advised pass that was intercepted by McLeod at the Virginia 27.

That led to a 17-yard touchdown pass from Rocco to Max Milien, and a fourth-quarter field goal made it 31-13 with 13:38 left.

Notre Dame	45
Maryland	21

Nov. 12, 2011

LANDOVER, Md. - Danny O'Brien passed for 132 yards and a touchdown, while D.J. Adams led Maryland with 55 rushing yards and a score, but the Terrapins fell to Notre Dame, 45-21, at FedExField.

Maryland's sixth straight loss dropped the Terrapins to 2-8 overall this season, while the Irish improved to 7-3 overall. Notre Dame has won seven of its last eight.

Quintin McCree had five catches for 76 yards for the Terrapins and hooked up with O'Brien on a 13-yard scoring pass. The touchdown put the Terps on the scoreboard, but down 17-7. The Irish went 70 yards in 13 plays on their next possession to take a 24-7 halftime lead.

Notre Dame took the second half kickoff 84 yards in 14 plays to set up a 3-yard run by Cierre Wood. O'Brien suffered an interception on the next drive that Lo Wood returned 57 yards for an Irish touchdown and a 38-7 lead.

C.J. Brown entered the game midway through the third quarter when O'Brien was hurt. He took Maryland 97 yards on a 10-play drive and scrambled himself for a 24-yard touchdown with 14:02 left in the game.

Following another Notre Dame touchdown, Maryland finished the scoring with a 2-yard touchdown run from Adams.

Brown finished with 31 yards on three carries and hit 6 of 10 passes for 87 yards.

Notre Dame quarterback Tommy Rees passed for 296 yards and a pair of touchdowns on a 30-for-38 evening. Jonas Gray had 136 yards and two touchdowns on 21 carries, while Wood had 99 yards on 18 rushes.

	Game 11
Wake Forest	31
Maryland	10

Nov. 19, 2011

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. - Maryland's C.J. Brown accounted for 296 yards of total offense, but Wake Forest outlasted the Terps 31-10.

Tanner Price threw for 320 yards and three touchdowns to lead Wake Forest which snapped a three-game losing streak to become bowl eligible.

Brandon Pendergrass ran for 125 yards and a score and Jimmy Newman hit a 25-yard field goal for the Demon Deacons (6-5, 5-3 Atlantic Coast Conference), who also got a record-setting day from wide receiver Chris Givens.

Givens had eight catches for a career-best 191 yards and a score, and broke a 22-year-old Wake Forest single-season receiving record.

Brown threw for 186 yards and a touchdown and ran for 110 more (his third 100-yard game of the season) for the Terrapins (2-9, 1-6), who were tied 7-7 at the half but managed just a 42-yard Nick Ferrara field goal in the final two quarters despite reaching the red zone three times.

Givens broke Proehl's record during the Demon Deacons' lone scoring drive in the first half, pulling in a 14-yarder from Price to put the ball at the Maryland 2. Price then hit Cameron Ford on a 2-yard pass on the next play to put Wake Forest up 7-0 with 5:17 left in the first quarter.

Price also hit Terrence Davis with a 10-yard TD pass early in the fourth quarter, then gave Givens his career-high game with a 35-yard scoring pass midway through the final period.

Brown, who took over as Maryland's sole starting quarterback when Danny O'Brien suffered a broken arm last week against Notre Dame, put the Terrapins in position to tie the score with less than two minutes left in the first half.

Taking over with 1:27 remaining, Brown used runs of 14 and 20 yards to move the ball into Wake Forest territory, then found Justus Pickett in the back of the end zone on a 31-yard TD pass with 12 seconds left to tie the game.

NC State	56
Maryland	41

Nov. 26, 2011

RALEIGH, N.C. - C.J. Brown rushed for two touchdowns and threw for another one, but it was not enough to hold off NC State, which rallied for a 56-41 victory.

Mike Glennon threw for a career-high five touchdowns, ran for another score and led NC State's rally from 27 points down in the second half. James Washington ran 1 yard for the go-ahead score with 7:08 left for the Wolfpack (7-5, 4-4 ACC).

They trailed 41-14 with six minutes left in the third quarter before reeling off five straight touchdown drives during the second-biggest comeback ever in an ACC game.

The Wolfpack scored 35 points in the fourth quarter as part of a rally surpassed in an ACC game only by Clemson's comeback from a 28-point deficit to beat Virginia 29-28 in 1992.

Glennon, who finished 36 of 55 for 306 yards, started the comeback with his TD pass to Tobias Palmer with just under 6 minutes left in the third. Then he threw a second scoring pass to Tony Creecy on the first play of the fourth quarter, pulling N.C. State within 13.

Meggett fumbled on the Terrapins' next play, and four plays later, Glennon sneaked in from 1 yard out to make it 41-35 with 13:28 left.

Earl Wolff then intercepted Brown's deep pass and brought it out to near midfield. Glennon's 20-yard pass to Creecy on third-and-9 set up Washington's go-ahead touchdown run.

Glennon added another scoring pass to George Bryan and C.J. Wilson iced it with a 59-yard interception return for a score with 27 seconds to play.

Brown finished 12 of 23 for 166 yards with a pair of 1-yard touchdown runs and a 24-yard scoring pass to Kevin Dorsey.

Dexter McDougle returned a fumble 66 yards for a TD and A.J. Hendy took an interception 32 yards for another Maryland score.

McDougle started the scoring when Washington caught a pass and simply dropped the ball for N.C. State's second fumble. Hendy made it 28-7 with 8 minutes left in the half when he picked off Glennon's pass and breezed into the end zone.
