

HEAD COACH DAVE COTTLE

SEVENTH SEASON AT MARYLAND • SALISBURY '78

Since arriving to the College Park campus in the fall of 2001, Dave Cottle has continued the storied tradition of excellence of the Maryland men's lacrosse program and helped usher the Terps into a new era of national prominence.

Under Cottle's leadership the Terrapins have made five-straight trips to the NCAA tournament, earned a top-three seed four times and advanced to the Final Four in 2003, 2005 and 2006. Since 2003, Maryland is one of only four programs to make three final four appearances.

Cottle is also deeply involved in the national leadership for the sport of lacrosse. He is currently serving a term on the NCAA Division I men's lacrosse committee and is the vice-president of the Intercollegiate Men's Lacrosse Coaches Association.

Prior to arriving in College Park, Cottle spent 19 seasons as the head coach at Loyola College. There he led the Greyhounds to 14 straight NCAA tournament appearances, including a pair of berths in the national semifinals.

Cottle, now in his 26th season as a head coach, is tied for first all-time in NCAA history with 19 NCAA tournament bids. He is currently fifth among active coaches in wins with 248. His overall mark of 248-98 gives him a 71.7 winning percentage, which ranks sixth among active coaches with at least 100 wins.

During his tenure at Maryland, not only has the program continued to be among the sport's elite, but Terrapin players have also thrived and received national attention. In the past six seasons under Cottle a total of 20 Terps have earned 38 All-America honors. Two Terps, Michael Howley in 2003 and Lee Zink in 2004, won the Schmeisser Memorial Cup, which is given annually to the nation's outstanding defender. In 2006, Joe Walters became Maryland's all-time leader in goals and points and was named the winner of the Jack Turnbull Memorial Award as the nation's top attackman.

The backbone of Cottle's success has been a strong work ethic and an emphasis on "student-athletes." Six of Cottle's Terrapin players earned USILA Scholar All-America honors, including 2005 graduate Ian Healy, who became just the third Maryland student-athlete to be inducted into Phi Beta Kappa, the nation's oldest and most prestigious academic society.

Cottle, 52, was named the eighth coach in the storied history of Maryland lacrosse on Sept. 26, 2001, taking the reins from the ACC's all-time winningest coach, Dick Edell, who retired on Sept. 3, 2001 after 18 years with the Terps.

Last season, which was viewed by many as a "rebuilding year" for the Terps proved to be one of Cottle's finest seasons as a head coach. With an inexperienced offense and an injury-riddled defense, Cottle managed to lead Maryland to a 10-6 record and a No. 7-seed in the NCAA Tournament.

The Terps returned to the NCAA Final Four for the second straight season in 2006. Cottle's squad finished the year with a 12-5 record and earned Maryland the No. 2 seed in the NCAA tournament for just the second time in school history. Seven Terrapin players earned All-America honors with Walters and midfielder Bill McGlone being first team selections. Walters was also named the ACC Player of the Year for the second time in his career.

In 2005 Cottle directed Maryland to its ninth trip to the NCAA Semifinals and its second straight ACC tournament championship. The Terps ended the season with an overall record of 11-6, but finished the season winning six of their last seven games. Six Maryland players were named postseason

All-Americans, including McGlone, who was a first team selection. Cottle's program also earned another honor in June of 2005 when Walters was named to the 2006 U.S. National Team, the only college player to be selected to the 23-man roster.

Cottle guided the 2004 Terps to a 13-3 record and their first ACC championship since 1998. Maryland finished the season ranked No. 3 in the USILA poll and made it to the quarterfinals of the NCAA tournament. Eight Terrapin players earned All-America honors, including three first team honorees.

In 2003 he led Maryland back to the NCAA Semifinals for the first since 1998. The Terps had a stellar season, including a No. 3 final ranking. Maryland piled numerous accolades as they had eight USILA All-Americans including Howley, who was a first-team honoree. The Terps posted a 12-4 record in 2003 and gave Cottle his third trip to the national semifinals.

He led his Loyola teams to top-10 finishes in each his 14 seasons. The Greyhounds finished with a winning record the final 18 years of his tenure, dating to 1984. Loyola also played in 14 consecutive NCAA Tournaments, entering the 1998 and 1999 tournaments as the No. 1 seed.

A Baltimore native, Cottle took over a struggling Greyhound program in 1983. Since posting a first-year record of 5-9, his only losing season in 25 years as a college head coach, Cottle's Loyola teams reeled off 18 consecutive winning seasons. The 1998 team's 13-2 campaign, which ended with a berth in the NCAA semifinals, saw Loyola reach a No. 1 national ranking, and earn the school's first No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

In 1988 the Greyhounds began a run of 14 consecutive NCAA tournament appearances. Loyola advanced to the national championship game in 1990, and made 10 NCAA quarterfinal appearances under Cottle.

The 1990 team, a potent mix of seasoned veterans and talented underclassmen, marched all the way to the NCAA championship game. In the semifinals the Greyhounds staged an incredible comeback to beat Yale, 14-13, in overtime. Syracuse, the two-time defending champs, ended Loyola's quest for the national title, but the Greyhounds' 1990 season always will be remembered.

In 1994 Cottle guided the Greyhounds to one of their best seasons ever. Loyola finished 11-2, recording wins against four NCAA tournament teams. The Greyhounds earned the nation's No. 1 ranking for only the second time in their history. Loyola concluded the regular season with a 17-15 victory over Johns Hopkins, the program's first victory ever against the Blue Jays.

Cottle's 1988 squad finished with a 12-2 record, earning Loyola's first NCAA Division I tournament berth. Loyola defeated Air Force for its first NCAA postseason victory before losing to Penn in the quarterfinals. The Greyhounds concluded the season ranked fifth in the nation, and Cottle earned USILA Coach-of-the-Year honors, becoming the first coach in Loyola athletic history to receive a national award. Cottle was also selected to coach the South team in the 1988 North-South All-Star Game.

The 1989 Greyhounds became the only Loyola lacrosse team to complete an undefeated regular season. The Greyhounds beat four nationally ranked teams en route to a perfect 10-0 mark. Loyola was ranked third in the final poll, behind eventual national champion Syracuse and Johns Hopkins.

Cottle came to Loyola in 1982 after leading Severn School to a 26-9 record and consecutive Maryland Scholastic Association championships. Prior to his success at Severn, Cottle served for two years as a graduate assistant coach, assistant varsity lacrosse coach and physical education instructor at his alma mater, Salisbury State University.

One of the finest players in Salisbury State history, Cottle was enshrined into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1989. During his career he re-wrote the NCAA record book, while earning All-America honors three times. He still ranks among the top three in goals (179), assists (123) and points (302) in Seagull history. In 1975 Cottle led the nation in scoring and was just the second player in collegiate lacrosse history to score more than 100 points in a single season. Following his senior season in 1977, he served as captain of the South team in the North-South All-Star Game.

Cottle received his Bachelor of Science degree in physical education in 1978 from Salisbury.

He was an assistant coach for Team USA 1994, which won the world championship in Manchester, England. Cottle has addressed many lacrosse gatherings across the country, including the USILA Coaches' Convention, and he serves as a member of the All-America Selection Committee. In February of 1998 he was inducted into the Baltimore Chapter of the Lacrosse Foundation's Hall of Fame.

A graduate of Baltimore's Northern High School, Cottle lives with his wife, Lynn, daughters, Taylor and Tory, and son, Sean, in Edgewater, Md.

DAVE SLAFKOSKY

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR • 25TH SEASON AT MARYLAND

who retired in September 2001.

Slafkosky and Edell celebrated their 25th year together in 2001 in leading the Terps to a No. 1 ranking at midseason. The duo was also featured on the cover of Inside Lacrosse magazine. Edell and Slafkosky's relationship began when the two coached together at Army from 1977-1983. When Edell came to Maryland, his only request was that "Coach Slaf" join him. Granting Edell's only request was a critical decision that ensured unprecedented success for the program. Slafkosky has continued to serve admirably under Cottle.

When Cottle came aboard as head coach in 2002, Slafkosky returned to the defensive side of the game as defensive coordinator after serving as offensive coordinator in 2001.

Last season, injuries forced Slafkosky to play a trio of freshmen in key roles, including Brian Phipps in goal. Phipps would go on to be named the ACC's Freshman of the Year after anchoring a defense that allowed just over eight goals per game. Senior defenders Ray Megill and Stever Whittenberg were named second team All-Americans.

The 2005 season saw Slafkosky mold an entirely new defensive unit into a group that helped lead Maryland to the 2005 NCAA Final Four. Whittenberg was named a third team All-American, while goalie Harry Alford and Megill were honorable mention selections.

The 2006 season saw that 2005 defense return nearly intact and the results showed, as the Terps finished with a 12-5 record, returned to the NCAA Final Four and finished third in the NCAA in scoring defense, allowing just 6.47 goals per game. Whittenberg earned second team All-America honors, while Megill was a third-team selection. Alford was a honorable mention honoree for the second straight season.

The 2004 season marked the second straight season that the Terp defense produced the National Defenseman of the Year in Lee Zink. Maryland's defense also produced first team All-Americans Chris Passavia and third team member Paul Gillette. Goalie Tim McGinnis and defenseman Dave Wagner were honorable mention selections.

The 2003 season featured the Terps' All-American defense led by National Defenseman of the Year Michael Howley (first team) along with second teamer Passavia and third team members Zink and goalie Danny McCormick. The Terps were among the nation's leaders in defense all season, allowing just 7.25 goals per game.

In 2003 the Terps returned to the NCAA Semifinals for the fourth time in nine years and seventh in Slafkosky's 20 years at Maryland.

In 2002, the Terps continued to have the nation's premier defense as they led the nation in allowing just 6.88 goals per game for the top defense in the rankings. Slafkosky coached a pair of All-Americans in close defenders Howley and Passavia.

As the offensive coordinator in 2001, All-American attacker Andrew "Buggs" Combs became the second player in Maryland history to score 50 goals in a season. This will be Slafkosky's third stint as defensive coordinator at Maryland. Prior to the 2001 season, he served as defensive coordinator for five seasons.

Originally, Slafkosky was named defensive coordinator when he joined the Terps in 1984. After leading Maryland to the NCAA semifinals in 1987 and 1989, Edell had his old friend take over the offensive reins in 1991.

Without missing a beat, the Terps would soon experience the same success on the offensive end with Slafkosky at the wheel.

Maryland would return to the NCAA semifinal in Slafkosky's first year with the offense in 1992. Under Slafkosky's tutelage, Mark Douglas would become a first-team All-American and establish the University of Maryland's single-season goal scoring mark of 51. In the same year, Rob Wurzburger would become the all-time career goal scorer with 137.

Maryland's offense would continue to be successful under Slafkosky's watch, qualifying for the NCAA's every year and reaching the finals in 1995. His most successful season came in 1995, with fellow assistant Scott Marr's new insight, as Maryland shattered the school's offensive record books. The Terps scored 235 goals and produced All-Americans in Kip Fulks and Rob Chomo. After the '95 season, Coach Slaf switched back to the defensive side knowing Maryland was in great shape with Marr running the offense.

Maryland's defense has become its trademark with its intimidating physical play. The Terps reached the finals in 1995, led by its National Defenseman of the Year, Dan Radebaugh. Defenseman Dave LaChapelle's play earned him second team All-America honors in 1997 and propelled the Terps into the championship game for the second time in three years.

Slafkosky worked heavily with 1998 ACC Player of the Year Kevin Healy, who was also a second team All-American. Slafkosky added another All-American honoree to his resume as Chris Lamy was honored by the USILA following the 1999 campaign. The 2000 season saw the emergence of a new star in goal, Pat McGinnis, who was among the nation's leaders in save percentage and goals against average throughout the season. The year culminated with McGinnis one of two Terps named All-ACC. Along with McGinnis, senior defender Casey Connor was honored as well. The solid close defenseman earned second team USILA All-American honors. It marked the fifth straight year a Terp defender earned All-American accolades – all under the tutelage of Slafkosky.

A 1974 graduate of Johns Hopkins, Slafkosky led the Blue Jays to a national championship his senior year as a midfielder.

Slafkosky and his wife of 28 years, Michelle, are the parents of four children: Daniel, Sarah, Kevin and Alex. Slafkosky continues to keep the memory of his eldest son Daniel close to him. A U.S. Marine, Daniel passed away in December 2000 at the age of 20.

ANDREW COPELAN

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR • THIRD SEASON AT MARYLAND BUCKNELL '03

Andrew Copelan is in his third season as an assistant coach at the University of Maryland and second as the team's offensive coordinator.

Arising star in the lacrosse coaching ranks, Copelan is widely regarded as one of the top young coaches in the game.

Last year, in his first as offensive coordinator, Copelan took over an offense with two five new starters combined on the attack and first midfield. Under Copelan's guidance the Terps ranked as the 12th-best scoring offense in the NCAA at just under 11 goals per game. Sophomore midfielder Dan Groot was named a third team All-American, while senior attackman Michael Phipps earned honorable mention honors. The man-up unit was a large part of Maryland's offensive success. The Terps' conversion percentage of 49.1 was fourth in the nation.

In 2006 Copelan was instrumental in helping guide a Terrapin offense that boasted four All-Americans, including Tewaaron Trophy finalist and Turnbull Award winner Joe Walters, who set the school's all-time goals and points records. That 2006 Terrapin squad advanced to the NCAA Final Four thanks in large part to a man-up unit that ranked third in the NCAA in conversion percentage.

Copelan joined the Terps prior to the 2006 season after serving as the head coach at Marist College for the previous two seasons. He was also the Director of Intramural and Club Sports at Marist.

In 2004 Copelan, as the interim head coach, guided the Red Foxes to the MAAC regular-season title, finishing the year 10-7 and 8-0 in conference play. It was the best season for the Red Foxes since 1988 and the most wins since 1986. For his efforts Copelan was named MAAC Coach of the Year. In 2005 he led the Red Foxes to the MAAC Tournament title and Marist's first ever trip to the NCAA Tournament.

Copelan was a four-year starter at Bucknell University. As a midfielder, Copelan helped lead the Bison to four consecutive Patriot League titles, and the program's first-ever NCAA berth in 2001. As a senior he earned All-Patriot League accolades, and was a four-time selection to the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll for Student Athletes. He was also chosen as an alternate for the annual North-South game, a national senior all-star game.

Combining a strong knowledge and enthusiasm for the game, Copelan has worked throughout the Northeast in teaching lacrosse. He has coached at the Blue Chip Camp in Fairfield, Conn., one of the top camps in the region. Copelan has also assisted in teaching youth, running clinics in his hometown of Pittsford, N.Y., as well during his playing career at Bucknell.

ALL-AMERICANS SINCE 2002

Since Coach Cottle arrived in College Park 20 Terrapin men's lacrosse players have earned a total of 38 All-America honors, including seven first team selections.

STEVE GORSKI

VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT • SIXTH SEASON AT MARYLAND UMBC '96

Steve Gorski enters his sixth year as a volunteer assistant coach with the Maryland lacrosse program. Gorski will be responsible for coaching the goalkeepers, the man down defense, and assisting Dave Slafkosky with the defense.

During his tenure at Maryland, Gorski has helped groom some of the nation's top goalies. Since 2003 the Maryland goalies have amassed a save percentage of better than 57% and a goals against average of 7.57 per game. Additionally during that time a Maryland goalie has been named to the All-American team four times, the All-ACC Tournament team twice and the ACC Tournament MVP in 2005.

Gorski was instrumental last season in the success of ACC Freshman of the Year Brian Phipps. Phipps was pressed into duty due to injuries to All-American Harry Alford and his backup Jason Carter. Under Gorski's tutelage Phipps, posted an 8-3 record in 14 games with a 7.95 goals against average and a save percentage of 59.1.

The 2007 season also saw Gorski take over coordinating the man-down defense unit. The man-down unit was on the field 65 times throughout the season and only surrendered 16 goals while scoring four short-handed. Its .754 percentage was good enough to rank Maryland 12th in the country in overall success rate.

As an undergrad, Gorski lettered in lacrosse for four years at UMBC from 1993-96. He was awarded the Don Auer Award after his senior season in 1996 as the Retrievers' Unsung Lacrosse Player. He played goalie for more than three seasons before finishing as a defenseman. Overall, Gorski made 35 appearances with 14 starts in goal. He stands 10th all-time in saves at UMBC with 224. Twice he had a career-high 25 saves vs. Virginia as both a freshman and a sophomore.

Prior to coming to Maryland, Gorski served as the head boys' lacrosse coach at Northeast High School in Pasadena, MD., from 1996-99 and worked as an assistant coach to Clay White at Broadneck High School in Annapolis from 2000-2002. He teaches Advanced Placement US history at Broadneck and serves as a reader for the AP US History exam for the College Board.

He is married to Jennifer and they reside with their two year old twins Katie and John in Catonsville, MD.
