2011-12 MARYLAND WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

► TERRAPINS' SEASON OUTLOOK

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – One of the things head coach Brenda Frese is looking forward to the most this year? The continued growth of her young 2010-11 team. Last year's youthful Terrapins posted a 24-8 overall record and a 9-5 mark in the Atlantic Coast Conference - which was good enough for fourth-best in the league and a first round bye in the ACC Tournament. Early on, they proved to be one of the nation's strongest rebounding teams and their inside game was one of their marks.

"I thought we really saw some players grow last year and I want to see that continue because it translates into team success," Frese said.

A challenge of a young team is always consistency - who will step up and how often. ACC Rookie of the Year Alyssa Thomas and Second Team All-ACC player Lynetta Kizer were omnipresent factors for the Terrapins, while the other Terps stepped up at different points throughout the season.

"Another challenge is to see that new level that some of our players reached become consistent. If we can be consistent, we can be pretty good," Frese said. "I want to see how we respond when we're in tough situations and I want to see who steps up in those moments. I want to see who steps up and becomes our third consistent scorer along with Lynetta and Alyssa."

After another summer of hard work with strength coach Kyle Tarp, Frese knows some Terrapins are ready to be big-time players for the team. With needs at the power forward position and in the backcourt, Frese has high hopes and believes in all of her players, but a few in particular look poised to make their mark.

"We have a need for someone to step up at the 4 spot and I think we have some players that are capable of bringing different dimensions to that position, Frese said. "One of the players I'm very excited about is Laurin Mincy. You saw at the end of last season her start to get that feel back to her game. I think she did some good things this summer and if she hits her stride, she really gives us a big punch from the perimeter. I recruited her here to be one of the most lethal guards in the ACC and that's what we're going to try to help her achieve."

POINT GUARD

The Terrapins return their starting point guard from last year, fifth-year senior Anjale Barrett. After leading the league in assists and assist-to-turnover ratio in ACC play, she's one of the keys to the Terrapins' success.

"Anjale did a very solid job with her assist to turnover ratio in ACC play last season," Frese said. "I thought she played maybe the best game of her Maryland career in our win on the road at Boston College (15 points, 4 assists). If she can play like that, we're a much harder team to beat. I think how she plays each game has a huge effect on how our team performs. Anj is a senior now and I want her to feel that sense of urgency."

Incoming freshman Brene Moseley is coming off of an ACL injury suffered in her senior season at Paint Branch High School. A healthy Moseley is expected to contribute.

"We'll assess where Brene Moseley is with coming off her ACL," Frese said. "When she's in form, she can really be a dynamic point guard that can score the ball and she wants that responsibility."

"We may even experiment in situations with a few other players playing point, but I can't talk about that because it's 'Top Secret'," Frese said. "Overall, our point guards have to value the basketball. We can't have empty possessions where we just throw the ball away, because that just kills you."

WINGS

Fifth-year senior Kim Rodgers and Mincy will enter the season as the Terrapins' strongest shooters. Both have hit big-time shots when needed and have proven they can make them when it counts. Rodgers' buzzer-beater at Georgia Tech last season is one highlight fans and teammates won't forget for years to come.

"We have our veteran Kim Rodgers, who has literally and figuratively sacrificed her body for our team in her four years here at Maryland. I think our fans will remember some of the memorable shots Kim has hit to propel us to victories," Frese said.

Mincy averaged 8.3 points per game and shot .440 from the field in the Terps' three postseason games last year.

"We have Laurin who really has a chance to emerge as a force for our team," Frese said. "Laurin can be a dynamic scorer, because she has the ability to shoot the three and she can attack off the dribble. She's also our best free throw shooter, so I really want to see her punish people and get to the line."

Another option is fan-favorite, sophomore Sequoia Austin. She saw action in 14 games last year and her hard work earned her a scholarship from Frese for the 2011 spring semester.

"There's no question the hardest worker on this team this offseason was Sequoia Austin. I think her goal is to make it very difficult for me to not notice her and she's accomplished that," Frese said. "She won a lot of our offseason competitions. She's a good shooter. I think she's going to push some people."

Listed as a forward, Thomas will look to expand her game to the wings.

"Obviously Alyssa Thomas is going to feature prominently in everything we do. She really responds to being challenged and part of my job will be to tell her she can't be satisfied with a good freshman year," Frese said.

FRONTCOURT

The Terps' biggest strength last year was dominating inside - on the glass and scoring in the paint. They were outrebounded just four times in 32 games and led the league in boards throughout the year.

"It's Lynetta's senior year. She's shown what she can do in stretches and I want to see her achieve consistency," Frese said. "Credit to her for the great shape she's gotten herself into for her junior and senior years. It's easy to talk about it, but Lynetta actually did the work. Not many people can do that. I want her to have a great senior season."

At 6-7, junior Essence Townsend is one of the tallest players in the country. She's worked hard on the court and in the classroom over the last few years to put herself in a position to be successful. Raised by different family members, she's grown up before the staff's eyes.

"Essence Townsend is a young lady who has really matured in her time here at Maryland," Frese said. "Her attitude has been so positive and she really has gotten better as a player. I'm most proud of who she is as a person, because Essence comes from a background that would've crushed most of us long ago."

"Tianna Hawkins has worked herself into tip-top shape and she now has two years to show what she can do. She's really a player who doesn't mind the contact," Frese said.

"Alicia DeV Vaughn has all the tools to be terrific, I think her biggest competition is with herself and developing the confidence in every situation to be successful. I really believe she can do that."

The Terps will welcome redshirt freshman Whitney Bays into the rotation. After suffering a knee injury in high school, she spent the 2010-11 season regaining her strength.

"We're really excited to have Whitney Bays in the mix. She can do a lot of different things and you might see her all over the place on the court. Whitney had a year to practice and now rehearsal is over. I think as she gets some games under her belt, we're going to see her emerge," Frese said."

STAFF

Frese welcomes three new staff members into the mix this season, each with enthusiasm and youth that keeps a program fresh.

"We met coordinator of recruiting operations Stephanie Stevens through our relationship with Galaudet," Frese said. "Their head coach Kevin Cook raved about Stephanie and her future as a coach. She has a tremendous work ethic, which is an absolute essential if you're going to work around here."

"Michael Bowden will be handling our video department this year. Michael has a lot of great ideas and has worked under some really sharp coaches like Billy Donovan of Florida and Jose Fernandez of South Florida," Frese said. "Michael has a basketball background, which will help him tailor the video to what our staff and players need."

"Zach Kanher, our director of player development, is someone that I interviewed for a previous position," Frese said. "I was really impressed with him and knew I'd want to find a slot for him if possible. Zach is going to do a variety of things for us, but he will work directly with Coach Adkins and Coach Kyle with anything related to the personal development of our players. Zach has had experience at a variety of Division II and III levels and will provide a depth of knowledge in many areas."

SCHEDULE

The Terrapins will play one of the toughest conference slates out of any of the 12 teams in the league. With home-and-home matchups with Duke, Miami, Georgia Tech, North Carolina and Virginia, they face four of last year's top six teams twice (The Terrapins were No. 4). All five of the aforementioned teams were selected to compete in the postseason in 2011.

"Every year the ACC schedule features all sorts of challenges and different styles of opponents. You really learn a lot about your team and grow in those tight moments. What you hope is all those lessons benefit you come March Madness. As a coach, I've been through them, but every season the team is a bit different and some players experience it all for the first time. As a coach, I get a good feel for how our team handles different things," Frese said.

In addition to a tough ACC slate, the Terrapins will play at least 17 games against opponents that competed in either the NCAA or WNIT postseason tournaments in 2011. Ten of those games will be played in College Park.

...What They're Saying

"Youth was served in College Park in 2011. The Terps earned a fourth-place ACC finish and a No. 4 seed without a senior and only three juniors on the roster. Alyssa Thomas was the ACC Rookie of the Year and led the team in scoring. Seniors-to-be Lynetta Kizer in the post and Anjale Barrett at the point still form the backbone of a team that should be right there in a very competitive ACC."

CHARLIE CREME, ESPN.COM SPRING 2011

"The Terps had their adjustment season in 2011 and still reached the NCAA tournament as a No. 4 seed. With a core that includes a potential big-time scorer (Alyssa Thomas), a physical presence in the middle (Lynetta Kizer) and an experienced, unselfish point guard, the elements present for bigger gains in 2011-12."

CHARLIE CREME, ESPN.COM FALL 2011

"Last year Maryland had no seniors but did have admirable defensive tenacity and size: with nine players over 6 feet or taller, the team outrebounded opponents by 12.1 boards a game, the fifth-largest margin in the country. The Terps weren't much of a threat from the perimeter, however, shooting what coach Brenda Frese calls a 'horrendous' 27.6% per game. Frese hopes sophomore Laurin Mincy will provide an inside threat to complement the inside force of 6'4" center Lynetta Kizer as well as 6'2" sophomore forward and ACC Rookie of the Year Alyssa Thomas."

SPORTS ILLUSTRATED

"Best weekend individual play: Alyssa Thomas, Maryland. With 4.1 seconds left and Maryland leading Duke by two points in Sunday's ACC showdown, the Terrapins star had Blue Devils star Elizabeth Williams' left arm in her face as the two fought for position on the right block. That stalemate down low forced Duke's Chelsea Gray, after a drive to the baseline on that side of the court, to throw the ball back out to Shay Selby at the top of the key. When Selby released a pass to Haley Peters in the left corner with 2.9 seconds left, no Maryland player was even on the same side of the court as Peters. But by the time Peters released a jumper with 1.3 seconds left, an airborne Thomas was close enough to deflect the shot out of bounds for a block as time expired. Two stops on opposite sides of the court in the span of three seconds at the end of the game. That's how a star who suffered through a 2-for-11 shooting day with five turnovers still plays like an All-American."

- Maryland is 14-2 (.875) in overtime games in head coach Brenda Frese's 10 years.

- In the 2007-08 season, Frese was not on the sidelines for two of the Terps' overtime games. She missed a 97-86 double overtime loss at North Carolina on Jan. 26, 2008 and a 74-71 win at Virginia Tech on Feb. 4, 2008, due to her pregnancy with her sons.

- The Terps' only overtime loss with Frese on the sidelines was a 95-91 loss at Florida State on Jan. 16, 2005.

Golden! Kizer and Team USA Win WWUG

Senior center Lynetta Kizer competed on USA Basketball's Women's World University Games Team this summer. She and the team traveled to Shenzhen, China for almost two weeks in August.

Attendance Continues to Soar

Maryland has played before 100,000 fans in six consecutive seasons - all under head coach Brenda Frese. Over the last three years, the Terps have ranked at least 6th nationally in home attendance.

- Since the 2005-06 season, the Terrapins have averaged 119,760 fans per year at home.

Team Tyler

In September 2010, Brenda Frese's two-year old son, Tyler Thomas, was diagnosed with leukemia. He started treatments immediately at Johns Hopkins in Baltimore and has been clear from leukemia cells within the last few months. On Jan. 6, the Terrapins joined forces with the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society and the Team Tyler Foundation to celebrate Leukemia Awareness Night. All survivors and their families got in free.

- Last fall, some starters from the 2006 national championship team - Marissa Coleman, Shay Doron, Laura Harper and Kristi Toliver - got together and formed the Team Tyler Foundation.

- The Team Tyler Foundation raises money for leukemia research and patients at Hopkins.

Alyssa Thomas scored 20 points, freshman Brene Moseley added 17, and No. 10 Maryland never trailed in a season-opening 84-46 victory over in-state foe Loyola on Friday night.

Thomas, a 6-foot-2 sophomore forward, had 14 points in 14 minutes in the first half to take the Terrapins to a 40-25 lead. The gap widened to 21 points with 17:43 left, and it was 66-36 with 9:41 to go.

"Our intensity was there. It started with our defense, which led to our offense, and I thought we were able to see a lot of great things, specifically in the second half, with this team," head coach Brenda Frese said.

Thomas also contributed seven rebounds and three assists in her 23 minutes on the floor.

Moseley went 5-6 from the field, including 2-for-2 from outside the arc, and 5-for-6 from the line with four assists and a steal in her Maryland debut.

"With Brene coming off an ACL, missing her senior season, to be able to come in and have this kind of performance tonight speaks volumes in terms of just how she has prepared herself to come back for this moment," head coach

Laurin Mincy scored 11 for the Terrapins, who have won 12 straight over Loyola and lead the series 18-3. Maryland next faces No. 11 Georgetown on Sunday.

Katie Sheahin led the Greyhounds with 13 points. Loyola went 21-13 last season and won a game in the WNIT, the first postseason victory in the history of the program. But the Greyhounds don't have the height or depth of the Terrapins.

Thomas scored the game's first six points, and Maryland raced to an 8-0 lead as the Greyhounds committed turnovers on their first four possessions. Loyola answered with seven straight points before Mincy hit a baseline jumper and two foul shots to spark an 11-0 run. That made it 19-7, and the Terrapins never let the margin shrink below double figures the rest of the way.

One of the nation's best rebounding teams a year ago, the Terrapins outrebounded the Greyhounds, 39-28. Redshirt freshman Whitney Bays pulled down a game-high eight rebounds, while Thomas and Tianna Hawkins each had seven. Thomas and Hawkins each also had four steals.

The Terrapins are ranked tenth in the USA Today/ESPN Division I Top 25 Preseason Coaches' poll, released Tuesday, and are No. 11 in the Associated Press rankings.

The ninth-ranked Maryland women's basketball team held off in-state opponent UMBC's strong fight Saturday night for a 70-59 win in Baltimore. Tianna Hawkins led the Terrapins with 19 points and 18 rebounds before fouling out in the final minute.

Freshman Brene Moseley added 14 points, including three three-pointers, and senior Lynetta Kizer had 12 as the Terps (4-0) moved to 10-0 all-time vs the Retrievers (2-2).

UMBC, the defending America East regular season champions, got 14 points each from Erin Brown and Michelle Kurowski and 12 from Lauren Chase.

With the game tied 9-9 after Chase scored on a backdoor cut, Maryland reeled off a 17-3 run, taking a 14-point lead on a pair of free throws by Kizer. Moseley had seven points in the burst.

But the Retrievers knocked down three 3-pointers, Brown converted a three-point play and a Kurowski jumper from the right baseline cut the Terrapins' lead to 32-29 with 4:02 remaining in the first half.

Maryland scored eight of the next 10 points, taking a 40-31 halftime lead on Hawkins' right-side bank shot with 28.2 seconds left. Hawkins had 12 points and 10 rebounds in the opening 20 minutes.

Laurin Mincy hit a 3 on Maryland's first possession of the second half, but the Terrapins misfired on their next six possessions. While Maryland struggled, Kurowski was scoring six points in an 9-0 burst, and her left-wing 3-pointer got the Retrievers within 43-40 with 16:05 remaining.

Kizer then muscled in the rebound of a Moseley miss and Alicia DeVaughn scored off a transition layup for a 47-40 Maryland lead.

Chase's three-point play cut the Maryland lead to four points with 12:10 left, but UMBC didn't connect again from the field until Brittany Crowell jumper with 2:55 remaining cut the lead to 64-52.

The Terrapins outrebounded the Retrievers, 47-28, and grabbed 26 offensive boards. They scored 30 points to UMBC's six.

Lynetta Kizer scored 18 points and No. 8 Maryland had six players in double-figures to win their third straight game, 91-61, at Clemson Thursday night.

The Terrapins (21-3, 8-3 Atlantic Coast Conference), won their 11th straight in the series and ran all over the Tigers (6-16, 2-9) at Littlejohn Coliseum.

Alicia DeV Vaughn scored 15, Alyssa Thomas and Tianna Hawkins had 14 each, Laurin Mincy 13 and Brene Moseley 10 as Maryland tied its highest ACC point total this season. The Terrapins also showed off some defense, forcing 25 turnovers off 14 steals.

Nikki Dixon had 17 points to lead the Tigers, but was just 4 of 14 from the field against Maryland's high-pressure defense.

Maryland kept within sight of ACC leaders in No. 5 Duke (11-0 in the league) and Miami (10-0). The Terrapins have a golden opportunity to close the gap in the next two weeks, facing Miami at home on Sunday and Duke at home a week later.

Maryland came in to this one off a milestone victory, a 64-56 win at Georgia Tech that gave the program 20 wins for the eighth consecutive season. And the Terrapins didn't let up at Clemson. Maryland forced turnovers on five straight Tigers possessions to run out to a 16-4 lead less than seven minutes in. Clemson could not hold on against the ACC's highest scoring team.

Thomas had 11 points in the opening half while Kizer had eight consecutive points down the stretch as Maryland took a 20-point lead in the final minutes of the opening half. The Terrapins did just about everything right the first 20 minutes. They shot 50 percent (15 of 30) and made all but one of their 14 foul shots. They held Clemson to 2 of 13 shooting from behind the arc and forced 16 turnovers in the period.

Maryland kept up the pressure throughout the second half. When Clemson cut the lead to 65-47 with 9:18 to go, the Terrapins answered with a 31-7 charge over the next six minutes. It was Maryland's fourth ACC win of 21 points or more.

The Terps won the battle on the glass, 39-33, with six each from Hawkins and Kizer. DeVaughn added career-highs with six blocks and four steals.

The game served as a remembrance of the late Kay Yow with both teams wearing pink in their uniforms -- Clemson had pink shorts while the Terrapins had pink socks -- to honor the North Carolina State coach who died of breast cancer in 2009.

Laurin Mincy scored 24 points, Tianna Hawkins had 15 points and 14 rebounds, and second-seeded Maryland beat seventh-seeded Louisville 72-68 Monday night to reach the program's 13th Sweet Sixteen.

The Terrapins trailed 64-59 with 6 minutes left before closing with a 13-4 run and limiting Louisville to only one field goal.

Maryland (30-4) will face the winner of Monday night's late game between defending champion Texas A&M and Arkansas Sunday at noon or 2:30 p.m. in Raleigh, N.C.

Shoni Schimmel scored 22 and Shawnta' Dyer had 17 for the Cardinals (23-10). Louisville had a chance to tie in the closing seconds before Mincy blocked a shot by Becky Burke. Burke, who came in averaging 11.7 points, finished with five.

Hawkins scored 13 of her 15 in the second half and grabbed a career-high six steals. Lynetta Kizer scored five of her seven down the stretch as well. Mincy went 10-for-13 from the free throw line and added seven rebounds.

The Terps won the battle on the glass, 41-35. Both teams committed 16 turnovers, but Maryland scored 22 points off the Cardinals' giveaways to Louisville's 13.

Head coach Brenda Frese and the Terps have won their last nine straight games and 12 of their last 13 heading into Sunday's game.

The Terrapins are 30-18 (.625) all-time in NCAA Tournament games. Frese owns an NCAA Tournament record of 19-7 (.731) and 18-6 (.750) at Maryland. Frese has led the Terps to four Sweet Sixteens, three Elite Eights and the 2006 national championship.

2011-12 MARYLAND WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Brenda FRESE

309-115 (13th year)/252-85 (10th year at Maryland)

There was no better fit for the University of Maryland women's basketball program than head coach Brenda Frese. The 2002 Associated Press (AP) National Coach of the Year arrived in College Park with great expectations and has not disappointed. Reviving a once-prominent women's basketball program back to the national stage, her high work rate and positive attitude has resulted in two ACC titles, eight-straight top-15 recruiting classes and a National Championship in 2006. Frese has balanced that strong work ethic with a fun and family-friendly environment, also becoming a wife and a mother of twin boys, giving birth to them in the midst of one of the most successful seasons in the program's history. With the birth of her twins in February of 2008, she becomes one of only six coaches to win a national championship and be a parent.

Now in her 10th season at Maryland, Frese has guided Maryland to a National Championship in 2006, nine winning seasons, eight-straight 20-win seasons, four 30-win campaigns and eight trips to the NCAA Tournament. She signed a four-year extension in August 2011.

In 2006-07, Maryland also received its first-ever No. 1 preseason national ranking, remaining in the top spot in the polls for 10-consecutive weeks.

"This has been an incredible journey and winning the national championship in 2006 was just the beginning," Frese said. "My coaching staff and I had the belief we could win a national championship here at Maryland. With all the administrative support, the first-class facilities - we knew we could build something great. We did not set any timetables, but what we have achieved so far ... it's beyond expectations."

Former Athletics Director Deborah A. Yow courted the 2002 AP National Coach of the Year because of Frese's reputation for making amazing turnarounds and her relentless work ethic in recruiting. Described as dynamic, overachieving, determined and enthusiastic, the 41-year old coach is one of college basketball's rising stars. Standing atop the podium in Boston in 2006, Frese became the fifth-youngest coach (age 35) in NCAA history to win a national title and only the ninth to win in her first trip to the Final Four.

Frese has built the team's success around recruiting, hard work and a positive atmosphere. The instant she arrived on campus, she determinedly worked the recruiting trails in an effort to reclaim the elite status Maryland once had in the 1980s. Success came quickly and early. Before she even coached a game in the newly-constructed Comcast Center, she received commitments from a pair of high school All-Americans, including Shay Doron, who went on to become a three-time All-ACC pick and a WNBA Draft selection. In all, 25 high school All-Americans have donned a Maryland uniform under Frese's reign.

10 of Frese's recruiting classes have been ranked in the top-15, including eight rated in the top-10 and five in the top five. The landmark signings of Crystal Langhorne, Laura Harper, Jade Perry and Ashleigh Newman were rated No. 2 in the country, while the class of Marissa Coleman and Kristi Toliver was ranked No. 4 - the core of the Terps' national championship team. Her 2010 batch of Terrapins included three high school All-Americans and a No. 2 national ranking.

Frese's recruiting classes have lived up to their billing and her pupils have earned numerous accolades. The first Terp in 17 years to garner All-American nods in 2006, Langhorne was a three-time AP and USBWA All-American, the program's first multiple All-American. She was selected a WBCA All-American in 2007, the first in school history since 1989, and then again received the accolade in 2008.

Toliver repeated Langhorne's AP, WBCA and USBWA All-American "trifecta" in 2008. The legendary point guard, however, became the first Terp in school history to be named to the AP's All-America First Team as a senior in 2009 - to go along with another set of WBCA and USBWA All-American laurels. Coleman, Toliver's classmate, also earned AP, WBCA and USBWA All-American honors at the conclusion of her illustrious senior campaign in 2009.

Frese's players have also received numerous ACC honors. Most recently, sophomore Alyssa Thomas was named ACC Player of the Year in 2012. She is just the second sophomore in the history of ACC women's basketball to earn the league's most prestigious honor and went on to win the ACC Tournament MVP honor that year. In her final season, Langhorne was selected the ACC's Player of the Year, the first Terp to win the award in nearly 20 years. Toliver followed suit in 2009 - the third Terp ever to win the award. In 2005, Langhorne became the program's first ACC Rookie of the Year since 1991. Coleman followed in her footsteps by nabbing the honor during the Terps' championship campaign in 2006. Center Lynetta Kizer and Thomas made it four Terps in six years to be named the league's top freshman when they won in 2009 and 2011.

In all, 26 Terps have received All-ACC citations in Frese's 10 years, including a school-record four in 2008 when Langhorne, Coleman, Toliver and Harper were selected and in 2012 when Thomas, Tianna Hawkins, Laurin Mincy and Lynetta Kizer were honored. Five Terps have been First Team ACC selections eight times in Frese's tenure. Langhorne became Maryland's first three-time, first team all-conference selection and the first to be named All-ACC four times. Coleman joined Langhorne as the lone Terps to ever be selected to an All-ACC team four times, stamping her three second-team honors with a first-team selection in 2009. In fact, of Maryland's five players all-time to be selected All-ACC three times or more, four of them were recruited by Frese (Doron, Langhorne, Coleman, Toliver).

Doron was the first freshman in school history to be named All-ACC in 2004 (third team). Langhorne was the highest-honored freshman in the program, garnering second team honors in 2005. Thomas was the first to make the second team since Coleman in 2006.

Numerous Terps have also garnered national recognition under Frese. Toliver became the first Terrapin to earn the highest point guard honor in the country, winning the Nancy Lieberman Award in 2008, after being a finalist the previous year. Several have earned spots on national player of the year candidate lists, making history in the fall of 2006. That year, for the first time ever, four players from the same team were selected preseason candidates for the WBCA's prestigious Wade Trophy when Doron, Coleman, Langhorne and Toliver were put on the Watch List. All five starters were tabbed preseason honorees for the Naismith Award, also a first in the history of the award.

Maryland has rewritten several records over the last eight seasons. In 2007-08, the Terps became the first team in NCAA history to have four active players with at least 1,000 points on the same roster. That year, school records were broken for most home wins (21), which is also believed to be an NCAA record. The team opened the 2006-07 campaign winning 18-straight games, setting the program record for best start to a season. Maryland ended the 2008-09 campaign having won a school-record 36-straight home games, thanks to undefeated home marks in two successive seasons, and 40-consecutive non-conference games at the Comcast Center. In the 2009-10 season the Terrapins extended that streak to 48, a Maryland men's and women's basketball record.

In 2005-06, the team's 34 wins set a school record, shattering the previous mark of 29. The championship squad also set new standards for highest road winning percentage (.900), points (3,166), field goal attempts (2,363), 3-point field goals (216), 3-point attempts (540), free throws (690), free throw attempts (924), team free throw percentage (.747), rebounds (1,720) and blocked shots (195).

Numerous individual records have also fallen in recent years. Among the most notable are the career scoring and rebounding records, which Langhorne shattered, becoming the first-ever Terrapin to score 2,000 points and to grab 1,000 rebounds - an elite list of which Coleman later joined. Frese recruits own four of the top-five career scoring marks in Maryland history, including Nos. 1-3 in Langhorne, Coleman and Toliver - the only three players in Terp annals with 2,000-plus points.

Maryland's rise into the upper-echelon of, not only the ACC, but in the country, has bolstered the excitement surrounding the team. Over the last ten years, the program has ranked in the top-25 in the nation in attendance, including top-10 rankings in four of the last eight seasons. In 2007, Maryland recorded the nation's largest one-season improvement in home attendance, averaging 9,533 fans in 16 games, almost double the average from the previous season (4,183) - with more than 150,000 people making their way through the Comcast Center turnstiles, a school-record. By the end of the '07 campaign, the Terps were sixth in the nation in average attendance and fourth in overall attendance, as 241,280 spectators filled the stands at home and on the road to watch the Terps play in 34 games. In 2008, Maryland hosted over 160,000 fans in 21 games and was ranked eighth in the nation in average attendance that year, followed by a No. 6 ranking in 2009 (133,336 in 15 games).

One of the highlights of the 2006-07 campaign was the announcement of two sellout games in Comcast Center, the first- and second-ever in the young facility. The stands were filled to capacity when the Terps hosted North Carolina on Jan. 28, 2007, breaking the ACC's single-game record, the first women's basketball sellout since 1992. The record was matched in the regular-season finale on Feb. 18, 2007, when Duke came to College Park.

Maryland owns all 10 of the conference's top-10 single-game attendances, nine coming since Frese has roamed the sidelines, and the top-10 highest-attended ACC games in league history have come in College Park.

In the classroom, the Terps have also been all-star students. 23 of Frese's Terps have been named to the ACC Honor Roll, while five have received Academic All-American nods by ESPN The Magazine/CoSIDA.

Tina LANGLEYAssociate Head Coach • 4th year • West Alabama '96

Tina Langley is in her fourth season at the University of Maryland and 13th in coaching overall. She was promoted to associate head coach in the summer of 2011.

Langley made an instant impact her first season with the Terps. She served a crucial role in helping to lead the Terps to their first ACC Championship in 20 seasons and helped secure one of the nation's top recruiting classes for 2010. In her four seasons in College Park, she's helped lead the Terps to ACC titles in 2009 and 2012.

As Coach Frese's top assistant, Langley's responsibilities include coordinating the Terps' recruiting efforts, assisting in player development, scouting, and on the court coaching.

"Tina jumped right in and made a huge impact for us. Her work ethic is nothing short of stellar, she has an excellent demeanor with our student-athletes, and she has an exceptional ability to take on many roles and responsibilities," said head coach Brenda Frese, "She possesses all the characteristics we need in a coach to make a positive impact on our recruiting efforts, player development, and our program as a whole. I'm looking forward to working by her side again this season."

In addition to her passion, determination, and work ethic, Langley has significant coaching experience. Prior to arriving in College Park in 2008, she had coaching stints at Toledo, Clemson and Georgia. She has been instrumental in recruiting, game preparation and floor management in each of her stops.

Langley spent five seasons at the University of Toledo, beginning her coaching career with the Rockets as a graduate assistant coach in 1998-99, before moving up to recruiting coordinator and eventual associate head coach during the 2002-03 campaign. She helped the Rockets reach the postseason three times, including two NCAA Tournament appearances. During her tenure, Toledo also won three Mid-American Conference regular season titles (1999, 2001, 2003) and two conference tournament crowns (1999 and 2001).

Toledo, Langley was responsible for all facets of the program, including recruiting, scouting of opponents and coordinating the team's academic efforts. She helped to sign two nationally ranked classes, the Rockets accumulated a 101-38 record (.679) during her time, and the team's grade point average was ranked in the top 10 in the nation three times. On the floor, she worked directly with players who went on to be selected the team's Most Improved Player in 2001, 2002 and 2003.

Langley then joined the women's basketball staff at Clemson in 2003, under legendary head coach Jim Davis. In her two years with the Tigers, the team advanced to the 2004 Women's National Invitational Tournament (WNIT) while also orchestrating a CU-record six-signee class, which was ranked in the top 30 nationally in just her first season.

After her stop at Clemson, Langley was hired at the University of Georgia as the recruiting coordinator. Langley left coaching for a couple years and earned her second master's in Community Counseling from the University of Alabama, specializing in college mental health. She was named the Most Outstanding Graduate Student in 2008.

Langley played basketball and volleyball for two seasons at Beville State Junior College before transferring to the University of West Alabama, where she lettered twice in basketball as a guard/forward. She graduated from UWA with a degree in special education in 1996, and earned her first master's degree in Recreation and Leisure with an emphasis in recreation administration from the University of Toledo. Langley resides in Laurel, Md.

Marlin CHINN*Assistant Coach • 3rd year • Hampton '92

Marlin Chinn joined Brenda Frese's coaching staff in June 2009 following a successful four-year stint at Seton Hall, where he spent the last three seasons as the Pirates' top assistant and recruiting coordinator.

Chinn helped lead the Terrapins to their 10th ACC title in 2012.

"We have always been about family first here at Maryland and it's pretty special to bring Marlin back home," Frese said. "This is where he wants to be and he already knows why Maryland is an incredible place. As we got to know each other, we quickly found Marlin shares common traits with us - loyalty, work ethic, care and concern for people and he is a tremendous recruiter. We feel as though Marlin will help us continue to set the bar high for excellence here at Maryland. We're excited to welcome him to our family."

In Chinn's second season on Phyllis Mangina's staff at Seton Hall, the Pirates posted their first winning record in Big East play in six years en route to a 13-win improvement from the previous season. During his tenure at Seton Hall, Chinn helped secure a top-30 national recruiting class in 2007, recruited a pair of All-Big East Rookie Team selections as well as recruiting and coaching two All-Big East performers.

The Archbishop Carroll High School alum previously spent seven seasons at Mount St. Mary's from 1998-2005, serving as top assistant for The Mount. There, he recruited five Northeast Conference All-Rookie Team choices, including the 2005 NEC Rookie of the Year. Chinn helped lead Mount St. Mary's to a pair of NEC regular-season titles in 1999 and 2001.

Prior to landing on the college scene, Chinn served as assistant men's high school coach locally at Theodore Roosevelt High School (1997-98) and Archbishop Carroll High School (1994-97).

Chinn is a member of both the Black Coaches Association (BCA) and the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA). He was recently selected into the 2007 BCA Achieving Coaching Excellence (ACE) for ethnic minority male and female basketball coach's class.

In spring 2011, Chinn served on a panel of the nation's top assistants at the A Step Up: Chicago 2011 event.

A 1992 graduate of Hampton University, Chinn is familiar with the area and is a native of Washington, D.C. Chinn graduated from Hampton with a B.S. in accounting. Chinn served as president of the National Association of Black Accountants in 1992. Chinn currently resides in Largo, Md.

David ADKINSAssistant Coach • 3rd year • Radford '89

David Adkins is in his third season at Maryland, joining the Terrapins in June 2009 after a successful career in the high school ranks working with some of the best players in the country. He has helped more than 50 players earn college scholarships, including 41 Division I scholarships.

Adkins helped lead the Terrapins to their 10th ACC title in 2012.

"David Adkins is one of the most highly-regarded player-development coaches in all of basketball and we are incredibly fortunate to have gained his services," Maryland head coach Brenda Frese said. "I first got to know David through (former Terrapin) Marissa Coleman and (former Maryland men's basketball player) Greivis Vasquez, who rave about him. He's been a big part of some incredible basketball programs and he brings tremendous energy and knowledge."

Adkins joined the Terrapins after spending 17 years as a high school assistant coach, but his coaching laurels reach far beyond the prep ranks.

Widely known in basketball circles as an elite developer of talent, Adkins has helped ripen the games of two NBA players and trained many more, two McDonald's All-Americans, three Jordan All-Americans, three Maryland Gatorade Players of the Year, four Parade All-Americans and three Washington Post Players of the Year during his time teaching the game as a high school assistant, camp counselor and in private workouts. Additionally, Adkins has trained several high-profile European professionals, including former Maryland standout Nik Caner-Medley.

Over the course of his career, he has helped ripen the games of three NBA players and many Division I athletes such as Kevin Durant (Oklahoma City Thunder), Linas Kleiza (Toronto Raptors), Greivis Vasquez (Memphis Grizzlies), Austin Freeman (Georgetown), Jeff Peterson (Arkansas) and Jerai Grant (Clemson).

Adkins, a 1989 graduate of Radford University, also served as an assistant coach for Team USA at the 2006 19-U Nike World Championships and during the 2007 Capital Classic in College Park.

Chris CAMPBELL*Director of Operations • 2nd year • Duke '96

Maryland women's basketball head coach Brenda Frese welcomed Chris Campbell as the new Director of Operations in the summer of 2010. Campbell was an assistant coach at University of Delaware from 2008-10 and is a Maryland native.

"We feel very fortunate to have someone of Chris' caliber," said Frese. "He's very bright and really brings a lot to our program. His local ties are a bonus; he's another member of our staff that brings even more people into supporting our program."

While at Delaware, Campbell assisted head coach Tina Martin in recruiting, game plan preparation, practice plans, video and academic performance. He has earned a reputation as a tireless worker and is well-versed in all aspects of the game. Campbell played a key part in Delaware's outstanding 2009-10 season that saw the Blue Hens post a record of 21-12, advance to the Colonial Athletic Association, and earn a spot in the Women's National Invitation Tournament. Delaware was led by the play of freshman Elena Delle Donne who became the first UD women's player to earn All-American honors while also garnering CAA Player and Rookie of the Year honors.

Born in Mt. Kisco, N.Y. and raised in Potomac, Md., Campbell was the top assistant at Marymount University in his three seasons there under 25-year head coach Bill Finney and served as the team's recruiting coordinator. He helped lead the Saints to a three-year record of 61-25 and NCAA Division III Tournament appearances in 2006 and 2008.

Marymount, based in Arlington, Va., went 20-9 and advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 2006, posted an 18-10 mark in 2007, and a 23-6 record in 2008 when the team returned to the NCAA Tournament. Marymount has captured 10 CAC titles during Finney's tenure.

While at Marymount, Campbell helped coach four All-CAC players. In addition into his duties with the basketball team, he also served as head men's golf coach for two seasons, leading the squad to a fourth place finish at the CAC Championships this past spring.

Campbell began his college coaching career at Catholic University in Washington, D.C. where he served as an assistant women's basketball coach in 2004-05 under head coach Maggie Lonergan. He helped lead the Cardinals to a share of the CAC regular season title and a berth in the league tournament semifinals. The team won a school-record 14 straight games.

He also coached at his alma mater, Winston Churchill High School, from 1998-2004 and was part of the Bulldogs' back-to-back state championships in 2002 and 2003. Campbell earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in Biology from Duke University in 1996.

While he was a student at Churchill, he was a member of the golf team. He spent seven years on the staff of Young Life and later worked for four years in the Montgomery County (MD) Public School System.

Chris and his wife, Tina, were married in the summer of 2011.
