Comcast Center

Maryland Women's Basketball completed its' first season in the new $125 million state-of-the-art Comcast Center, which opened its doors in October 2002. Equipped with 17,100 seats, luxury boxes, an eight sided scoreboard, team locker rooms and lounge areas, five 94' air conditioned courts the 420,000 square-foot building is the central hub of Maryland athletics. This is also the site for the 2004 Maryland Women's Basketball Camps.

Insurance & Medical Information

Maryland Women's Basketball Camps & Clinics, LLC. DOES NOT provide medical insurance. Each camper must complete the Health Information form that is provided on this brochure and will be required to present the signed form, by the parent or legal guardian, prior to check-in.

Registration & Check-In

Check-in information and directions will be sent out with confirmation letters. Registration forms need to be returned by June 1. Registrations received before May 1st will receive a free camp ball (excluding parent/daughter clinic and team camp). There is a limited amount of space available, please sign up early to guarantee your spot. Final payments for the camps are due one month prior to the camp start date. There will be a $25 late fee for payments not made on time. There will be a $20 charge for returned checks.

Housing/Meals

Overnight campers will be housed in one of our on-campus residence halls. Three meals a day will be served in the residence hall cafeteria. Commuter campers will receive lunch and dinner only. Note: Linens, pillows, blankets and fans are not provided.

Cancellation/Refunds

A $70 deposit is required with each camp registration. Refunds (minus a $20 administrative fee) will be given if a cancellation due to injury is accompanied by a physician's statement and is more than 2 weeks prior to camp. No refunds will be given to any camper sent home for disciplinary reasons.

Jeff Walz Erica Floyd Joanna Bernabei Mark Pearson

After collecting 2002 Associated Press National Coach of the Year honors for performing her second-consecutive resurrection of a Division I women's basketball program, Maryland successfully courted

Brenda Frese to the Comcast Center sidelines in April 2002. Her noteworthy revitalization of the Minnesota Gopher program that was 8-20 in 2000-01 and leading it to a 22-8 record during the 2001-02 season came on the heels of a similar feat at Ball State, where she took the Cardinals to two back-to-back winning seasons for only the second time in school history. Terrapin fans are optimistic that Maryland's return to glory is just around the corner under Frese, as the Terps hunt down their unprecedented ninth conference crown and a return to the NCAA tournament picture.

Bruce Springer — Camp Director

Bruce Springer has a wealth of experience in both basketball camps and coaching. He has over 35 years of coaching experience in both the high school and junior college ranks. In addition, he has spent over 30 years directing and coordinating various camps and US Junior National Events.
