LOCAL RIVALS SET TO CHALLENGE TERPS THIS WEEK

- The seventh-ranked Maryland women's lacrosse team will take on two local rivals this week in Georgetown and Johns Hopkins. The Hoyas enter the game ranked second in the country, while the Blue Jays are ranked ninth in the latest IWLC A poll.
- Maryland (9-2) has won seven in a row, including a 19-4 drubbing of Denver last week. Georgetown is 7-1 on the year with its only loss coming to No. 1 Princeton. Johns Hopkins will enter Saturday's contest with a perfect 10-0 record.
- The game against Georgetown will be televised live by CSTV (channel 610 on DirecTV). LiveStats will be available on the internet at www.umterps.com. For fans in the area, they can listen live to WMUC on 88.1 FM. There will not be audio or LiveStats for the game against Johns Hopkins.

LAST WEEK IN WOMEN'S LACROSSE

- Maryland won in its only contest of the week, pounding Denver 19-4.
- Kelly Coppedge tied her career-high with nine points on six goals and three assists as the Terps earned their seventh consecutive victory. With her six goals, Coppedge moved past Kelly Amonte into second all-time at Maryland with 189 career goals.
- Annie Collins poured in three goals within 1:41 to account for Maryland's first three scores and the Terps never looked back. Maryland scored 14 first half goals before Denver's Crystal Jack tallied a score with :12 remaining in the first half. Collins and Coppedge each scored four goals in the first frame and Acacia Walker added two for the Terps.
- In the first half, Maryland held a whopping 32-4 advantage in shots and an 11-5 edge in draw controls. Maryland goalie Kirah Miles needed to make just one save in the first 30 minutes.
- For the game, the Maryland defense held Denver to just 11 total shots and helped cause 18 of the Pioneers' 31 turnovers.
- Brooke Richards set a career high with four points on two goals and two assists. Collins tied her career-high with five points (four goals, one assist) to go with four caused turnovers and five ground balls.

PICKING UP THE PACE

- After a pedestrian 2-2 start, the Terrapins have picked things up to ignite a seven-game winning streak.
- In the first four games, the Terps were held to under 10 goals twice (both losses) and averaged 11 goals during that stretch. In the last seven, Maryland has not been held under 11 goals and is averaging 17 a game.
- Kelly Coppedge has picked up her game as of late for the Terps. During the four-game opening stretch, she averaged just under four points per game and a shooting percentage of just .294. In the winning streak, Coppedge is averaging 6.28 points per game and has a shooting percentage of .479.
- The Terp defense has also clamped down on opponents to help propel the team during this stretch. In the last seven games, opponents are averaging just six goals a game and are shooting just 33 percent. Maryland is also forcing roughly three more turnovers per game during its winning streak.
- Maryland has started the season 2-2 seven times in its history, with the last time coming in 1998. In those seasons, Maryland has twice won the national championship (1986 and 1998) and finished runner-up once (1982).

HEADCOACH CINDY TIMCHAL

- Head coach Cindy Timchal enters her 14th season at the helm of the Maryland women's lacrosse program. In her 14-plus years, she has established one of the most dominant teams in all of collegiate athletics as the Terapins are 230-28 (.891) under her guidance, have earned 13 NCAA Tournament bids and have taken the crown eight times.
- Timchal enters the 2004 season as the winningest coach in the history of women's collegiate lacrosse. She is also the first coach in the sport's history to win 300 games.
- Timchal was selected as the 2003 ACC Coach of the Year, her fourth time earning the honor. She has been chosen as National Coach of the Year twice and has coached players to All-American status 66 times in her career.
- Now in her 23rd season of coaching collegiate athletics overall, Timchal got her start at Northwestern where she led the Wildcats to the NCAA tournament five times in nine years. Her overall record (Maryland and Northwestern) currently stands at 306-68 (.818).
- Timchal is assisted by Jen Adams and Lauri Kenis. Adams is in her second season as a full-time coach after spending a year as an undergraduate assistant. Kenis is in her first season with Maryland after spending her playing career at Virginia.
- A 1976 graduate of West Chester, Timchal was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame on Feb. 13, 2004. Timchal lettered in lacrosse, track and field and tennis, while earning a degree in health and physical education.

TEWAARATON CANDIDATES

- Senior Kelly Coppedge and junior Acacia Walker were recently named to the 2004 Tewaaron Trophy watch list. This preseason list highlights the players to watch, as all NCAA Division I, II and III players vie for the most coveted and prestigious award in varsity lacrosse, the Tewaaron Trophy. The trophy will be presented in Washington, DC on June 3, 2004 at a banquet honoring the finalists and trophy winners. The ceremony will be held at the National Geographic Society Auditorium and broadcast by CSTV.
- Coppedge is among the nation's leaders in points, goals, ground balls and caused turnovers per game this season.

MOVIN' ONUP

- Senior Kelly Coppedge, the reigning ACC Player of the Year and Tewaaron Award candidate is moving her way up the career charts at Maryland for goals and points.
- The Annapolis, Md., native is second all-time in goals with 189. She passed Kelly Amonte on April 2 with six goals against Denver. Current Terp assistant Jen Adams is first with 267.
- She is now fifth all-time in career points with 261, and needs five more to move into fourth place.
- During a three-game span from March 11-20, Coppedge scored an amazing 19 goals and six assists.
- Coppedge was named ACC Player of the Week on March 22 for her six-goal, two assist performance against Old Dominion, in which she also recorded game-highs in caused turnovers (5) and ground balls (6).
- She earned her second ACC honor a week later on March 29 after racking up nine goals and one assist in a week that saw the Terps collect three victories against ranked opponents.
- Coppedge has scored nine points twice this season. She had a career-high seven goals to go with two assists against Brown. She also had nine points on six goals and three assists against Denver.
- Just 11 goals shy of 200, she would be the only the second person in Maryland history to reach the milestone and the 22nd in the history of Division I women's lacrosse.

SCORINGSTREAKS

- Kelly Coppedge has the team's longest scoring streak at 36 (dating back to last season). She has scored in every game this season for the Terps.

GOING THE EXTRAMILES

- One of the question marks for Maryland heading into the 2004 season was the play of first-year goalie Kirah Miles.
- Miles has answered those questions with stellar play in the cage so far. Miles has a solid GAA of 7.34 -- best in the ACC and 11th best in the nation -- and has 82 saves on the season.
- Against Virginia on March 9, Miles stopped 17 shots, the most since another Villanova, Pa. native, Alex Kahoe, stopped 21 shots in the NCAA finals on May 17, 1998, also against Virginia.

AMONG THE BEST

- Several Maryland players are ranked among the Atlantic Coast Conference and the national leaders in several statistical categories. Here is a look at how the Terps stack up within the conference and nationally:

Category	Name(Stat)	ACC/NCAARank
Pts. (pg)	Coppedge (5.36)	2nd/7th
.....	Collins (2.91)	4th/--
Gls. (pg)	Coppedge (3.60)	2nd/6th
.....	Cox (2.36)	4th/--
Asts. (pg)	Collins (1.73)	1st/10th
.....	Coppedge (1.55)	2nd/
GAA	Miles (7.34)	1st/11th
CT (pg)	Coppedge (1.82)	1st/18th
.....	McLeod (1.55)	2nd/--
GB (pg)	Coppedge (3.73)	1st/11th
.....	Cox (3.45)	2nd/--

- As a team, the Terps are also among the nation's best in several categories:

Category	Stat	NCAA Rank
GB (pg)	30.70	5th
Scoring Offense	14.60	3rd
Scoring Defense	7.50	8th
Scoring Margin	7.10	1st
Draw Controls	14.60	2nd

MAGIC NUMBER: 10

- If Maryland can score double-digit goals, chances are the Terps will be able to come away with the victory. The Terps are 9-0 this season when scoring at least 10 goals, while in both Maryland losses the Terrapins have failed to crack double-digits.
- The last time Maryland lost when scoring at least 10 goals was April 21, 2002, North Carolina defeated the Terps 11-10 at the ACC Tournament.

THE EXTRAPASS

- What separates Maryland from many teams in the country is the ability to pass (and catch) the ball in tight spaces. On Maryland's 133 goals not scored on free position shots, the Terps have assisted on 79 of those goals (59.3 percent).
- Annie Collins leads the team with 19 assists. She has more assists this season than her other two combined (16). Kelly Coppedge is second on the team with 17 and Acacia Walker has 11.

- While the Terps have converted on 32-48 free-position attempts -- 67 percent -- opponents have not had as easy of a time when it is their turn on the fan.
- Opponents have just 12 goals on 45 free-position attempts (26.7 percent).

SCOUTING THEHOYAS

- Georgetown, the nation's second ranked team, enters the game against Maryland with a 7-1 record. The Hoyas' lone loss came to the defending national champions, Princeton.
- Sarah Oliphant leads the team in goals with 20 and has 31 points on the year. Coco Stanwick has dished out a team-high 16 assists to go along with seven goals.
- Tewaaron candidate Gloria Lozano has 11 scores and three assists on the year. Georgetown's other Tewaaron candidate, Michi Elders, leads the team in caused turnovers with 32, but also has seven goals and an assist.
- Sarah Robinson has started all eight games in the cage for Georgetown. She has a GAA of just 5.90 and has 75 saves on the year.
- The Hoyas are coached by Kim Simmons, who has a record of 107-39 in her nine seasons at the school. Simmons graduated from Princeton in 1984.

- Maryland leads the all-time series with the Hoyas 12-1. The two teams first met in 1977 but did not play again until the 1995 season. Georgetown's lone win came in its last visit to College Park in 2002, defeating the Terps 10-6.

SCOUTING THEBLUE JAYS

- Hopkins, ranked ninth, is a perfect 10-0 this season, including wins over nationally-ranked Ohio State and Vanderbilt. The Blue Jays defeated the Commodores in their last outing, 12-11.
- Maryland leads the all-time series 5-0, including a 19-4 victory a season ago. The two teams first met in 1979 (with Maryland winning 17-1), and have met every season since 2000. Hopkins moved from Division III to Division I in 1999.
- The Blue Jays have played eight of their 10 games at home.

SHESAID

- "It's just a tribute to everyone that has been involved with the program. We've had tremendous support from the University of Maryland and great players. It's the players that score the goals and get the victories for a coach -- I've never scored a goal. It's really something all of the Terrapin players we've had here can share and take pride in." -- Cindy Timchal on winning 300 games

TOP FLIGHT TALENT TOP FLIGHT SCHEDULE

- According to the April 5 IWLCA poll, 10 of Maryland's 17 opponents are ranked or receiving votes. The Terps are 5-2 this season against ranked opponents.

U-19 TERPS

- Three Terp freshmen were involved with the U.S. U-19 World Cup team. Krista Pellizzi was one of the team's top scorers and was a teammate of Mollie Reese. Katie Doolittle trained with the U-19 squad but did not compete.
- The trio has seen the most significant action of the Maryland freshmen this season, with Reese starting every game for the Terps. All three scored a point in their debut against Richmond on Feb. 21, and Doolittle scored two goals in her homecoming win over Syracuse.
- Pellizzi has eight goals and three assists this season, Doolittle has seven goals and three assists while Reese has seven goals and a pair of assists.

TEAM CAPTAINS

- Maryland head coach Cindy Timchal has announced that seniors Kelly Coppedge and Molly Lambert will be the team captains this year. The two were chosen after a vote conducted by their teammates as representatives of this year's squad.

ACC POWERS

- With only four members, the ACC is still one of the strongest leagues in the sport. All four ACC teams are ranked in the top 11 in the nation (according to IWLCA), including Maryland (second), Duke (third) and Virginia (fourth).
- Last season, the ACC represented half of the Final Four and Virginia represented the conference in the national finals.
- In 13 of the past 14 seasons, the ACC has had at least one team in the finals (winning 10 national titles during that span).

PRESEASON NOTEBOOK

- Inside Lacrosse named Kelly Coppedge and Acacia Walker preseason first team All-Americans, in addition to being featured in the Feb. 14 issue. Delia Cox, the publication's Freshman of the Year in 2003, and Greta Sommers were named to the second team.
- CSTV will be the channel of choice for lacrosse fans this season. Highlighting the schedule will be Maryland's April 7 game against Georgetown. CSTV will also televise the women's NCAA championships this season.
- Former Virginia standout Lauri Kenis joins the coaching staff this season after Cathy Nelson left to become the head coach at Denver.

- The Terp schedule is again one of the toughest in the nation. According to the IWLCA poll, the Terps will face nine of the top-10 ranked teams this season. The ACC will again be ultra-competitive in 2004, boasting all four teams ranked in the top 11.

EVERY SCAR HAS A STORY

Every scar has a story.

That one on Annie Collins' right knee? That one was the result of a wrong step in the final minutes of the final game of her basketball season that obliterated her knee and kept her from her senior season on the lacrosse field and put her on a long road of rehabilitation.

That matching scar on her left knee? It came in the spring of her freshman year at the University of Maryland – just about a year later, when the right one was starting to feel strong again – after a misstep on the lacrosse field doing a drill she had done countless times during her career. For Collins, the pain was instantly unmistakable: she had shredded the ligaments in her knee — again. Gone was another lacrosse season.

Every scar has a story.

But the scars only tell the beginning of the story. They neglect to tell the hours of lifting weights, agility drills, stretching and mounds of ice during the rehabilitation. They don't reveal the 14-hour days when Collins would go to class, attend lacrosse practice as a spectator, go to rehab and then do classwork before heading home. They don't talk about the frustration of sitting out and watching your teammates play. They don't speak of the enduring pain and soreness that will linger for the rest of her life. It takes just an instant to tear knee ligaments – in Collins' case, two instants – but it takes months to recover and a lifetime to cope with.

With all of those images and moments woven together into two, simple, five-inch long scars along the front of her knee; one would think there would be some sentimental attachment to them, a constant reminder of the obstacles she has overcome in her athletic career. But there's no sentiment from Collins. She doesn't wear them as a badge of courage or as any symbol ("I'm not that sappy like that," she says). They're just there, sitting on her knees as if they were birth marks.

And thus is the essence of Annie Collins. The soft-spoken, unassuming senior from Ellicott City, Md., has a perspective only injuries can provide. She has no rearview mirror into the past that allows her to feel sorry for herself or think what it would be like to have normal amounts of cartilage in her knees. This allows her to swallow any adversity as if it were sweet sugar-coated candy.

Just watch her play. If the word "poised" doesn't jump into your mind, then you're not watching No. 11. Calm behind the net, she waits for the precise moment to hit the cutter heading for the front of the cage. If it's not there, she'll re-start.

"She is very poised under pressure, and she does whatever we need her to do in those tight situations," head coach Cindy Timchal says. "I think the thing with Annie is how selfless she plays – she's out there to play for the team. We aspire to play and give to each other and she leads the way in that category."

With a team so explosive but with a tendency to be impatient; Collins is the perfect counter-balance for the Terps.

But it hadn't always been that way. As a high school player, she would blast past defenders with raw speed to get to the net. While sitting out during her senior year of high school and freshman year of college, Collins would spend time on the sidelines, passing the ball against a wall and developing her stick skills. When she was able to finally play again against live competition and realized that her speed was not what it used to be, her improved skills became her biggest strength and essentially changed the way she played the game.

"I don't think you'll ever get the quickness and agility you had before your surgery; you're just a totally different player," Collins says. "I'm more of a finesse player now than I was before."

That finesse and those stick skills are evident in Collins' 2004 season for the Terps. Her ability to fit the ball into tight spots has helped her rank among the nation's leaders in assists this season.

"If you look at our offense, anyone can score," she says. "There's no need to force shots when there's people cutting open all the time. There's no need to force it one-on-one. I think the coaches have a lot more confidence in me than last year which has made me have more confidence in myself. Knowing that they want me to have the ball and they want me to do something with it and I feel more comfortable."

In accordance with her personality, Collins prefers the dirty work of assists rather than the glamour of scoring the goal.

"I'd much rather make a great pass than score a goal," she admits. "I would rather get a great interception, defensive check, or pass."

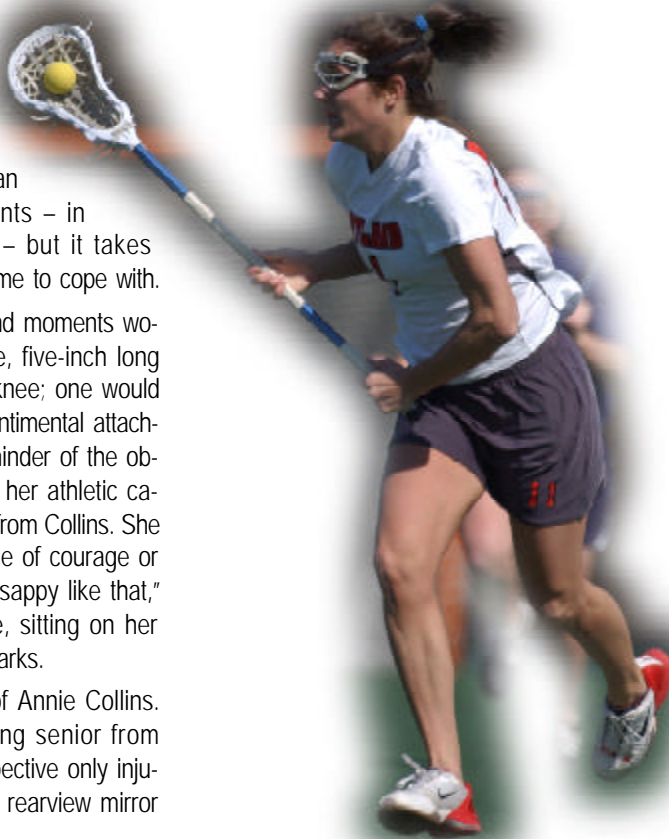

Collins' willingness to contribute in any way necessary is also the product of her perspective. She realizes that her lacrosse days are dwindling, and that this unique opportunity afforded to her is coming to an end.

"I came into lacrosse this season knowing that this was my last year and I want to put it all out there," she says. "I try to think that all of the time. This is my last time to be on a team like this and try and win a national championship."

Every scar has a story. The question now is will the stories from Annie Collins' scars include a national championship?

Lacrosse Complex, College Park, Md.
Richmond 6

#2 Maryland 16

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – Kelly Coppedge and Jessica Dorney each scored a hat trick to lead No. 2 Maryland to a season-opening 16-6 win over Richmond at the Lacrosse & Field Hockey Complex. Maryland improved to 24-7 in season openers with the win.

The Spiders (0-1) tried to slow the pace down by holding possession, but Maryland (1-0) scored the game's first three goals and seven of the first eight to force the action. Freshman Mollie Reese opened the game's scoring at 23:17 (the first score of her career) on an assist from Annie Collins. Laura Warren and Dorney followed with a pair of unassisted goals.

After a Richmond goal by Allison Nuzzi to cut the lead to 3-1, the Terps rattled off four more scores to take a six-goal margin. Coppedge scored two goals to help key the run.

Nuzzi scored cut the lead to 7-3 with a goal to end the first half and to begin the second, but that was as close as they would get after Dorney scored two more and Warren added another to take control of the game. The Terps were able to control possession the rest of the way scoring six of the game's last eight goals. Maryland out-shot Richmond 17-8 in the second half and had a 33-15 advantage in shots for the entire game.

Coppedge and Dorney finished the game with four points each (three goals and one assist), and Coppedge scooped a game-high six ground balls. Collins chipped in two goals and one assist to help pace the Maryland offense. Junior Kirah Miles, making her first start in the cage for Maryland, made five saves for the Terps.

"It was great to have us open the season and play as a team," head coach Cindy Timchal said. "Richmond tried to set the tempo and take time off the clock, but I was proud of the fact that we were poised defensively. Offensively, we are still a young team and we come away with some confidence."

Richmond was paced by Nuzzi's game-high four goals. Polly Purcell added a goal and two assists for the Spiders.

#4 Duke 9

DURHAM, N.C. -- Second-ranked Maryland scored four of the game's last five goals but it wasn't enough to erase a 5-1 half time deficit as the Terps fell to No. 4 Duke, 9-7, Sunday afternoon at Koskinen Stadium.

The Blue Devils (3-0, 1-0) scored the game's first two goals before Kelly Coppedge got the Terrapins (1-1, 0-1) on track. Coppedge finished a feed from Annie Collins at the top of the crease on a restart at the 23:41 mark in the first half.

The rest of the first session was all Duke, as the Blue Devils tallied three more unanswered goals to take a 5-1 lead into the half. Kirah Miles helped keep the Terps in the game making nine first-half saves. Duke outshot Maryland 18-10 in the first half and held a 5-2 advantage in draw controls in controlling the action.

The Terps and Blue Devils traded goals for the first 15 minutes of the second half before Jessica Dorney helped ignite a Maryland rally in the last 15 minutes. Dorney scored three goals in just under 10 minutes to cut the deficit to 9-6. Between Dorney's goals was an own goal by Maryland for Duke when a Terp defender tried to get the ball to Miles and wound up in the net.

Laura Warren tacked on another goal for the Terps with 2:06 left in the game to make it 9-7, but a Terp turnover after controlling the draw ended Maryland's comeback.

In the second half, Maryland outscored 6-4 and outshot Duke in the second half 16-8. Excellent goaltending by Duke's Megan Huether helped keep the Terrapins off the board. Huether finished the game with 15 saves, including four on free position shots. Huehter's performance overshadowed Miles' performance in the cage. Miles stopped a career-high 12 shots in the game.

March 3, 2004

Carrier Dome, Syracuse, N.Y.

#3 Maryland 14

#7 Syracuse 11

SYRACUSE, N.Y. --The University of Maryland women's lacrosse team raced out to a 10-3 half time lead and withstood a furious Syracuse rally in the second half to come away with a 14-11 win Wednesday night at the Carrier Dome.

Delia Cox scored a career-high six goals, including the team's last three scores, to help lead Terrapins (2-1) to victory.

The Terps learned from their slow start at Duke on Sunday as they opened the game in strong fashion. Cox got Maryland on the board first converting on a free-position shot. After a Syracuse score, the Terps went on a 10-2 run. Kelly Coppedge helped key the spurt with four assists and a goal, while Katie Doolittle, a native of nearby Manlius, N.Y., found the back of the net twice during the run in her homecoming.

Maryland controlled the pace and the tempo in the first half by holding a distinct 10-4 advantage in draw controls.

The Orangewomen (1-1), fresh off a comeback victory over Virginia on Saturday, wouldn't let the Terps run away with the game. Jessica Dorney answered Syracuse's Meghan O'Connell's goal to start the second half, but the Orangewomen went on to score the game's next six goals to cut the Maryland lead to 11-10.

With Syracuse charging hard and having all of the momentum, Cox took things over for Maryland. Utilizing one-on-one matchups, Cox was able to use her speed to get past her defender and get to the cage to finish. After halting the Syracuse run and Maryland's 13-minute scoring drought with a goal and push the lead back to 12-10, she again halted Orangewomen momentum – this time answering Syracuse Danielle Lillis' score with 3:30 left in the game. Cox put the game away just over a minute later starting behind the cage, making one quick move and then darting to the front of the net for the score.

Cox's six goals led all scorers. Coppedge tied her career-high for assists in a game with four and finished the game with five points. Dorney added a three-goal, one-assist performance for the Terps.

March 9, 2004

Lacrosse Complex, College Park, Md.

#9 Virginia 10

#3 Maryland 8

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- Junior Kirah Miles stopped 17 shots in goal for Maryland, but it wasn't enough as Virginia topped the Terps 10-8 Tuesday night in women's lacrosse action.

"I thought our team played hard but we weren't good enough tonight," Maryland head coach Cindy Timchal said. "I thought Virginia played really well and that they dominated in a couple of areas that we struggled in. We weren't sharp tonight and we need to be to beat a team like Virginia."

Maryland jumped out to an early 2-0 lead on goals from Mollie Reese and Delia Cox. Kelly Coppedge added an assist on Reese's goal to help move the Terps out to the early advantage. Virginia countered in the 20th minute on a goal from Amy Appelt and evened the score just over a minute later on a score from Tyler Leachman. Coppedge put the Terps back out in front converting on a free position shot with eight minutes left in the first half, but Appelt - curling from the back of the net to the top of the crease - countered for the Cavs on an unassisted goal at 4:55 to tie the game at 3-3 going into the half.

Miles keyed the defense for the Terps stopping all three of Virginia's free position shots in the first half. Virginia controlled the pace of the play for most of the half, holding a 5-2 advantage on draw controls.

Caitlin Banks opened the second half with a goal and Ashleigh Haas converted on a free position shot to take a 5-3 lead. Just under a minute later, Krista Pellizzi raced in from the top of the fan and beat her defenders to score for Maryland. After another Appelt goal, the Terps knotted the game at 6-6 on scores from Coppedge and Cox with just 9:51 remaining. However, the Cavs would tally the game's next four goals in eight minutes, including one from Appelt and two from Haas. The Terps would score a pair of late goals from Cox and Laura Warren, but the rally would fall short.

The Terps were paced on offense by Cox's three goals and two assists and two goals from Coppedge. Pellizzi added a goal and assist for Maryland.

Quinnipiac 3

#3 Maryland 25

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- Cindy Timchal, the winningest coach in women's lacrosse history, won her 300th career game as Maryland defeated Quinnipiac, 25-3, Thursday afternoon at the Lacrosse Complex.

"It's just a tribute to everyone that has been involved with the program," Timchal said of her 300th win. "We've had tremendous support from the University of Maryland and great players. It's the players that score the goals and get the victories for a coach - I've never scored a goal. It's really something all of the Terrapin players we've had here can share and take pride in."

Senior Kelly Coppedge led the offensive onslaught with six goals and two assists for a career-high eight points. The Terps also got hat tricks from Jessica Dorney, Delia Cox and Jen Greenberg. Annie Collins also chipped in a game-high three assists for Maryland.

Maryland took an early 2-0 lead before Coppedge rattled off three straight goals. The Terps scored their first five goals in the first 12 minutes of action, and had a 10-0 lead at the 9:59 mark on a Krista Pellizzi's goal. Jaimee Motley and Meredith O'Brien tallied their first goals of the season (and of their careers) before another Coppedge goal as time expired in the first half and the Terrapin lead swelled to 14-0.

The second half was more of the same as Coppedge, Acacia Walker and Dorney scored in the first 10 minutes. After a Bobcat score by Jennifer Larson to make the score 17-1, Maryland scored three more times - one by Tess McLeod and two by Katie Doolittle. Quinnipiac countered with a pair of goals from Annie Paquette and Amy Willis, but Maryland went on to score the game's final five scores. Krysta Juris scored the first goal of her career, followed by three straight by Greenberg, and one by Emily Jaissle - the first in her career.

Kirah Miles did not allow a goal in 35 minutes of work before giving way to Kate Capelle, who stopped two shots and gave up three goals.

GAME 6

Brown 6

PROVIDENCE, R.I. -- University of Maryland women's defeated got a career-high nine points from Kelly Coppedge on seven goals and two assists and cruised to a 21-6 victory over Brown Friday night in Providence, R.I.

A day after playing in 52-degree sunny weather, the Terps played in cold and windy conditions that reached into the teens with the wind chill. The result was the same, though, as the Terps posted another runaway victory.

Maryland got off to another quick start, scoring the game's first five goals, highlighted by a Coppedge goal in which she took a feed from behind the net from Acacia Walker, turned her back to the cage, and fired a shot over her shoulder that found the back of the net. The Terps' fifth goal came nine seconds after their fourth when Walker won the draw and found Coppedge who raced down the field and scored.

Brown registered its first score of the game midway through the first half, but the Terps responded with three straight goals from Katie Doolittle, Krista Pellizzi and Walker. Brown's Laurel Pierpont goal made the score 8-2, but the Coppedge scored three straight of her own to push the lead to 11-2. A late score by the Bears' Sarah Passano made the score 11-3 at the half.

After a Delia Cox goal to open the second half, Brown made a run at the Terps scoring three unanswered goals and cut the lead in half, 12-6. But the Terps would hold the Bears scoreless for the game's last 24 minutes and add nine more goals, including two for Coppedge, Krista Pellizzi and Jessica Dorney. Cox, Emily Jaissle and Brooke Richards also scored a goal for Maryland in its game-ending 9-0 run.

Coppedge, who set career-highs in goals and points Thursday against Quinnipiac, broke both those marks with her seven-goal, two-assist output on Friday. Pellizzi had the first hat trick of her career and Walker added a game-high four assists (tying her career-high).

Maryland scored back-to-back 20 goal games for the first time since 2001 when the Terps defeated Brown 20-4 and UMBC 23-2.

Ludwig Field, College Park, Md.

#20 Old Dominion 7

#7 Maryland 18

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- Kelly Coppedge scored six goals and added two assists to lead seventh-ranked Maryland to an 18-7 victory over No. 20 Old Dominion Saturday afternoon at Ludwig Field.

In addition to Coppedge's eight points, she also had a game-high six ground balls and five caused turnovers as well as four draw controls. She has scored at least eight points in her last three games, a tremendous scoring stretch that totals 25 points in that span. Delia Cox and Annie Collins tallied five points apiece as the Terrapins (5-2) won their third consecutive game. Collins' five points were a career high.

After each team scored in the game's opening three minutes, Maryland's defense shined in holding the Monarchs off the board for the last 20 minutes of the half, while the Terps ran off five straight goals and carried a 7-2 lead into halftime. The Terps allowed just seven Old Dominion shots in the first half and forced the Lady Monarchs to commit 12 turnovers.

The Terrapins then exploded early in the second half, scoring six goals in the opening eight minutes to take a 13-4 lead with 22 minutes remaining. The run was capped by senior Meg Mallon's first career goal. The Lady Monarchs fought back with unanswered goals by Suzanne Wosczyzna, Caroline Jacobs and Janine Rodriguez to trim the lead to six, but the Terps regrouped after a timeout and tallied the final five scores for the 11-goal margin of victory. Three goals from Coppedge in that span helped key the game-sealing spurt.

The Maryland defense refused to allow Old Dominion to get in any offensive flow. The Lady Monarchs were 11-21 in clear attempts and had only one assisted goal on the afternoon. Wosczyzna paced the ODU offense with three goals and one assist.

Mallon and Greta Sommers and Molly Lambert each recorded their first goals of the season. Laura Warren chipped in a goal and an assist and Krista Pellizzi converted a free-position shot to round out the Terp scoring.

GAME 8

March 23, 2004

Ludwig Field, College Park, Md.

#11 Dartmouth 8

#8 Maryland 11

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- After a sluggish first half, the eighth-ranked Maryland Terrapins used an early second half surge to get past Dartmouth, 11-8, Tuesday afternoon at Ludwig Field.

"This was a big game for us," head coach Cindy Timchal said. "Dartmouth is a very good team and they were looking for a victory. I thought we lacked a little bit of energy in the first half, but we responded and were able to come away with a hard-fought win."

Maryland held a 3-1 lead with just over 12 minutes to play in the first half, but the Big Green got goals from Molly Jenkins and Lana Smith to tie the game at 3-3 heading into half time. Dartmouth had other chances, but 10 saves from goalie Kirah Miles, including six on free-position shots, helped keep the Big Green off the board.

The Terps started the second half strong, scoring three goals in the first 10 minutes. Jessica Dorney scored two of those goals and Delia Cox accounted for the other to push the Terp lead to 6-3. The Big Green were unable to mount a run at the Terps after that, as Maryland answered every score Dartmouth tallied the rest of the way. The Terp defense, who had surrendered 20 Dartmouth shots in the first half, allowed just nine Big Green shots in the second.

Kelly Coppedge, who was held scoreless in the first half, came through for the Terps in the second half with two goals and an assist. Cox led all scorers with three goals and an assist for four points and grabbed a team-best five ground balls. Dorney finished with a hat trick, while Acacia Walker registered two goals.

GAME 9

March 26, 2004

Henry Field, Chapel Hill, N.C.

#20 Penn State 11

#8 Maryland 12

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. -- Acacia Walker scored her first hat trick of the season and Annie Collins scored two goals and had two assists - including one on the game-winner -- to lead Maryland to a 12-11 victory over Penn State Friday afternoon in the first game of the ACC/ALC Challenge in Chapel Hill, N.C.

The Terps (7-2) used seven unanswered goals from the end of the first half to the beginning of the second to take the win over No. 20 Penn State (2-6).

The two teams played even through the first 15 minutes of the first period and were tied 4-4 before Penn State surged ahead with three unanswered goals. The Terps roared back, though, rattling off the game's next six goals, getting two goals from Walker and scores from Krista Pellizzi, Kelly Coppedge, Delia Cox and Annie Collins to take a 10-7 lead into the half.

Maryland controlled a well-played offensive first half committing just two turnovers and firing 26 shots compared to Penn State's 11.

Mollie Reese started the second half with another score for Maryland giving the Terps a four-goal cushion. After being held scoreless for nearly 19 minutes, the Nittany Lions scored a pair of goals within two minutes to cut the lead to two with 21 minutes left in the game. Reese scored - in what would turn out to be the game-winner with 17:52 left -- cutting to the net and finishing a pass from Collins from behind the net.

The Nittany Lions countered quickly with a goal at 17:04 and another at 14:51, but could not score the game-tying goal. The game's last 10 minutes were played mostly in the midfield as the teams traded turnovers and quick offensive opportunities before the Terps were able to control possession for the last two minutes of action and run out the clock to preserve the victory.

Collins scored a team-high four points on two goals and two assists, while Walker added three points on three goals. Reese, Coppedge and Pellizzi scored a pair of goals and Cox added one goal and Jessica Dorney had an assist for the Terps.

GAME 10

March 28, 2004

Henry Field, Chapel Hill, N.C.

#18 Ohio State 11

#8 Maryland 12

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. – Kelly Coppedge scored five goals and Annie Collins chipped in a goal and four assists to lead No. 8 Maryland to a 14-4 victory over No. 18 Ohio State Sunday afternoon at Chapel Hill, N.C., at the ACC/ALC Challenge.

“We were sharp today, and we improved on things from Friday,” head coach Cindy Timchal said. “Ohio State has good, tough players and we needed to come out with the intensity that we did on both ends of the field.”

The Terps (8-2) have now rattled off six straight victories. All three of Maryland’s wins this week were over ranked opponents (Dartmouth, Penn State and Ohio State).

The Terps dictated the action throughout the first half offensively and defensively, scoring the game’s first six goals and not allowing a Buckeye score until the 1:05 mark in the first half. Coppedge scored the game’s first goal at 27:45 on an assist from Collins, but the Terps didn’t score again until 12 minutes later - again by Coppedge. Delia Cox and Jessica Dorney added scores before Coppedge found the back of the net again. A Cox goal at 4:30 in the first half swelled Maryland’s lead to 6-0 before OSU finally netted a goal.

Maryland started the second half right where it left off in the first half on unanswered goals from Dorney, Laura Warren in Coppedge within the first 10 minutes of second half action to put the game away. Jaimee Motley and Emily Jaissle latched on late goals for the Terps in the runaway victory.

The Terps, playing without Molly Lambert, got outstanding defensive efforts from Tess McLeod (three caused turnovers and a team-high five ground balls) and Coppedge who caused four turnovers. Meg Sommar, who started in place of Lambert, Meg Mallon and Greta Sommers helped Ohio State commit more turnovers (20) than shots (17). Kirah Miles allowed just three goals before giving way to Kate Capelle in the final minute.

“This was a good win for us and a good experience this weekend. Someone’s going to win an ACC championship on this field,” Coppedge said, alluding to the ACC Tournament to be held in Chapel Hill.

GAME 11

April 2, 2004

Turf Complex, College Park, Md.

Denver 4

#8 Maryland 19

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – Neither Denver nor the constant rain at the Lacrosse & Field Hockey Complex could stop the eighth-ranked Maryland women’s lacrosse team as the Terps notched a 19-4 victory over Denver Friday afternoon.

Kelly Coppedge tied her career-high with nine points on six goals and three assists as the Terps (9-2) earned their seventh consecutive victory. With her six goals, Coppedge moved past Kelly Amonte into second all-time at Maryland with 189 career goals.

Annie Collins poured in three goals within 1:41 to account for Maryland’s first three scores and the Terps never looked back. Maryland scored 14 first half goals before Denver’s Crystal Jack tallied a score with :12 remaining in the first half. Collins and Coppedge each scored four goals in the first frame and Acacia Walker added two for the Terps. Laura Warren, Katie Doolittle and Emily Jaissle added a goal and Lisa Valentine’s score at 1:23 to was the first of her career.

In the first half, Maryland held a whopping 32-4 advantage in shots and an 11-5 edge in draw controls. Denver keepers were forced to make 14 first half saves while Maryland goalie Kirah Miles needed to make just one save in the first 30 minutes.

Coppedge added two more goals and Brooke Richards notched a pair of scores in the second half to continue the Maryland romp. Jaissle scored her second goal of the game at 7:38 for Maryland’s last score of the game. Kate Capelle played the final 30 minutes in the cage for the Terps allowing three goals and making three saves.

For the game, the Maryland defense held Denver to just 11 total shots and helped cause 18 of the Pioneers’ 31 turnovers.

Richards set a career high with four points on two goals and two assists. Collins tied her career-high with five points (four goals, one assist) to go with four caused turnovers and five ground balls.

The Terps will be back in action on Wednesday, April 7, against the second-ranked Georgetown Hoyas. The game will begin at 7 p.m. and will be televised live by CSTV.
