TERPS FACE TOUGH TESTS IN NO. 1 PRINCETON AND NO. 3 LOYOLA

- The fourth-ranked Maryland women's lacrosse team will look to rebound after a tough loss at the ACC Tournament to Virginia against No. 1 Princeton and No. 3 Loyola. Fans can catch both games on www.wmucsports.com, and the game against Loyola will be broadcast on 88.1 FM as well.
- Maryland (12-3) had its 10-game winning streak snapped by Virginia at the ACC Tournament. The winning streak has bookend losses to Virginia (3/9 and 4/23).
- Speaking of winning streaks, Princeton (14-0) is undefeated this year and is currently riding a 23-game winning streak dating back to last season. The Tigers are the consensus No. 1 team in the nation and have been throughout the season.
- From 1994-2003, Maryland or Princeton have captured the national title.
- Loyola (13-2) is also one of the top teams in the nation with losses to only Princeton and Virginia on the year.
- Including the games this week, Maryland will have played every team that was in the Final Four last season (Virginia, Princeton and Loyola) and the nation's No. 1, No. 2 and No. 3 teams, consecutively.
- Maryland has two-game losing streaks against Princeton and Loyola.

THE WEEK THAT WAS

- Kirah Miles stopped 17 shots and the Terp defense held ACC Player of the Year Amy Appelt to just two goals, but it wasn't enough as Maryland fell 9-7 to Virginia last Friday in the ACC Semifinals.
- The Terps fell behind early when UVa's Caitlin Banks found the back of the net at 28:09, but Maryland rattled off the next five goals to take a 5-1 lead with 7:33 left in the first half. In that surge, Kelly Coppedge netted a free-position goal, Delia Cox tallied a pair of scores, and Greta Sommers and Annie Collins found the back of the net for the Terps.
- Appelt was held scoreless in the first half trying to fight through Greta Sommers and double teams. She managed seven total shots, but Miles was able to stop all three of Appelt's shots on goal -- including one free-position. The Terps led 6-3 at the half.
- Appelt wasn't held down for long, though, helping to ignite Virginia in the second half. She scored just two minutes into the second half and added another goal just :46 later to make the score 6-5. Tyler Leachman tied the score at 6-6, then Morgan Thalenberg gave Virginia the lead at 19:26. The Cavs capped their 7-0 run over 22:41 minutes with goals by Banks and Ashleigh Haas to take a 9-6 lead.
- After a Terp timeout, Laura Warren stopped the Maryland scoring drought with a shot from five yards out in front of the cage to cut the deficit to two goals with 10:26 remaining in the game. Maryland appeared to make it a one-goal game, but an offside call disallowed a Maryland score and gave Virginia the ball. The Terps also had another good opportunity on a free-position shot but could not convert.

Kelly Coppedge scored a career-high seven goals against Brown (3/12).

10

Ten of Maryland's 14 opponents have been ranked.

17

Kirah Miles stopped a career-high 17 shots in each meeting against Virginia (3/9 and 4/23).

19

Maryland has played in 19 out of 21 tournaments sponsored by the NCAA.

22

Kelly Coppedge became the 22nd player in Division I history to score 200 goals against Johns Hopkins 4/10.

23

Annie Collins has 23 assists this season, more than her first two seasons combined (16).

46

Maryland's 46 goals in two the games against Quinnipiac and Brown ties the school record set in 1999.

309

Career coaching wins by Cindy Timchal, most by any coach in women's lacrosse history.

434

All-time wins for the Maryland women's lacrosse program in just 30 seasons (an average of over 14 wins a year).

HEADCOACH CINDY TIMCHAL

- Head coach Cindy Timchal enters her 14th season at the helm of the Maryland women's lacrosse program. In her 14-plus years, she has established one of the most dominant teams in all of collegiate athletics as the Teraps are 233-29 (.892) under her guidance, have earned 13 NCAA Tournament bids and have taken the crown eight times.
- Timchal entered the 2004 season as the winningest coach in the history of women's collegiate lacrosse. She is also the first coach in the sport's history to win 300 games.
- Timchal was selected as the 2003 ACC Coach of the Year, her fourth time earning the honor. She has been chosen as National Coach of the Year twice and has coached players to All-American status 66 times in her career.
- Now in her 23rd season of coaching collegiate athletics overall, Timchal got her start at Northwestern where she led the Wildcats to the NCAA tournament five times in nine years. Her overall record (Maryland and Northwestern) currently stands at 309-69 (.819).
- Timchal is assisted by Jen Adams and Lauri Kenis. Adams is in her second season as a full-time coach after spending a year as an undergraduate assistant. Kenis is in her first season with Maryland after spending her playing career at Virginia.
- A 1976 graduate of West Chester, Timchal was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame on Feb. 13, 2004. Timchal lettered in lacrosse, track and field and tennis, while earning a degree in health and physical education.

ACCOLADES

- Despite finishing 1-3 in the ACC, the Terps still placed five players on the all-conference team, the most of any team in the league.
- Kelly Coppedge was named to the All-ACC team for the third time in her career, while senior Annie Collins, juniors Acacia Walker and Greta Sommers, and sophomore Delia Cox all earned their first selections to the team.
- Freshman Mollie Reese -- the only freshman starter for Maryland this year -- was named the ACC's Freshman of the Year. Reese is just the second Terp to be named Freshman of the Year, with Alex Kahoe earning that honor in 1997.
- For their efforts in a losing cause against Virginia at the ACC Tournament, Delia Cox and Kirah Miles were named to the ACC All-Tournament team. Cox led the Terps with two goals against the Cavs, while Miles was stellar in goal stopping 17 Virginia shots.

SCOUTING THE TIGERS

- The Tigers have tremendous balance on both offense and defense. Princeton has a pair of 50-point scorers in Lindsey Biles (42-13-55) and Theresa Sherry (41-12-53) -- both of whom are Tewaaron nominees along with Elizabeth Pillion (24-14-38). The Tigers are the only team to have three players on the list of 20 nominees for the Tewaaron.
- Sherry, who also plays varsity soccer at Princeton, is able to contribute in a variety of ways. She is among the team leaders in goals, assists, points, ground balls, draw controls and caused turnovers.
- Princeton has six players with at least 20 points on the year.
- As potent as the Tiger offense has been, their defense has been just as dominant. Princeton has allowed double-digit goals just once this season (to Cornell) and opponents are averaging just 6.29 goals per game. As impressive, the Tigers are outshooting opponents by an average of 12 shots per game. Goalie Sarah Kolodner is first in the nation in goals-against average (6.04) but has only had to make 90 saves this season. As a team, Princeton ranks first nationally in scoring offense and scoring defense.
- In its last two games, Princeton has outscored its opponents 34-15. The Tigers have victories over Loyola, Virginia, Duke, Georgetown, Penn State and Dartmouth this year. Maryland has wins over Georgetown, Penn State and Dartmouth, and lost to both Duke and Virginia (twice).
- Maryland leads the all-time series 17-5, but the Terps have lost two straight to Princeton, including a lopsided 13-6 defeat in 2003.

THE LAST TIME: PRINCETON 13, MARYLAND 6

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (April 30, 2003) - The University of Maryland women's lacrosse team suffered its worse defeat of the 2003 campaign in falling to No. 6 Princeton, 13-6, at Ludwig Field.

Princeton was solid from start to finish, employing a strategy used frequently against the Terrapins over the years, a methodical, ball-control offense and solid defense. But the Tigers succeeded where others have not, mixing a relatively mistake-free offense with success on draws. Princeton won 13-of-21 draws in the game, marking just the third time this year that a team has won more draws than the Terps.

Second-ranked Maryland actually opened scoring in the game as sophomore Annie Collins ran in an unassisted goal at 11:27. Princeton answered less than a minute later but sophomore Jessica Dorney put the Terrapins back on top with an unassisted goal of her own at 13:17.

Scoring remained slow for the first 20 minutes and Maryland maintained its 2-1 lead, but the Tiger offense came alive when the clock hit 10:00 in the first half. Whitney Miller got things started with a pair of goals that kicked off a four-goal Tiger run with Lindsey Biles scoring the other two in a four minute stretch. Terp junior Kelly Coppedge found the net on an unassisted goal with 2:38 left in the half and freshman Delia Cox followed with another goal :30 later on a feed from senior Julie Shank and the two teams would head to the half with a goal separating them (5-4 Princeton).

When Coppedge was able to finish after a pass from Acacia Walker at 30:31, the Terps looked like they were back on track with the score knotted at five. Three minutes later, Princeton would start a run that would dampen the Maryland hopes.

Leigh Slonaker scored three goals in a five-goal Tiger run that moved the score from 5-5 to 10-5 in Princeton's favor and just nine minutes remained on the clock. Coppedge would net her third goal of the game with 5:25 left, but the Tigers continued to win draws and play keep away while drawing the Terrapin defense away from the net which gave Princeton opportunities to tack on three more for the final seven-goal margin.

The Terps were led by Coppedge's three goals while Collins, Cox and Dorney each added a goal. Senior Alexis Venechanos also finished with seven saves and it was just the second complete game this year that she had less saves than goals allowed.

SCOUTING THE GREYHOUNDS

- The Greyhounds also have one of the most explosive offenses in the nation to go along with one of the best defenders in the nation. Five players have scored at least 20 goals for Loyola, and Sydney Greene has found the back of the net 36 times for the Greyhounds. Rachel Shuck, a Tewaaron nominee, leads the team and is among the nation's leaders in assists with 29.
- Tara Singleton, a defender, is also a Tewaaron nominee. Singleton is among the national leaders in caused turnovers with 32 (2.13 per game).
- Loyola has just two losses this year, with one coming against No. 1 Princeton and the other coming to No. 7 Virginia. The Greyhounds have quality wins over North Carolina, James Madison, George Mason, Penn State and Duke. They are 5-2 against ranked opponents on the year.

Shots Are Even 0-1

- The Terps lead the all-time series 23-3, but have lost two straight to Loyola, including a narrow 9-8 loss a season ago.
- This season, Loyola is playing at Diane Geppi-Aikens Field, in honor of its longtime coach who passed away in 2003. The Greyhounds are now coached by Kerri Johnson, who served as an assistant under Geppi-Aikens from 1998-2003.

START MEUP

- Maryland has been able to score first in 12 of its 15 games, but its the Terrapins ability to tally that first goal quickly that can set the tempo for the entire game.
- Maryland has outscored opponents 16-5 in the first five minutes of the game, including three scores in the very first minute of action.
- The Terps are tied with Princeton in scoring offense, averaging 14.00 goals per game, which is first nationally.

MOVIN ONUP

- Senior Kelly Coppedge, a 2004 All-ACC selection Year and Tewaaron Award candidate is moving her way up the career charts at Maryland for goals and points.
- The Annapolis, Md., native is second all-time in goals with 203. She passed Kelly Amonte on April 2 with six goals against Denver. She became just the 22nd player in Division I history to score 200 goals against Johns Hopkins on April 10.
- On April 20, Coppedge was named one of 20 official nominees for the Tewaaron Trophy. She was a finalist for the award last season.
- She is now third all-time in career points with 280 and tied for seventh in career assists with 77.
- During a three-game span from March 11-20, Coppedge scored an amazing 19 goals and six assists.
- Coppedge was named ACC Player of the Week on March 22 for her six-goal, two assist performance against Old Dominion, in which she also recorded game-highs in caused turnovers (5) and ground balls (6).
- She earned her second ACC honor a week later on March 29 after racking up nine goals and one assist in a week that saw the Terps collect three victories against ranked opponents.
- Coppedge has scored nine points twice this season. She had a career-high seven goals to go with two assists against Brown. She also had nine points on six goals and three assists against Denver.
- Coppedge earned her third ACC Player of the Week honors on April 12 after her 12-goal, three-assist performance helping the Terps to win over No. 2 Georgetown and No. 9 Johns Hopkins.
- She has scored at least six goals in six games this season. She ranks first on the team in goals, points, ground balls and game-winning goals, and is second on the team in assists, draw controls and caused turnovers.

SCORINGSTREAKS

- Kelly Coppedge has the team's longest scoring streak at 40 (dating back to last season). She has scored in every game this season for the Terps.

GOING THE EXTRAMILES

- One of the question marks for Maryland heading into the 2004 season was the play of first-year goalie Kirah Miles.
- Miles has answered those questions with stellar play in the cage so far. Miles has a solid GAA of 7.90 -- best in the ACC and sixth in the nation -- and has 128 saves on the season.
- Against Virginia on March 9, Miles stopped 17 shots, the most since another Villanova, Pa. native, Alex Kahoe, stopped 21 shots in the NCAA finals on May 17, 1998, also against Virginia.
- Miles was also key against Georgetown, making 13 saves against the second-ranked Hoyas. She helped limit Georgetown to just 4-10 on free-position shots.
- In the ACC Semifinals on April 23, also against the Hoos, she matched her career high with 17 saves. Miles was named to the ACC All-Tournament team for her performance.

MAGIC NUMBER: 10

- If Maryland can score double-digit goals, chances are the Terps will be able to come away with the victory. The Terps are 12-0 this season when scoring at least 10 goals, while in all three Maryland losses the Terrapins have failed to crack double-digits.
- The last time Maryland lost when scoring at least 10 goals was April 21, 2002, North Carolina defeated the Terps 11-10 at the ACC Tournament.

THE EXTRAPASS

- What separates Maryland from many teams in the country is the ability to pass (and catch) the ball in tight spaces. On Maryland's 170 goals not scored on free position shots, the Terps have assisted on 90 of those goals (53 percent).
- Annie Collins leads the team in assists with 23, while Kelly Coppedge is second with 22. Collins has more assists this season than her other two combined (16). Acacia Walker is third on the team with 13.
- Collins is first in the ACC and 16th in the country with 1.53 assists per game, and Maryland leads the conference with 6.07 assists per game.
- In the loss to Virginia at the ACC Tournament, the Terps failed to have an assisted goal for the first time this season.

AMONG THEBEST

- Several Maryland players are ranked among the Atlantic Coast Conference and the national leaders in several statistical categories. Here is a look at how the Terps stack up within the conference and nationally:

Category	Name(Stat)	ACC/NCAARank
Pts. (pg)	Coppedge (5.20)	2nd/3rd
.....	Collins (2.80)	5th/--

.....	McLeod (1.53)	2nd/--
GB (pg)	Coppedge (3.40)	1st/8th
.....	Cox (3.07)	3rd/--

- As a team, the Terps are ranked first in eight of the 13 categories kept by the conference. The Terps are also among the nation's best in several categories:

Category	Stat	NCAA Rank
Scoring Offense	14.00	1st
Scoring Margin	6.27	2nd
GB (pg)	29.73	2nd
Draw Controls	14.20	2nd
Scoring Defense	7.73	5th

NOTHINGFREEABOUT IT

- While the Terps have converted on 40-69 free-position attempts -- 58 percent -- opponents have not had as easy of a time when it is their turn on the fan.
- Opponents have just 19 goals on 64 free-position attempts (30 percent).

SHESAID

- "It's just a tribute to everyone that has been involved with the program. We've had tremendous support from the University of Maryland and great players. It's the players that score the goals and get the victories for a coach -- I've never scored a goal. It's really something all of the Terrapin players we've had here can share and take pride in." -- Cindy Timchal on winning 300 games

TOP FLIGHT TALENT FLIGHT SCHEDULE

- According to the April 26 IWLCA poll, 10 of Maryland's 17 opponents are ranked or receiving votes. The Terps are 8-3 this season against ranked opponents.

U-19 TERPS

- Three Terp freshmen were involved with the U.S. U-19 World Cup team. Krista Pellizzi was one of the team's top scorers and was a teammate of Mollie Reese. Katie Doolittle trained with the U-19 squad but did not compete.
- The trio has seen the most significant action of the Maryland freshmen this season, with Reese starting every game for the Terps. All three scored a point in their debut against Richmond on Feb. 21, and Doolittle scored two goals in her homecoming win over Syracuse.
- Pellizzi has eight goals and three assists this season, Reese has eight goals and a pair of assists, while Doolittle has seven goals and three assists.
- Reese was named the ACC Freshman of the Year on April 22 for her contributions in the starting lineup for the Terps.

TEAM CAPTAINS

- Maryland head coach Cindy Timchal has announced that seniors Kelly Coppedge and Molly Lambert will be the team captains this year. The two were chosen after a vote conducted by their teammates as representatives of this year's squad.

ACC POWERS

- With only four members, the ACC is still one of the strongest leagues in the sport. All four ACC teams are ranked in the top 11 in the nation (according to IWLCA), including Maryland (second), Duke (third) and Virginia (fourth).
- Last season, the ACC represented half of the Final Four and Virginia represented the conference in the national finals.
- In 13 of the past 14 seasons, the ACC has had at least one team in the finals (winning 10 national titles during that span).

PRESEASON NOTEBOOK

- Inside Lacrosse named Kelly Coppedge and Acacia Walker preseason first team All-Americans, in addition to being featured in the Feb. 14 issue. Delia Cox, the publication's Freshman of the Year in 2003, and Greta Sommers were named to the second team.
- CSTV will be the channel of choice for lacrosse fans this season. Highlighting the schedule will be Maryland's April 7 game against Georgetown. CSTV will also televise the women's NCAA championships this season.
- Former Virginia standout Lauri Kenis joins the coaching staff this season after Cathy Nelson left to become the head coach at Denver. Former Terp standouts Sonia Judd and Julie Shank will serve as the team's undergraduate assistant coaches.
- The Terp schedule is again one of the toughest in the nation. According to the IWLCA poll, the Terps will face nine of the top-10 ranked teams this season. The ACC will again be ultra-competitive in 2004, boasting all four teams ranked in the top 11.

Feb. 21, 2004

Lacrosse Complex, College Park, Md.
Richmond 6

#2 Maryland 16

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – Kelly Coppedge and Jessica Dorney each scored a hat trick to lead No. 2 Maryland to a season-opening 16-6 win over Richmond at the Lacrosse & Field Hockey Complex. Maryland improved to 24-7 in season openers with the win.

The Spiders (0-1) tried to slow the pace down by holding possession, but Maryland (1-0) scored the game's first three goals and seven of the first eight to force the action. Freshman Mollie Reese opened the game's scoring at 23:17 (the first score of her career) on an assist from Annie Collins. Laura Warren and Dorney followed with a pair of unassisted goals.

After a Richmond goal by Allison Nuzzi to cut the lead to 3-1, the Terps rattled off four more scores to take a six-goal margin. Coppedge scored two goals to help key the run.

Nuzzi scored cut the lead to 7-3 with a goal to end the first half and to begin the second, but that was as close as they would get after Dorney scored two more and Warren added another to take control of the game. The Terps were able to control possession the rest of the way scoring six of the game's last eight goals. Maryland out-shot Richmond 17-8 in the second half and had a 33-15 advantage in shots for the entire game.

Coppedge and Dorney finished the game with four points each (three goals and one assist), and Coppedge scooped a game-high six ground balls. Collins chipped in two goals and one assist to help pace the Maryland offense. Junior Kirah Miles, making her first start in the cage for Maryland, made five saves for the Terps.

"It was great to have us open the season and play as a team," head coach Cindy Timchal said. "Richmond tried to set the tempo and take time off the clock, but I was proud of the fact that we were poised defensively. Offensively, we are still a young team and we come away with some confidence."

Richmond was paced by Nuzzi's game-high four goals. Polly Purcell added a goal and two assists for the Spiders.

GAME 2

Feb. 29, 2004

Koskinen Stadium, Durham, N.C.

#2 Maryland 7

#4 Duke 9

DURHAM, N.C. – Second-ranked Maryland scored four of the game's last five goals but it wasn't enough to erase a 5-1 half time deficit as the Terps fell to No. 4 Duke, 9-7, Sunday afternoon at Koskinen Stadium.

The Blue Devils (3-0, 1-0) scored the game's first two goals before Kelly Coppedge got the Terrapins (1-1, 0-1) on track. Coppedge finished a feed from Annie Collins at the top of the crease on a restart at the 23:41 mark in the first half.

The rest of the first session was all Duke, as the Blue Devils tallied three more unanswered goals to take a 5-1 lead into the half. Kirah Miles helped keep the Terps in the game making nine first-half saves. Duke outshot Maryland 18-10 in the first half and held a 5-2 advantage in draw controls in controlling the action.

The Terps and Blue Devils traded goals for the first 15 minutes of the second half before Jessica Dorney helped ignite a Maryland rally in the last 15 minutes. Dorney scored three goals in just under 10 minutes to cut the deficit to 9-6. Between Dorney's goals was an own goal by Maryland for Duke when a Terp defender tried to get the ball to Miles and wound up in the net.

Laura Warren tacked on another goal for the Terps with 2:06 left in the game to make it 9-7, but a Terp turnover after controlling the draw ended Maryland's comeback.

In the second half, Maryland outscored 6-4 and outshot Duke in the second half 16-8. Excellent goaltending by Duke's Megan Huether helped keep the Terrapins off the board. Huether finished the game with 15 saves, including four on free position shots. Huehter's performance overshadowed Miles' performance in the cage. Miles stopped a career-high 12 shots in the game.

March 3, 2004

Carrier Dome, Syracuse, N.Y.

#3 Maryland 14

#7 Syracuse 11

SYRACUSE, N.Y. – The University of Maryland women's lacrosse team raced out to a 10-3 half time lead and withstood a furious Syracuse rally in the second half to come away with a 14-11 win Wednesday night at the Carrier Dome.

Delia Cox scored a career-high six goals, including the team's last three scores, to help lead Terrapins (2-1) to victory.

The Terps learned from their slow start at Duke on Sunday as they opened the game in strong fashion. Cox got Maryland on the board first converting on a free-position shot. After a Syracuse score, the Terps went on a 10-2 run. Kelly Coppedge helped key the spurt with four assists and a goal, while Katie Doolittle, a native of nearby Manlius, N.Y., found the back of the net twice during the run in her homecoming.

Maryland controlled the pace and the tempo in the first half by holding a distinct 10-4 advantage in draw controls.

The Orangewomen (1-1), fresh off a comeback victory over Virginia on Saturday, wouldn't let the Terps run away with the game. Jessica Dorney answered Syracuse's Meghan O'Connell's goal to start the second half, but the Orangewomen went on to score the game's next six goals to cut the Maryland lead to 11-10.

With Syracuse charging hard and having all of the momentum, Cox took things over for Maryland. Utilizing one-on-one matchups, Cox was able to use her speed to get past her defender and get to the cage to finish. After halting the Syracuse run and Maryland's 13-minute scoring drought with a goal and push the lead back to 12-10, she again halted Orangewomen momentum – this time answering Syracuse Danielle Lillis' score with 3:30 left in the game. Cox put the game away just over a minute later starting behind the cage, making one quick move and then darting to the front of the net for the score.

Cox's six goals led all scorers. Coppedge tied her career-high for assists in a game with four and finished the game with five points. Dorney added a three-goal, one-assist performance for the Terps.

GAME 4

March 9, 2004

Lacrosse Complex, College Park, Md.

#9 Virginia 10

#3 Maryland 8

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- Junior Kirah Miles stopped 17 shots in goal for Maryland, but it wasn't enough as Virginia topped the Terps 10-8 Tuesday night in women's lacrosse action.

"I thought our team played hard but we weren't good enough tonight," Maryland head coach Cindy Timchal said. "I thought Virginia played really well and that they dominated in a couple of areas that we struggled in. We weren't sharp tonight and we need to be to beat a team like Virginia."

Maryland jumped out to an early 2-0 lead on goals from Mollie Reese and Delia Cox. Kelly Coppedge added an assist on Reese's goal to help move the Terps out to the early advantage. Virginia countered in the 20th minute on a goal from Amy Appelt and evened the score just over a minute later on a score from Tyler Leachman. Coppedge put the Terps back out in front converting on a free position shot with eight minutes left in the first half, but Appelt – curling from the back of the net to the top of the crease – countered for the Cavs on an unassisted goal at 4:55 to tie the game at 3-3 going into the half.

Miles keyed the defense for the Terps stopping all three of Virginia's free position shots in the first half. Virginia controlled the pace of the play for most of the half, holding a 5-2 advantage on draw controls.

Caitlin Banks opened the second half with a goal and Ashleigh Haas converted on a free position shot to take a 5-3 lead. Just under a minute later, Krista Pellizzi raced in from the top of the fan and beat her defenders to score for Maryland. After another Appelt goal, the Terps knotted the game at 6-6 on scores from Coppedge and Cox with just 9:51 remaining. However, the Cavs would tally the game's next four goals in eight minutes, including one from Appelt and two from Haas. The Terps would score a pair of late goals from Cox and Laura Warren, but the rally would fall short.

The Terps were paced on offense by Cox's three goals and two assists and two goals from Coppedge. Pellizzi added a goal and assist for Maryland.

GAME 5

March 11, 2004

Lacrosse Complex, College Park, Md.

Quinnipiac 3

#3 Maryland 25

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- Cindy Timchal, the winningest coach in women's lacrosse history, won her 300th career game as Maryland defeated Quinnipiac, 25-3, Thursday afternoon at the Lacrosse Complex.

"It's just a tribute to everyone that has been involved with the program," Timchal said of her 300th win. "We've had tremendous support from the University of Maryland and great players. It's the players that score the goals and get the victories for a coach — I've never scored a goal. It's really something all of the Terrapin players we've had here can share and take pride in."

Senior Kelly Coppedge led the offensive onslaught with six goals and two assists for a career-high eight points. The Terps also got hat tricks from Jessica Dorney, Delia Cox and Jen Greenberg. Annie Collins also chipped in a game-high three assists for Maryland.

Maryland took an early 2-0 lead before Coppedge rattled off three straight goals. The Terps scored their first five goals in the first 12 minutes of action, and had a 10-0 lead at the 9:59 mark on a Krista Pellizzi's goal. Jaimee Motley and Meredith O'Brien tallied their first goals of the season (and of their careers) before another Coppedge goal as time expired in the first half and the Terrapin lead swelled to 14-0.

The second half was more of the same as Coppedge, Acacia Walker and Dorney scored in the first 10 minutes. After a Bobcat score by Jennifer Larson to make the score 17-1, Maryland scored three more times — one by Tess McLeod and two by Katie Doolittle. Quinnipiac countered with a pair of goals from Annie Paquette and Amy Willis, but Maryland went on to score the game's final five scores. Krysta Juris scored the first goal of her career, followed by three straight by Greenberg, and one by Emily Jaissle — the first in her career.

Kirah Miles did not allow a goal in 35 minutes of work before giving way to Kate Capelle, who stopped two shots and gave up three goals.

GAME 6

March 12, 2004

Stevenson Field, Providence, R.I.

#3 Maryland 21

Brown 6

PROVIDENCE, R.I. -- University of Maryland women's defeated got a career-high nine points from Kelly Coppedge on seven goals and two assists and cruised to a 21-6 victory over Brown Friday night in Providence, R.I.

A day after playing in 52-degree sunny weather, the Terps played in cold and windy conditions that reached into the teens with the wind chill. The result was the same, though, as the Terps posted another runaway victory.

Maryland got off to another quick start, scoring the game's first five goals, highlighted by a Coppedge goal in which she took a feed from behind the net from Acacia Walker, turned her back to the cage, and fired a shot over her shoulder that found the back of the net. The Terps' fifth goal came nine seconds after their fourth when Walker won the draw and found Coppedge who raced down the field and scored.

Brown registered its first score of the game midway through the first half, but the Terps responded with three straight goals from Katie Doolittle, Krista Pellizzi and Walker. Brown's Laurel Pierpont goal made the score 8-2, but the Coppedge scored three straight of her own to push the lead to 11-2. A late score by the Bears' Sarah Passano made the score 11-3 at the half.

After a Delia Cox goal to open the second half, Brown made a run at the Terps scoring three unanswered goals and cut the lead in half, 12-6. But the Terps would hold the Bears scoreless for the game's last 24 minutes and add nine more goals, including two for Coppedge, Krista Pellizzi and Jessica Dorney. Cox, Emily Jaissle and Brooke Richards also scored a goal for Maryland in its game-ending 9-0 run.

Coppedge, who set career-highs in goals and points Thursday against Quinnipiac, broke both those marks with her seven-goal, two-assist output on Friday. Pellizzi had the first hat trick of her career and Walker added a game-high four assists (tying her career-high).

Maryland scored back-to-back 20 goal games for the first time since 2001 when the Terps defeated Brown 20-4 and UMBC 23-2.

GAME 7

March 20, 2004

Ludwig Field, College Park, Md.

#20 Old Dominion 7

#7 Maryland 18

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- Kelly Coppedge scored six goals and added two assists to lead seventh-ranked Maryland to an 18-7 victory over No. 20 Old Dominion Saturday afternoon at Ludwig Field.

In addition to Coppedge's eight points, she also had a game-high six ground balls and five caused turnovers as well as four draw controls. She has scored at least eight points in her last three games, a tremendous scoring stretch that totals 25 points in that span. Delia Cox and Annie Collins tallied five points apiece as the Terrapins (5-2) won their third consecutive game. Collins' five points were a career high.

After each team scored in the game's opening three minutes, Maryland's defense shined in holding the Monarchs off the board for the last 20 minutes of the half, while the Terps ran off five straight goals and carried a 7-2 lead into halftime. The Terps allowed just seven Old Dominion shots in the first half and forced the Lady Monarchs to commit 12 turnovers.

The Terrapins then exploded early in the second half, scoring six goals in the opening eight minutes to take a 13-4 lead with 22 minutes remaining. The run was capped by senior Meg Mallon's first career goal. The Lady Monarchs fought back with unanswered goals by Suzanne Wosczyzna, Caroline Jacobs and Janine Rodriguez to trim the lead to six, but the Terps regrouped after a timeout and tallied the final five scores for the 11-goal margin of victory. Three goals from Coppedge in that span helped key the game-sealing spurt.

The Maryland defense refused to allow Old Dominion to get in any offensive flow. The Lady Monarchs were 11-21 in clear attempts and had only one assisted goal on the afternoon. Wosczyzna paced the ODU offense with three goals and one assist.

Mallon and Greta Sommers and Molly Lambert each recorded their first goals of the season. Laura Warren chipped in a goal and an assist and Krista Pellizzi converted a free-position shot to round out the Terp scoring.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- After a sluggish first half, the eighth-ranked Maryland Terrapins used an early second half surge to get past Dartmouth, 11-8, Tuesday afternoon at Ludwig Field.

"This was a big game for us," head coach Cindy Timchal said. "Dartmouth is a very good team and they were looking for a victory. I thought we lacked a little bit of energy in the first half, but we responded and were able to come away with a hard-fought win."

Maryland held a 3-1 lead with just over 12 minutes to play in the first half, but the Big Green got goals from Molly Jenkins and Lana Smith to tie the game at 3-3 heading into half time. Dartmouth had other chances, but 10 saves from goalie Kirah Miles, including six on free-position shots, helped keep the Big Green off the board.

The Terps started the second half strong, scoring three goals in the first 10 minutes. Jessica Dorney scored two of those goals and Delia Cox accounted for the other to push the Terp lead to 6-3. The Big Green were unable to mount a run at the Terps after that, as Maryland answered every score Dartmouth tallied the rest of the way. The Terp defense, who had surrendered 20 Dartmouth shots in the first half, allowed just nine Big Green shots in the second.

Kelly Coppedge, who was held scoreless in the first half, came through for the Terps in the second half with two goals and an assist. Cox led all scorers with three goals and an assist for four points and grabbed a team-best five ground balls. Dorney finished with a hat trick, while Acacia Walker registered two goals.

#20 Penn State 11

#8 Maryland 12

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. -- Acacia Walker scored her first hat trick of the season and Annie Collins scored two goals and had two assists - including one on the game-winner -- to lead Maryland to a 12-11 victory over Penn State Friday afternoon in the first game of the ACC/ALC Challenge in Chapel Hill, N.C.

The Terps (7-2) used seven unanswered goals from the end of the first half to the beginning of the second to take the win over No. 20 Penn State (2-6).

The two teams played even through the first 15 minutes of the first period and were tied 4-4 before Penn State surged ahead with three unanswered goals. The Terps roared back, though, rattling off the game's next six goals, getting two goals from Walker and scores from Krista Pellizzi, Kelly Coppedge, Delia Cox and Annie Collins to take a 10-7 lead into the half.

Maryland controlled a well-played offensive first half committing just two turnovers and firing 26 shots compared to Penn State's 11.

Mollie Reese started the second half with another score for Maryland giving the Terps a four-goal cushion. After being held scoreless for nearly 19 minutes, the Nittany Lions scored a pair of goals within two minutes to cut the lead to two with 21 minutes left in the game. Reese scored - in what would turn out to be the game-winner with 17:52 left -- cutting to the net and finishing a pass from Collins from behind the net.

The Nittany Lions countered quickly with a goal at 17:04 and another at 14:51, but could not score the game-tying goal. The game's last 10 minutes were played mostly in the midfield as the teams traded turnovers and quick offensive opportunities before the Terps were able to control possession for the last two minutes of action and run out the clock to preserve the victory.

Collins scored a team-high four points on two goals and two assists, while Walker added three points on three goals. Reese, Coppedge and Pellizzi scored a pair of goals and Cox added one goal and Jessica Dorney had an assist for the Terps.

GAME 10

#8 Maryland 12

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. – Kelly Coppedge scored five goals and Annie Collins chipped in a goal and four assists to lead No. 8 Maryland to a 14-4 victory over No. 18 Ohio State Sunday afternoon at Chapel Hill, N.C., at the ACC/ALC Challenge.

"We were sharp today, and we improved on things from Friday," head coach Cindy Timchal said. "Ohio State has good, tough players and we needed to come out with the intensity that we did on both ends of the field."

The Terps (8-2) have now rattled off six straight victories. All three of Maryland's wins this week were over ranked opponents (Dartmouth, Penn State and Ohio State).

The Terps dictated the action throughout the first half offensively and defensively, scoring the game's first six goals and not allowing a Buckeye score until the 1:05 mark in the first half. Coppedge scored the game's first goal at 27:45 on an assist from Collins, but the Terps didn't score again until 12 minutes later - again by Coppedge. Delia Cox and Jessica Dorney added scores before Coppedge found the back of the net again. A Cox goal at 4:30 in the first half swelled Maryland's lead to 6-0 before OSU finally netted a goal.

Maryland started the second half right where it left off in the first half on unanswered goals from Dorney, Laura Warren in Coppedge within the first 10 minutes of second half action to put the game away. Jaimee Motley and Emily Jaissle tacked on late goals for the Terps in the runaway victory.

The Terps, playing without Molly Lambert, got outstanding defensive efforts from Tess McLeod (three caused turnovers and a team-high five ground balls) and Coppedge who caused four turnovers. Meg Sommar, who started in place of Lambert, Meg Mallon and Greta Sommers helped Ohio State commit more turnovers (20) than shots (17). Kirah Miles allowed just three goals before giving way to Kate Capelle in the final minute.

"This was a good win for us and a good experience this weekend. Someone's going to win an ACC championship on this field," Coppedge said, alluding to the ACC Tournament to be held in Chapel Hill.

Denver 4

#8 Maryland 19

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – Neither Denver nor the constant rain at the Lacrosse & Field Hockey Complex could stop the eighth-ranked Maryland women's lacrosse team as the Terps notched a 19-4 victory over Denver Friday afternoon.

Kelly Coppedge tied her career-high with nine points on six goals and three assists as the Terps (9-2) earned their seventh consecutive victory. With her six goals, Coppedge moved past Kelly Amonte into second all-time at Maryland with 189 career goals.

Annie Collins poured in three goals within 1:41 to account for Maryland's first three scores and the Terps never looked back. Maryland scored 14 first half goals before Denver's Crystal Jack tallied a score with :12 remaining in the first half. Collins and Coppedge each scored four goals in the first frame and Acacia Walker added two for the Terps. Laura Warren, Katie Doolittle and Emily Jaissle added a goal and Lisa Valentine's score at 1:23 to was the first of her career.

In the first half, Maryland held a whopping 32-4 advantage in shots and an 11-5 edge in draw controls. Denver keepers were forced to make 14 first half saves while Maryland goalie Kirah Miles needed to make just one save in the first 30 minutes.

Coppedge added two more goals and Brooke Richards notched a pair of scores in the second half to continue the Maryland romp. Jaissle scored her second goal of the game at 7:38 for Maryland's last score of the game. Kate Capelle played the final 30 minutes in the cage for the Terps allowing three goals and making three saves.

For the game, the Maryland defense held Denver to just 11 total shots and helped cause 18 of the Pioneers' 31 turnovers.

Richards set a career high with four points on two goals and two assists. Collins tied her career-high with five points (four goals, one assist) to go with four caused turnovers and five ground balls.

GAME 12

April 7, 2004

Ludwig Field, College Park, Md.

#2 Georgetown 8

#7 Maryland 13

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – It took Maryland just :19 second to flex its muscle against No. 2 Georgetown as Delia Cox raced down the field and scored, giving the Terps a lead they would not relinquish defeating the Hoyas 13-8 Wednesday evening at Ludwig Field.

Senior Kelly Coppedge led the way for the Terps scoring six goals and adding two assists in the victory. Cox netted a hat trick and added an assist for Maryland as the Terrapins extended their winning streak to eight and moved to 10-2 on the year, while Georgetown fell to 7-2.

Goalie Kirah Miles stopped 13 shots and the Maryland defense refused to allow any Georgetown players run free in front of the net. The Hoyas' leading scorer, Sarah Oliphant, was held scoreless and limited to just four shots.

Just over a minute after scoring her first goal of the game, Cox scored again after Coppedge won the draw and put Maryland on offense.

Gloria Lozano got Georgetown on the board on a free-position shot at 23:01, but Coppedge responded with a pair of goals – the second coming on a nice feed from Annie Collins. The Hoyas rallied on goals from Catherine Elbe and Anouck Peters, but the Terps again had an answer with four straight goals in just over three minutes to push the lead to 8-2. The Hoyas would add a pair of scores and head to the locker room trailing 8-5.

Georgetown had opportunities to cut the Maryland lead in the first half, but failed to convert on three free-position shots. The Hoyas were just 4-10 on free-position shots for the game.

Coppedge set the tone in the second half with an assisted goal at 25:22. The Hoyas would score three of the game's next four goals to make the score 10-8 with 15:25 remaining, but Coppedge shut the door on the rally with a pair of goals — one set up by a beautiful move behind the cage in which she faked a Georgetown defender and wheeled in front of the net unmarked for the score. Acacia Walker also netted a goal to close out the scoring for Maryland.

Despite being outshot 32-27, Maryland held a 13-10 edge in the draw controls, including nine in the first half. On three of those nine, Maryland scored immediately without a change of possession.

Homewood Field, Baltimore, Md.

#7 Maryland 14

#9 Johns Hopkins 11

BALTIMORE, Md. – Kelly Coppedge scored six goals - including the 200th of her career - to lead No. 7 Maryland to its ninth straight victory as the Terrapins defeated No. 9 Johns Hopkins, 14-11, Saturday afternoon at Homewood Field.

Just as they did against Georgetown on Wednesday, the Terps (11-2) got off to another quick start. After pressure on Hopkins keeper Lauren Riddick resulted in a turnover, Acacia Walker capitalized on it with a goal just :26 seconds into the game. Walker added another goal at 27:52 to give the Terps a 2-0 lead in just over two minutes.

After a Hopkins goal by Mary Key, Riddick again turned the ball over in her own end resulting in a Coppedge goal. The Terps would run off five more goals in a row - including three more from Coppedge and scores from Walker and Laura Warren - to give Maryland control of the game with an 8-1 lead. Coppedge's 200th score came when she knifed between two defenders 20 yards away from the net and then raced toward the cage for the goal. A JHU goal by Heidi Pierce would make the game 8-2 heading into half time.

In addition to her three first half goals and one assist, Walker was also dominant for the Terps taking draws as well, as Maryland held an 8-3 advantage in that category. The Terrapin defense held the Blue Jays to just eight shots in the first half, with goalie Kirah Miles making five saves.

Johns Hopkins scored to open the second half, but Maryland responded with a goal from Jessica Dorney that she rolled in from 10 yards out and another goal by Warren. After a Mary Key goal to make the score 10-4, the Terps again bounced back with a pair of scores. Mollie Reese took a feed from behind the cage from Coppedge for a goal and Annie Collins tallied a goal with a backhanded shot.

Hopkins started to make a run at the Terps toward the middle of the second half, with Erin Riordan notching a pair of goals to make the score 12-6 with 16:04 left in the game. The Blue Jays closed the game with a 5-2 run (with Maryland's two scores coming courtesy of Coppedge), but it was not enough to overcome the first half deficit as they fell 14-11.

Ludwig Field, College Park, Md.

#15 North Carolina 9

#4 Maryland 11

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – Maryland got off to yet another quick start scoring two goals in the game's first three minutes and eight goals in the first 20 minutes and withstood a late North Carolina rally to hold on 11-9, Saturday afternoon at Ludwig Field.

With the Tar Heels focused on shutting down Maryland's leading scorer Kelly Coppedge, Annie Collins and Jessica Dorney picked up the offensive slack for the Terps. Collins led all scorers with five points (tying her career-high) on two goals and three assists, while Dorney netted her sixth hat trick of the season. And despite UNC's efforts, Coppedge still finished with a goal and two assists.

Coppedge got things started for Maryland with her 55th goal of the season just a minute and a half into the game when she got a step in front of her defender at the top of the fan and took a pass from Collins to tally the score. Collins earned another assist just :48 later finding Delia Cox for the goal. The Terps have outscored opponents 16-4 in the first five minutes of the game this season.

After a goal by UNC's Beth Ames, Dorney scored two goals in :13 seconds to make the score 4-1, but UNC countered with scores by Jess Allen and Melissa McCarthy. With the score 4-3 with 20 minutes left in the first half, the Terps surged ahead with a 4-0 run in the next 10 minutes. Collins netted two goals and Cox and Acacia Walker each added unassisted goals for the Terps in that span to give Maryland an 8-3 lead with 10:06 remaining in the first half.

Maryland broke an almost 20 minute scoring drought when Coppedge, working behind the cage, found Laura Warren cutting through the middle of the fan for the first score of the second half at 22:03.

The Tar Heels rallied scoring the game's next four goals and cut Maryland's lead to just two goals with just under five minutes remaining in the game, but after UNC's Ilsa Leon turned the ball over at the 4:18 mark and Maryland was able to maintain possession for the final minutes of the game to preserve the victory.

ACC Semifinals

April 23, 2004

Henry Field, Chapel Hill, N.C.

#3 Maryland 7

#2 Virginia 9

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. – Kirah Miles stopped 17 shots and the Terp defense held ACC Player of the Year Amy Appelt to just two goals, but it wasn't enough as Maryland fell 9-7 to Virginia Friday afternoon in the ACC Semifinals.

With the win, Virginia (14-3) advances to face Duke in the finals. The loss snaps Maryland's 10-game winning streak and drops its record to 12-3 on the season.

The Terps fell behind early when UVa's Caitlin Banks found the back of the net at 28:09, but Maryland rattled off the next five goals to take a 5-1 lead with 7:33 left in the first half. In that surge, Kelly Coppedge netted a free-position goal, Delia Cox tallied a pair of scores, and Greta Sommers and Annie Collins found the back of the net for the Terps.

Virginia countered with a score by Kim Connors just :15 later at 7:08, but Maryland pushed its lead to four again on an unassisted goal by Krista Pellizzi at the 5:51 mark. The Cavs' Courtney Young added her 17th goal of the season on an unassisted goal at 3:07 to cut the deficit to three heading into half time.

Appelt was held scoreless in the first half trying to fight through Greta Sommers and double teams. She managed seven total shots, but Miles was able to stop all three of Appelt's shots on goal — including one free-position.

Appelt wasn't held down for long, though, helping to ignite Virginia in the second half. She scored just two minutes into the second half and added another goal just :46 later to make the score 6-5. Tyler Leachman tied the score at 6-6, then Morgan Thalenberg gave Virginia the lead at 19:26. The Cavs capped their 7-0 run over 22:41 minutes with goals by Banks and Ashleigh Haas to take a 9-6 lead.

After a Terp timeout, Laura Warren stopped the Maryland scoring drought with a shot from five yards out in front of the cage to cut the deficit to two goals with 10:26 remaining in the game. Maryland appeared to make it a one-goal game, but an offside call disallowed a Maryland score and gave Virginia the ball. The Terps also had another good opportunity on a free-position shot but could not convert.
