Terp Tidbits

- Down The Stretch: After a sluggish 3-3 start, the Terps have won eight of their last 10 games and are 3-2 against ranked opponents in that span ... the Terps have scored 150 goals over the last 10 games ... Krista Pellizzi and Katie Doolittle have each netted the most goals for the Terps with 29 in those games.
- Between The Pipes: Sophomore Allie Buote has 129 saves on the season ... she had just 10 saves in limited action last season ... her goals against average of 8.78 ranks 17th among NCAA goalies this year.
- Career Year: Krista Pellizzi had 34 career points (23g, 11a) in two seasons as a Terrapin ... this season she has 61 points (39g, 22a).
- Balanced Attack: The Terps have five players with 30 or more points ... four players have double-digit assists on the year (Pellizzi, Kasper, Cox, Magor) ... those four are also ranked among the top ten in the ACC in assists per game.
- Draw It Up: The Terps' improved play over the last seven games can be attributed to a better job on draw controls ... in Maryland's 3-3 start, the Terps were winning less than 50 percent of the draws (61 out of 126) ... however, over the last 10 games, Maryland has won nearly 60 percent of the draws (149 out of 260) ... Kelly Kasper has helped in that area, coming down with 36 draws in those games (3.6 draws per game).
- Filling The Boxscore: Sophomore midfielder Kelly Kasper makes plays all over the field for the Terps ... she ranks among the top three on the team in six different categories (goals, assists, points, draw controls, groundballs and caused turnovers) ... she leads the league in caused turnovers per game (2.19) and is ninth in the country in that category ... she is second in the ACC in draw controls per game (2.75) and is 20th in the nation.
- Against Ranked Opponents: Maryland is 3-3 vs. ranked opponents this year ... all of Maryland's losses this season have come to teams ranked in the top five.
- That Thing You Doo: Junior Katie Doolittle has found her scoring touch, which has coincided with Maryland's strong play as of late ... in the last 10 games, she is tied for the team lead in goals with 29 ... she has five games of at least four goals this season.
- ACColades: Three Terps have earned ACC Player of the Week honors this season: Delia Cox, Krista Pellizzi and Kelly Kasper (twice).

- Kelly Kasper led all Terps with three goals and an assist in the loss. She was named to the all-tournament team. Delia Cox, Krista Pellizzi and Katie Doolittle each chipped in a pair of goals each for the Terps.

- Cox has scored a goal or an assist in all but one game over the past two seasons.
- The list of 21 will be narrowed to five finalists before the award presentation on June 1.

Terps Up For NCAA Anniversary Team

- Five University of Maryland players and head coach Cindy Timchal were selected to the NCAA's 25th Anniversary Women's Lacrosse team for their outstanding achievements while competing and coaching in NCAA championships. The NCAA is celebrating the 25th anniversary of women's championships in several sports during the 2005-06 athletic season.
- Maryland alums Jen Adams, Kelly Amonte, Sarah Forbes, Alex Kahoe and Tracy Stumpf were all named to the team. Timchal was selected as the team's head coach.
- An expert sports panel picked the NCAA Division I Women's Lacrosse 25th Anniversary Team. The panel consisted of current and former coaches, athletics administrators and sports information directors. Boston University will host the semifinals and finals of the 2006 NCAA Division I Women's Lacrosse Championships, May 26-28, in Boston.

Preseason Notebook

- The Terps were ranked in the two major polls heading into the 2006 season. The Terps started ranked ninth in the IWLCa preseason poll, but were ranked fourth in the Bounce Entertainment/Inside Lacrosse poll.
- Nine opponents were ranked in the IWLCa poll. Maryland's schedule features nine teams that made it to the 2005 NCAA Tournament, including all four teams in the national semifinals (Dartmouth, Duke, Northwestern and Virginia).
- Delia Cox was named a preseason All-American by Inside Lacrosse.
- Head coach Cindy Timchal was inducted into the Potomac Chapter of the US Lacrosse Hall of Fame. The hall of fame recognizes individuals who have made significant contributions to promote the growth and excellence of lacrosse in the greater Washington, D.C., metropolitan area.
- The Terps welcome two new assistant coaches to the staff in Brian McGurn and Caitlin Banks.

Class Breakdown

- Maryland has just four seniors on the roster. There are eight juniors, nine sophomores and 13 freshmen.

ACC Power

- With just six members, the ACC is one of the strongest leagues in the sport. Four out of the six teams are ranked in the top ten in the nation (according to the Inside Lacrosse poll), including Duke (1st) Virginia (4th), Maryland (5th) and North Carolina (6th).
- In 15 of the last 16 seasons, the ACC has had at least one team in the finals (winning 11 national titles during that span).

Tough Tests

- The Terrapins traditionally play one of the nation's most difficult schedules, and 2006 has been no different. Ten Maryland opponents are ranked in the most recent Inside Lacrosse poll, six of which are in the top 10.

#1 Northwestern..... 13

#9 Maryland 8

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- Top-ranked Northwestern overcame a 4-0 first half deficit to defeat ninth-ranked Maryland, 13-8, at the Lacrosse and Field Hockey Complex. Delia Cox scored three goals and added three assists in the loss.

"I thought we came out with great intensity and were very smart with the ball," head coach Cindy Timchal said. "They are a great team, but I thought we really fought hard and competed."

The Terps roared out of the gates with a 4-0 run to start the first half. Cox helped spark the run with an assist on the game's first goal by Casey Magor, and after a Kelly Kasper goal, scored a pair on her own.

The Wildcats regrouped, though, and closed the half with a 7-0 run of their own.

Maryland pulled back into the game after starting the second half strong. Cox scored unassisted just a minute into the second half and assisted on a Kasper goal to pull the Terps to within one goal with just over 26 minutes left in the game.

The Terps won the ensuing draw control, but were unable to capitalize on the possession. The Wildcats took the opportunity to push their lead to 9-6 after Laura Glassanos scored a pair of goals just 17 seconds apart.

Magor won the next draw, and the Terps took advantage with a goal by Krista Pellizzi to make the score 9-7. Maryland again won the draw, but turned the ball over in the offensive end. Lindsey Munday then scored a free-position goal at 17:42 to give Northwestern a 10-7 lead. Northwestern controlled possession the rest of the way and added three more scores the rest of the way for the win.

Allie Buote, making her first career start, made nine saves. Lauren Cohen chipped in three caused turnovers on defense for the Terps.

Ohio 3

#9 Maryland 12

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- Brooke Richards and Katie Princiotta each registered hat tricks and the Terp defense smothered Ohio as No. 9 Maryland defeated the Bobcats, 12-3, at the Lacrosse & Field Hockey Complex. Seven different players found the back of the net for the Terps, and the Terp defense forced 19 turnovers in the win.

Richards finished the game with four points on three goals and an assist. Delia Cox and Kelly Kasper also helped pace the offense with four points each. Kasper also added five caused turnovers in the winning effort.

Richards struck first for the Terps on their third possession of the game on an assist for Kasper at 27:49. Just under two minutes later, though, the Bobcats would even the score on a free-position shot by Kiersten McLouth.

Princiotta scored unassisted at 23:11, and Kasper scored on a free-position shot at 19:52 to give the Terps a 3-1 lead it would not relinquish. However, the Bobcats would slow the game down over the next 15 minutes by controlling the ball in their offensive zone. Allie Buote managed a save and the Terp defense capitalized on three Ohio turnovers to help keep the Bobcats off the board during that time.

The Terps started the second half hot offensively as Richards scored twice in the opening two minutes and Cox added another quick score to stretch Maryland's lead to 7-1 with 27:22 left in the game. Casey Magor added another goal for the Terps on an assist from Cox before Ohio ended a 32-minute scoring drought on a goal by Shannon Hadaway in the game's 37th minute. Maryland closed the game on a 5-1 run to put the game away.

George Mason..... 6

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- Delia Cox scored a game-high five goals to help lead the fifth-ranked Maryland Terrapins past George Mason, 13-6, in women's lacrosse action in College Park. The Terps broke the game open with a late run in the first half and went on to out-score the Patriots 8-4 in the second to collect the victory.

The Terps were up 2-0 midway through the first on goals from Cox and Kelly Kasper despite having three goals taken off the board on crease violations. The Maryland defense helped make the two-goal lead stand, though, courtesy of outstanding play in goal by Allie Buote. Buote made eight saves in the first half, including three on free-position shots. The Patriots did not get on the board until Melissa Curry connected on a pass to Laura King with just under five minutes to play in the half.

The Terps responded by scoring three goals in just 1:26 to pad the cushion to 5-1, but Curry tallied another GMU goal with :38 seconds left to make the margin 5-2 at the half.

Maryland then broke the game open with a 4-1 run in the first eight minutes of the second half, sparked by Krista Pellizzi and Casey Magor who each notched a goal and an assist in that span. George Mason's Sarah Bryant would make the score 9-4 with her second goal of the night, but that was as close as the Patriots would get. Cox scored two of the game's next four goals, and Katie Princiotta and Brooke Richards would add the others.

GMU added a pair of late scores from Melissa Venturi to make the final score 13-6.

#2 Duke 9

DURHAM, N.C. -- The No. 2 Duke Blue Devils rallied from an early deficit and held off a strong comeback effort from the No. 5 Maryland Terrapins to win 9-7 at Koskinen Stadium. Delia Cox scored three goals and Kelly Kasper netted a pair to help lead the Terps offensively, and Allie Buote came up with a career-high 10 saves to hold the Blue Devils to nine goals in the game.

The Terps raced out of the gates with a 4-1 lead in the first 10 minutes of action. Cox registered two of those scores, and Kasper and Brooke Richards added the others. Duke then rallied for six-straight goals to close the half, including three in a 1:44 span from 7:30-5:46 in the first half. The Blue Devils would go into the half up 7-4.

Duke continued to stretch its lead in the second with a goals in the 31st and 33rd minutes. However, that would be the last tally the Blue Devils would score in the game. The Terps, though, were unable to mount a charge, in large part due to the play of Duke goalie Megan Huether, who stopped several Terrapin shots from point-blank range. Maryland started its rally in the 50th minute when Krista Pellizzi converted a free-position goal. Duke won the ensuing draw control, but Katie Princiotta forced a turnover and Kasper scooped up the loose ball and ripped a shot from outside the 8-meter arc for the score.

Duke again controlled the draw, and after a prolonged possession, the Terps got the ball after an errant Katie Chrest shot was picked up by Lauren Cohen. Cox converted on the offensive end to make the score 9-7 with just over three minutes left.

#6 North Carolina 11

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. -- Seventh-ranked North Carolina used a 4-0 run midway through the second half which proved to be the difference as the Tar Heels defeated No. 4 Maryland, 11-9, at Fetzer Field. Eight different players scored UNC's 12 goals on its way to the victory while Maryland was paced offensively by two goals each from Delia Cox, Kate McWilliams and Krista Pellizzi.

"It was just one of those nights," head coach Cindy Timchal said. "We played really hard all the way to the final whistle, but some things just didn't go our way. I'm obviously disappointed with the loss, but I am proud of the character and effort we showed."

The game was closely contested throughout, as neither team was able to get more than a one-goal advantage for more than three-fourths of the contest. Cox was handed a red card in the game's 34th minute, and UNC went on to outscore the Terps 6-4 the rest of the way, including that critical 4-0 run.

Leading 5-4 at the half, UNC quickly tied the game up in the second half after Jess Allen took the ball all the way down field and promptly put the ball in the net at 28:44.

The Terps then suffered several setbacks, the first coming at 25:37 when Cox was handed a red card, leaving the Terps without one of their top scorers for the rest of the game. UNC capitalized on the opportunities and took its first lead in over 29 minutes with a 4-0 run. The Terps halted the run and their own 21-minute scoring drought when Kelly Kasper passed it to Pellizzi from behind the cage on a re-start for the goal with 12:01. The Terps then pulled within two after Richards found McWilliams cutting to cage in the 54th minute.

#6 Maryland 9

Boston College 11

NEWTON, Mass. -- Maryland's sixth-ranked women's lacrosse team erased an early 5-2 first half deficit to register a 13-11 victory over Boston College Saturday afternoon at Newton Campus Field. Kelly Kasper paced the Maryland offense with four goals and two assists as the Terps head into the ACC Tournament with a victory.

"This was another hard fought victory for us," head coach Cindy Timchal said. "We know we have to get better, because we know that Boston College will get better next week, too."

Boston College took a 5-2 lead over the first 20 minutes of play, with three of those scores coming on free-position shots. However, Kasper helped Maryland pull even before the half ended with a pair of scores and an assist to Krista Pellizzi.

Elizabeth Kadison gave the Eagles a 6-5 lead with a goal in the 31st minute, but Maryland went on a 3-0 run over the game's next four minutes to take a lead it would not relinquish. Kasper again helped spark the run with a goal and an assist, and Katie Doolittle and Casey Magor also tallied scores to give Maryland an 8-6 advantage with still 25 minutes to play.

Boston College's Margot Spatola scored an unassisted goal to pull within one, but the Terps then outscored the Eagles 4-0 over 11 minutes to take command of the game. Each goal came off the stick of a different Terp as Katie Princiotto, Doolittle, Delia Cox and Kasper each found the back of the net to seize command of the game and go on to the victory.

Kasper and Becky Clipp each forced four turnovers for Maryland, and Clipp scooped a team-high four groundballs for the Terps. Allie Buote made 10 saves in the cage for Maryland.
