Current Terp associate head coach Jen Adams won the 2001 Tewaaraton Award as the nation's top women's lacrosse player, as well as the Honda Award for the second straight year. In 2001 she set the NCAA records for career points (445) and assists (174).

Terrapins AT THE 2005 WORLD CUP

WITH A ROSTER INCLUDING SEVEN
TERRAPINS, AUSTRALIA WON THE 2005
IFWLA WORLD CUP IN ANNAPOLIS, MD.

In 2005, the International Federation of Women's Lacrosse Associations' World Cup was played in Annapolis, Md. With so many players having ties to the University of Maryland, the World Cup had a distinct Terrapin flavor.

At the championships, which were won by Australia, a total of 13 former and current Terrapin lacrosse players represented their respective countries. The champion Aussies featured seven Terrapin players, including Jen Adams (2001), Sarah Forbes (1997), Courtney Hobbs (2002), Sonia Judd (2003), Casey Magor (current), Tess McLeod (2004) and Sascha Newmarch (1998). In addition, five members of the American team played lax in College Park. Among them were Quinn Carney (2001), Randall Goldsborough (1995), Kelly Amonte Hiller (1996), Kristin Sommar (2000) and Jess Wilk (1990). Finally Laura Warren (2004) was a starting attacker for the Welsh team.

On the 12-member All-World Team, seven of those hailed from the University of Maryland. Of the 20 games played at the World Cup in which a Maryland Terrapin was on the roster, a Terp player was recognized as "Player of the Match" nine times. Forbes was named the tournament's "Most Valuable Player" for her efforts for the Aussies. Adams was the leading scorer among all players at the World Cup with 47 points on 21 goals and 26 assists. Her 26 assists set a new World Cup record.

Terps ON THE 25TH ANNIVERSARY TEAM

On April 13, 2006, the NCAA announced its Division I Women's Lacrosse 25th Anniversary Team. There were 13 women chosen to the team as 12 student-athletes and one coach were selected to represent the best NCAA women's lacrosse has ever seen. The Maryland Terrapins were extremely well-represented as six women involved with the Terp program were honored. Princeton and Virginia had the next most selections with two each.

Topping the list of student-athletes on the team is Jen Adams who played in College Park from 1998-2001. Adams is the all-time NCAA leader in career assists (178) and points (445) and was a national player of the year selection three times. In 2001, she became the first winner of the Tewaaraton Trophy. Adams holds every single season and career record at Maryland and won four national championships in her time as a Terp.

Also on the team is Kelly Amonte who was a three-time first-team All-American and two-time IWLCA Player of the Year after leading the Terps to a pair of national championships in 1995 and 1996. Sarah Forbes won three national championships, was a two-time first-team All-American and was the IWLCA Player of the Year in 1994. Alex Kahoe is the only goalkeeper on the team as she led the Terps to four national championships from 1997-2000. She was a first-team All-American and IWLCA Player of the Year in 1999 and 2000. Tracy Stumpf was a two-time first-team All-American and guided Maryland to the 1986 national title.

Cindy Timchal was honored as the team's head coach with her eight national championships at Maryland. She was a two-time National Coach of the Year and four-time ACC Coach of the Year. Timchal finished her time in College Park with a 260-46 record and is the NCAA's all-time winningest coach with 336 victories.

SEASON OUTLOOK

TERPS WILL USE EXPERIENCE TO LEARN NEW SYSTEM

Despite losing its leading scorer from a year ago, the 2007 Maryland women's lacrosse team will not have trouble putting points on the board. The Terrapins are returning 21 student-athletes from the 2006 squad and 70 percent of their scoring. Rounding out the terrapin roster are six freshmen and two transfers who will each add something special to the team.

Casey Magor

"Our roster is filled with talent and experience," said head coach Cathy Reese. "The team is well rounded and will display speed and skill at every position. Everyone has been working hard in the fall and winter to prepare for the 2007 season."

Reese took over the Maryland program in September following the departure of long time coach Cindy Timchal. Reese was a seven-time national champion with Maryland as a student-athlete and assistant coach and has known nothing but success as a Terp. In her first nine years at Maryland from 1995-2003, she accumulated a 169-19 record.

After not advancing to the NCAA championship game since 2001, Maryland's last NCAA title, Reese will look to bring the Terrapins back to the forefront nationally.

"Our goal is to win a national championship, however our focus is on improving each day," said Reese. We will take it one game at a time and look to grow stronger through the season".

Reese returns to her alma mater after heading the Denver program for three seasons. In 2006, she guided the Pioneers to their best season in program history with a 16-5 record. She was named the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation Coach of the Year and will look to translate her experience and success at Denver into success at Maryland.

"I am passionate and excited about the women's lacrosse program at Maryland. It is such a great opportunity for me to be able to coach at my alma mater for a program that means so much to me. My college experience was memorable and I want my student-athletes to experience what I did."

Krista Pellizzi

ATTACK

Maryland's top three scorers a year ago all earned IWLCA/US Lacrosse All-American status and two of them are returning for their senior campaigns. Midfielder Kelly Kasper and attacker Krista Pellizzi both started all 20 games for the Terps last season and notched 71 and 65 points, respectively. Kasper was a second-team All-American while Pellizzi was named to the third team.

In addition to Kasper's and Pellizzi's production, junior Casey Magor added 16 goals and 22 assists during her sophomore season. Pellizzi and Magor will anchor the attack this year and will be joined by juniors Katie Princiotto,

Katie Doolittle

Lauren Cohen and senior Mollie Reese. The Terps attack is loaded with experience and should prove to be one of the most prolific offensive units in the country.

Junior transfer Chelsea Kapp will add speed to the attack and sophomores Jenny Collins and Alex Mavris will add depth and tenacity. Freshman Ali Perkins will contribute with her ability to feed and find open cutters.

MIDFIELD

The Maryland midfield will be a strength for the Terps this season. Junior Kelly Kasper and senior co-captain Katie Doolittle return to lead the way coming off of strong 2006 seasons. Kasper had a breakout sophomore season scoring 44 goals and adding 27 assists. Her intensity and athleticism also make her one of the best defenders for the Terps in the middle of the field.

Doolittle will look to have a standout senior season after scoring over 30 goals in each of the past two years. In 2006, she was an IWLCA/US Lacrosse All-South and an All-ACC selection and will help to lead the team in the 2007 season.

Jen Greenberg

Kelly Kasper

Freshmen Caitlyn McFadden and Amanda Spinnenweber are expected to make an immediate impact at midfield. They will use their speed, stick skills, and overall athleticism to contribute on both ends of the field. Junior transfer Dana Dobbie brings a powerful combination of collegiate and national team experience and is one of the most creative and exciting players on the roster. Sophomore Kearny Raver will add speed and explosiveness to the transition game.

DEFENSE

The Maryland defense is not only talented, but extremely experienced and is anchored by junior goalie Allie Buote who started in all 20 games last season. Buote is a good communicator and her exceptional reaction time and vision of the field make her one of the top goalkeepers in the nation. Sophomore goalkeepers Sarah Sommaripa and Lynne Cooper add depth for the Terps and add another dimension to the strength of the defense.

Opponent offenses will have to get to the cage first though. Seniors Becky Clipp, Jen Greenberg, Martha Raver and juniors Katie Pumphrey and Megan Cassara all return for the Terps to provide leadership on defense. Clipp, Pumphrey, Raver and Casara will look to explode out of the defensive end and be the start of the Maryland offense. Greenberg, along with sophomores Mindy Jones, Maeve McKew and Marie Moorman all have excellent body positioning on defense and can read offensive players well. Their cohesiveness and experience with each other will translate into frustrated opponents on the attack.

Joining the Terps defensive unit this year are newcomers Maggie Stout, Katie Gallagher and Karissa Taylor. All three players are extremely athletic and excellent one on one defenders.

SCHEDULE

The Terrapins open the 2007 season at home for three straight games, beginning with the season opener on February 18 at the Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex against Ohio. Following that contest are two crucial early-season ACC match-ups against Boston College and Duke University on February 24 and March 3rd respectively. The game vs Duke will be held at Ludwig field.

Allie Buote

From March 13 to March 24, the Terps will go non a four-game stretch that might be the toughest of the regular season. Maryland travels to Charlottesville on the 13th to face Virginia who won the ACC Tournament last season. Four days later, the Terrapins travel to New Hampshire to take on perennial power Dartmouth. Maryland then returns home to play Johns Hopkins on the 21st and will play North Carolina at Chevy Chase Bank Field at Byrd Stadium on the 24th in a game televised nationally by CSTV.

Becky Clipp

The Terps will close out their ACC schedule in the final game of the season at Virginia Tech on April 21st. The ACC Tournament is slated for April 26-29 at the University of North Carolina.

In between the conference tournament and the start of the NCAA Tournament on May 13, Maryland will again take on Princeton on May 2nd in College Park.

The 26th Annual Division 1 Women's Lacrosse Championship will be held on campus sites on May 13th and 18th to determine the final four teams. The finals will be played at Franklin Field in Philadelphia at the University of Pennsylvania on May 25th and 27th.

CATHY REESE

HEAD COACH • FIRST SEASON • MARYLAND '98

Former Maryland standout Cathy Reese returns to College Park as the Terrapins' head coach with the responsibility of bringing the most successful women's lacrosse program in NCAA history back to the national spotlight.

Reese takes the helm of the Maryland lacrosse program after spending her first three seasons as head coach at the University of Denver where she guided the Pioneers to their most successful season in school history in 2006. Denver finished last season with a 16-5 record and rattled off 11-straight wins over the course of 43 days. The 11-game win streak was more victories than the school had seen in an entire season as its eight wins in 2003 was the most in a season for the Pioneers prior to last year.

For a program that saw limited success since its inception in 1999, Reese proved that she is a winner. With a 4-1 Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) record, the Pioneers won its first-ever regular season championship in 2006. For her efforts, Reese was named the 2006 MPSF Coach of the Year. In addition, two of her student-athletes were also given season-ending awards as Denver swept the conference accolades. Kristie Leggio was tabbed the Player of the Year and Karen Morton was the Newcomer of the Year.

Leggio, Stephanie Greenlees, and Kelly O'Connell were each recognized as all-regional performers a year ago. It was the first time in program history that a Pioneer student-athlete was recognized by the IWLCA/US Lacrosse committee.

In her three seasons in the Mile High City, 11 student-athletes were named to the All-MPSF Team. Not only did her students excel on the field, but they also achieved in the classroom as Denver student-athletes were named to the Academic All-Conference team 11 times.

Prior to lifting the Denver program to national attention, Reese spent nine seasons in College Park, four as a student-athlete and five as an assistant coach. During that span, the women's lacrosse program had one of the most successful streaks seen in collegiate women's sports history. The Terps won seven national championships in her first nine years on campus. That is the third-longest streak in women's NCAA history in any sport.

When Reese first stepped foot on campus as a freshman, it was impossible to gauge how successful she and the Terps would be. Maryland did not lose in her first two seasons as a student-athlete, and it did not lose until midway through her junior campaign. In all, Reese and the Terps went 50-straight games without a loss. In her playing career, Reese guided the Terps to an incredible 75-4 record. In her first three seasons as assistant coach, the Terps went 65-1. Her total record with Maryland in her first nine seasons was 169-19. The Terps also made the NCAA quarterfinals in 2002 and advanced to the national semifinals in 2003 before Reese took the reins at Denver.

As a student-athlete from 1995-98, she was a two-time All-America selection. As a senior, she was tabbed the NCAA Tournament Most Valuable Player and was the second-leading scorer on that championship team with 58 goals and 25 assists. She finished her career with 140 goals, 77 assists, and 217 points. Her 77 assists is tied for eighth all-time at Maryland and her 217 points is 11th.

Reese graduated in 1998 with a degree in speech communications. She and her husband, Brian, have two children, Riley, who is two years old, and Brody, who was born September 24, 2006.

REESE'S CAREER COACHING RECORD

Year	School	W-L	Pct.	MPSF/Fin	Postseason
2004	Denver	7-12	.368	3-2/Third
2005	Denver	8-12	.400	3-2/Third
2006	Denver	16-5	.762	4-1/First	MPSF Finals
Totals	Denver	31-29	.516	10-5/666

REESE NOTES:

- 2006 MPSF Coach of the Year
- Guided Denver to record 16 wins in 2006
- Guided first Denver student-athlete to All-America status
- Has won seven national titles at Maryland as player/coach (1995-2003)

JEN ADAMS

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH • FIRST SEASON • MARYLAND '01

Jen Adams came over from Denver with Reese in the fall and serves as the associate head coach. Adams served as the top assistant under Reese in the Mile High City for three seasons.

Adams is arguably the greatest collegiate women's lacrosse player in the sport's history. She is the all-time NCAA leader in assists and points with 178 and 445, respectively. She owns every Maryland scoring record as she is the single season and career leader in goals, assists, and points. Like Reese, she played on four national championship teams. She was a three-time national player of the year and was first-ever winner of the Tewaaraton Trophy, given annually to the nation's top player. As a senior, she was the national leader in both goals and assists.

Adams was one of five Maryland student-athletes named to the Division I Women's Lacrosse 25th Anniversary Team last April.

This is not the first coaching stint at Maryland for Adams either as she was an assistant coach under Timchal in 2002 and 2003, helping lead the Terps to the national quarterfinals in 2002 and the semifinals in 2003.

After being hired in the fall, Adams said, "I couldn't be more excited to be given the opportunity to return to Maryland. It is an amazing opportunity to come back and work with the incredible student-athletes and staff, and to a place that I love and admire. I thank everyone at Maryland for this opportunity."

BRIAN MCGURN

ASSISTANT COACH • SECOND SEASON • GETTYSBURG '95

Brian McGurn, an accomplished player and coach, begins his second season in College Park as an assistant on the women's lacrosse staff.

McGurn came to Maryland after spending two years directing camps and clinics year-round for players of various ages in the Atlanta area.

Prior to his stint in Atlanta, McGurn spent two seasons as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Gettysburg College. As defensive coordinator, he helped the Bullets to the 2002 national championship game. That season, Gettysburg was fourth in the country in goals-against average.

McGurn began his coaching career as an assistant at Lynchburg College. After two seasons there, he went on to be the defensive coordinator for three seasons at Franklin and Marshall College. He was part of a staff that helped rebuild the Diplomat program and lead the team a 9-6 record in 2001 - its first winning season since 1996.

As a player, McGurn was a Division III first team All-America defenseman in 1995 after earning honorable mention recognition in 1994. He was a three-time all-conference selection and was team captain as a senior. In 2001, he was invited to try out for the 2002 U.S. World Team.

A native of Northbrook, Ill., McGurn earned his degree in history from Gettysburg in 1995. He is currently completing his master's degree in educational leadership from Lynchburg College.
