TOP-SEEDED TERPS AIM FOR THREE-PEAT

- Maryland has won seven of the 13 ACC Championships by taking titles in 1997, 1999, 2000, 2001, 2003, 2009, and 2010.
- The Terps are 17-7 all-time including wins against Virginia and North Carolina on its way to the title in 2010.
- Maryland and Virginia are the only two programs to boast three consecutive championships.

THE ROAD TO THE 2010 ACC CROWN

- Led by five points from Caitlyn McFadden and a career-high 12 saves from Brittany Dipper, Maryland upended No. 1 North Carolina, 10-5, to win its second consecutive Atlantic Coast Conference Championship title in 2010.
- McFadden was tabbed tournament most valuable player while teammates Dipper, Karri Ellen Johnson, Sarah Mollison, Laura Merrifield, and Karissa Taylor joined her on the all-tournament team.

2011 NATIONAL CHAMPION MARYLAND WOMEN'S LACROSSE

TERPS TOP UNC, SECURE ACC REGULAR SEASON CROWN

- Katie Schwarzmann and Laura Merrifield scored four goals each to pace No. 1 Maryland to a 12-9 win against league-rival North Carolina.
- Brandi Jones tallied a team-high four draw controls, Iliana Sanza registered a career-high four caused turnovers and Brittany Dipper posted seven saves in the cage to lead the Terps, who moved to 47-1 in College Park in the Cathy Reese-era. Maryland has now won at least a share of the ACC regular season championship every season in Reese's five-year tenure.

THE 100/100 CLUB

- Sarah Mollison became the seventh player in Maryland history to notch 100 goals and 100 assists for her career earlier this season. She is one of only two active players nationally to boast membership in the exclusive club.
- Currently, the Aussie has 130 goals and 115 assists. She is eighth all-time in points with 245. Below is a list of 100/100 club members:

Jen Adams – 267 g, 178 a
Kelly Amonte – 187 g, 132 a
Quinn Carney – 162 g, 110 a
Judy Dougherty – 143 g, 106 a
Kelly Kasper – 134 g, 102 a
Caitlyn McFadden – 149 g, 110 a
Sarah Mollison – 130 g, 115 a - current

HISTORY IN THE MAKING

- Maryland has held two opponents to two goals this season - a feat that has not been done since 2003.
- The Terps' 19-point win over George Mason is the highest margin of victory for the Terps since a 24-5 win against Johns Hopkins in April of 2001.

LEAGUE DOMINATION

- Maryland secured a share of the ACC regular season championship for the fifth consecutive season Saturday with a win over rival North Carolina.
- The Terps will look to win their third straight ACC Tournament crown April 21-24 in Cary, N.C. Maryland will be the top seed for the second time in the last three seasons.

FOLLOW THE LEADER

- Maryland has had a myriad of players lead the squad in scoring each game - 11 different combinations to be exact.
- Below is a breakdown of the Terps top goal-scorers in each game this season.
 Richmond - Johnson, 7
 Delaware - Johnson/Schwarzmann, 5
 PSU - Mollison/Schwarzmann/Black, 3
 Duke - Johnson/Schwarzmann, 5
 Virginia - Merrifield, 5
 George Mason - Trentzsch, 3

Terp Fact

Maryland and Virginia are the only two programs in ACC Women's Lacrosse history to win three consecutive tournament championships.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

1981 * 1986 * 1992 * 1995 * 1996 * 1997 * 1998 * 1999 * 2000 * 2001 * 2010

MOJO BABY, YEAH!

- Sarah Mollison and Karri Ellen Johnson have been one of the most dominating tandems in the game this season.
- Johnson boasts 39 goals while Mollison has dished a Terp-best 40 assists.
- The pair is already etched in Maryland history, each ranking among the top five in career goals and career assists.
- Of Johnson's 39 goals this season, 13 have come via an assist from Mollison.

SHUTDOWN DEFENSE

- The Maryland defense has allowed an opponent to score more than 10 goals only three times in the last 26 games.
- The Terps surrendered 13 scores at North Carolina April 10, 2010 - their last loss - and gave up 11 to Northwestern in the NCAA Tournament. Maryland allotted Duke 11 scores this season.
- The Terps are giving up an average of 6.80 goals per game in 2011 including holding No. 16 Penn State and George Mason to two goals - a feat not done by Maryland since 2003.

NATIONALLY SPEAKING...

- Maryland boasts the top scoring margin (9.6), scoring offense (16.4) and total points (368) nationally. The Terps also rank second in scoring defense (6.42) and are one of three teams that remain undefeated in 2011.
- Sarah Mollison leads the nation in total assists and ranks third in points. Brittany Dipper is first in goals against average.

TEWAARATON TERPS

- Maryland has five players on this year's Tewaaron Watch List, including seniors Laura Merrifield and Sarah Mollison, juniors Karri Ellen Johnson and Brittany Dipper and sophomore Katie Schwarzmenn.
- The watch list will eventually be whittled down three more times until the top ten finalists are named in May.
- Caitlyn McFadden became Maryland's second Tewaaron award winner last season.

TALE OF THE TURNOVER

- Maryland is dominating the turnover battle this season, forcing opponents into 47 more turnovers than it is making.
- The Terps have had less or equal turnovers than their opponent in all 15 games this season.
- Maryland is also clearing the ball at a .837 clip compared to its opponents (.772).

Terp Fact

Sarah Mollison is one of only two active players in NCAA Division I Women's Lacrosse to have 100 goals and 100 assists in her career.

2011 NATIONAL CHAMPION MARYLAND WOMEN'S LACROSSE

KEY TABBED PRESEASON BEST

- Junior attacker Karri Ellen Johnson has been named Lacrosse Magazine's NCAA Division I Preseason Player of the Year, announced by the publication Monday.
- Johnson, a local product from Annapolis, amassed 143 goals in only two seasons in College Park. She capped last year's magical run to the program's 10th NCAA championship by scoring three times in the Terps' 13-11 win over five-time defending champion Northwestern in the NCAA final.
- The two-time IWLCIA All-American is currently ranked fourth all-time in career goals at Maryland with 177.

PROTECT THIS HOUSE

- Maryland is 48-1 at home under fifth-year head coach Cathy Reese.
- The Terps have won all five games in which they have played an opponent ranked No. 1 or No. 2 at home in the past four seasons and have done it in three different locations.
- The Terps are 188-15 in College Park dating back to 1990 with 13 perfect seasons in that span.
- Records of home and away games are incomplete from 1974-89.

COLLEGE PARK - STREAK CITY

- Maryland's Sarah Mollison and Karri Ellen Johnson each possess scoring streaks which rank among the best nationally.
- Mollison boasts a string of 60 consecutive games with either an assist or a goal. Johnson has scored a point in all 56 games she has appeared in since her arrival as a freshman.
- The Terps have won 25 consecutive games, dating back to 2010.

NO. 1 TALLIES NO. 100

- Sarah Mollison found favorite target Karri Ellen Johnson with 1:01 remaining in the first half against James Madison March 26 to pick up her 100th career helper.
- The senior became only the seventh player in Maryland history to hit the century mark for assists.
- Her 40 assists in 2011 rank eighth for helpers in a season in Maryland annals.

RED, WHITE & BLUE TERPS

- When the Terps tangled with the U.S. this preseason, they were without the services of key players Katie Schwarzmann and Brittany Poist.
- Schwarzmann, an IWLCIA Second Team All-American and the ACC Rookie of the Year in 2010, is in her first full season with U.S. Senior National Team. She joins her older sister, Lauren, on the squad.
- Poist is experiencing her first action with the U.S. Senior National Team. A transfer from the University of Louisville, Poist played an integral role for Maryland as a junior, helping lead the nation's top defense.
- Former Terps Acacia Walker and Caitlyn McFadden are also on the U.S. squad.

FOLLOW THE TERPS!

- There are many ways to follow the Maryland women's lacrosse team this season.
- Umterps.com will have a live interactive blog for most away games, including Richmond, Delaware, Virginia, Towson and Georgetown.
- WMUCSports.com will once again be broadcasting the majority of the games. Log on to their site for more information.
- TerpsTV Premium will also be webcasting Maryland home games against Duke, Syracuse and North Carolina.

INTERNATIONAL FLAIR

- Maryland boasts three players from countries outside the U.S., including captains Sarah Mollison (Australia) and Laura Merrifield (England).
- A transfer from Cal-Berkley, Camilla Hayes joins Merrifield as a representative from England.

WHAT A RIDE...

- Maryland captured its 10th NCAA crown when it staged an incredible comeback from a 6-0 deficit against five-time defending champion Northwestern in the national title game to conclude the 2010 season.
- It was Maryland's first NCAA title since 2001. The game was played in front a record-crowd totaling nearly 10,000 people.

TERPS RACK UP SEVENTH ACC CHAMPIONSHIP

- Led by five points from Caitlyn McFadden and a career-high 12 saves from Brittany Dipper, Maryland upended No. 1 North Carolina, 10-5, to win its second consecutive Atlantic Coast Conference Championship title in 2010.
- UNC was held to its lowest goal output of the year while Brittany Poist led the Terrapin defense with two ground balls and two caused turnovers. Maryland, which has played host to the ACC Women's Lacrosse Championship twice, has won the tournament in both attempts with defeats of Carolina in the title game on each occasion.
- McFadden was tabbed tournament most valuable player while teammates Dipper, Karri Ellen Johnson, Sarah Mollison, Laura Merrifield, and Karissa Taylor joined her on the all-tournament team.

TERPS LAX - A FAMILY AFFAIR

- Maryland freshmen Abbey Clipp and Annie Farrell have a family link to the Terps.
- Clipp's sister Becky is a former All-American for the women's lacrosse program. Farrell's brother, Brian, is an All-American long pole for the Terrapin men's lacrosse unit.

THE YOUNG AND TALENTED

- Four freshmen once again represented the University of Maryland when they played in the 2010 Under Armour All-America Game.
- Brooke Griffin led all South scorers with three goals as the North edged the South.
- Beth Glaros, Amalie Trentzsch and Kelsey Horton all earned starts and joined Griffin.
- Horton tallied a team-high four assists on the day, including two to Griffin, while adding a goal. Glaros scooped a ground ball and the combo of Griffin and Horton gathered a combined six draw controls in the all-star action.

GALLAGHER RETURNS FOR DEFENSE

- After serving a redshirt season during Maryland's run to the national title in 2010, Katie Gallagher returns to action in 2011 to help rejuvenate a defense that will be without the services of departing seniors Abby Caso and Karissa Taylor.
- Gallagher is entering her third season as a starter and totaled 24 caused turnovers and 33 ground balls prior to her redshirt senior season in 2011.

2011 CAPTAINS

- Cathy Reese has named seniors Sarah Mollison, Katie Gallagher and Laura Merrifield captains for the 2011 campaign.
- Mollison served as captain last year as a junior. The attacker was third on the team last season with 45 goals. The Melbourne, Australia, native is a two-time All-American and returns for her third season as a starter.
- Gallagher missed last season with an illness but is poised to lead the Terrapin defense in 2011. One of Maryland's strongest players, Gallagher is a three-year starter for the Terps and played a key role in the squad capturing the 2009 ACC Championship.
- Merrifield has been a steady force in the midfield for Maryland since her arrival. As one of the tallest players in the country, she brings an imposing stature to the Terps' offensive scheme and also boasts the speed to allow Maryland to run its fast-paced style of play.

REESE RETURNS FOR FIFTH SEASON

- Head coach Cathy Reese returns for her fifth season at her alma mater.
- Reese Highlights:
- 2010 IWLCA National Coach of the Year
 - 2007, 2009, and 2010 ACC Coach of the Year
 - 2009, 2010 ACC Champions
 - Coached 2008, 2007, 2009 and 2010 ACC Player of the Year, 2009 and 2010 ACC Rookie of the Year, one Tewaaraton Award winner, 14 All-Americans, and 15 All-ACC selections
 - 2009 and 2010 IWLCA South Region Coach of the Year
 - Won eight national championships at Maryland as a player and coach (1995-2001, 2010)

ATLANTIC COAST CONFERENCE

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 20, 2010

2011 All-ACC Women's Lacrosse Team Announced 11 of this year's 18 All-Conference selections are 2011 Tewaaraton candidates

GREENSBORO, N.C. – Eleven 2011 Tewaaraton Trophy candidates highlight the 18-member 2011 All-Atlantic Coast Conference Women's Lacrosse Team, as announced by the league office on Wednesday.

Maryland enters this week's 2011 ACC Women's Lacrosse Championship with an undefeated mark of 15-0 on the season – one of only three flawless squads in the country (Loyola (Md.) and Albany), and led all league programs with six representatives named to the 2011 All-ACC team, one higher than last year's Terrapin tally. Duke, which earned the No. 2 seed in the upcoming league tournament and along with Maryland will enjoy a first-round bye, added four student-athletes to the list, which was determined by a vote of the ACC's six head coaches.

All six ACC women's lacrosse programs were represented on this year's postseason squad, while sophomore Terrapin midfielder Katie Schwarzmenn is the lone underclassmen.

The 2011 Atlantic Coast Conference Women's Lacrosse Championship's opening face-off is Thursday, April 21, at WakeMed Park in Cary, N.C. For more information regarding the three-day event, or anything else related to ACC Women's Lacrosse, please visit www.theACC.com or <http://www.theacc.com/championships/11-womens-lacrosse-championship.html>.

Individual awards, such as Player, Coach and Freshman of the Year, will be voted on by the league's head coaches following the last regular season game and announced by the league office in May.

GAME RECAPS

Game #1 • Feb. 13 Richmond, Va. No. 1 Maryland 18, Richmond 7

Karri Ellen Johnson had a career-high seven goals and Sarah Mollison tied a school-record with six assists to lead No. 1 Maryland past Richmond, 18-7, Sunday.

Johnson, who extended her streak to 16 consecutive games with a goal, landed on Maryland's career goals list, ranking eighth in program history with 150. Mollison's six helpers tied a Terrapin single-game record and vaulted the senior to ninth in career assists (81) at Maryland.

The reigning national champions kicked off the season with an offensive onslaught, leaping out to a 9-0 lead to start the 2011 campaign. Johnson scored four goals in Maryland's opening run and Kristy Black added two. Freshman Beth Glaros capped the drive with her first goal as a Terp at 14:30.

Richmond did not counter until a Mary Flowers' goal at 12:06. Flowers, the 2010 A-10 Midfielder of the Year, led the Spiders with three scores on the day.

Maryland headed into halftime with an 11-4 lead but was stymied slightly in the opening minutes of the second stanza. After being outscored by Richmond 3-1 in the first 10:40, sophomore All-American Katie Schwarzmenn turned up the pressure, scoring three consecutive goals in a four-minute span to spark a 6-0 Maryland run to close the game.

Schwarzmenn ended with a career-high five goals on the day. Junior Brittany Dipper made five saves and senior Katie Gallagher tallied three caused turnovers and a pair of groundballs to lead the Terps defensively.

Game #2 • Feb. 16 Newark, Del. Maryland 17, Richmond 8

No. 1 Maryland's offense was once again on display as Karri Ellen Johnson and Katie Schwarzmenn combined for 10 goals in a 17-8 rout of Delaware Wednesday.

Johnson, who boasts a team-high 12 goals this season, extended her streak to 47 games with a score at 15:53. It would be the junior's first of three in a three-minute span as Maryland went on a devastating 12-1 run to begin the contest.

Delaware picked up two late goals with time winding down in the first stanza but the Terps leapt to a 3-0 run in the beginning of the second half and played the Blue Hens even in the period, despite emptying their bench.

Maryland (2-0) boasted a fantastic shooting percentage, sinking 17 of the 23 shots it attempted in the match. Schwarzmenn tied a career-high with five goals. Fellow classmate Alex Aust also put up career numbers, tacking on four goals, including the first ever scored in a women's lacrosse game at Delaware Stadium, and six points.

Sarah Mollison added three helpers to her team-best nine in 2011 and moves past Anyisia Fedec into eighth all-time in career assists.

Game #3 • Feb. 20 College Park, Md. No. 1 Maryland 13, No. 16 Penn State 2

A tenacious defensive effort sparked No. 1 Maryland to a 13-2 victory over No. 16 Penn State Sunday in the Terps' home opener.

After falling behind the Nittany Lions 2-1 to begin the match, the Terrapin defense held Penn State (0-1) scoreless through nearly 51 minutes of play. Offensively, Maryland (3-0) was led by a trio of hat tricks from Sarah Mollison, Katie Schwarzmenn and Kristy Black. Despite having her streak of consecutive games with a goal snapped at 47, Karri Ellen Johnson tied a career-high with three assists.

The Terps traded goals to open the match before PSU's Elaine Welch scored at 20:51 to give Maryland its first deficit of the 2011 campaign. The duo of Schwarzmenn and Black fired back with a combined five unanswered goals to cap the half at 6-2.

Mollison paced Maryland in the second half with three goals. Senior Brittany Poist netted her first career goal, Alex Aust added a score and Brandi Jones scored the second of her two goals on the day in the final stanza.

Schwarzmenn put together another solid overall performance, adding four draw controls, three caused turnovers and three ground balls to her hat trick. Brittany Dipper notched her third win with a six-save effort.

Maryland gave up fewer than three goals for the first time since the 2003 season. The Terps outshot Penn State, 37-16.

Game #4 • Feb. 26 College Park, Md. No. 1 Maryland 18, No. 3 Duke 11

Katie Schwarzmenn and Karri Ellen Johnson scored five goals each to lead No. 1 Maryland to its first marquee win of the season against No. 3 Duke, 18-11, Saturday.

Schwarzmenn tallied her third five-goal showing for Maryland (4-0, 1-0 ACC) and added a team-high five ground balls, three draw controls, and two caused turnovers. Johnson moved into sixth all-time in career goals at Maryland with five on the day and also added an assist, three ground balls, and two caused turnovers.

Maryland kicked off its league opener on a 2-0 run before Duke (3-1, 0-1 ACC) battled back with three unanswered scores, starting a back-and-forth first half that featured three lead changes and six ties.

The Terps kicked it up a notch with 10 minutes remaining in the period, outscoring the Blue Devils 5-2, courtesy of a balanced attack with goals coming from Johnson, Sarah Mollison, Alex Aust, Schwarzmenn and Kristy Black.

Maryland came out firing in the second stanza with goals from Johnson and Schwarzmenn kicking off a 9-4 Terrapin advantage in the final period. Schwarzmenn scored three of her five goals in the second half.

Game #5 • March 4 Charlottesville, Va. No. 1 Maryland 18, No. 5 UVA 6

A five-goal effort from Laura Merrifield helped fuel No. 1 Maryland as it dominated No. 5 Virginia, 18-6, on the road in Atlantic Coast Conference action.

Merrifield, who was announced as one of five Maryland players on this year's preliminary Tewaaratton watch list earlier in the day, notched a season-high five goals on five shots. She was backed up by stellar offensive performances from fellow Tewaaratton nominees Karri Ellen Johnson and Katie Schwarzmenn, who tallied four and three goals, respectively.

Junior Kristy Black also netted a hat trick. Sarah Mollison, a three-time Tewaaratton watch list honoree, registered two goals.

After jumping out to a 4-0 lead, sparked by two goals from Merrifield, Virginia answered with three scores to make it a 4-3 match. Johnson's goal with 2:07 remaining in the half expanded the Terrapin lead to two heading into halftime and extended the junior's streak to 50 consecutive games with a point.

The Terps benefited from a much cleaner second half, where it only turned the ball over four times, and kicked off the stanza on a 4-0 run. Maryland would go on to outscore the Cavs, 13-3, in the half, with goals coming from six different Terrapins. A sturdy Maryland defense, led by seven saves from Tewaaratton nominee Brittany Dipper, held Virginia to only 21 shots in the ACC battle.

Game #6 • March 8 College Park, Md. No. 1 Maryland 21, George Mason 2

Sparked by scoring from 11 different players, No. 1 Maryland's offense caught fire Tuesday in a 21-2 thrashing of George Mason at the Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex.

The Terrapins (6-0, 2-0 ACC), who utilized all but two players on their roster, were led in scoring by freshman Amalie Trentzsch's three goals, including the first of her career. Seven players tallied two goals each including Kristy Black, Colleen Dawson, Danielle Kirk, Katie Schwarzmann, Sarah Mollison, Meris Walsh and Bria Phillips. In addition to Trentzsch, freshmen Jen Mendez and Walsh also tallied their first career goals in the Red and Black.

Maryland jumped out to an incredible 17-0 lead in the first half and did not allow a George Mason (1-4) shot until the five-minute mark. Nine of the Terps' 17 scores were assisted and Maryland capped the half with a devastating 29-4 shot advantage. The Terps did not play one of their regular starters in the second half and still managed to outscore the Patriots 4-2 in the final stanza.

Maryland caused 19 turnovers in the match, led by two each from Beth Glaros, Melissa Diepold, Elizabeth Hamilton, Mary Angstadt and Camilla Hayes, Trentzsch, and Mendez. Glaros also scooped up a team-high three ground balls.

Brittany Dipper, Mary Jordan and Kasey Howard combined to allow only two Patriot goals. It is the second time this season the Terrapin defense has allotted just two opponent scores, dropping No. 16 Penn State 13-2 earlier this season.

Game #7 • March 12 College Park, Md. No. 1 Maryland 7, No. 12 Syracuse 5

No. 12 Syracuse tried its best to slow down No. 1 Maryland's high-powered attack Saturday but the Terps were able to survive the stall and drop the Orange, 7-5.

Maryland was held to its lowest scoring output in 2011 and was led by senior Tewaaraton nominee Sarah Mollison, who tallied a team-high two goals and two assists. Katie Schwarzmann, Karri Ellen Johnson, Kristy Black and Brandi Jones each added a goal and an assist as the Terps notched their 17th consecutive win and moved to 11-0 all-time against Syracuse.

In a rematch of last season's national semifinal, it was evident early that Syracuse, led by former Maryland assistant Gary Gait, had visions of holding the ball as long as possible to limit the Terrapin attack's scoring opportunities. The Terps managed only six shots in the first half but capitalized on four of them to boast a 4-2 lead through 30 minutes.

The two teams broke even in the second stanza, both posting three goals, but back-to-back scores by Johnson and Mollison around the 14-minute mark and a solid defensive effort provided the Terps with enough momentum for the win.

In a game where the draw control was vital, Johnson and Schwarzmann racked up four and three, respectively, to lead Maryland. Johnson, Brittany Poist and Beth Glaros tallied two caused turnovers apiece.

Game #8 • March 20 Newton, Mass. No. 1 Maryland 20, No. 20 Boston College 9

Juniors Karri Ellen Johnson and Kristy Black combined for nine goals to pace No. 1 Maryland past No. 20 Boston College, 20-9, in Atlantic Coast Conference action Sunday.

Johnson (5g) led a group of five Terps in double-digit scoring, including Black (4), Laura Merrifield (3), Brandi Jones (2) and Katie Schwarzmann (2). Sarah Mollison dished out a game-high five assists and sophomore Alex Aust added three. Johnson and Mollison extended their streaks to 53 consecutive games with a goal and/or an assist.

The longest road trip of the season didn't slow down the Terrapin offense as it outscored Boston College 10-3 in the first half. Maryland utilized a 5-0 run in each half to pick up its 18th straight win.

The two teams broke even in the second stanza, both posting three goals, but back-to-back scores by Johnson and Mollison around the 14-minute mark and a solid defensive effort provided the Terps with enough momentum for the win.

The Terps dominated the draw control category, racking up 13 more than BC, which fell to 7-2 with the loss. Johnson had a team-high five draw controls. Sophomore Iliana Sanza scooped up three ground balls to aid the defensive charge.

Game #9 • March 22 Stony Brook, N.Y. No. 1 Maryland 19, Stony Brook 5

No. 1 Maryland concluded its East Coast road trip with its second straight offensive outburst, topping Stony Brook, 19-5, Tuesday.

Senior Brandi Jones led the Terps with a career-high four goals as Maryland tallied 14 of its 19 scores in the first half. Jones was backed up by multi-goal showings from Karri Ellen Johnson (3), Sarah Mollison (3), Bria Phillips (2), Katie Schwarzmann (2), and Colleen Dawson (2g). Johnson, Mollison and Alex Aust all added two assists each.

Much as it did Sunday at Boston College, the Terrapin attack wasted no time finding the scoreboard, storming to 7-0 lead before Stony Brook was able to muster its first goal at 21:14. Johnson completed her hat trick in the initial run. The Terps outscored the Seawolves 7-2 in the final 20 minutes of the first stanza.

Five different players accounted for Maryland's scoring in the second half with goals coming from Dawson, Mollison, Jones, Philips and Mary Angstadt.

Maryland utilized its entire healthy roster in the match, which took place at the venue for this year's NCAA Women's Lacrosse Championship. The Terrapins, who are winners of 19 straight, were led defensively by Schwarzmann and Kristen McAfee, who tallied two caused turnovers and three ground balls, respectively. Danielle Kirk registered a career-high six draw controls.

Game #10 • March 26 College Park, Md. No. 1 Maryland 17, No. 10 James Madison 8

Top-ranked Maryland captured its 20th consecutive victory while coasting to a 17-8 win against No. 10 James Madison Saturday at the Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex.

Maryland was led in scoring by Laura Merrifield, who totaled four goals on the day including a hat trick in the first half. Despite a slow start, Karri Ellen Johnson ended the match with three scores to move past Allison Comito for fourth all-time in career goals at Maryland with 177. Katie Schwarzmenn, Brandi Jones, Beth Glaros and Sarah Mollison all netted two.

Mollison added four assists to her pair of goals for a game-high six points. The Melbourne, Australia, native tallied her 100th career helper with 1:01 remaining in the first stanza when she found favorite target Johnson to extend the Terrapin lead to six. Mollison shot up to No. 6 all-time on Maryland's career assist list and is currently tied with Kelly Kasper with 102. The Terps commanded the first half, riding multi-goal showings from Merrifield and Schwarzmenn for an 8-3 cushion.

Maryland led by as much as 11 in the second half but did surrender three late James Madison scores with less than five minutes remaining to stop the clock from running.

Brittany Dipper headed another tremendous defensive effort, racking up eight saves in the cage. Jones tallied four ground balls and Mollison mustered three caused turnovers in a solid re-defending effort from the Terrapin attack.

Game #11 • March 29 College Park, Md. No. 1 Maryland 17, Towson 8

Sarah Mollison scored a career-high 10 points on five goals and five assists as No. 1 Maryland toppled Towson, 17-8, in non-conference action on the road Tuesday.

Karri Ellen Johnson netted five goals and Katie Schwarzmenn added three to join Mollison in a three-pronged attack to lift Maryland to its 21st consecutive victory. Kristy Black registered five ground balls and a pair of caused turnovers to pace the Terp defense.

Maryland picked up right where it left off the last time it took the field at Unitas Stadium nearly 10 months ago during its national championship victory against Northwestern. The Terps, who started the match on a 4-0 run, outscored Towson 11-4 in the first half, including a 46-second stretch around the 17-minute mark when Laura Merrifield netted two scores and Beth Glaros scored one. Johnson completed a hat trick and Mollison boasted four helpers in the first stanza alone.

Towson stepped up its offense in the second half, notching a 3-0 run midway through the period, but the Terps buckled down defensively and secured a 6-4 advantage in the period, despite shuffling in a large amount of reserves.

Brittany Dipper had a stellar day in the cage, racking up six saves in 34 minutes of action. The Maryland defense has now held 17 of its last 22 opponents to eight or fewer goals. The Terps outshot Towson 32-19 in the rare evening affair.

Game #12 • April 1 College Park, Md. No. 1 Maryland 16, No. 8 Penn 4

Katie Schwarzmenn racked up four goals to lead No. 1 Maryland to its seventh win over a nationally-ranked foe, topping No. 8 Penn, 16-4, Friday night.

Schwarzmenn netted a game-high four goals and an assist to pace Maryland to its 22nd consecutive victory. Laura Merrifield tallied a hat trick and Sarah Mollison added four points, including a match-high three assists. The senior now has 110 in her illustrious career and is tied with Quinn Carney and Caitlyn McFadden for third in career helpers at Maryland.

The Terps wasted no time exhibiting its high-powered attack, even while facing one of the nation's top defensive units in Penn (7-2, 3-0 Ivy), which entered the match surrendering a stingy six goals per contest. Maryland outscored the Quakers, 7-1, through the first 14:49 of the game, highlighted by three early goals from Schwarzmenn and a pair from Merrifield. Maryland closed the first half on a 4-0 run to take a solid 10-2 lead into the locker room.

Maryland continued its relentless defense in the second half, limiting the Quakers to a mere eight looks at goal and two goals in the period. Brittany Dipper was sensational in the cage, racking up eight saves. Brittany Poist helped lead a tremendous defensive effort, registering three caused turnovers and two ground balls.

Game #13 • April 9 College Park, Md. No. 1 Maryland 12, No. 4 North Carolina 9

Katie Schwarzmenn and Laura Merrifield scored four goals each to pace No. 1 Maryland to a 12-9 win against league-rival North Carolina Saturday.

Maryland won its 23rd consecutive match, despite the absence of All-American attacker Karri Ellen Johnson, who was out with a concussion for the second straight game. Schwarzmenn and Merrifield picked up the slack offensively, totaling eight goals on 14 shots. On the whole, the Terrapin attack was extremely efficient, posting a .480 shot percentage against a Carolina defense that was giving up a mere 7.83 goals per game.

After an evenly matched first half, where the Terps and fourth-ranked Tar Heels exchanged goals with five ties in the stanza, Maryland kicked off the second period on a devastating 3-0 run. Goals by Sarah Mollison, Brandi Jones and Alex Aust provided Maryland with its largest lead of the game at 9-6 with 12:22 remaining. The Terps relied on a lockdown effort by the nation's top defense the rest of the way, led by several key plays from Iliana Sanza and four stops by goalie Brittany Dipper.

With two assists on the day, Mollison extended her streak to 58 straight games with a point and moved into sole possession of third on Maryland's career assists list with 112. Jones tallied a team-high four draw controls, Sanza registered a career-high four caused turnovers and Dipper posted seven saves in the cage to lead the Terps, who moved to 47-1 in College Park in the Cathy Reese-era.

Seniors Laura Merrifield and Sarah Mollison combined for 11 points to lead No. 1 Maryland to its 24th consecutive win, downing No. 12 Princeton, 17-10, on Senior Night Wednesday.

With the win, Maryland capped its 13th perfect home regular season slate in program history. The Terps, who have already clinched the ACC regular season title, started all seven of its available seniors, including Colleen Dawson, Sara Cooper, Brandi Jones, Katie Gallagher, Brittany Poist, Merrifield and Mollison.

Brittany Dipper helped guide a solid defensive showing, boasting nine saves in 52 minutes of work. Gallagher racked up team-highs in caused turnovers (3) and ground balls (3).

Merrifield ended the match with four goals and one assist while Mollison tallied three goals and three helpers. Jones ended with a hat trick and Schwarzmenn registered two goals and two assists to aid another balanced Terrapin attacking effort.

2011 NATIONAL CHAMPION MARYLAND WOMEN'S LACROSSE

Head Coach Cathy Reese

Fifth season/Eighth overall

Maryland, '98

92-9 record at Maryland

Former Maryland standout and reigning IWLCA National Coach of the Year Cathy Reese enters her fifth season at the helm of the Terrapins' women's lacrosse program after guiding Maryland to its first national championship since 2001 last season.

With the Terps falling just once in regular season play, Maryland wrapped up the 2010 campaign on a devastating 10-game winning streak, which concluded in elation with a gallant comeback against five-time defending national champion Northwestern in the NCAA Women's Lacrosse Championship at Towson. Reese coached Maryland's first Tewaaraton Award winner since Jen Adams as Caitlyn McFadden was tabbed the top player in all of women's lacrosse. Four other Terrapins landed All-America status as well and Reese garnered IWLCA National Coach of the Year honors along with being named the top coach in the conference for the second straight season.

Reese had Maryland on the verge of perfection in 2009, leading the Terps to a 21-1 record, an NCAA Final Four trip, and ACC Tournament and Regular Season championships. She boasted three Tewaaraton nominees, five All-Americans, five All-ACC honorees, the ACC Player and Rookie of the Year and the IWLCA Midfielder of the Year. Reese also earned a few honors of her own, racking up IWLCA South Region Coach of the Year accolades along with her second ACC Coach of the Year award in only three short seasons at the helm of the storied Maryland program.

Reese continued to move Maryland in a positive direction in 2008, steering the Terps to an 18-3 record and an Atlantic Coast Conference regular season title. Once again, Reese boasted some of the top talent in the nation as senior Dana Dobbie was tabbed ACC Player of the Year in addition to being named a finalist for the Tewaaraton Trophy, given annually to the nation's best player. Dobbie and fellow seniors Kelly Kasper and Lauren Cohen joined sophomore Caitlyn McFadden on the All-America team while Kasper accompanied Dobbie as a Tewaaraton finalist. The Terps' 18-3 record was the best for the program since 2003 as Maryland punched its ticket to the NCAA Tournament for the 18th consecutive season.

Reese returned to her alma mater in 2007 as the head coach and guided the Terps to a 16-4 record, including a first-place finish in the Atlantic Coast Conference at 4-1, earning the conference's Coach of the Year award.

Maryland had bowed out of the NCAA Tournament in the first round the previous two seasons, but Reese's Terps advanced to the quarterfinals for the first time since 2004 and had the most wins since 2003. Included in those 16 wins were a pair against teams ranked No. 1 and No. 2 in the country against North Carolina and Duke, respectively.

Reese's guidance produced more than just team success. Dana Dobbie was a finalist for the Tewaaraton Trophy, given annually to the nation's best player, and was the ACC Player of the Year. In addition, Dobbie along with Becky Clipp, Kelly Kasper, and Krista Pellizzi were named All-Americans.

Reese returned to Maryland after spending her first three seasons as head coach at the University of Denver where she guided the Pioneers to their most successful season in school history in 2006. Denver finished that year with a 16-5 record and rattled off 11-straight wins over the course of 43 days. The 11-game win streak was more victories than the school had seen in an entire season as its eight wins in 2003 was the most in a season for the Pioneers prior to 2006.

For a program that saw limited success since its inception in 1999, Reese proved that she is a winner. With a 4-1 Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) record, the Pioneers won its first-ever regular season championship in 2006. For her efforts, Reese was named the 2006 MPSF Coach of the Year. In addition, two of her student-athletes were also given season-ending awards as Denver swept the conference accolades. Kristie Leggio was tabbed the Player of the Year and Karen Morton was the Newcomer of the Year.

In her three seasons in the Mile High City, 11 student-athletes were named to the All-MPSF Team. Not only did her students excel on the field, but they also achieved in the classroom as Denver student-athletes were named to the Academic All-Conference team 11 times.

Prior to lifting the Denver program to national attention, Reese spent nine seasons in College Park, four as a student-athlete and five as an assistant coach. During that span, the women's lacrosse program had one of the most successful streaks seen in collegiate women's sports history. The Terps won seven national championships in her first nine years on campus. That is the third-longest streak in women's NCAA history in any sport.

When Reese first stepped foot on campus as a freshman, it was impossible to gauge how successful she and the Terps would be. Maryland did not lose in her first two seasons as a student-athlete, and it did not lose until midway through her junior campaign. In all, Reese and the Terps went 50-straight games without a loss. In her playing career, Reese guided the Terps to an incredible 75-4 record. In her first three seasons as assistant coach, the Terps went 65-1. Her total record with Maryland in her first nine seasons was 169-19. The Terps also made the NCAA quarterfinals in 2002 and advanced to the national semifinals in 2003 before Reese took the reins at Denver.

As a student-athlete from 1995-98, she was a two-time All-America selection. As a senior, she was tabbed the NCAA Tournament Most Valuable Player and was the second-leading scorer on that championship team with 58 goals and 25 assists. She finished her career with 140 goals, 77 assists, and 217 points. Her 77 assists is tied for eighth all-time at Maryland and her 217 points is 11th.

Reese graduated in 1998 with a degree in speech communications. She and her husband, Brian, who is also a volunteer coach for the program, have three children, Riley, who is six years old, and Brody, who is four years old. Reese gave birth to her first girl, Cayden Elizabeth, on March 12, 2008.
