THEY'RE BACK – TITLE TERPS READY TO DEFEND CROWN

- Maryland is looking to extend its nation-topping numbers by garnering its 27th appearance in the NCAA Tournament and 12th national title in 2011. While the absence of Tewaaraton winner Caitlyn McFadden and IWLCA National Defender of the Year Karissa Taylor will undoubtedly leave a void, 2010 IWLCA National Coach of the Year Cathy Reese and the Terps look forward to filling the gaps with a mix of old and new to create yet another national champion contending unit for the 2011 season.
- Three IWLCA All-Americans return for the defending national champion Terps, including senior attacker Sarah Mollison, junior attacker Karri Ellen Johnson and sophomore midfielder Katie Schwarzmenn. Johnson has been pegged by Lacrosse Magazine as its preseason national player of the year.
- Top defender Katie Gallagher is a welcomed back-addition to the roster after serving a redshirt season during the Terrapin's run to the crown.
- The Terps home schedule will be an exciting one as Maryland welcomes the likes of Penn State, Duke, Syracuse, Penn and North Carolina to the Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex.

SCOUTING BOSTON COLLEGE..

- Boston College is 7-1 entering Sunday's ACC matchup. The team's only loss came to a revamped Virginia Tech squad in Blacksburg.
- Kristin Igoe (23g) and Moira Barry (22) lead a group of four Eagles with double-digit goal totals.
- Maryland leads the all-time series, 6-0, and narrowly defeated BC last season in College Park, 7-6. Karri Ellen Johnson and Brandi Jones each had two goals to lead the Terrapin attack.

SCOUTING STONY BROOK...

- Stony Brook is 2-4 and will face Iona Saturday before taking on the defending national champions Tuesday.
- The Seawolves are led by Alyssa Cardillo (21p) and Melissa Cook (18g).
- Stony Brook is coached by two Maryland alums - Allison Comito ('02) and Molly Lambert ('04).

TERPS SURVIVE SYRACUSE STALL

- No. 12 Syracuse tried its best to slow down No. 1 Maryland's high-powered attack but the Terps were able to survive the stall and drop the Orange, 7-5.
- Maryland was held to its lowest scoring output in 2011 and was led by senior Tewaaraton nominee Sarah Mollison, who tallied a team-high two goals and two assists. Katie Schwarzmans, Karri Ellen Johnson, Kristy Black and Brandi Jones each added a goal and an assist.
- The Terps notched their 17th consecutive win and moved to 11-0 all-time against Syracuse.

HISTORY IN THE MAKING

- Maryland has held two opponents to two goals this season - a feat that has not been done since 2003.
- The Terps' 19-point win over George Mason is the highest margin of victory for the Terps since a 24-5 win against Johns Hopkins in April of 2001.

MERRIFIELD PACES TERPS PAST NO. 5 VIRGINIA

- A five-goal effort from Laura Merrifield helped fuel No. 1 Maryland as it dominated No. 5 Virginia, 18-6, on the road in Atlantic Coast Conference action.
- Merrifield, who was announced as one of five Maryland players on this year's preliminary Tewaaraton watch list earlier in the day, notched a season-high five goals on five shots. Fellow Tewaaraton nominees Karri Ellen Johnson and Katie Schwarzmans tallied four and three goals, respectively.

TERPS SWEEP ACC WEEKLY AWARDS AGAIN

- For the second consecutive week, No. 1 Maryland swept the league's weekly awards as Laura Merrifield and Brittany Dipper were named ACC Offensive and Defensive Player of the Week, respectively, for the week ending March 7.
- Merrifield, despite battling the stomach flu, notched a game-high five goals to help No. 1 Maryland dominate Virginia.
- Dipper helped hold Virginia to only six goals. The junior goalie was stellar in the cage in the team's lone game of the week, surrendering only six scores in 21 Virginia attempts and scooping up a pair of ground balls.

BALANCED ATTACK DOWNS NO. 3 DUKE

- Katie Schwarzmans and Karri Ellen Johnson scored five goals each to lead No. 1 Maryland to its first marquee win of the season against No. 3 Duke, 18-11.
- Schwarzmans tallied her third five-goal showing for Maryland and added a team-high five ground balls, three draw controls, and two caused turnovers. Johnson moved into sixth all-time in career goals at Maryland with five on the day and also added an assist, three ground balls, and two caused turnovers.

SHUTDOWN DEFENSE

• The Maryland defense has allowed an opponent to score more than eight goals only four times in the last 18 games.

• The Terps surrendered 13 scores at North Carolina April 10, 2010 - their last loss - and gave up 10 to Penn and 11 to Northwestern in the NCAA Tournament. Maryland allotted Duke 11 scores this season.

• The Terps are giving up an average of 5.86 goals per game in 2011 including holding No. 16 Penn State and George Mason to two goals - a feat not done by Maryland since 2003.

NATIONALLY SPEAKING...

• Maryland boasts the second ranked scoring margin (10.14) and scoring defense (5.86) in the nation and is third in scoring offense (16.0).

• The Terps have four players in the top 50 nationally in total points, including Mollison, Johnson, Schwarzmann and Kristy Black.

TEWAARATON TERPS

• Maryland has five players on this year's Tewaaron Watch List, including seniors Laura Merrifield and Sarah Mollison, juniors Karri Ellen Johnson and Brittany Dipper and sophomore Katie Schwarzmann.

• The watch list will eventually be whittled down three more times until the top ten finalists are named in May.

• Caitlyn McFadden became Maryland's second Tewaaron award winner last season.

TALE OF THE TURNOVER

• Maryland is dominating the turnover battle this season, forcing opponents into 30 more turnovers than it is making.

• The Terps have had less turnovers than their opponent in all seven games this season.

• Maryland is also clearing the ball at a .815 clip compared to its opponents (.726).

SMALLS DISHIN' IT OUT

• Sarah Mollison added her name to the Maryland career assists list this season.

• The senior from Melbourne, Australia, is tied for seventh all-time in career helpers at Maryland with 91.

• She tied a school-record for assists in a game with six in the season opener at Richmond.

2011 NATIONAL CHAMPION MARYLAND WOMEN'S LACROSSE

JOHNSON, SCHWARZMANN NAB ACC WEEKLY AWARDS

- Maryland swept the league weekly awards as Karri Ellen Johnson and Katie Schwarzmann were tabbed ACC Offensive and Defensive Player of the Week for the period ending March 1.
- Johnson scored five goals and added an assist to lead No. 1 Maryland to its' first ACC win this season. Johnson also notched three ground balls, two draw controls and two caused turnovers.
- Schwarzmann coupled her third five-goal performance this season with a phenomenal defensive effort against Duke. The sophomore was steady on the defensive end of the field, racking up a game-high five ground balls, three draw controls and two caused turnovers. She was also named Synapse Defensive Player of the Week and WomensLax.com Player of the Week.

TERPS IMPRESSIVE 'D'

- An impressive Maryland defense has allowed 41 goals through its first seven games in 2011.
- That number is the least amount of scores a Terrapin defense has allowed through seven games since it gave up 38 in 1999. Maryland won the national championship that season.

KEJ TABBED PRESEASON BEST

- Junior attacker Karri Ellen Johnson has been named Lacrosse Magazine's NCAA Division I Preseason Player of the Year, announced by the publication Monday.
- Johnson, a local product from Annapolis, amassed 143 goals in only two seasons in College Park. She capped last year's magical run to the program's 10th NCAA championship by scoring three times in the Terps' 13-11 win over five-time defending champion Northwestern in the NCAA final.
- The two-time IWLCFA All-American is currently ranked fifth all-time in career goals at Maryland with 166.

PROTECT THIS HOUSE

- Maryland is 44-1 at home under fifth-year head coach Cathy Reese.
- The Terps have won all five games in which they have played an opponent ranked No. 1 or No. 2 at home in the past four seasons and have done it in three different locations.
- The Terps are 184-15 in College Park dating back to 1990 with 12 perfect seasons in that span.
- Records of home and away games are incomplete from 1974-89.

COLLEGE PARK - STREAK CITY

- Maryland's Sarah Mollison and Karri Ellen Johnson each possess scoring streaks which rank among the best nationally.
- Johnson and Mollison boast a string of 52 consecutive games with either an assist or a goal.
- The Terps have won 17 consecutive games, dating back to 2010.

FOLLOW THE TERPS!

- There are many ways to follow the Maryland women's lacrosse team this season.
- Umterps.com will have a live interactive blog for most away games, including Richmond, Delaware, Virginia, and Georgetown.
- WMUCSports.com will once again be broadcasting the majority of the games. Log on to their site for more information.
- TerpsTV Premium will also be webcasting Maryland home games against Duke, Syracuse and North Carolina.

POIST NAMED ACC DEFENSIVE POTW

- Brittany Poist was tabbed Atlantic Coast Conference Defensive Player of the Week for the period ending Monday, Feb. 20.
- The senior helped a lock-down defense which granted No. 16 Penn State only two goals. It marked just the first time Maryland has held a foe under three goals since 2003.

MARYLAND Career Goals

2011 CAPTAINS

- Cathy Reese has named seniors Sarah Mollison, Katie Gallagher and Laura Merrifield captains for the 2011 campaign.
- Mollison served as captain last year as a junior, helping lead Maryland to its first national championship since 2001. The attacker was third on the team last season with 45 goals. The Melbourne, Australia, native is a two-time All-American and returns for her third season as a starter.
- Gallagher missed last season with an illness but is poised to lead the Terrapin defense in 2011. One of Maryland's strongest players, Gallagher is a three-year starter for the Terps and played a key role in the squad capturing the 2009 ACC Championship.
- Merrifield has been a steady force in the midfield for Maryland since her arrival. As one of the tallest players in the country, she brings an imposing stature to the Terps' offensive scheme and also boasts the speed to allow Maryland to run its fast-paced style of play.

INTERNATIONAL FLAIR

- Maryland boasts three players from countries outside the U.S., including captains Sarah Mollison (Australia) and Laura Merrifield (England).
- A transfer from Cal-Berkley, Camilla Hayes joins Merrifield as a representative from England.

WHAT A RIDE...

- Maryland captured its 10th NCAA crown when it staged an incredible comeback from a 6-0 deficit against five-time defending champion Northwestern in the national title game to conclude the 2010 season.
- It was Maryland's first NCAA title since 2001. The game was played in front a record-crowd totaling nearly 10,000 people.

TERPS RACK UP SEVENTH ACC CHAMPIONSHIP

- Led by five points from Caitlyn McFadden and a career-high 12 saves from Brittany Dipper, Maryland upended No. 1 North Carolina, 10-5, to win its second consecutive Atlantic Coast Conference Championship title in 2010.
- UNC was held to its lowest goal output of the year while Brittany Poist led the Terrapin defense with two ground balls and two caused turnovers. Maryland, which has played host to the ACC Women's Lacrosse Championship twice, has won the tournament in both attempts with defeats of Carolina in the title game on each occasion.
- McFadden was tabbed tournament most valuable player while teammates Dipper, Karri Ellen Johnson, Sarah Mollison, Laura Merrifield, and Karissa Taylor joined her on the all-tournament team.

TERPS LAX - A FAMILY AFFAIR

- Maryland freshmen Abbey Clipp and Annie Farrell have a family link to the Terps.
- Clipp's sister Becky is a former All-American for the women's lacrosse program. Farrell's brother, Brian, is an All-American long pole for the Terrapin men's lacrosse unit.

THE YOUNG AND TALENTED

- Four freshmen once again represented the University of Maryland when they played in the 2010 Under Armour All-America Game.
- Brooke Griffin led all South scorers with three goals as the North edged the South.
- Beth Glaros, Amalie Trentzsch and Kelsey Horton all earned starts and joined Griffin.
- Horton tallied a team-high four assists on the day, including two to Griffin, while adding a goal. Glaros scooped a ground ball and the combo of Griffin and Horton gathered a combined six draw controls in the all-star action.

GALLAGHER RETURNS FOR DEFENSE

- After serving a redshirt season during Maryland's run to the national title in 2010, Katie Gallagher returns to action in 2011 to help rejuvenate a defense that will be without the services of departing seniors Abby Caso and Karissa Taylor.
- Gallagher is entering her third season as a starter and totaled 24 caused turnovers and 33 ground balls prior to her redshirt senior season in 2011.

2011 NATIONAL CHAMPION MARYLAND WOMEN'S LACROSSE

GAME RECAPS

Game #1 • Feb. 13 Richmond, Va. No. 1 Maryland 18, Richmond 7

Karri Ellen Johnson had a career-high seven goals and Sarah Mollison tied a school-record with six assists to lead No. 1 Maryland past Richmond, 18-7, Sunday.

Johnson, who extended her streak to 46 consecutive games with a goal, landed on Maryland's career goals list, ranking eighth in program history with 150. Mollison's six helpers tied a Terrapin single-game record and vaulted the senior to ninth in career assists (81) at Maryland.

The reigning national champions kicked off the season with an offensive onslaught, leaping out to a 9-0 lead to start the 2011 campaign. Johnson scored four goals in Maryland's opening run and Kristy Black added two. Freshman Beth Glaros capped the drive with her first goal as a Terp at 14:30.

Richmond did not counter until a Mary Flowers' goal at 12:06. Flowers, the 2010 A-10 Midfielder of the Year, led the Spiders with three scores on the day.

Maryland headed into halftime with an 11-4 lead but was stymied slightly in the opening minutes of the second stanza. After being outscored by Richmond 3-1 in the first 10:40, sophomore All-American Katie Schwarzmann turned up the pressure, scoring three consecutive goals in a four-minute span to spark a 6-0 Maryland run to close the game.

Schwarzmann ended with a career-high five goals on the day. Junior Brittany Dipper made five saves and senior Katie Gallagher tallied three caused turnovers and a pair of groundballs to lead the Terps defensively.

Game #2 • Feb. 16 Newark, Del. Maryland 17, Richmond 8

No. 1 Maryland's offense was once again on display as Karri Ellen Johnson and Katie Schwarzmann combined for 10 goals in a 17-8 rout of Delaware Wednesday.

Johnson, who boasts a team-high 12 goals this season, extended her streak to 47 games with a score at 15:53. It would be the junior's first of three in a three-minute span as Maryland went on a devastating 12-1 run to begin the contest.

Delaware picked up two late goals with time winding down in the first stanza but the Terps leapt to a 3-0 run in the beginning of the second half and played the Blue Hens even in the period, despite emptying their bench.

Maryland (2-0) boasted a fantastic shooting percentage, sinking 17 of the 23 shots it attempted in the match. Schwarzmann tied a career-high with five goals. Fellow classmate Alex Aust also put up career numbers, tacking on four goals, including the first ever scored in a women's lacrosse game at Delaware Stadium, and six points.

Sarah Mollison added three helpers to her team-best nine in 2011 and moves past Anyisia Fedec into eighth all-time in career assists.

Game #3 • Feb. 20 College Park, Md. No. 1 Maryland 13, No. 16 Penn State 2

After falling behind the Nittany Lions 2-1 to begin the match, the Terrapin defense held Penn State (0-1) scoreless through nearly 51 minutes of play. Offensively, Maryland (3-0) was led by a trio of hat tricks from Sarah Mollison, Katie Schwarzmann and Kristy Black. Despite having her streak of consecutive games with a goal snapped at 47, Karri Ellen Johnson tied a career-high with three assists.

The Terps traded goals to open the match before PSU's Elaine Welch scored at 20:51 to give Maryland its first deficit of the 2011 campaign. The duo of Schwarzmann and Black fired back with a combined five unanswered goals to cap the half at 6-2.

Mollison paced Maryland in the second half with three goals. Senior Brittany Poist netted her first career goal, Alex Aust added a score and Brandi Jones scored the second of her two goals on the day in the final stanza.

Schwarzmann put together another solid overall performance, adding four draw controls, three caused turnovers and three ground balls to her hat trick. Brittany Dipper notched her third win with a six-save effort.

Maryland gave up fewer than three goals for the first time since the 2003 season. The Terps outshot Penn State, 37-16.

Game #4 • Feb. 26 College Park, Md. No. 1 Maryland 18, No. 3 Duke 11

Katie Schwarzmann and Karri Ellen Johnson scored five goals each to lead No. 1 Maryland to its first marquee win of the season against No. 3 Duke, 18-11, Saturday.

Schwarzmann tallied her third five-goal showing for Maryland (4-0, 1-0 ACC) and added a team-high five ground balls, three draw controls, and two caused turnovers. Johnson moved into sixth all-time in career goals at Maryland with five on the day and also added an assist, three ground balls, and two caused turnovers.

Maryland kicked off its league opener on a 2-0 run before Duke (3-1, 0-1 ACC) battled back with three unanswered scores, starting a back-and-forth first half that featured three lead changes and six ties.

The Terps kicked it up a notch with 10 minutes remaining in the period, outscoring the Blue Devils 5-2, courtesy of a balanced attack with goals coming from Johnson, Sarah Mollison, Alex Aust, Schwarzmann and Kristy Black.

Maryland came out firing in the second stanza with goals from Johnson and Schwarzmann kicking off a 9-4 Terrapin advantage in the final period. Schwarzmann scored three of her five goals in the second half.

Game #5 • March 4 Charlottesville, Va. No. 1 Maryland 18, No. 5 UVA 6

A five-goal effort from Laura Merrifield helped fuel No. 1 Maryland as it dominated No. 5 Virginia, 18-6, on the road in Atlantic Coast Conference action.

Merrifield, who was announced as one of five Maryland players on this year's preliminary Tewaaraton watch list earlier in the day, notched a season-high five goals on five shots. She was backed up by stellar offensive performances from fellow Tewaaraton nominees Karri Ellen Johnson and Katie Schwarzmann, who tallied four and three goals, respectively.

After jumping out to a 4-0 lead, sparked by two goals from Merrifield, Virginia answered with three scores to make it a 4-3 match. Johnson's goal with 2:07 remaining in the half expanded the Terrapin lead to two heading into halftime and extended the junior's streak to 50 consecutive games with a point.

The Terps benefited from a much cleaner second half, where it only turned the ball over four times, and kicked off the stanza on a 4-0 run. Maryland would go on to outscore the Cavs, 13-3, in the half, with goals coming from six different Terrapins. A sturdy Maryland defense, led by seven saves from Tewaaraton nominee Brittany Dipper, held Virginia to only 21 shots in the ACC battle.

Game #6 • March 8
College Park, Md.
No. 1 Maryland 21,
George Mason 2

Sparked by scoring from 11 different players, No. 1 Maryland's offense caught fire Tuesday in a 21-2 thrashing of George Mason at the Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex.

The Terrapins (6-0, 2-0 ACC), who utilized all but two players on their roster, were led in scoring by freshman Amalie Trentzsch's three goals, including the first of her career. Seven players tallied two goals each including Kristy Black, Colleen Dawson, Danielle Kirk, Katie Schwarzmann, Sarah Mollison, Meris Walsh and Bria Phillips. In addition to Trentzsch, freshmen Jen Mendez and Walsh also tallied their first career goals in the Red and Black.

Maryland jumped out to an incredible 17-0 lead in the first half and did not allow a George Mason (1-4) shot until the five-minute mark. Nine of the Terps' 17 scores were assisted and Maryland capped the half with a devastating 29-4 shot advantage. The Terps did not play one of their regular starters in the second half and still managed to outscore the Patriots 4-2 in the final stanza.

Maryland caused 19 turnovers in the match, led by two each from Beth Glaros, Melissa Diepold, Elizabeth Hamilton, Mary Angstadt and Camilla Hayes, Trentzsch, and Mendez. Glaros also scooped up a team-high three ground balls.

Brittany Dipper, Mary Jordan and Kasey Howard combined to allow only two Patriot goals. It is the second time this season the Terrapin defense has allotted just two opponent scores, dropping No. 16 Penn State 13-2 earlier this season.

Game #7 • March 12
College Park, Md.
No. 1 Maryland 7,
No. 12 Syracuse 5

No. 12 Syracuse tried its best to slow down No. 1 Maryland's high-powered attack Saturday but the Terps were able to survive the stall and drop the Orange, 7-5.

Maryland was held to its lowest scoring output in 2011 and was led by senior Tewaaraton nominee Sarah Mollison, who tallied a team-high two goals and two assists. Katie Schwarzmann, Karri Ellen Johnson, Kristy Black and Brandi Jones each added a goal and an assist as the Terps notched their 17th consecutive win and moved to 11-0 all-time against Syracuse.

In a rematch of last season's national semifinal, it was evident early that Syracuse, led by former Maryland assistant Gary Gait, had visions of holding the ball as long as possible to limit the Terrapin attack's scoring opportunities. The Terps managed only six shots in the first half but capitalized on four of them to boast a 4-2 lead through 30 minutes.

The two teams broke even in the second stanza, both posting three goals, but back-to-back scores by Johnson and Mollison around the 14-minute mark and a solid defensive effort provided the Terps with enough momentum for the win.

In a game where the draw control was vital, Johnson and Schwarzmann racked up four and three, respectively, to lead Maryland. Johnson, Brittany Poist and Beth Glaros tallied two caused turnovers apiece.

Head Coach Cathy Reese

Fifth season/Eighth overall

Maryland, '98

84-9 record at Maryland

Former Maryland standout and reigning IWFLCA National Coach of the Year Cathy Reese enters her fifth season at the helm of the Terrapins' women's lacrosse program after guiding Maryland to its first national championship since 2001 last season.

With the Terps falling just once in regular season play, Maryland wrapped up the 2010 campaign on a devastating 10-game winning streak, which concluded in elation with a gallant comeback against five-time defending national champion Northwestern in the NCAA Women's Lacrosse Championship at Towson. Reese coached Maryland's first Tewaaraton Award winner since Jen Adams as Caitlyn McFadden was tabbed the top player in all of women's lacrosse. Four other Terrapins landed All-America status as well and Reese garnered IWFLCA National Coach of the Year honors along with being named the top coach in the conference for the second straight season.

Reese had Maryland on the verge of perfection in 2009, leading the Terps to a 21-1 record, an NCAA Final Four trip, and ACC Tournament and Regular Season championships. She boasted three Tewaaraton nominees, five All-Americans, five All-ACC honorees, the ACC Player and Rookie of the Year and the IWFLCA Midfielder of the Year. Reese also earned a few honors of her own, racking up IWFLCA South Region Coach of the Year accolades along with her second ACC Coach of the Year award in only three short seasons at the helm of the storied Maryland program.

Reese continued to move Maryland in a positive direction in 2008, steering the Terps to an 18-3 record and an Atlantic Coast Conference regular season title. Once again, Reese boasted some of the top talent in the nation as senior Dana Dobbie was tabbed ACC Player of the Year in addition to being named a finalist for the Tewaaraton Trophy, given annually to the nation's best player. Dobbie and fellow seniors Kelly Kasper and Lauren Cohen joined sophomore Caitlyn McFadden on the All-America team while Kasper accompanied Dobbie as a Tewaaraton finalist. The Terps' 18-3 record was the best for the program since 2003 as Maryland punched its ticket to the NCAA Tournament for the 18th consecutive season.

Reese returned to her alma mater in 2007 as the head coach and guided the Terps to a 16-4 record, including a first-place finish in the Atlantic Coast Conference at 4-1, earning the conference's Coach of the Year award.

Maryland had bowed out of the NCAA Tournament in the first round the previous two seasons, but Reese's Terps advanced to the quarterfinals for the first time since 2004 and had the most wins since 2003. Included in those 16 wins were a pair against teams ranked No. 1 and No. 2 in the country against North Carolina and Duke, respectively.

Reese's guidance produced more than just team success. Dana Dobbie was a finalist for the Tewaaraton Trophy, given annually to the nation's best player, and was the ACC Player of the Year. In addition, Dobbie along with Becky Clipp, Kelly Kasper, and Krista Pellizzi were named All-Americans.

Reese returned to Maryland after spending her first three seasons as head coach at the University of Denver where she guided the Pioneers to their most successful season in school history in 2006. Denver finished that year with a 16-5 record and rattled off 11-straight wins over the course of 43 days. The 11-game win streak was more victories than the school had seen in an entire season as its eight wins in 2003 was the most in a season for the Pioneers prior to 2006.

For a program that saw limited success since its inception in 1999, Reese proved that she is a winner. With a 4-1 Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) record, the Pioneers won its first-ever regular season championship in 2006. For her efforts, Reese was named the 2006 MPSF Coach of the Year. In addition, two of her student-athletes were also given season-ending awards as Denver swept the conference accolades. Kristie Leggio was tabbed the Player of the Year and Karen Morton was the Newcomer of the Year.

In her three seasons in the Mile High City, 11 student-athletes were named to the All-MPSF Team. Not only did her students excel on the field, but they also achieved in the classroom as Denver student-athletes were named to the Academic All-Conference team 11 times.

Prior to lifting the Denver program to national attention, Reese spent nine seasons in College Park, four as a student-athlete and five as an assistant coach. During that span, the women's lacrosse program had one of the most successful streaks seen in collegiate women's sports history. The Terps won seven national championships in her first nine years on campus. That is the third-longest streak in women's NCAA history in any sport.

When Reese first stepped foot on campus as a freshman, it was impossible to gauge how successful she and the Terps would be. Maryland did not lose in her first two seasons as a student-athlete, and it did not lose until midway through her junior campaign. In all, Reese and the Terps went 50-straight games without a loss. In her playing career, Reese guided the Terps to an incredible 75-4 record. In her first three seasons as assistant coach, the Terps went 65-1. Her total record with Maryland in her first nine seasons was 169-19. The Terps also made the NCAA quarterfinals in 2002 and advanced to the national semifinals in 2003 before Reese took the reins at Denver.

As a student-athlete from 1995-98, she was a two-time All-America selection. As a senior, she was tabbed the NCAA Tournament Most Valuable Player and was the second-leading scorer on that championship team with 58 goals and 25 assists. She finished her career with 140 goals, 77 assists, and 217 points. Her 77 assists is tied for eighth all-time at Maryland and her 217 points is 11th.

Reese graduated in 1998 with a degree in speech communications. She and her husband, Brian, who is also a volunteer coach for the program, have three children, Riley, who is six years old, and Brody, who is four years old. Reese gave birth to her first girl, Cayden Elizabeth, on March 12, 2008.
