SIMPLY THE BEST - MARYLAND WOMEN'S LACROSSE

- The Terps have been invited to the NCAA Tournament a total of 25 times, a number that tops any other team in the country. Virginia, which is second, made its 22nd NCAA appearance in 2009.
- Maryland has played the most games in the tournament (54) and has the most wins with a 39-16 record.
- The Terps have won nine NCAA Championships which is four more than the second place team. Northwestern has won its first five national titles the last five seasons while Princeton and Virginia also have three to their names.
- Maryland has won the most overtime games in the NCAA Tournament with a 6-0 record.
- Maryland has the longest winning streak in NCAA Tournament history with 21 consecutive victories from 1995-2002 and has appeared in 16 title games, more than any other school.
- Heading into the 2010 season, Maryland has more wins than any other program in the country, totaling in at 516 and also boast the top winning percentage (.806).

SUPER SENIORS!

- Maryland will honor its nine seniors in a ceremony prior to Saturday's first draw against Dartmouth.
- The senior class of 2010 has accounted for an incredible 56-5 record the last three seasons and back-to-back ACC Championships.
- Seniors Abby Caso, Jenny Collins, Kate Faas, Brittany Jones, Caitlyn McFadden, Megan McGarvey, Allie Perkins, Amanda Spinnenweber and Karissa Taylor will be honored Saturday.

MARYLAND USES TEAM EFFORT TO TOP UMass

- Nine different players accounted for 14 Terrapin goals Saturday as No. 1 Maryland downed A-10 champion UMass, 14-4, at Ludwig Field.
- The Terps (17-1) were led in scoring by two goals each from Sarah Mollison, Karri Ellen Johnson, Laura Merrifield, Kate Faas and Alex Aust. Mollison added a pair of assists for a game-high four points.
- Three of UMass's goal came via free position shots as Maryland held its foe to 10 or fewer goals for the 15th time this season. Brittany Dipper picked up the win in the cage while making four saves in 30 minutes of work.

SCOUTING THE BIG GREEN

- Dartmouth heads to College Park Saturday after falling to Penn for the second time this season.
- Kat Collins led Dartmouth with three goals but the Big Green managed only two shots in the first half and 12 total as third-ranked Penn won the game, 9-8.
- The Big Green is led by the scoring tandem of Greta Meyer and Sarah Parks, who have combined for 65 goals. Julie Wadland is Dartmouth's goalie and is surrendering 7.39 goals per game.
- Maryland leads the all-time series, 17-1, after its narrow defeat of Dartmouth, 13-12, last season on the road in rainy conditions. Laura Merrifield and Karri Ellen Johnson picked up hat tricks as the Terps outshot the Big Green, 37-20, for the match.

TERPS RACK UP SEVENTH ACC CHAMPIONSHIP

- Led by five points from Caitlyn McFadden and a career-high 12 saves from Brittany Dipper, Maryland upended No. 1 North Carolina, 10-5, to win its second consecutive Atlantic Coast Conference Championship title Sunday.
- UNC was held to its lowest goal output of the year while Brittany Poist led the Terrapin defense with two ground balls and two caused turnovers. Maryland, which has played host to the ACC Women's Lacrosse Championship twice, has won the tournament in both attempts with defeats of Carolina in the title game on each occasion.
- McFadden was tabbed tournament most valuable player while teammates Dipper, Karri Ellen Johnson, Sarah Mollison, Laura Merrifield, and Karissa Taylor joined her on the all-tournament team.

PROTECT THIS HOUSE

- Maryland is 37-1 at home under fourth-year head coach Cathy Reese.
- The Terps have won all five games in which they have played an opponent ranked No. 1 or No. 2 at home in the past four seasons and have done it in three different locations.
- The Terps are 177-15 in College Park dating back to 1990 with 11 perfect seasons in that span.
- Records of home and away games are incomplete from 1974-89.

TERPS TAKE OVER TOP SPOT IN POLLS

- Maryland has now owned the No. 1 ranking in both the deBeer/Inside Lacrosse Women's Media Poll and the IWLCA Coaches Poll for two consecutive weeks.
- This is the first time Maryland has garnered the top spot in the rankings since March 31, 2003. That season, the Terps were the No. 1 team in the land for the majority of the year before late-season losses to James Madison and Princeton shoved Maryland downwards in the poll.
- Maryland is the third team to be ranked No. 1 this season as defending NCAA champion Northwestern and North Carolina have also both held the prestigious spot.

MARYLAND TACKLES VIRGINIA IN ACC SEMIFINALS

- Laura Merrifield and Brandi Jones netted hat tricks as No. 2 seed Maryland advanced to the title game with a win over Virginia, 10-6, Friday at Ludwig Field. The Terps upended the Cavs in last season's semifinals as well.
- Maryland ended the match with its best free position shot percentage of the year, nailing five of its seven attempts. The Terrapin defense stymied Virginia into six-of-13 clear attempts while causing seven Cavalier turnovers, led by three from Iliana Sanza.

MARYLAND PLACES FIVE ON ALL-ACC TEAM

- Maryland boasted a league-high five players on this year's All-Atlantic Coast Conference Women's Lacrosse team, announced by the league office Wednesday.
- Headlining the list for the Terps is 2009 ACC Player of the Year and three-time all-conference honoree Caitlyn McFadden. McFadden joins fellow Tewaaratton nominees Karri Ellen Johnson and Karissa Taylor as well as junior Sarah Mollison and freshman Katie Schwarzmans as Maryland's 2010 All-ACC awardees.

THE 200-POINT CLUB

- With seven points against George Mason, senior Caitlyn McFadden joined Maryland's prestigious 200-point club for her career.
- The four-year starter is currently ninth all-time with 236 points. Former Maryland great Jen Adams leads the way with 445 career points, the most in NCAA women's lacrosse history. Maryland assistant coach Quinn Carney is fourth with 272, while head coach Cathy Reese is 12th with 217.

TERPS TOP VT FOR SHARE OF ACC REGULAR SEASON TITLE

- Head coach Cathy Reese captured her 100th career win Saturday as No. 3 Maryland routed Virginia Tech, 18-4, to secure a share of the Atlantic Coast Conference regular season title.
- Maryland picked up scoring from 10 different players on the day, led by four goals from Karri Ellen Johnson and three from Sarah Mollison, to help Reese, who is in her fourth season at the helm of the Terp program, accomplish the milestone.
- In total, the Terps amassed 27 points on the day while 14 Maryland players added a goal and/or assist on the day. The game was Maryland's first this season at Ludwig Field, where it will play the remainder of its schedule, including next week's ACC Lacrosse Championships.

MCFADDEN, TAYLOR AND JOHNSON ALL MAKE CUT

- Seniors Caitlyn McFadden and Karissa Taylor, along with sophomore Karri Ellen Johnson, have been listed as three of the top 25 candidates for this year's Tewaaratton Award, given annually to the best player in women's college lacrosse, as announced April 14 by The Greater Washington Sports Alliance.
- From this nominee list, five will be named finalists for the prestigious award. Last season, McFadden was named one of the final five. This season, the Terps boast one player at each position with a defender (Taylor), an attacker (Johnson) and a midfielder (McFadden). Johnson is one of only three sophomores to make the cut.

MCFADDEN DISHES 'EM OUT

- Maryland senior captain Caitlyn McFadden is currently fifth all-time in career assists with 104.
- The reigning IWLC National Midfielder of the Year is only six-shy of cracking the top three and topping current Terp assistant coach Quinn Carney (110) for third.

WHEN I DIP, YOU DIP, WE DIP

- Sophomore goalie Brittany Dipper once again put together a tremendous ACC Championship weekend, racking up 18 saves while holding two of the best offenses in the land to a mere 11 goals total.
- Last season, the rookie was named to the all-tournament team after making 10 saves in the championship game against Duke. This season, Dipper tallied a career-high 12 stops against top-ranked North Carolina as the Terps coasted to its seventh ACC title in program history.

FH & LAX COMPLEX FINALE

- Maryland, which began the season with a snow-filled opener at the football field turf, went 6-0 at the Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex this season and concluded its home venue slate against Towson on Wednesday.
- The Terps, who played host to the 2010 ACC Women's Lacrosse Championship at Ludwig Field, switched locations for its final home game prior to the championships versus Virginia Tech April 17 and will remain there for the final two home games following ACCs.
- The field turf at the Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex will be getting a makeover after sustaining some damage following the series of blizzards in College Park this winter.

GOING STREAKING

- Maryland's Caitlyn McFadden, Sarah Mollison and Karri Ellen Johnson each possess scoring streaks which rank among the best nationally.
- McFadden's 43-game point scoring streak ranks 12th in the nation, while Johnson and Mollison's 40-game version is tied for 13th. Johnson also boasts the fourth-longest goal scoring streak after scoring in all 40 games she has appeared in as a Terp.

REESE GARNERS 100TH WIN

- Head coach Cathy Reese earned career win No. 100 as the Terps routed Virginia Tech, 18-4, on April 17 at Ludwig Field.
- The former Terrapin All-American is 103-38 in her seven-year career, which began at the University of Denver. Reese is 77-9 all-time at the helm of the Maryland program and has not lost a regular season match in College Park during her four seasons with the Terps.

LEADERS OF THE PACK

- Several Terps find their names scattered among the active leader lists in NCAA Division I Women's Lacrosse.
- Caitlyn McFadden is currently third among active leaders in career assists (104), seventh in points (237) and 25th in goals (132).
- As only a sophomore, Karri Ellen Johnson ranks 30th in the nation in active career goals (127). Maryland senior Kate Faas, who spent the first two years of her collegiate career at St. Bonaventure, ranks 38th with 166 career points.

TOPPLING THE TOP

- Don't accuse Maryland of padding its schedule with fluff teams. The Terps have played 12 games against teams ranked in the top 20. Nine of those games have been against teams ranked in the top 10. Maryland has won 11 of those 12 games.
 - Below is a rundown of Maryland's assault on the polls.
- X - #18 Penn State, 17-9
X - #5 Duke, 17-4
X - #9 Virginia, 11-5
X - #15 New Hampshire, 20-6
X - #7 Georgetown, 20-11
X - #8 Stanford, 20-8
X - #20 James Madison, 8-7
X - #7 Towson, 12-10
X - #6 Penn, 12-6
X - #4 Virginia, 10-6 (ACC Tournament)
X - #1 North Carolina, 10-5 (ACC Tournament)

A BALANCING ACT

- Maryland's offense, while dominant, is also incredibly balanced, boasting 10 players with double-digit goals.
- Karri Ellen Johnson (52), Caitlyn McFadden (30), Sarah Mollison (30), Katie Schwarzmann (25), Brandi Jones (20), Amanda Spinnenweber (15), Laura Merrifield (21), Kate Faas (17), Kristy Black (11) and Brittany Jones (10) give Maryland an extremely dynamic attack, providing solid looks at goal from all over the field.

SPREADING THE LOVE

- Maryland had three different players earn weekly awards after dropping No. 7 Towson and No. 6 Penn in consecutive matches.
- Sarah Mollison was named ACC Women's Lacrosse Player of the Week for the period ending Sunday, April 4, while Caitlyn McFadden garnered Womenslacrosse.com's Offensive Player of the Week and Karri Ellen Johnson was tabbed Womenslax.com Player of the Week.

SCHWARZMANN NAMED ACC PLAYER OF THE WEEK

- Freshman Katie Schwarzmann was named Atlantic Coast Conference Women's Lacrosse Player of the Week for the period ending March 28.
- Schwarzmann tallied five goals and six points in a pair of wins over ranked opponents on the week to move No. 2 Maryland to a perfect 10-0 in 2010. Schwarzmann was also named Rookie of the Week by Womenslax.com and Womenslacrosse.com.

MARYLAND ROUTS NO. 8 STANFORD, 20-8

- Ten different Terps scored Thursday to lift the No. 2-ranked Maryland women's lacrosse team past No. 8 Stanford, 20-8.
- Of the ten Maryland goal scorers, seven were multiple offenders, led by four from Karri Ellen Johnson and three from Laura Merrifield. Johnson, a sophomore Tewaaraton nominee, also tallied a game-high seven draw controls, the majority of which led to Maryland goals.
- Maryland has outscored the four top-ten foes it has faced by a total of 68-28. The Terps outshot its West Coast opponent, 43-16, to move to a perfect 4-0 against Stanford all-time.

TERPS SLIDE PAST BOSTON COLLEGE

- No. 2 Maryland slid past a previously undefeated Boston College team, 7-6, to gain sole possession of first place in the Atlantic Coast Conference.
- Despite being held to its lowest scoring output of the year, the Maryland defense allowed BC a mere nine shots in the match and caused 14 Eagle turnovers. Brandi Jones and Karri Ellen Johnson led the Terrapin attack with two goals apiece. Johnson, a sophomore Tewaaraton nominee, also caused three turnovers and had a team-best four draw controls.

JOHNSON LEADS TERPS PAST NO. 7 GEORGETOWN

- Three of Johnson's five goals came in the opening minutes of the second stanza to provide Maryland some breathing room and a six-goal cushion after an even-played first half.
- The Terrapin defense stepped up the intensity in the second half, allowing only five Hoya goals in the period. Maryland trumped Georgetown 23-10 in the draw control category, led by five from junior Brandi Jones.

TENACIOUS D

- George Mason's Megan Udovich finally stymied Maryland's defense with a goal with 2:33 remaining in the first half to stop Maryland's streak of 67 consecutive minutes without surrendering a goal.
- Maryland, which is allowing a mere seven goals per game this season, held No. 9 Virginia scoreless the final 39:43 of last Friday's match before preventing Mason

MARYLAND DROPS VIRGINIA, 11-5

- The No. 2-ranked Maryland women's lacrosse team held No. 9 Virginia scoreless in the second half on its way to an 11-5 defeat of the Cavaliers.
- After the two perennial powerhouses battled to a 6-5 Maryland advantage through the first 30 minutes of play, the Terps held the Cavs to a mere three shots in the second stanza.
- Karri Ellen Johnson ended the day with a match-high four goals while adding an assist, two caused turnovers, a draw control and a ground ball. Sarah Mollison also tallied five points on two goals and three assists.
- Maryland held a decisive shot advantage, 33-11, and kept an opponent from reaching a double-digit goal output for the fourth consecutive time this season.

TERPS DOMINATE DUKE, 17-4

- Maryland benefited from a balanced scoring attack as the Terps toppled Duke, 17-4, on the road.
- Maryland picked up hat tricks from Katie Schwarzmenn, Amanda Spinnenweber and Sarah Mollison as a total of nine players scored on the day, five of whom put up multi-goal showings.
- The Terps have now scored 17 goals in all three of their wins in 2010. Duke (4-1, 0-1 ACC), who was also averaging 17 scores per contest, was held to a season-low four goals in its conference opener. Maryland outshot the Blue Devils 32-19 for the match.
- In addition to notching three goals, Mollison added a pair of assists and a game-high five draw controls. Schwarzmenn put together the most complete game of her young career at Maryland, tacking an assist, two draw controls, five ground balls and three caused turnovers onto her career-high three-goal performance.

TAYLOR AND POIST NET BACK-TO-BACK DEFENSIVE HONORS

- Karissa Taylor garnered WomensLacrosse.com Defensive Player of the Week honors after Maryland dismantled No. 5 Duke on the road, while the next week Brittany Poist garnered the award.
- Taylor played a vital part in Maryland's monumental 13-goal defeat of Duke, scooping up five ground balls, causing three turnovers and adding a pair of draw controls to help hold the Blue Devils to four scores, its lowest goal production since 2005.
- Poist kept the honor in the family the next week as she helped the Terps to a dominating win over Virginia. She had four ground balls and four caused turnovers as Maryland shut down the Cavaliers in the second half, allowing only three shots and zero goals.

TRICKY TRICKY

- Maryland spread around its scoring in its home opener as four different players notched hat tricks on the day.
- Karri Ellen Johnson, Brandi Jones, Caitlyn McFadden and Kate Faas all netted three goals apiece.
- In total, nine Terps scored goals against Richmond, including Danielle Kirk and Katie Schwarzmann, who notched their first collegiate scores at Maryland.

MCFADDEN NAMED PRESEASON PLAYER OF THE YEAR

- Senior midfielder Caitlyn McFadden has been tabbed Lacrosse Magazine's Preseason National Player of the Year, as announced by the publication.
- McFadden, who helped guide the U. S. to a gold medal in the 2009 FIL World Cup in Prague this summer, was tabbed IWLCAs National Midfielder of the Year last season along with a clean sweep of every ACC honor, including Player of the Year, Tournament Most Valuable Player and Scholar-Athlete of the Year. The Tewaaraton Trophy finalist ended the 2009 campaign with 54 goals, 31 assists and 37 draw controls. The Phoenix, Md., native has started in every match since her arrival to College Park in 2007 and is one-goal shy of 100 career goals as a Terp.

ALL-AMERICANS RETURN

- A total of six Terps garnered regional All-American status last season with five moving on to earn national honors -- all return for Maryland this season.
- Regionally, Caitlyn McFadden, Karissa Taylor, Sarah Mollison, Brandi Jones and Karri Ellen Johnson all landed on the first team while Laura Merrifield racked up regional second team honors.
- The first team honorees advanced to national voting where McFadden and Johnson were each tabbed to the first team. Mollison and Brandi Jones landed on the second team and Taylor earned third-team accolades.
- McFadden was also named IWLCAs National Midfielder of the Year.

SUMMER FUN IN PRAGUE

- A total of 16 current and former Terps competed for their respective countries in the 2009 FIL World Cup in Prague this summer.
- Included in that mix are current Maryland standouts Caitlyn McFadden, Laura Merrifield and Sarah Mollison.
- McFadden helped guide the U.S. to the gold medal, topping Mollison and Team Australia in the finals. Merrifield led her native England to the semifinals before bowing out to the U.S.

SCHWARZMANN EARNS LOFTY HONOR

- Maryland freshman Katie Schwarzmann has been tabbed "Athlete of the Decade" by the Carroll County Times.
- A three-sport standout, excelling in soccer, basketball and lacrosse, Schwarzmann was named first-team All-Decade in all three sports.

TERPS TAB CAPTAINS

- Sarah Mollison will join two-time captains Caitlyn McFadden, Amanda Spinnenweber and Karissa Taylor as captains for the defending ACC champions.
- McFadden, who was tabbed Lacrosse Magazine's Preseason Player of the Year, gathered a slew of awards last season, including a sweep of every conference award and IWLCAs National Midfielder of the Year.
- Spinnenweber started in every match except one in 2009, tallying career-highs in goals (26), assists (9), points (35), draw controls (22), caused turnovers (10) and ground balls (16).
- Taylor picked up Third Team All-America honors last season while guiding the Terrapin defense to a 9.11 GAA. She also contributed offensively during her junior campaign, registering 10 goals and four assists.
- Mollison, a junior, started in every match for Maryland's attack in 2009, scoring 44 goals and dishing out 38 assists for the ACC champion Terps.

SISTER, SISTER

- Possibly the finest sister combination in the country, Brittany and Brandi Jones team up once again this season in the Maryland midfield.
- Brandi took her game to a new level in 2009, being tabbed an All-American and All-ACC after racking up 28 goals and 32 assists as a sophomore for the ACC champion Terrapins.
- Brittany had a breakout season in 2009 notching career-highs in goals (33), assists (8), points (41), and draw controls (23). She was named to the ACC All-Tournament Team after scoring four goals and adding two draw controls in Maryland's run to the title.
- In 2010, Brandi has racked up 30 points on 20 goals and 10 assists while Brittany has 10 goals and three assists on the year.

Game Recaps

Game #1 • February 14 College Park, Md. Maryland 17, Richmond 7

Karri Ellen Johnson, Brandi Jones, Caitlyn McFadden and Kate Faas all netted three goals apiece as the Terps moved to 17-0 all-time against the Spiders. Johnson, who scored five goals in her collegiate debut at Richmond last season, also led Maryland in draw controls with seven.

McFadden tacked on four assists for a team-high seven points on the day. The Terps heated up in the second half, outshooting the Spiders 17-8 in the period. Maryland rolled off four-straight scores to start the session, including three by Johnson and one from Spinnenweber. Richmond's Molly Early snapped the streak with a free position goal with 18 minutes remaining. Faas capped her hat trick off another McFadden assist.

Sophomore Brittany Dipper was the keeper of record after making six saves in the match. The Terps were a stellar 10-for-10 in clears. Laura Merrifield had a team-high three caused turnovers as Brittany Poist scooped up three of Maryland's 19 ground balls on the day.

Game #3 • February 27 Durham, N.C. Maryland 17, Duke 4

The Terps benefited from a balanced scoring attack, highlighted by hat tricks from Katie Schwarzmann, Amanda Spinnenweber and Sarah Mollison. Maryland picked up scoring from a total of nine players on the day, five of whom put up multi-goal showings.

The Terps have now scored 17 goals in all three of their wins in 2010. Duke, which was also averaging 17 scores per contest, was held to a season-low four goals in its conference opener. Maryland outshot the Blue Devils 32-19 for the match.

In addition to notching three goals, Mollison added a pair of assists and a game-high five draw controls. Game #4 • March 5 College Park, Md. Maryland 11, Virginia 5

The No. 2-ranked Maryland women's lacrosse team held No. 9 Virginia scoreless in the second half on its way to an 11-5 defeat of the Cavaliers Friday.

Maryland thwarted a ten-minute stall tactic by Virginia to outscore the Cavs 5-0 in the second half and earn its second conference victory in six days.

After the two perennial powerhouses battled to a 6-5 Maryland advantage through the first 30 minutes of play, Virginia came out of the locker room at the half with a draw control win and a six-minute lethargic possession in which they did not tally a shot.

The Maryland defense went on to grant Virginia a mere three shots in the stanza while the Terps capped their 7-0 run with three more goals, including a pair of acrobatic scores by Jones and Karri Ellen Johnson.

Maryland held a decisive shot advantage, 33-11 and has yet to allow an opponent to reach a double-digit goal output this season.

Game #5 • March 9 Fairfax, Va. Maryland 16, George Mason 4

No. 2 Maryland utilized a ferocious start to drop George Mason, 16-4, on the road.

Maryland jumped out to a massive 10-0 lead before George Mason even registered its first shot of the day. Tewaaraton nominee Caitlyn McFadden tallied six points in the devastating run, mustering two goals and four assists.

The Terps outscored Mason 5-2 in the second period and held a significant 14-7 shot advantage. A swarming Maryland defense forced Mason into 11 turnovers in the second half alone while the Patriots were successful on a mere 10-of-18 clear attempts on the match.

Game #7 • March 17 College Park, Md. Maryland 20, Georgetown 11

Three of Johnson's five goals came in the opening minutes of the second stanza to provide Maryland some breathing room and a six-goal cushion after an even-played first half. The Hoyas outscored Maryland 5-2 in the first 11 minutes of the game before goals by Kate Faas, Laura Merrifield, and Brandi Jones tied the game and a Brittany Jones score at 11:47 gave the Terps the eventual game-winner.

Game #12 • April 2 Philadelphia, Pa. Maryland v. Penn

Johnson, who has scored in all 34 matches she has appeared in at Maryland, scored a game-high four goals and added an assist for five points on the day. Black put three in the back of the net while Tewaaraton nominees Caitlyn McFadden and Sarah Mollison each added two scores.

The Terrapin defense held Penn to 13 shots in the match while causing six Quaker turnovers, led by three from McFadden. Maryland's defense has held 11 of its 12 opponents to ten or fewer goals this season while topping its sixth top-ten ranked foe.

Game #13 • April 10 Chapel Hill, N.C. Maryland 9, North Carolina 13

No. 2 Maryland dropped its first regular season game since March 1, 2008, when it fell to No. 3 North Carolina, 13-9, Saturday.

The Terps (12-1, 3-1 ACC) were led by Karri Ellen Johnson, who racked up a hat trick and added an assist on the day. Caitlyn McFadden dished out three assists and freshman Katie Schwarzmenn added a pair of goals against North Carolina, who moved to 11-1 and 3-1 in ACC play.

Despite the loss, Maryland took more shots, secured more ground balls and made four-fewer turnovers than North Carolina.

Game #16 • April 23 College Park, Md. Maryland 10, Virginia 6 ACC Semifinals

Laura Merrifield and Brandi Jones netted hat tricks as No. 2 seed Maryland advanced to the title game with a win over Virginia, 10-6, Friday at Ludwig Field.

Maryland ended the match with its best free position shot percentage of the year, nailing five of its seven attempts. The Terrapin defense stymied Virginia into six-of-13 clear attempts while causing seven Cavalier turnovers, led by three from freshman Iliana Sanza. Brittany Dipper picked up the win in goal after surrendering a mere six goals while making six saves.
