2000 SEASON REVIEW NOTEBOOK

Four Seniors Close Strong Careers At Maryland

The Maryland Terrapins played with a lot of heart in 2000. Four of those players who held the team together were the seniors -- Terri Greer (Woodbridge, Va.), Vita McKenna (Burlington, Ontario), Julie Nelson (McLean, Va.) and Riki-Ann Serrins (Mission Viejo, Calif.).

The speedy Greer was a four-year performer for the Terps. She played in 76 games during her career, starting 54 including every game during her senior season. She scored four goals and assisted on four more during her career for 12 points. She was named to the Soccer America Team of the Week on Oct. 23 after scoring the game-winner to upset Florida State on Oct. 20, 2000.

McKenna, who served as a senior captain, came to Maryland from Canada back in 1997. She played with great technical awareness and ability playing her defensive midfielder position over the past few years. She was a key defensive cog. Overall, she played in 71 matches, starting 54 during her four years. She started all 19 games in 2000. Her lone goal came as a freshman against George Mason on Sept. 10, 1997.

Also a senior captain, Nelson was a fierce battler who wore her emotions on her sleeve. She provided great leadership and overcame many obstacles to star on the soccer field. At forward, she had her career game during the 2000 season, when she posted her first career hat trick against George Washington on Sept. 12, 2000. Overall, she played in 73 matches, starting 42 and scoring six goals and totalled 16 points. She was featured on the ACC Live TV show's Soccer Spotlight on Sept. 18, 2000.

Serrins has written her name into the Maryland record book when it comes to goalkeeping. She finished her Maryland career ranked as the all-time leader in career shutouts with 13.5 and in the top three all-time in goals against average, saves and games played. She was named a second team All-ACC performer in 1998 and again as a senior in 2000. She played in 58 games as a keeper, starting 44, including all 19 this season, posting a 1.39 goals against average during her four years. She finished No. 3 all-time in saves with 219.

Records & Rankings

Maryland finished the season with an 8-11-0 overall record (1-6-0 in the ACC) after winning at Rutgers (1-0), upsetting No. 4 Penn State (3-1), winning four straight home matches by shutout: Towson (1-0), George Washington (3-0), George Mason (1-0), Howard (9-0), winning at James Madison (2-1) and beating No. 23 Florida State (2-0) at home. The Terps' losses have come against No. 22 Duke (2-1), Richmond (1-0), No. 19 Santa Clara (4-2), No. 6 Stanford (3-0), No. 20 Wake Forest (1-0), NC State (1-0), No. 15 Virginia (3-2), No. 5 Clemson (1-0), No. 22 William & Mary (1-0), No. 5 North Carolina (6-0) and No. 4 Clemson (2-0) in the ACC Quarterfinals held at Duke.

The Terps were ranked as high as No. 9 on Sept. 4 in the NSCAA poll after upsetting then-No. 4 Penn State on Aug. 29, 2000. The No. 9 ranking was the highest ranking Maryland had received in four seasons, dating back to a No. 7 ranking to start the 1997 season. Overall, Maryland has been ranked for all or part of the season for the last eight years. Maryland's highest ranking came when the Terps were No. 4 midway through the 1996 season after Maryland reeled off 14 consecutive victories to start the season. Maryland played four games as the No. 4 team spanning Oct. 1-13, 1996.

Playing The Best

Of the Terps' 18 regular-season opponents, 12 were ranked in the NSCAA Top 25 at one point during the 2000 season. For the week final regular season NSCAA poll on Nov. 6, 11 of the Terps' opponents are ranked including three in the top 10: No. 4 North Carolina, No. 5 Clemson, No. 7 Penn State. Also ranked in the top 25 are No. 14 Virginia, No. 15 Duke, No. 16 Stanford, No. 20 Florida State, No. 21 William & Mary and No. 24 Santa Clara. Wins Against Ranked Teams

The Terps picked up their first-ever win against a team ranked in the top five when they beat No. 4 Penn State on Aug. 29, 3-1. Previously, Maryland's only favorable result against a top-five team was a tie against then-No. 4 Connecticut when it battled to a 2-2 tie on Oct. 11, 1998.

All-time, Maryland has recorded 28 wins in program history against teams ranked in the Top 25, including four last season and two in 2000. The Terps' other win over a ranked team this season came against No. 23 Florida State on Oct. 20, in a 2-0 upset in College Park, Md.

In 1999, then-unranked Maryland upset No. 9 Duke on Sept. 18 (4-3 in OT), No. 9 Clemson on Oct. 17 (2-1 in OT), No. 11 Wake Forest on Oct. 22 (1-0) and No. 21 Duke in the ACC Quarterfinals on Nov. 4 (2-1).

Over the past five years, dating to 1995, Maryland has picked up 24 wins against top 25 teams. Prior to the win over Penn State, the highest ranked team that Maryland has ever upset was then-No. 7 Duke, when the Terps topped the Blue Devils, 2-1 in College Park on Oct. 1, 1995. Maryland has picked up seven other wins against top-10 teams in addition to the tie against UConn in 1998.

Home Sweet Home

Maryland has made a habit of winning at Ludwig Field. The Terps hold a 49-17-3 record all-time in games played at Ludwig, dating to its construction in 1995. They have won 73.2 percent of the games in College Park.
