IN REVIEW...

1

The Terrapins finished the regular season having played the most difficult schedule in the country, with its opposition posting a cumulative 87-41 (.680) record. The Terps faced eight teams that were ranked in the AP Top-25 at some point during the season, and were one of just four teams in the country to face at least five teams that finished with 10 or more victories.

4

Due to an unfortunate string of injuries, the Terps were forced to start four quarterbacks during the season. Despite the setback, the Terps were one of just two teams in the country to win at least three games with three different starting quarterbacks. Additionally, Maryland threw only eight interceptions - its fewest since 2003. In fact, the team tied a program record by turning the ball over just 14 times the entire season.

51

The Terps opened the 2017 season with a memorable win in Austin, defeating then No. 23 Texas, 51-41. The win marked Maryland's first win over a ranked opponent in the DJ Durkin era, while the 51 points scored were its most-ever against a ranked opponent. The game was seen across the country on Fox Sports 1, and drew nearly two million viewers - marking the highest-rated and most watched game on cable that day.

80

Junior DJ Moore, who declared for the NFL Draft following the season, finished the season with a program-record 80 catches. Moore was named the Big Ten Conference's Receiver of the Year for his efforts, leading the league in receptions/g (6.7) and receiving yards (1,033), while also totaling eight touchdowns. Moore was just the third player in program history to record 1,000 receiving yards.

160

Maryland's rushing attack (161.7/g) averaged more than 160 yards on the ground for the third consecutive season - the first time it has achieved the feat since a span from 2001-03. Junior Ty Johnson rushed for a team-high 875 yards and averaged an impressive 6.4 yards per carry. Sophomore Lorenzo Harrison posted 622 rushing yards, while Jake Funk totaled four touchdown runs.

330

Senior linebacker Jermaine Carter, Jr., led the Terps in tackles for the third consecutive season, becoming just the fifth Terrapin since 1969 to achieve the feat. The three-time All-Big Ten honoree finished his career with 330 tackles and started all 37 games from 2015-17.

DJ DURKIN

Head Coach

Bowling Green '01 • 2nd Year at Maryland

The Maryland football program undoubtedly made great strides in 2016, its first year under the guidance of Head Coach DJ Durkin. The Terps doubled their win total from the prior season and garnered bowl eligibility in Durkin's first year in College Park.

Regarded as one of the brightest young coaching minds in college football, Durkin was named the 36th head football coach in Maryland history on December 2, 2015. He quickly changed the culture and brought instant energy to the program.

Durkin improved the results on the field as well. The Terps started the 2016 season 4-0 and won five of their first seven games, including a victory over Michigan State. After falling in three straight games to nationally-ranked teams, including a pair of matchups against Top 5 squads, Maryland defeated Rutgers, 31-13, in its season finale to garner bowl eligibility.

Durkin guided Maryland to its 27th bowl game all-time when the Terps faced off against Boston College in the 2016 Quick Lane Bowl, which was played at Ford Field in Detroit.

Durkin also showed his recruiting prowess by signing a consensus Top 20 class in 2017, which was his first full recruiting cycle. The class, which included 11 4-star signees and five members of the ESPN300, ranked among the best in program history. Durkin was able to land nine of the Top 20 players from the state of Maryland and three of the top nine players from Washington, D.C.

Prior to arriving in College Park, Durkin served as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at the University of Michigan, leading a nationally-renowned defensive unit that ranked fourth in the country. Under Durkin, the Wolverines limited opponents to 17.2 points per game in 2015, in addition to shutting out three consecutive opponents – the longest such streak at Michigan in 35 years.

Durkin was an outstanding recruiter in his time as an assistant. While at the University of Florida, Durkin helped land four straight top-11 recruiting classes and was named Rivals.com's 2012 Recruiter of the Year as a result. In total, Durkin contributed to the impressive recruitment of nine 5-star prospects on the defensive side during that stretch.

Durkin's immediate impact in Ann Arbor was also displayed in player development. Michigan had nine defensive All-Big Ten honorees, including a pair of first team defensive backs: Jourdan Lewis and Jabril Peppers. In addition, three Wolverines (Ryan Glasgow, Lewis and Peppers,) were named semifinalists for national defensive awards in 2015.

As the defensive coordinator at Florida from 2013-14, Durkin led the Gators to consecutive top-15 rankings in total defense with the 15th-best mark in the country in 2014 (329.0 ypg) and the eighth-best (314.2 ypg) in 2013.

Florida's 2014 team finished the year ranked in the top-10 in the nation in yards allowed per play (4.45), yards allowed per rush attempt (3.16) and yards allowed per pass attempt (5.9).

The group was highlighted by All-SEC first team selections Dante Fowler Jr., and defensive back Vernon Hargreaves, along with second-team all-conference honoree Antonio Morrison. Fowler was subsequently selected third overall in the 2015 NFL Draft by the Jacksonville Jaguars. His selection continued a stretch in which Gator defensive players were selected in the first round of three consecutive drafts.

In Durkin's first season as defensive coordinator, Florida finished first in the SEC and seventh in the country in pass defense (171.8 yards per game), sixth in first downs allowed (16.1 per game) and 15th in scoring defense (21.1 points per game), while allowing only 27 touchdowns, the sixth fewest in the nation in 2013.

Durkin's coaching paid dividends at the next level when defensive tackle Dominique Easley was drafted by the New England Patriots in the first round of the 2014 NFL Draft.

From 2010-2012, Durkin served as special team coordinator and linebackers coach at Florida and coached under current Atlanta Falcons head coach Dan Quinn. Once again, Durkin was a key contributor of a staff that helped produce an NFL first round pick when defensive tackle Shariff Floyd was taken in the first round of the 2012 NFL Draft.

As linebackers coach, Durkin tutored Jon Bostic, who finished his career as a second-team All-SEC selection and was drafted in the second round of the NFL Draft by the Chicago Bears in 2013.

Durkin's coaching on special teams helped produce punter Chas Henry, the winner of the Ray Guy Award in 2011, and kicker Caleb Sturgis, a two-time finalist for the Lou Groza Award who now plays for the Philadelphia Eagles.

Under Durkin's tutelage, Stanford's defensive ends helped the Cardinal rank 11th nationally in sacks per game in 2007 and 2009.

At Stanford, Durkin helped the Cardinal bring in their highest ranked recruiting class in eight years in 2009.

As a graduate assistant at Notre Dame from 2003-04, Durkin worked primarily with defensive ends and helped develop Notre Dame all-time sack leader, All-Pro NFL defensive end and two-time Super Bowl champion Justin Tuck.

As a player, Durkin starred at Bowling Green as a starter at defensive end and outside linebacker from 1997-2000. He led the team in sacks in 1998 and served as a team captain for two seasons. Durkin was honored with numerous team awards including the Ken Schoeni Award for character and toughness, the Carlos Jackson Award personifying the values of a student-athlete and the Leadership Award.

He earned his bachelor's degree in business marketing from Bowling Green in 2001 and his master's degree in educational administration and supervision in 2004.

A native of Youngstown, Ohio, Durkin and his wife Sarah have one daughter, Abigail, and one son, Luke.

Maryland 51, #23 Texas 41

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) - Tyrrell Pigrome passed for two touchdowns and ran for another before leaving with an injury and Maryland stunned No. 23 Texas 51-41 Saturday, spoiling new Longhorns coach Tom Herman's debut.

"I'm proud of our guys for how they hung tough and fought through adversity," said head coach DJ Durkin. "There was a lot of adversity in that game. We started not only the game, but not only our season with a pick six going the other way and just there wasn't, no one flinched on the side. There wasn't anyone who panicked, flinched. It was like, 'Okay, let's keep going about our business,' and that was kind of the mentality throughout the whole game. So very proud of that, happy about that. That's a big step for us."

Pigrome had to be helped off late in the third quarter after twisting his knee, but freshman Kasim Hill came in and led two crucial fourth-quarter touchdown drives.

Maryland (1-0) led 27-7 in the second quarter, and then held off a Texas rally to snap a 17-game losing streak to ranked opponents.

The Longhorns scored three non-offensive touchdowns: an interception return and blocked kick return by Holton Hill and a 91-yard punt return by Reggie Hemphill-Mapps. Texas had its same old problems, giving up a special teams touchdown, missed field goals and a defense that was physically battered all game and give up big plays.

Junior running back Ty Johnson totaled 132 yards on 12 carries (11.0 avg), marking his third straight 100-yard game. Wide receiver DJ Moore also had a huge day, racking up 133 yards and a touchdown on seven catches.

The Terps pounded Texas on the line of scrimmage with an impressive running game and rolled up 263 yards rushing in a huge road win for second-year coach DJ Durkin.

Maryland 63, Towson 17

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - For an encore to its upset win at Texas, Maryland lit up the scoreboard with a scoring display unlike any in the past 63 years.

D.J. Moore scored three touchdowns, true freshman Kasim Hill excelled in his starting debut and Maryland got two long TD runs from Ty Johnson in a 63-17 rout of in-state foe Towson on Saturday.

The Terrapins (2-0) scored nine touchdowns and amassed 534 yards in offense to sustain the momentum created by their season-opening 51-41 victory against the then-No. 23 Longhorns.

The 63 points were the most scored by the Terps since they crushed Missouri 74-13 in 1954. It was the first time since 1951 that Maryland reached the 50-point mark in successive games, and the first time in school history it opened the season with two straight 50-point games.

Two touchdown passes from Hill to Moore and a 74-yard run by Johnson put Maryland in front 21-0 after nine minutes, and the offense never let up.

"We came out and really started right the way we wanted to," second-year coach DJ Durkin said. "Kasim did a great job taking the job down the field."

Hill took over for injured starter Tyrrell Pigrome in the third quarter against Texas and completed his only three passes. He started 8 for 8 in this one and was 13 for 16 for 163 yards before watching the fourth quarter from the sideline.

Johnson's 46-yard touchdown run in the third quarter made it 35-7 and enabled him to become the fourth player in Maryland history to reach the 100-yard mark in four straight games. He finished with 124 yards on only five carries, a whopping 24.8-yard average.

The Terrapins outscored Towson 21-0 in the third quarter, the last TD coming on an end-around by Moore in which he broke four tackles on his way to the end zone.

UCF 38, Maryland 10

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- Maryland wide receiver DJ Moore hauled in eight receptions for 83 yards and a touchdown, but Maryland (2-1) suffered its first loss of the season, falling to UCF, 38-10, at Capital One Field at Maryland Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

The injury bug continued to take a toll on Maryland's quarterback position, as true freshman Kasim Hill left the game in the first half due to injury. Hill made his first career start against Towson in relief of Tyrrell Pigrome, who tore his ACL in the season-opener against Texas.

Third-string quarterback Max Bortenschlager completed 15-of-26 passes for 132 yards and a touchdown in the effort.

Moore's touchdown grab was the 13th of his career, moving him into a tie for 5th all-time at Maryland with Darrius Heyward-Bey and Giulian Gary.

Moore's big day wasn't enough as UCF (2-0) racked up 428 yards in total offense, including 250 rushing yards.

Sophomore running back Lorenzo Harrison III paced the Terps ground attack, rushing for 48 yards on 10 attempts.

Senior Josh Woods led the Terps defense with seven tackles, while Shane Cockerille and Tino Ellis each had two pass break-ups.

Maryland 31, Minnesota 24

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) - Ty Johnson rushed for 130 yards and a 34-yard touchdown run with 1:10 to play to lift Maryland to a 31-24 victory over Minnesota on Saturday.

Max Bortenschlager completed 18 of 28 passes for 154 yards and two touchdowns and ran for another score for the Terrapins (3-1, 1-0) to secure his first career victory as the starting signal caller. Lorenzo Harrison III added 75 yards rushing and Maryland racked up 262 yards on the ground against a Minnesota defense that was ranked No. 1 in the country against the run.

The Golden Gophers rushed for just 80 yards.

DJ Moore caught eight passes for 90 yards and a touchdown for Maryland. The score marked his 14th career touchdown reception, drawing him even with Minnesota Vikings star Stefon Diggs for fourth on Maryland's all-time receiving touchdown list.

Johnson, meanwhile, eclipsed the 100-yard rushing barrier for the third time in four games to open the season, and fifth time in his last six games.

Bortenschlager squeezed a throw in between two Gophers defenders on fourth-and-11 from the Gophers 31 in the first quarter. DJ Turner made a leaping catch for a 22-yard gain, setting up Bortenschlager's 7-yard draw for a touchdown to get Maryland on the board.

He came up big again in the fourth quarter on third-and-goal from the 4, rolling to his right and hitting a wide-open Jake Funk in the flat for a 24-17 lead. It was the first time an opponent has scored against Minnesota's defense in the second half this season.

The Gophers tied the game midway through the fourth quarter when Shannon Brooks scored with four minutes to play, but Bortenschlager gave Maryland its ninth third-down conversion of the game at the Minnesota 39 and Ty Johnson burst through the line and went untouched for the touchdown to seal the victory.

#10 Ohio State 62, Maryland 14

COLUMBUS - 10th-ranked Ohio State secured a 62-14 victory over visiting Maryland on Saturday evening at Ohio Stadium. The Buckeyes jump to 5-1 (3-0 B1G) on the season with the win, while the Terps move to 3-2 (1-1 B1G).

Junior Ty Johnson provided a standout play for the Terps in the first quarter, returning a kickoff 100 yards to make it 14-7 with 9:40 remaining. Johnson became the first Terp with a kick return for touchdown since Will Likely took one 100 yards to the house against Iowa on October 31, 2015.

Maryland's defense and special teams delivered some more highlight plays in the opening half, including a blocked field goal from senior Chandler Burkett to spoil a nearly four-minute drive from the Buckeyes. Burkett would later recover his third career fumble in the second quarter, after senior Josh Woods forced the ball out of the hands of OSU running back J.K. Dobbins.

Freshman Javon Leake notched his second career touchdown in the game, scampering 20 yards to the end zone for the rushing score.

Ohio State entered the game with the top offense in the Big Ten, and the Buckeyes capitalized on opportunities throughout the game to secure win.

Northwestern 37, Maryland 21

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- DJ Moore became just the seventh player in Maryland history to record 200 yards in a game, posting 210 yards receiving and two touchdowns, but it was not enough as the Terps fell to Northwestern 37-21 Saturday. Maryland now moves to 3-3 on the year and 1-2 in the Big Ten, while Northwestern stands at 3-3 and 1-2 in conference play.

Moore's electric playmaking ability was on display yet again at Maryland stadium, as the junior notched a career-high 12 catches for a career-best 210 yards through the air. The Philadelphia, Pa. native became just the seventh player in Maryland history to eclipse the 200-yard receiving mark in a game, and the first player to record 12 catches since Torrey Smith caught 14 balls for 240 yards against NC State in 2010.

Moore's first touchdown in the first quarter put Maryland ahead 7-0, before the Wildcats responded with a field goal and touchdown to take a lead in the second quarter.

Sophomore quarterback Max Bortenschlager would total three touchdowns on the day, tossing two to Moore and another 20-yard strike to Taivon Jacobs in the third quarter. Bortenschlager would finish with a career-high 255 yards through the air on the afternoon.

A 21-point second quarter would propel Northwestern to a 24-14 lead at half, before adding in 13 more points in the second half to seal the victory.

#5 Wisconsin 38, Maryland 13

MADISON, Wisc. - Maryland running backs Ty Johnson and Lorenzo Harrison III combined for 147 yards rushing, but the Terps were unable to upset No. 5 Wisconsin on Saturday, falling to the Badgers, 38-13, at Camp Randall Stadium.

Johnson rushed for a team-high 83 yards on 16 carries while Harrison posted 64 yards on the ground and also caught four passes for 21 yards. Senior Taivon Jacobs led Maryland with five receptions and 45 receiving yards.

Wisconsin (7-0, 4-0 B1G) rushed for 215 yards, including 126 from freshman running back Jonathan Taylor.

Maryland (3-4, 1-3) possessed the ball for much of the first quarter, but a Wisconsin pick-six early in the opening frame gave the Badgers a lead they wouldn't relinquish.

Midway through the third quarter, Terps quarterback Max Bortenschlager connected with Jacobs for a 10-yard touchdown strike that cut the Wisconsin lead to 28-10.

Senior kicker Henry Darmstadter then converted on a 45-yard field goal, his second of the day to get Maryland within two scores. The Terps would get no closer the rest of the way. Sophomore Antoine Brooks and senior Jalen Brooks led the Terps with 10 tackles each. Senior Josh Woods recorded an interception and Brett Kulka forced a fumble that Darnell Savage recovered.

GAME 8

Oct. 28, 2017

Maryland 42, Indiana 39

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- Up and down the field they went, Indiana and Maryland in a duel to see which team would outlast the other.

After accumulating 828 yards and 53 first downs, attempting 78 passes and running 153 plays, the Terrapins and Hoosiers finally walked off the field Saturday after a game that lasted nearly four hours and ended with Maryland celebrating a 42-39 victory.

Bortenschlager threw two touchdown passes, Jake Funk ran for a pair of fourth-quarter scores and Maryland outlasted Indiana to keep the Hoosiers winless in the Big Ten.

Maryland (4-4, 2-3) trailed 33-28 before rallying to snap a three-game losing streak. The comeback began with an 82-yard kickoff return by Javon Leake, and Funk put the Terrapins in front for good with a 1-yard touchdown with 14:56 remaining.

Funk scored again from the 1 with 10:14 left after Bortenschlager connected with DJ Moore for a 44-yard completion to the Indiana 17.

The Hoosiers had a punt and an extra point blocked and yielded that game-changing kickoff return to Leake. The defense couldn't handle the fleet-footed Terrapins, who got 98 yards rushing from Ty Johnson and 77 pivotal yards receiving from DJ Moore.

Safety Darnell Savage, Jr. set up a touchdown with an interception and scored on a punt he blocked.

Early on, Indiana dominated. The Hoosiers moved 75 yards on their first possession, taking a 7-0 lead on Ramsey's 34-yard touchdown pass to Cobbs.

Maryland's opening drive ended on its second play -- an interception by Tony Fields. Ramsey followed the turnover with a 23-yard pass to running back Cole Gest, who bulled through a potential tackler on his way to his first career touchdown.

Rutgers 31, Maryland 24

PISCATAWAY, N.J. - Maryland junior running back Ty Johnson scored a rushing and receiving touchdown for the first time in his career, but Rutgers mounted a fourth quarter rally to top the Terps, 31-24, Saturday afternoon at High Point Solutions Stadium.

Maryland (4-5, 2-4 B1G) held a 24-17 lead at the start of the fourth quarter, but Robert Martin scored on a 10-yard run on the first play of the final stanza to tie the game.

Rutgers (4-5, 3-3 B1G) used a Gus Edwards 23-yard touchdown catch with 7:30 remaining to take a lead it wouldn't relinquish.

The Terps drove down the field late looking to tie the game behind the play of quarterback Ryan Brand, who replaced an injured Max Bortenschlager during the final drive of the game.

Brand led a 16-play drive that got the Terps down to the Rutgers 15, but Scarlet Knight cornerback Isaiah Wharton broke up a fourth-down pass to DJ Moore in the corner of the end zone.

Moore, who has caught a pass in 30 straight games, finished with eight receptions for 75 yards. Senior Taivon Jacobs posted career-highs in catches (7) and yards (97).

Sophomore running backs Jake Funk and Lorenzo Harrison III tied for the team lead in rushing with 61 yards each. Harrison had a two-yard touchdown run late in the second quarter that gave the Terps a 17-14 halftime advantage.

No. 21 Michigan 35, Maryland 10

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- Brandon Peters threw two touchdown passes, Chris Evans ran for two scores and No. 21 Michigan (8-2, 5-2 B1G) topped Maryland, 35-10, Saturday afternoon.

Sophomore Ryan Brand threw for 136 yards and a score in his first career start for the Terps (4-6, 2-5 B1G). A walk-on, Brand began the season as the team's fifth-string quarterback, but was forced into action due to injury.

In the second half, Maryland scored on a 20-yard field goal by Henry Darmstadter and a 10-yard pass from Brand to Taivon Jacobs. Jacobs caught eight balls for 92 yards.

Running backs Ty Johnson and Lorenzo Harrison III combined for 24 carries for 148 yards. Maryland outgained the Wolverines 340 to 305.

Before the second quarter was halfway over, Michigan had a 28-0 lead thanks to Peters' passing. Peters threw touchdown passes of 33 yards to Zach Gentry and 3 yards to Sean McKeon. Henry Poggi and Evans ran for scores. Evans, who scored from a yard out in the second quarter, added a 17-yard run late in the fourth quarter.

No. 22 Michigan State 17, Maryland 7

EAST LANSING, Mich. - Max Bortenschlager threw for 121 yards as No. 22 Michigan State held off Maryland in the snow, 17-7, on Saturday.

The Spartans (8-3, 6-2 Big Ten, No. 17 CFP) rushed for 271 yards, and that was about the only way they could move the ball. Quarterback Brian Lewerke was 2 of 14 for 20 yards, and one of his completions was a shovel pass late in the third quarter.

Maryland (4-7, 2-6) wasn't much better through the air until the final period. Bortenschlager finished 13 of 25 for 121 yards. He was taken out of the game in the third quarter but came back strong at the end.

"I was proud of Max, coming back in the fourth. We were able to throw the ball and move the ball a little bit," coach DJ Durkin said. "We had some chances and we didn't execute when we needed to."

It was raining before the game, and by halftime, the teams had to deal with snow in addition to consistently windy conditions. There wasn't any real snow accumulation on the field, but both teams had problems passing. Lewerke, who threw for 400 yards in back-to-back games earlier this season, wasn't going to be the man to lead this victory.

Michigan State took a 7-0 lead with a 2-yard run in the first quarter, and scored on a 25-yard run in the second.

No. 12 Penn State 66, Maryland 3

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- Wide receiver DJ Moore hauled in eight catches for 100 yards en route to breaking Maryland's single-season reception record, but the Terps fell to No. 10 Penn State, 66-3, on Saturday afternoon.

Moore finished the season with 80 catches, breaking the Maryland single-season record on his sixth catch of the game. The record had previously been held by Geroy Simon (77) since 1994.

Moore also finished the season with 1,037 reception yards, becoming just the third player in Maryland history to reach the 1,000 yard mark, joining Marcus Badgett (1992 - 1,240) and Torrey Smith (2010 - 1,055).

Penn State's Trace McSorley threw two touchdown passes and ran for a score to help the Nittany Lions improve to 10-2 overall and 7-2 in Big Ten play.

Junior Ty Johnson led Maryland (4-8, 2-7 B1G) with 70 rushing yards on just eight carries. Johnson finished the season with 1,592 all-purpose yards - a mark that ranks seventh in Maryland single-season history.

Senior Jermaine Carter, Jr. led the Terps defense with 11 tackles. He ends the season with a team-high 90 tackles, marking his third straight season leading the team in the category. Carter finished with 329 tackles in his career.

Maryland honored its 19 seniors in a pregame ceremony.

More on Moore: DJ Moore ends his junior season with 146 career catches - a mark that ranks fifth in Maryland history. His 2,027 career reception yards makes him just the fifth player in Maryland history to achieve 2,000 career receiving yards. Moore's eight touchdowns this season rank tied for fourth in Maryland's single-season history. He ranks fourth in Maryland career history with 17 touchdown catches.
