OPENING DRIVE

Setting The Stage

The Maryland football team returns to Capital One Field at Byrd Stadium for Homecoming this week as it welcomes the Wisconsin Badgers to College Park, Md. for the first time in history. It marks the Terrapins' first game in Byrd Stadium in 35 days, when they faced Michigan on Oct. 3.

By The Numbers

Junior defensive end Yannick Ngakoue ranks second in the nation with 10.5 sacks through eight games, the eighth highest single-season mark in program history. As a team, the Terps have totaled 28.0 sacks, the program's highest total through eight games since 2000 (29.0).

17

Senior Sean Davis had a phenomenal game defensively last season against Wisconsin, leading all players with a career-high 17 tackles (14 solo). Davis needs just three more solo tackles to become the first Terp since 2005 (D'Qwell Jackson) to reach 200 for his career.

55

The Terrapins are 55-33-4 all-time in Homecoming games since the event was first notated in 1923, including a 16-0 mark between 1970-85. The Terps defeated Iowa, 38-31, in last year's Homecoming game.

220

Do-it-all junior William Likely totaled 220 kick return yards at #10 Iowa last week - the second-highest total in Maryland history (behind his own record of 228 last year vs. MSU). He had a 100-yard kick return touchdown in the game - the second KR touchdown (both 100 yards) of his career.

398

Junior quarterback Perry Hills has posted 398 rushing yards over his last three games, becoming the first Terp since Lance Ball (2005) to have three straight 100-yard rushing performances. Hills is looking to become the first Maryland player to have four straight 100-yard games since Bruce Perry had five in 2001.

ON THE OFFENSE

On The Offense

TERPS ON THE RUN

- The Maryland rushing attack is averaging 184.2 yards per game, including a pair of performances that exceeded 240 yards in two of its last three games.
- Through eight games in 2015, the Terps are averaging 5.2 yards per carry.
- Junior quarterback Perry Hills is averaging 103.4 rushing yards over his five starts this season, including a combined 398 yards over his last two games.
- Hills has posted three consecutive 100-yard rushing performances, becoming the first Maryland player to achieve the feat since Lance Ball in 2005.
- Senior Brandon Ross became just the 12th player in Maryland history to surpass the 2,000 yard milestone at No. 1 Ohio State on Oct. 10.
- Maryland has had a 100-yard rusher in four of its last five games.

Maryland Career Rushing List

1.	LaMont Jordan (1997-00)	4,147
2.	Charlie Wysocki (1978-81)	3,317
...
7.	Davin Meggett (2008-11)	2,411
8.	Da'Rel Scott (2007-10)	2,401
9.	Louis Carter (1972-74)	2,266
10.	Alvin Blount (1983-86)	2,158
11.	Willie Joyner (1980-83)	2,140
12.	Brandon Ross (2012-)	2,105

YOUTH MOVEMENT

- The Terps have been the beneficiaries of a youth movement at offensive skill positions this season, as four different true freshmen have scored a touchdown: Avery Edwards, Ty Johnson, D.J. Moore and Jahrvis Davenport.
- It is the first time in Maryland history that four true freshmen have scored a touchdown in the same season.
- Edwards and Moore are tied for the team lead with two touchdown receptions.
- Davenport caught his first career pass against West Virginia and took it 46 yards to the end zone for the touchdown.

O-LINE CONSISTENCY

- Maryland features strong consistency on the offensive line, specifically tackle Michael Dunn and guards Ryan Doyle and Andrew Zeller. The trio has combined for 96 starts over their careers along the offensive line.
- Dunn, a former walk-on, leads the offense with 33 consecutive starts.

By The Numbers

Redshirt junior Levern Jacobs and sophomore Taivon Jacobs are the only receiving tandem in the country (FBS) that are brothers. The pair has combined for 460 receiving yards and four touchdowns this season.

Junior quarterback Perry Hills has rushed for 394 yards over the last three games - the most by an FCS quarterback during that span. He is looking to become the first Maryland player since Bruce Perry (2001) to post four straight 100-yard rushing games.

The Terrapins have had a 100-yard rusher in four of their last five games, with Brandon Ross reaching 130 yards at West Virginia and Perry Hills accomplishing the feat against Ohio State, Penn State and Iowa. Overall, Maryland has a 100-yard rusher in 5-of-8 games this season.

Four different true freshmen have scored a touchdown for the Terrapins this season - a program record (Avery Edwards, Jahrvis Davenport, D.J. Moore, Ty Johnson). The last time the team had three true freshmen score a touchdown was 2011.

10

Redshirt junior wide receiver Levern Jacobs has caught a pass in 10 consecutive games that he has played in dating back to Nov. 23, 2013, against Boston College (he missed the 2014 season). He has also caught a pass in 17 of his last 18 games. He missed last week's game at Iowa due to injury.

12

Senior running back Brandon Ross ranks 12th in Maryland history with 2,105 career rushing yards. He needs just 36 yards to pass Willie Joyner (1980-83) for 11th on the all-time list.

220.3

The Terrapins are averaging 220.3 rushing yards over their last three games as an offensive unit. It is the third-highest rushing total in the Big Ten over that span behind unbeaten squads Ohio State (259.3) and Iowa (227.3).

308.5

Maryland's offensive linemen weigh an average of 308.5 pounds. The number ranks first in the Big Ten East Division and second overall behind Wisconsin (310.1).

ON THE DEFENSE/SPECIAL TEAMS

By The Numbers

Senior place kicker Brad Craddock needs just four points to become the third player in Maryland history to reach 300 career points. Nick Novak (391) and Jess Atkinson (308), both place kickers who went on to play in the NFL, are the only other Terps to accomplish the feat.

9.0

Despite totaling just nine tackles over his last two games, sophomore linebacker Jermaine Carter, Jr. ranks fourth in the Big Ten with 9.0 tackles per game. He has had at least eight tackles in 6-of-8 games this season.

11

Senior cornerback Sean Davis needs just 11 more tackles to reach 300 for his career. He would be the first Terp to reach the milestone since Demetrius Harstfield in 2012. Davis also stands at 197 career solo tackles and would be the first Terp to reach 200 since D'Qwell Jackson in 2005.

15

The Maryland defense has totaled 28.0 sacks as a team through eight games this season - the most for a Terrapin squad in 15 years (2000). The Terps rank fifth nationally and second in the Big Ten Conference with 3.5 sacks/game.

19

Junior William Likely needs just 19 punt return yards to move into third all-time on the Maryland single-season punt return yardage list. Currently sitting at 402 yards on the season, Likely has Bob Shemonski (408 - 1950) and Bob Smith (420 - 1973) in his sights.

30

Junior defensive end Yannick Ngakoue is poised to become the first Terrapin in 30 years to total 11.0 sacks in a single season. Currently sitting at 10.5 sacks on the season (2nd in the nation), he would be the first to notch 11.0 sacks since Bruce Mesner had 12.0 in 1985.

53

The Maryland defense had a strong second half against Iowa last weekend, holding the Hawkeyes to just 53 yards. Iowa was forced to punt on 4-of-5 possessions in the half, with its lone successful drive coming on a 14-yard drive that resulted in a field goal.

100

After his performance against Iowa, William Likely now has two touchdowns by way of a 100-yard kickoff return. There have been 35 100-yard returns in Maryland history, and Likely has the last two. With 220 total kick return yards in the game, Likely fell just eight yards short of his Maryland record-breaking 228-yard performance against Michigan State in 2014.

122

Junior William Likely needs just 122 more all-purpose yards to become the 12th player in Maryland history to reach 3,000 career all-purpose yards. He would become the first defensive player in Maryland history to reach the milestone.

On The Defense/Special Teams

GETTING TO THE QB

- The Maryland defense has racked up 28.0 sacks through its first eight games, ranking second in the conference and fifth nationally.
- It is the most sacks for a Terrapin defense through eight games since the 2000 team racked up 29.0 sacks. That team was aided by a 10-sack day against Duke.
- Junior defensive end Yannick Ngakoue is ranked second nationally and in the Big Ten with 1.3 sacks/g, posting 10.5 so far on the season.
- Ngakoue currently ranks tied for seventh in Maryland single-season sacks, and needs just 2.5 more sacks to tie the single-season record set by Mark Duda (1982) and Bruce Palmer (1978).

CARTER LEADS TACKLERS

- Sophomore linebacker Jermaine Carter, Jr. ranks fourth in the Big Ten Conference with 9.0 tackles/g, despite totaling just nine total tackles over his last two games.
- Carter also ranks second in the Big Ten with 6.0 solo stops per game, while Sean Davis is third in the category with 5.9/g.

EXPERIENCED SECONDARY

- Maryland's secondary has tremendous experience, featuring five players that have combined for 126 career starts: Sean Davis, A.J. Hendy, Alvin Hill, William Likely and Anthony Nixon.
- William Likely ranks fifth in the Big Ten with 1.3 pass breakups/game.
- Sean Davis leads the nation with five forced fumbles, having posted one in five of the first eight games this season. He also intercepted two passes against USF.
- The grouping of Davis, Hendy, Nixon and Likely has started all eight games this season.

IT'S GOOD

- Reigning Lou Groza Award winner Brad Craddock has made 8-of-10 field goal attempts this season, including a season-long 44-yarder against Penn State.

Highest Field Goal Pct. - Maryland Career

"Maryland has one of the most formidable return games in the country and that is because of William Likely." - Dan Dierdorf, College Football Analyst

A Likely Story

After standout freshman and sophomore seasons in College Park, many wondered what junior cornerback and return specialist William Likely would do for an encore as a junior in 2015. He quickly answered, gobbling up a Big Ten record 233 punt return yards in the season-opener against Richmond before running back his second punt return for a touchdown in as many weeks against Bowling Green. Likely has 398 punt return yards through seven games, placing him fifth on the program's single-season chart. In 2015, he has twice been named Big Ten Specialist of the Week (Week 1, Week 9) and Paul Hornung Honor Roll (Week 1, Week 3). Likely has the top-2 single-game kickoff return yardage marks in history, including a 220-yard performance at #10 Iowa that had a 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown.

Likely's Maryland records:

- Single-game punt return yards (233 vs. Richmond, 9/5/15) - also a Big Ten record
- Single-season interception return yards (170 - 2014)
- Single-season interceptions returned for TD (2 - 2014)
- Single-game kickoff return yards (228 vs. Michigan State, 11/15/14)
- Co-single-season yards per kick return (31.0, 2014)
- Co-longest kickoff return (100 yds vs. Stanford, 12/30/14, at Iowa 10/31/15)
- Current career yards per kickoff return (27.0, 2013-pres.)

MIKE LOCKSLEY

Interim Head Coach

Towson '92 • Fifth Year (10th overall) at Maryland

Mike Locksley returns for his 10th overall season at Maryland and assumed the interim head coaching duties on October 11, 2015. He is in his fifth season as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach and his 10th overall season at Maryland.

A native of Washington, D.C., Locksley returned home to rejoin the Terrapins after the 2011 season. He was an assistant coach at Maryland for six seasons (1997-2002).

During Maryland's debut campaign in the Big Ten in 2014, Locksley coordinated the highest scoring offense for the program in four seasons. The Terps averaged 28.5 points, which is the most since the team averaged 32.2 points per game in 2010.

Locksley's attack was orchestrated by quarterback C.J. Brown, who became Maryland's all-time leader in touchdowns responsible for with 58 after totaling 13 passing touchdowns and eight rushing touchdowns in 2014. Brown was one of only three players in the Big Ten to pass for over 2,000 yards and to rush for over 500.

Locksley successfully utilized the talent on the outside with wide receiver Stefon Diggs hauling in 62 passes for 792 yards and five touchdowns and earning second team All-Big Ten honors from the league's coaches and honorable mention honors from the media.

In 2013, Locksley guided an offense that eclipsed 5,000 yards (5,160) for only the fourth time in program history and the first time since 2003. The passing game excelled totaling 3,231 yards, the third-highest total in school history.

Under center, Locksley helped quarterback C.J. Brown become the first Maryland signal-caller to throw for over 2,000 yards (2,242) and rush for over 500 yards (576) in a single-season despite missing two of the team's top wide receivers in Stefon Diggs and Deon Long, who missed the final six games of the 2013 season due to injury.

Utilizing the depth at wide receiver, Locksley's unit had five players with 30 or more receptions led by Lavern Jacobs with 47 catches for 640 yards (13.6 ypc). The unit averaged 14.05 yards per catch, which tied for the 15th-highest average nationally.

In 2012, his first season back in College Park, Locksley coached five different quarterbacks, including three true freshmen and a converted linebacker after an unprecedented string of injuries hit the position.

Despite the constant shuffling at quarterback, Locksley found a way to get the ball in his playmakers' hands. Stefon Diggs led the team with 54 receptions for 848 yards (15.7 ypc), the most ever by a Maryland freshman. Diggs also caught six touchdowns and was named ACC Rookie of the Week three times.

A veteran coach with over 20 years of experience, Locksley previously spent four seasons (2005-08) as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach for the University of Illinois and two-plus years (2009-2011) as head coach at the University of New Mexico.

He possesses a well-rounded coaching resume, having tutored every offensive or defensive position except offensive line.

Locksley is also known for strong recruiting skills. He was listed as a top-25 recruiter in the nation three different times (2003, 2005, 2006) and was a finalist for 2007 recruiter of the year by Rivals.com. He also engineered top-10 recruiting classes during each of his two seasons (2003-04) as running backs coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Florida.

In Locksley's first stint as an offensive coordinator he took over an Illinois offense which was ranked No. 86 nationally in total offense (338.1 yards per game) and gradually improved it to a top-20 unit.

The Illini went from No. 72 nationally in total offense (354.6 ypg) in 2005 to No. 19 (438.3 ypg) in 2008. They led the Big Ten in rushing in 2006 (188.8 ypg) and 2007 (256.7 ypg), and in passing (269.3 ypg) in 2008. The rushing attack was twice ranked in the top-10 nationally (No. 10 in 2006; No. 5 in 2007).

Under Locksley's tutelage, quarterback Juice Williams passed for more than 6,000 yards and rushed for over 2,000 in his three years under Locksley and was a 2008 All-Big Ten choice. Williams set school records for rushing yards by a quarterback and single-season total offense. Williams led the Big Ten in passing (3,173 yards) and total offense (3,892 yards) in 2008 and was third in passing efficiency (136.15).

Wide receiver Arrelious Benn was a first team all-conference pick as a sophomore in 2008 after leading the league in receiving yards (1,055). He went on to become a second-round pick of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the 2010 NFL Draft.

The 2007 Illinois offense became just the third unit in school history to surpass the 5,000-yard mark and first to top 3,000 rushing yards. Led by Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year Rashard Mendenhall, the Illini led the league in rushing for the second straight year and finished fifth nationally at 256.7 yards a game.

Mendenhall, who averaged 129 rushing yards, was a first-round pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 2008 NFL Draft.

While at Illinois, Locksley helped develop running back Mikel Leshoure, who was taken in the second round (57th overall) of the 2011 NFL Draft by the Detroit Lions. He also mentored offensive linemen Jon Asamoah and Jeff Allen, who were both drafted by the Kansas City Chiefs. Asamoah was selected in the third round (68th overall-2010) and Allen was taken in the second round (44th overall - 2012).

Illinois played USC in the 2008 Rose Bowl and finished the season ranked 18th in the nation in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches' poll and 20th by the Associated Press following a 9-4 season.

In 2006, Locksley led an Illinois offense that paced the Big Ten and ranked 10th in the nation in rushing, averaging 188.8 yards. He tutored versatile running back Pierre Thomas, a two-time honorable mention all-league pick, who wrapped up his career as the No. 6 all-time rusher at Illinois and went on to star with the New Orleans Saints.

Locksley helped put the players in place to aid in Illinois' resurgence. He was named the No. 5 recruiter in the Big Ten and ranked among the top-20 in the nation by Sports Illustrated. In 2005, Rivals.com named him a top-25 recruiter.

Prior to his arrival at Illinois, Locksley worked two seasons for head coach Ron Zook at Florida, serving as running backs coach and recruiting coordinator and earning a pair of bowl appearances.

In 2004, Gators' running back Ciatrick Fason led the SEC and ranked 19th in the NCAA in rushing (105.6 yards a game) en route to second-team all-league honors. That season, Florida finished first in the SEC in both passing yards (271 per game) and total offense (426.9 ypg) and was second in scoring (31.8 points per game).

The year prior, three Gator rushers logged more than 500 rushing yards and each averaged at least 5.5 yards per carry.

Locksley had success both recruiting and grooming players in his first stint in College Park. He oversaw the running backs during his entire tenure, including the final five as recruiting coordinator.

Three different running backs - Chris Downs, Bruce Perry and LaMont Jordan - gained more than 1,000 yards and were named first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference.

Jordan spearheaded a 1999 rushing attack that led the ACC (234.1 ypg) and ranked 12th in the nation. Jordan was the runner-up for 1997 ACC Rookie of the Year and finished as a Doak Walker semifinalist. He was selected in the second round of the 2001 NFL Draft and totaled more than 3,700 yards for four teams in a nine-year professional career.

Perry was the 2001 ACC Offensive Player of the Year, a first for a Maryland running back, and the first sophomore to win the award. Both Perry and Jordan earned All-America honors under Locksley's watch.

Locksley played safety at Towson University, where he was the team's defensive MVP as a senior in 1991. He finished his career ranked 19th on the school's all-time tackles list and graduated with a bachelor's degree in business administration and marketing.

GAME 1 RECAP: RICHMOND

LIKELY SHINES IN TERPS' SEASON-OPENING WIN

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - William Likely set a Big Ten record with 233 yards in punt returns and Brandon Ross ran for career-high 150 yards and one touchdown as Maryland rolled to a season-opening 50-21 victory over Richmond on Saturday.

Perry Hills threw two touchdown passes for the Terrapins, who scored 37 straight points after falling behind 14-13 in the second quarter.

Likely returned eight punts, including a 67-yarder for a touchdown that made it 43-14 with 10:30 remaining. He had another return of 47 yards.

The 5-foot-7 junior also had two kickoff returns for 63 yards, giving him 296 yards in kick returns for the afternoon.

Ross averaged 8.3 yards per carry and put Maryland up 29-14 with a 21-yard TD run early in the third quarter. He eclipsed his previous career high of 149 yards before the quarter ended.

Making his first start since 2012, Hills completed 12 of 21 passes for 138 yards and an interception. The junior wasn't exceptionally sharp, but he didn't have to be because the Terrapins totaled 341 yards on the ground.

Richmond's Kyle Lauletta went 18 for 30 for 220x yards. The Spiders mustered only 56 yards rushing, and Lauletta was sacked four times.

After Maryland took a quick 10-0 lead, Richmond went ahead 14-13 on a 4-yard run by Lauletta with 10:35 left in the second quarter.

Hills then directed a 12-play drive that produced a field goal by Brad Craddock, and a 37-yard touchdown catch by Malcolm Culmer made it 22-14 at halftime.

Ross scored the only touchdown of the third quarter, and a 1-yard touchdown run by Wes Brown made it 36-14.

Maryland then forced a punt, and Likely weaved his way through the Richmond defense before getting to the left sideline and diving into the end zone.

His 233-yard performance on punt returns broke the record set by Nile Kinnick of Iowa in 1939.

With the victory, Maryland improved to 5-0 in openers under coach Randy Edsall. The Terrapins have won six straight season openers and 11 of 12.

MARYLAND FALLS TO BOWLING GREEN

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Junior William Likely returned a punt for a touchdown for the second straight week, but Maryland fell to Bowling Green, 48-27, for its first loss of the season Saturday afternoon at Capital One Field at Byrd Stadium.

Likely's 85-yard punt return is tied for the second longest punt return in school history, matching the 85-yarder by Tony Logan against Florida International in 2010. The school record for the longest punt return belongs to Dick Nolan, who returned a punt 90 yards against Clemson in 1953.

Senior Brad Craddock added a pair of first half field goals to give the Terps (1-1) a 13-6 lead over Bowling Green (1-1) at the half.

After a 55-minute weather delay pushed back the start of the third quarter, a 58-yard TD pass from Matt Johnson to Roger Lewis tied the game at 13-13 less than three minutes into the second half.

Maryland responded with a big play of its own to go back in front 20-13 when junior Perry Hills hooked up with D.J. Moore on a slant that the true freshman took 42 yards to the end zone.

The Terps looked to have stopped Bowling Green on its ensuing drive when Alvin Hill picked off a Johnson pass in the end zone, but an offside penalty on the Terps gave the Falcons a first-and-goal opportunity that Travis Greene converted into a score on the very next play to tie things at 20-20.

Bowling Green outscored the Terps 28-7 in the fourth quarter to earn the victory in the team's first-ever meeting.

Johnson completed eight of 10 throws in the final frame, posting 134 yards and four touchdowns in the fourth quarter.

After the Falcons took their first lead of the game less than a minute into the fourth quarter, Maryland answered back with an 8-play, 75-yard scoring drive that was capped by a 22-yard TD pass from Hills to junior Levern Jacobs.

The Terrapins struggled down the stretch, turning the ball over on their final three drives.

Hills finished the game completing 15 of 30 passes for 150 yards and two touchdowns, while also compiling 94 yards on the ground on eight rushes.

Junior Yannick Ngakoue posted a career-high three sacks, while senior Sean Davis finished the game with 14 tackles to pace the Maryland defense.

Defensive end Yannick Ngakoue posted a career-high and team season-high 3.0 sacks versus Bowling Green.

GAME 3 RECAP: USF

ROWE THROWS FOR 4TDs IN WIN OVER USF

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Caleb Rowe threw for 297 yards and four touchdowns in his first start since 2013, and Maryland notched a 35-17 victory over South Florida on Saturday.

Despite throwing three interceptions, the junior completed 21 of 33 passes and provided enough big plays to help the Terrapins (2-1) finish with 411 yards in offense.

Rowe threw touchdown passes of 12 and 22 yards to Avery Edwards; connected with Taivon Jacobs for a 70-yard score and hit Kenneth Goins Jr. for a 1-yard TD.

Maryland fumbled three times and totaled 12 penalties for 120 yards, but South Florida (1-2) also had its share of miscues -- including two turnovers, a dropped potential touchdown pass, a holding call that wiped out a touchdown run, and a personal foul penalty that erased a fourth-quarter first down when the score was 28-17.

USF quarterback Quinton Flowers went 10 for 19 for 60 yards with a touchdown pass and an interception. He was replaced for a series in the fourth quarter by Steve Bench, who was 0 for 3 with a pick.

The game turned late in the first half after South Florida used a 12-play drive to get a field goal and close to 14-10.

Starting at his own 34 with 52 seconds left, Rowe completed passed of 10 and 49 yards to Levern Jacobs. On first-and-goal at the USF 2, Rowe botched a pitch to Brandon Ross, who picked up the ball and took it into the end zone with 10 seconds remaining.

Maryland opened the second half with 45-yard kickoff return by Ty Johnson. Five plays later, Edwards made an excellent over-the-shoulder catch of a Rowe pass in the end zone for a 28-10 lead.

That proved to be enough to assure the Terrapins their second victory of the season.

Maryland's opening drive ended when USF's Devin Abraham returned an interception 42 yards, setting up a 4-yard touchdown pass from Flowers to Rodney Adams.

Rowe bounced back to direct a 59-yard drive, capped by a TD pass to Goins. Then, on the last play of the quarter, Rowe connected with Jacobs deep on the right sideline for a 70-yard score.

Last year, South Florida led Maryland in the fourth quarter before falling 24-17. In this one, the Terrapins took control much earlier and breezed through the final 15 minutes.

Wide receiver Levern Jacobs caught eight passes for 107 yards - his third career 100-yard performance.

ROSS RUNS WELL IN LOSS TO WVU

MORGANTOWN, W. Va. - Senior Brandon Ross ran for 130 yards on 15 carries, but the Maryland football team fell, 45-6, to West Virginia Saturday afternoon.

The Terrapins (2-2) drove into West Virginia (2-0) territory multiple times, but were unable to capitalize. The Mountaineers jumped out to an early lead to clinch the victory.

Ross ran 55 yards to the West Virginia 1 late in the second quarter. Ross was ruled down before he fumbled out of the end zone, but the call was overturned and West Virginia took possession on the resulting touchback.

Caleb Rowe started the game, but was replaced late in the third quarter by Daxx Garman who got Maryland on the board with a 46-yard scoring toss to Jarvis Davenport.

Ross ran for 129 yards in the first half on 12 carries (10.8 yards/rush). It was the most rushing yards in the first half for a Maryland player since Josh Allen ran for 154 yards on Nov. 11, 2013.

Maryland returns to action next Saturday against Michigan. Kickoff from Capital One Field at Byrd Stadium is scheduled for 8 p.m., and the game can be seen live on BTN.

Running back Brandon Ross ran for 129 yards in the first half en route to his seventh career 100-yard game.

TERPS DROP BIG TEN OPENER TO #22 MICHIGAN

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Michigan scored three second-half touchdowns en route to a 28-0 victory over Maryland Saturday afternoon in front of a sell-out crowd of 51,802 at Capital One Field at Byrd Stadium.

The 22nd-ranked Wolverines won their fourth straight game to improve to 4-1 and 1-0 in Big Ten play. The Terps (2-3, 0-1) dropped consecutive regular season games for the first time since 2013.

Maryland's defense was stout throughout the opening 15 minutes of play, limiting the Wolverines to just 41 total yards, with just nine of those coming on the ground.

The Terrapins had a chance to take the lead following a fumble recovery by Sean Davis with 1:36 left in the first, but a Caleb Rowe interception stifled the scoring opportunity as a screen pass went through the hands of Brandon Ross.

Michigan led 6-0 at halftime before pulling away with two third quarter touchdowns. After Jake Rudock connected with Drake Johnson for a 31-yard score, wide receiver Jehu Chesson took an inside handoff and sprinted down the left sideline for a 66-yard touchdown to make it 21-0.

Ross finished with 44 yards on the ground for the Terps, leaving him just 13 yards shy of 2,000 career rushing yards. Jermaine Carter Jr. led Maryland with eight tackles, while Quinton Jefferson posted a sack, forced fumble and his first career interception.

Defensive tackle Quinton Jefferson forced a fumble and caught his first career interception vs. Michigan.

GAME 6 RECAP: OHIO STATE

DESPITE STRONG START, TERPS FALL AT #1 OHIO STATE

COLUMBUS, Ohio - Perry Hills set a new program quarterback record with 170 rushing yards but the Maryland football team fell, 49-28, to No. 1 Ohio State on Saturday.

Hills rushed for two touchdowns and threw for another one, a 52-yard pass to D.J. Moore in the first quarter. The junior finished the afternoon with 133 passing yards.

The game swung in the Terrapins' favor when Ohio State missed a 44-yard field goal with 1:12 remaining in the first half. On the first play from scrimmage, Hills broke loose for a 75-yard scamper through the heart of the Buckeye defense. Hills then finished the drive with a 3-yard rush into the endzone to draw the Terps within a touchdown, 21-14, heading into halftime.

The Terps carried their momentum into the second half, capping off a 9-play, 69-yard drive with a 4-yard Hill touchdown rush to tie the game, 21-21.

The stardom of the Buckeyes (6-0, 2-0 Big Ten) and running back Ezekiel Elliott (2 TD's) proved too much for the Terrapins (2-4, 0-2) as they shook free in the second half and extended their nation's best winning streak to 19. Ohio State has won 26 straight regular-season conference games.

Ohio State coach Urban Meyer juggled his quarterbacks, using Jones to start drives and Barrett to finish them. Jones threw a 19-yard TD pass to Braxton Miller and connected on a 48-yarder to Jalin Marshall.

Trailing, 49-21, late in the game, Maryland used six plays and a 1-yard Wes Brown touchdown run to finish the scoring.

GAME 7 RECAP: PENN STATE

TERPS RALLY FALLS SHORT vs. PENN STATE

BALTIMORE, Md. - A 27-yard touchdown pass early in the fourth quarter by Christian Hackenberg lifted Penn State to a 31-30 victory over Maryland Saturday afternoon in front of 68,948 at M&T Bank Stadium.

Penn State improves to 6-2 overall and 3-1 in the Big Ten, while Maryland falls to 2-5 on the year and 0-3 in league play.

Maryland led in the fourth quarter after junior Perry Hills directed an 88-yard march that ended with a 10-yard touchdown pass to DeAndre Lane, making it 27-24. The touchdown reception was the first in Lane's career.

Hills ran for 128 yards and completed 19 of 28 passes for 225 yards. He's the first Terp to run for 100 yards in consecutive games since C.J. Brown accomplished the feat in 2011.

Penn State regained the lead, 31-27, with 13:39 left when Hackenberg hit Geno Lewis.

Maryland cut the gap with a field goal to make it 31-30, but the Terps committed turnovers on three of their final four possessions to come up short.

Defensive end Yannick Ngakoue totaled his eighth and ninth sacks of the season in defeat.

TERPS FALL AT #10 IOWA, 31-15

IOWA CITY - Junior William Likely returned a kickoff 100 yards for a score in the fourth quarter, but the Maryland football team fell, 31-15, to No. 10 Iowa at Kinnick Stadium Saturday afternoon.

Maryland quarterback Perry Hills ran for 104 yards on 19 carries, his third straight contest with at least 100 yards on the ground. The junior also tossed a touchdown pass.

Iowa used a touchdown late in the second quarter to lead 21-0 at halftime.

Maryland got within 21-7 early in the fourth quarter on a 7-yard TD pass from Hills to Taivon Jacobs.

Marshall Koehn's 49-yard field goal pushed Iowa's cushion back to 17 with 11 minutes left. The Terps quickly drove deep into Iowa territory, but the Terrapin drive stalled.

Likely took the subsequent kickoff back for a score, and the Terps tacked on a two-point conversion to make it a two-score game, but Iowa was able to run out the clock.

Junior Yannick Ngakoue recorded 1.5 sacks to improve his season total to 10.5. Junior Quinton Jefferson tied his career high with 3.0 TFL.

Junior William Likely scored a 100-yard kickoff return touchdown to cap off his 220-yard kick return day - the second-highest single-game mark in Maryland history.
