SETTING THE STAGE

No. 1 Ohio State (5-0, 1-0 Big Ten) returns home this Saturday when it plays host to the Maryland Terrapins (2-3, 0-1) in its Big Ten home opener. Kickoff is scheduled for Noon ET and will be televised on BTN and BTN2Go.

The Buckeyes are coming off a 34-27 win at Indiana while the Terrapins fell to No. 22 Michigan, 28-0, at home last Saturday. The Buckeyes and Terrapins are meeting for just the second time after Ohio State won the inaugural meeting, 52-24, last season in College Park, Md.

EZEKIEL, ADOLPHUS & TYQUAN HEADLINE CHAMPS

Ohio State's champions versus Indiana included offensive player of the game Ezekiel Elliott, co-defensive players of the game Tyquan Lewis and Adolphus Washington, and special team's player of the game Joe Burger. Champions for the week also included Michael Thomas, Braxton Miller, Corey Smith, Dontre Wilson, Pat Elflein and Billy Price on offense, and Joey Bosa, Tommy Schutt, Vonn Bell, Gareon Conley, Joshua Perry, Raekwon McMillan and Darron Lee on defense.

ELLIOTT NAMED B1G OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Junior RB Ezekiel Elliott was named the Big Ten's offensive player of the week Oct. 5 after his memorable performance in the road win at Indiana.

Elliott rushed for 274 yards (second-most in the FBS for a game this season) and scored three second-half touchdowns – of 55-, 65- and 75-yards – to spark Ohio State to a 34-27 win over undefeated Indiana in Bloomington, Ind. Elliott's 55-yard touchdown with 9 minutes to go in the third gave Ohio State its first lead of the game at 13-10. After IU countered with a touchdown, Elliott took off on a 65-yard score to give the Buckeyes the lead for good. His 75-yard run with just over 10 minutes to play in the fourth quarter capped Ohio State's scoring and gave the Buckeyes a 34-20 lead.

Elliott's total tied for the second-most in school history with Keith Byars (274 vs. Illinois in 1984) and trails only the 314-yard game by Eddie George in 1995 vs. Illinois. Elliott's 243 second-half yards are a school record for a half, topping the 195 yards Byars gained in the second half vs. Illinois. And according to ESPN Stats and Info, Elliott also is the only player in the last 10 years to have three 50-plus yard touchdown runs in one half.

Elliott, who averaged a school-record 11.9 yards per carry vs. Indiana (23 carries for 274 yards and three TDs), has now gained 729 yards rushing this season and is averaging 145.8 yards per game, figures that rank fifth and sixth, respectively, in the nation. Elliott is tied for the national lead with four runs of 50-or-more yards, a total that includes an 80-yard touchdown run vs. Virginia Tech.

A GLANCE AT MARYLAND

Maryland enters Saturday's game at Ohio Stadium with a 2-3 record overall and 0-1 in the Big Ten after falling to Michigan, 28-0, at home last Saturday. Maryland started the season with a 50-21 win over Richmond before falling to Bowling Green (48-27) and defeating USF (35-17). The Terrapins also fell on the road at West Virginia (45-6) before Big Ten play.

Maryland leads the Big Ten in punt returns with a 24.0 average as a team, led by William Likely who has returned two for TDs already this season. Maryland also ranks second in QB sacks with 19, led by Yannick Ngakoue who has 6.5 on the season. Quinton Jefferson also ranks among the conference leaders with 5.5 sacks per game while Jermaine Carter is tied with Ohio State's Raekwon McMillan with 54 total tackles on the year.

Offensively, Maryland comes in averaging 23.6 points per game while giving up 31.8 to the opposition. QB Caleb Rowe has taken a majority of the snaps from under center and is 40-91 for 428 yards to go along with four TD passed and 12 INTs. Brandon Ross has been the leading man on the ground with 402 yards on 73 carries with 2 TDs. Levern Jacobs is the leading receiver with 196 yards on 18 catches and 2 TDs.

Randy Edsall is in his fifth season as Maryland's head coach with a 22-33 record. He is 96-103 overall in his career after spending the previous 12 seasons at UConn, where he compiled 74-70 mark with five bowl appearances.

THREE 20-GAME WIN STREAKS FOR MEYER

In 2013 Urban Meyer became the first head coach at the highest level of the collegiate coaching ranks (major college, Division I, FBS, etc.) to have three winning streaks of at least 20 games -- and he's knocking on the door of a fourth with a current 18-game streak heading into Saturday's game with Maryland followed by a road game at Rutgers. A total of 41 head coaches at this level have lead a team to a winning streak of at least 20 games. Nine of those coaches have had two winning streaks of at least 20 wins. Meyer is the first to add a third such winning streak to his name.

JOHNSTON NO. 2 CAREER PUNTS I-20

With his three punts downed inside the 20 yard line vs. Western Michigan, punter Cameron Johnston has moved into second place on Ohio State's all-time list and now has 65 career downed punts I-20. The Ohio State record is 78 by A.J. Trapasso from 2005-08.

BUCKEYES SET RECORD WITH SEVENTH CONSECUTIVE 40-POINT GAME

With the 42-point performance in the win at Virginia Tech to open the season, Ohio State set a school record with at least 40 points in six consecutive games dating to last season -- a first in Ohio State football history. The streak was snapped in a 38-0 win over Hawai'i.

TD PASS STREAK SNAPPED, TIED SCHOOL RECORD

Dating to the 2013 season and including quarterbacks Braxton Miller, Kenny Guiton, J.T. Barrett and Cardale Jones in the mix, Ohio State QBs had thrown a touchdown pass in 24 consecutive games.

That streak ended, however, in a 38-0 win over Hawai'i Sept. 12 when the Buckeyes rushed for four TDs and scored a defensive TD. The TD pass streak tied for the longest in school history with the Buckeye teams from 1994-96.

J.T. Barrett threw a TD in all 12 regular-season games in 2014 before his injury and Cardale Jones threw at least one in his first four career starts. Only four times – 2014, 1997, 1995 and 1979 – has an Ohio State team had TD passes in every game during the season.

MILLER HONORED

Braxton Miller, who hadn't played in a game for the Ohio State Buckeyes in 20 months, returned in spectacular fashion as a hybrid-back against Virginia Tech, amassing 140 all-purpose yards and two touchdowns to spark the No. 1-ranked Buckeyes to a 42-24 win. The effort earned the already-graduated Miller the Big Ten Conference's offensive player of the week award in week one. He also was awarded the Paul Hornung Award player of the week, the trophy awarded annually to the most versatile player in major college football.

Miller scored two third-quarter touchdowns that pulled Ohio State from a 17-14 deficit into a 28-17 lead. He broke a tackle along the Ohio State sidelines and cruised 54 yards for the first receiving touchdown of his career to make the score 21-17 on the Buckeyes' first drive of the second half.

And then with just over two minutes to go in the third, Miller took the snap from center, sprinted to his left, found a narrow seam and with two guys approaching spun 360-degrees to elude the tackles and raced into the end zone to give the Buckeyes a 28-17 lead.

Miller finished the game with 140 all-purpose yards and a 17.5-yards-per touch average. His evening included two receptions for 78 yards and six rushes for 62 yards.

MILLER BREAKS TDS RECORD

Braxton Miller's two scores vs. Virginia Tech gave him 86 career touchdowns responsible for (scored TDs and TD passes) to break the record of 85 held by Art Schlichter from 1978-81.

Miller has 33 rushing, 52 passing and one receiving TD in his Buckeye career.

TWO 50-YARD TDS BY MILLER

The two 50-yard scores by Braxton Miller against Virginia Tech represented the first time a Buckeye scored on a 50-yard run and a 50-yard pass play in the same game since Ted Ginn, Jr., in the 2006 Fiesta Bowl. Like Miller, Ginn scored back-to-back, first a 56-yard pass from Troy Smith in the first quarter before his 68-yard run early in the second quarter.

BUCKEYES SET YARDS PER PLAY RECORD

Ohio State amassed 572 yards off 56 plays in the win at Virginia Tech, averaging 10.2 yards per play and setting an Ohio State record in the process. The previous record was 10.0 yards per play, set last season in the Big Ten title game vs. Wisconsin.

Ohio State rushed for 360 yards on the ground on just 37 attempts, for an average of 9.7 yards per rush -- second best in the Ohio State record books after recording 10.5 yards per rush in 2013 at Illinois.

JOHNSTON NAMED BIG SPECIAL TEAMS PLAYER OF THE WEEK - SEPT. 28

Junior punter Cameron Johnston was recognized by the Big Ten after week 4 for his outstanding play vs. Western Michigan.

Johnston repeatedly put Western Michigan's offense in a tough position by averaging 51.5 yards off four punts with three of them inside the 20 and two of those inside the 10 (at the 1 and 8 yard lines; his other 120 was downed at the 13). The Buckeyes gave up zero punt return yards on the day for a fine 51.5 net average per punt. Johnston now has 64 punts downed 120 for his career, a mark that is second in Ohio State history to A.J. Trapasso who had 78 from 2005-08.

14 WINS: TIED FOR MOST AT OHIO STATE

Urban Meyer not only led Ohio State to the most victories over a three-year span -- 38 between 2012-14 -- but his team's 14 wins last season tied for the most in a single season with the 2002 team's 14 wins on its way to the national championship that year.

14 -- 2002 (Jim Tressell)

FOUR 13-WIN SEASONS FOR MEYER

Urban Meyer has four 13+ win seasons on his coaching resume: 2006, 2008, 2009 and 2014 (14 wins). He is the only major college coach since the NCAA began tracking statistics in 1937 to have four seasons of at least 13 wins.

ELLIOTT: FIRST WITH BACK-TO-BACK 200s

Last season Ezekiel Elliott became the first Buckeye running back in Ohio State history to rush for 200-or-more yards in consecutive games. The sophomore gashed Wisconsin, and it's No. 8 rush defense, for 220 yards on 20 carries in the Big Ten championship game, and then he came back to rush for a second consecutive career best with 230 yards on 20 carries against Alabama and its No. 2 rated rush defense.

But he didn't stop there, as Elliott put Ohio State on his back in the national championship game vs. Oregon, recording career highs of four touchdowns on 36 carries for 246 yards. He did not have a negative rush in that game. All told, Elliott rushed for 696 yards on 76 attempts (9.2 ypc) and scored eight touchdowns in the three postseason games.

MORE RUSHING NUMBERS ...

Ohio State's rushing game had produced a touchdown in 26 consecutive games until the streak was snapped Sept. 19 vs. NIU. Ohio State has now scored a rushing TD in 44 of 46 games coached by Urban Meyer. The only other game Ohio State did not score a rushing touchdown under Meyer: the 2013 Wisconsin game when Braxton Miller threw four touchdown passes in the 31-24 win.

The Buckeyes have featured one of the most potent rushing attacks in the country since Coach Meyer's arrival and most notably since the start of 2013, averaging 279.0 yards per game on the ground, third best among Power 5 conference schools. Ohio State's 6.3 yards per rush during that time frame ranks second only to Wisconsin (6.5).

Tatum is joined in the defensive backfield by Ronnie Lott of USC, Deion Sanders, from Florida State, and Michigan's Charles Woodson.

Ohio State offensive lineman John Hicks is represented on the FWAA's second-team with the rest of the unit consisting of Bill Fralic (Pittsburgh), Calvin Jones (Iowa), Jonathan Ogden (UCLA) and Chuck Bednarik (Penn).

Linebacker Chris Spielman is a third-team All-America linebacker alongside Jack Ham, from Penn State, and Lee Roy Jordan, of Alabama.

2012 – 12-0 & 8-0 in Big Ten Leaders Div.
2013 – 12-2 & 8-0 in Big Ten Leaders Div.
2014 – 12-1 & 8-0 Big Ten Champion

SIX CHOSEN TO CAPTAIN THE 2015 BUCKEYES

Six Buckeyes were selected by vote of their teammates to serve as captains for the 2015 Ohio State football team: senior center Jacoby Boren, senior left tackle Taylor Decker, fifth-year graduate H-B Braxton Miller, senior linebacker Joshua Perry, fourth-year graduate Tyvis Powell and third-year junior J.T. Barrett. Team members voted for captains and head coach Urban Meyer introduced them to the team after practice on Aug. 28.

Miller becomes just the ninth player in Ohio State history to be named a two-time team captain. He also served as a 2014 captain and was one of eight game captains in 2013.

MEYER CONTRACT EXTENDED THROUGH 2020 SEASON

The contract for Urban Meyer was extended through the year 2020 in April and will make him the highest paid coach in the Big Ten Conference in terms of annual compensation. Meyer's previous contract ran through the 2017 season and would have paid him $4.9 million for 2015. The new terms and extension, retroactive to Feb. 1, 2015, give Meyer a six-year contract through the 2020 season with an end date of Jan. 31, 2021. Meyer will make $5.8 million in total compensation for 2015 and, with annual raises, will average at least $6.5 million per year over the next six years.

MEYER INSTITUTES "REAL LIFE" WEDNESDAYS

Winning games, competing for championships and developing outstanding young men to succeed in life is what Urban Meyer came home to Ohio to do as coach of the Buckeyes. The wins and championships are well documented. The efforts that Meyer and his staff engage their student-athletes in to ensure they are prepared for life after football are equally important and impressive.

Wednesday afternoons in the winter and spring are a time for guest speakers – CEOs, wealth management experts, professional athletes, senior leaders from athletics, national media and former Buckeyes – to address the team in a life experiences forum initiated by Meyer called "Real Life Wednesdays." A month after Ohio State's championship game win, JPMorgan Chase & Company chairman and CEO Jamie Dimon visited and addressed the team on leadership.

Dimon's discussion with the team was the first this year of about a dozen such lectures and activities for the Ohio State players to learn from in the program. The goal each year is to introduce the team to influential individuals who can share insight into succeeding in life after football is over. Other speakers typically address the job interview process, finances, starting and building a successful business, parenting and other career endeavors.

INTERNSHIPS & JOB FAIRS

The players continue to develop their minds and portfolios for life after football. Everyone gets a binder and prepares or updates their resumes. The month of May is an opportunity for internships for juniors and seniors – 23 players completed an internship last year – and there have been field trips to various businesses that interest the players.

Additional speakers will come through the Woody Hayes Athletic Center to speak during a spring practice or at a team meeting. Past guests have included Lou Holtz, NFL coaches Marvin Lewis, Chip Kelly and Greg Schiano, NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell, Ohio Governor John Kasich, Columbus Mayor Michael Coleman, Big Ten Commissioner Jim Delany and retired Navy SEAL and “Lone Survivor” Marcus Luttrell.

The third-annual football Job Fair took place on May 29. More than 50 companies across all sectors, including hospitality, law enforcement, broadcasting, medical sales, athletic administration, finance and business, will send human resource representatives to meet with and ask questions of the Buckeye student-athletes. Contacts are made. Relationships are built. Life after football is in motion.

Ohio State head coach Urban Meyer is building the kind of resume – three national championships and an 11-victory per year pace for his entire 13-year career – that has him positioned among the best collegiate coaches. Ever. His winning ways and his team's achievements are at or near the top of all the major collegiate coaching records. Consider:

- In leading Ohio State to the 2014 national championship for his third national title – he won titles in 2006 and 2008 at Florida – Meyer became part of an elite group of two coaches in history to win national titles at two different schools.
- He is the only coach to win national championships in two different conferences.
- He has the highest winning percentage (.849; 147-26) among active FBS coaches.
- He has the third-highest winning percentage all-time among FBS college coaches.
- He has the eighth-highest winning percentage all-time among all coaches with at least 10 seasons at a Division I school with only two other Power Five school coaches – Notre Dame's Knute Rockne and Frank Leahy – ahead of him.
- Meyer is the first coach in modern history – since 1937 when the NCAA began keeping records – to win at least 13 games in consecutive years (in 2008 and 2009), three times (2006-08-09) and four times (2006-08-09 at Florida and 2014 at Ohio State).
- He is second in the history of college football with four 13-plus win seasons (tied with Penn's George Woodruff), trailing only Walter Camp's five from 1888-92.
- Meyer is the only coach in major college history to have three different winning streaks of at least 20 games (22 at Florida; 20 with Utah/Florida; 25 with Florida and Ohio State). Only nine coaches have had two winning streaks of at least 20 games.
- Meyer won more games his first 10 years - 104 - than all but two coaches in college football history.
- He reached 100 wins faster than all but one coach – Bud Wilkinson – in the last 57 years and faster than all but five coaches all-time.
- He is on a pace to have the most victories as a head coach after his first 15 seasons and to reach 200 victories faster than any other coach.

Meyer, who is in his 30th season as a collegiate coach, is married to the former Shelley Mather. The couple are proud parents to daughters Nicki (a 2013 graduate of Georgia Tech) and GiGi (a 2015 graduate of Florida Gulf Coast) and a son, Nate (a high school sophomore in 2015-16).
