The Foster Farms Bowl would not be possible without the generous support of our sponsors - namely our title sponsor, family-owned Foster Farms, based in California's Central Valley.

From its humble beginnings in 1939, when founders Max and Verda Foster started the company with a single turkey ranch in Modesto, California, Foster Farms is now the No. 1 brand of fresh and frozen chicken in the Western United States. Celebrating 75 years of business, the company remains family-owned and operated to this day. The Foster Farms Bowl continues the poultry producer's longstanding tradition of fighting hunger and providing families an incredible variety of delicious, wholesome chicken and turkey products.

Home cooks throughout the West consider Foster Farms their poultry of choice. Specializing in 100 percent All Natural, locally grown fresh chicken and turkey products with no added hormones or steroids, or sodium enhancers. The company is an advocate for locally grown foods: all Foster Farms fresh chicken is produced in or near each region it serves and delivered fresh to the store in 48 hours or less. The company is committed to raising its chickens humanely and became the first major poultry producer in the U.S. to earn humane certification from American Humane Association in 2012. This year, Foster Farms committed to the most stringent food safety standards in the poultry industry, making a $75 million investment towards producing the safest chicken on the West.

For gameday and everyday, Foster Farms serves up Amazing Chicken, in many fan favorite varieties that are perfect for feeding a crowd, including Wings, Nuggets, Crispy Strips, Buffalo Bites, and Orange Chicken just

LEVI'S® STADIUM

Levi's® Stadium opened this past August, incorporating groundbreaking in-stadium technology and adding another industry that has been greatly influenced by the innovation of our region.

Levi's® Stadium captures the best technology found in Silicon Valley by allowing fans to create their own experience inside its friendly confines. Instead of focusing on hardware that will become obsolete over time, Levi's® Stadium leverages the brilliant companies who create personal mobile devices for its customers, such as tablets and smartphones. The focus is on insuring fans have full connectivity within the stadium, providing them the unique ability to get inside the game like no other venue allows.

Levi's® Stadium is functionally green. It is the first stadium in North America designed to be net neutral to the grid. It is also the first college or professional football stadium with LEED Gold Certification.

Levi's® Stadium is a showcase for innovation in the Silicon Valley through partnerships with local, national and international technology providers that deliver world-class WiFi capability, mobile connectivity, IPTV, digital displays, HD scoreboard and video displays. Guests at Levi's® Stadium enjoy free WiFi throughout the stadium. When a fan is in his or her seat, they will never be more than 10 feet away from a WiFi signal.

Over 400 miles of data cable has been run in the stadium, including 70 miles of cable to support WiFi.

Featuring over 45,000 seats, Levi's® Stadium lower bowl is roughly two thirds of the stadium's capacity. The seating is designed this way to bring the majority of the fans closer to the field. The design also eliminates the traditional club mezzanine level, bringing fans sitting in the upper deck lower to the field.

Levi's® Stadium features 25,000 parking spaces located within a short walking distance from the stadium. Tailgating is an integral part of the game day/night experience in Santa Clara.

The first level of the stadium features open pedestrian plazas, retail and community space, plus the 49ers team store and museum and the Edward J. DeBartolo Sr. 49ers Hall of Fame.

The main entry, Intel Plaza at the northwest corner of Levi's® Stadium, is open to the public year-round. In the northeast corner, Toyota Plaza will be the main entry for guests of Michael Mina's Steak & Pub Restaurant. Dignity Health Plaza at the southwest corner of the stadium will be another primary entry gate for fans on game/event days.

Concourses at Levi's® Stadium are among the widest of any football venue and have more than 600 concession points of sale, allowing for easy pedestrian access and creating a more pleasant, less congested atmosphere around vendors. Concourses also feature open field views so fans can watch the game even while they are purchasing refreshments.

Levi's® Stadium is also the home of Super Bowl 50, the golden anniversary of the NFL's pinnacle game and one of the most viewed sporting events around the world. That takes place in February 2016.

Guests are encouraged to take public transportation to Levi's® Stadium. Valley Transportation Authority [VTA] provides bus and light rail transportation to the greater San Jose area reaching Mountain View, Cupertino and Sunnyvale. For more information, please visit www.vta.org.

Caltrain provides services from San Francisco to South San Jose with stops all along the Peninsula. On game/event days, Caltrain transports passengers from all locations to connect with VTA light rail trains or buses at the Mountain View Transit Center, located at Evelyn Avenue and Castro Street. For more information, please visit www.caltrain.com

Levi's® Stadium also features a number of parking options. For more information, please visit www.levisstadium.com

LOCAL BAY AREA RELIEF INITIATIVES

“Helping those in need with dignity.”

It is not a slogan as much as a signpost for social responsibility, a gentle reminder that assisting those less fortunate is everyone's business, year-round.

Five years ago, the-then Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl quietly but significantly tackled the issue of hunger in the Bay Area.

With the assistance of three, now five, prominent hunger relief organizations, the Bowl, rebranded the Foster Farms Bowl, will continue in its quest to provide assistance to those in need.

The Bowl is proud to partner with two foundations that offer meals programs. They are GLIDE, under the direction of founder Reverend Cecil Williams, and founding president Janice Mirikitani; and St. Anthony's Dining Room, led by executive director Barry Stenger. Both GLIDE and St. Anthony's serve just under 3,000 meals per day.

Additional Bowl partners include SF-Marin Food Bank, Paul Ash, executive director; Second Harvest Food Bank of Santa Clara & San Mateo Counties, Kathy Jackson, chief executive officer; and Alameda County Community Food Bank, Suzan Bateson, executive director.

The three food banks combined account for over 122 million pounds of food distributed yearly and provide food for more than one thousand food agencies in the Bay Area. All told, the banks rack up more than half a million volunteer hours in a calendar year.

In addition to collaborating with these outstanding organizations, the Bowl itself is continuing several initiatives it began in 2010.

One centers around a central theme of ‘your game ticket is also a meal ticket’.

For every ticket purchased to the Foster Farms Bowl, that same ticket provides meals for those in need. The Bowl to date has donated in excess of 330,000 meals.

During game week, players from both competing teams donate several hours serving meals at both GLIDE and St. Anthony's. These visits are highly anticipated by the guests at each location.

A number of auctions, including a special VIP game day package, are conducted year-round on the Bowl website. All proceeds from the auctions go to the Bowl's hunger relief efforts.

Fans of both our fine teams have the opportunity themselves to help the cause. Donations may be made through the Bowl website [www.sfbowl.org].

FOSTER FARMS BOWL MANAGEMENT

Gary Cavalli, Executive Director

Foster Farms Bowl

Gary Cavalli is the co-founder of the Bowl and the sole Executive Director in the game's 13-year history. A veteran of 35 years in sports management, Cavalli previously was co-founder and President of the American Basketball League, a women's professional basketball league; and Sports Information Director and Associate Athletic Director at Stanford University.

Since 2002, he has taken the bowl from inception to its current status as one of the leading post-season games in the country. In the spring of 2013, Cavalli executed bold new agreements to move the game to Levi's® Stadium in Santa Clara, home of the San Francisco 49ers, and create an elite new matchup of teams from the Pac-12 and Big Ten Conferences.

In its previous tenure at AT&T Park in San Francisco (as the Diamond Walnut San Francisco, Emerald and Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl), the Bowl sold out four times and consistently ranked as one of the highest-rated games on television. Five teams that have won national championships—USC, Miami, Florida State, Washington and BYU—have played in the Bowl.

During his career, in addition to running a college football bowl game and professional sports league, Cavalli has served as a senior administrator at Stanford University, his alma mater, founded a successful marketing communications firm, produced an award-winning documentary film and written a critically-acclaimed book.

After graduating in 1971 with a degree in communication, he served as assistant information officer at Stanford Medical Center, before becoming, at age 25, the youngest sports information director in the country. He later was promoted to Associate Athletic Director, creating Stanford's first sports marketing programs, managing the NCAA Golf and Soccer Championships, and organizing the Martin Luther King Freedom Games.

Cavalli left Stanford in 1984 to launch a successful marketing communications firm whose clients included Whole Foods Market, Comerica Bank, Palo Alto Medical Foundation, Stanford Athletics, Super Bowl XIX and World Cup Soccer.

In 1995, he was one of the founders of a new women's professional basketball league, the American Basketball League, and served as its CEO for three years. The ABL established the most competitive women's league in the world and introduced unprecedented player participation in ownership and management before folding in 1999.

Cavalli is the author of Stanford Sports, published in 1982 by the Stanford Alumni Association, and co-producer of a documentary movie on professional football, "Disposable Heroes," that was honored by several film societies.

He is currently a member of the Board of Directors of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame's Northern California chapter. He teaches at Stanford and the University of San Francisco.

Ryan Oppelt, Associate Executive Director

Foster Farms Bowl

Now in his 13th year overall, Ryan Oppelt was promoted this past spring to Associate Executive Director and is the Bowl's second-in-command. In his expanded role, Oppelt now shoulders additional responsibility for marketing and ticket sales and maintains close interaction with the San Francisco 49ers/Levi's® Stadium management team on Bowl-related activities.

He is the primary liaison with the competing teams and has responsibility for each school's on-site logistics, as well as direction of events and hospitality functions throughout Bowl week.

Oppelt additionally oversees game-day stadium operations in conjunction with the Levi's® Stadium operations department.

Prior to joining the Bowl in 2002, Oppelt worked in marketing and operations for FOX Sports and handled sponsorship sales and fulfillment for IMG. He was also involved with several sports-related Internet startups, co-developing a college sports network and working as Director of the NFL's "Under the Helmet" website.

A Napa Valley native, he graduated from the University of Oregon..

Doug Kelly, Director of Communications

Foster Farms Bowl

Doug Kelly is now in his 13th season with the Bowl. His duties include year-round media relations, writing/editing for the game program, media guide and website, coordination with the Bowl teams' sports communications departments and game week/day-of-game media operations.

A former NFL [Kansas City Chiefs], USFL [League Office] and World League [Sacramento Surge] media representative, Kelly's other media operations efforts have included the Salt Lake Winter Olympics, the World Baseball Classic, MLB All-Star Game, among others. December 27, 2013
BYU vs. Washington
AT&T Park
Attendance: 34,136

HISTORY:

Behind the rushing of future Tennessee Titan Bishop Sankey, Washington turned back BYU 31-16 in the final Bowl game played at AT&T Park. The Huskies, guided by interim coach Marques Tuiasosopo, rode two Sankey scoring runs of 11 yards each. The biggest play of the game, setting a Bowl record, was John Ross's 100-yard kick return. It put Washington out in front 14-7, a lead the Huskies would never relinquish. Washington became the fifth Pac-12 team to win in San Francisco, joining Oregon State, Cal, USC and Arizona State previously. Tuiasosopo took over the team when coach Steve Sarkisian moved to USC shortly after the regular season. For the first time in the Bowl's history, two women, Sarah Thomas & Maia Chaka, were part of the officiating crew.

2014 STANFORD GAME RECAPS

GAME 1 – STANFORD 45, UC DAVIS 0

Ty Montgomery answered any questions about his health on his first touch, and Stanford's reconstructed defense looked just as rejuvenated in the season opener. The retooled defense held the Aggies to 115 total yards, forced three turnovers and sacked London Lacy four times to overwhelm the lower-tier Football Championship Subdivision team. UC Davis didn't cross midfield until the final play of the game.

Scoring	1	2	3	4	Final
Stanford	14	24	0	7	45

GAME 2 – USC 13, STANFORD 10

Andre Heidari kicked a career-long 53-yard field goal with 2:30 remaining, J.R. Tavai forced a fumble to end the Cardinal's comeback bid and the 14th-ranked Trojans upended No. 13 Stanford in dramatic fashion again. The loss snapped Stanford's 17-game home winning streak, which was the longest active streak in the country.

Scoring	1	2	3	4	Final
USC	7	0	3	3	13
Stanford	0	10	0	0	10

GAME 3 – STANFORD 35, ARMY 0

Kevin Hogan threw for 216 yards and four touchdowns, and No. 15 Stanford rebounded from a loss to USC with a win over Army. Army held the ball for more than 33 minutes behind its triple-option offense, which was stuffed on fourth-and-1 from the Cardinal 2-yard line in the final minutes to preserve Stanford's shutout.

Scoring	1	2	3	4	Final
Stanford	7	7	7	14	35
Army	0	0	0	0	0

GAME 4 – STANFORD 20, WASHINGTON 13

Kevin Hogan ran for a 5-yard touchdown with 4:29 remaining, and No. 16 Stanford used its stingy defense and a poorly timed fake punt by Washington to post a win.

Scoring	1	2	3	4	Final
Stanford	3	10	0	7	20
Washington	0	13	0	0	13

GAME 5 – NOTRE DAME 17, STANFORD 14

Stanford entered the game giving up 198 yards a game total offense and had given up only two runs of 25 yards or more. The Irish had 192 yards total offense at halftime.

Scoring	1	2	3	4	Final
Notre Dame	0	7	0	10	17
Stanford	7	0	0	7	14

GAME 6 – STANFORD 34, WASHINGTON STATE 17

The defense came as advertised for Stanford, and so did the offense. Kevin Hogan threw for 284 yards and three touchdowns, and No. 25 Stanford slowed down Connor Halliday and the Cougars' Air Raid offense in a 34-17 victory over Washington State.

Scoring	1	2	3	4	Final
Stanford	10	7	7	0	34
Washington State	7	0	3	7	17

GAME 7 – ARIZONA STATE 26, STANFORD 10

Arizona State reversed the field against Stanford in the desert rematch with an efficient performance on both sides of the ball. The Cardinal was shut out in the opening 30 minutes for the first time in 87 games while managing 288 total yards. Stanford finally found a spark on offense early in the third quarter, moving 63 yards in five plays for Patrick Skov's 1-yard touchdown run that cut it to 20-10. The Cardinal would get no closer.

Scoring	1	2	3	4	Final
Arizona State	0	14	3	9	26
Stanford	0	0	3	7	10

GAME 8 – STANFORD 38, OREGON STATE 14

The Cardinal controlled the game from start to finish, showing more diverse looks than they had all season – just like coach David Shaw had promised after a perplexing 26-10 loss at Arizona State took Stanford out of the Associated Press poll for the first time in four years.

Scoring	1	2	3	4	Final
Stanford	14	14	7	3	38
Oregon State	7	0	0	7	14

GAME 9 – OREGON 45, STANFORD 16

Marcus Mariota and fifth-ranked Oregon snapped a two-game losing streak to Stanford. Stanford's defense had not allowed an opponent more than 30 points in a string of 31 games, the longest streak in the nation.

Scoring	1	2	3	4	Final
Oregon	14	10	7	14	45
Stanford	6	7	3	0	16

GAME 10 – UTAH 20, STANFORD 17

The teams traded fruitless possessions for most of the game as the defenses dominated. Utah's Tom Hackett and Stanford's Ben Rhyne took turns flipping field position behind booming punts, and the Utes' rugby-style kicker often crushed the competition.

Scoring	1	2	3	4	OT	OT	Final
Utah	0	7	0	0	7	6	20
Stanford	7	0	0	0	7	3	17

GAME 11 – STANFORD 38, CAL 17

Stanford beat the Golden Bears for the fifth straight year in the 117th Big Game, savoring every second as the announced crowd of 56,483 cleared out. A series of setbacks put the two-time defending Pac-12 champion Cardinal on the brink of missing the postseason. Instead, Stanford turned it into another Big Game blowout.

Scoring	1	2	3	4	Final
Stanford	10	14	7	7	38
Cal	0	7	3	7	17

GAME 12 – STANFORD 31, UCLA 10

The Cardinal is comfortable in Pasadena after playing there on the last two New Year's Days, and Hogan sparked the Pac-12's lowest-scoring offense to a dominant, clock-chewing performance that measured up with Stanford's best efforts during its current renaissance.

Scoring	1	2	3	4	Final
Stanford	7	14	7	3	31
UCLA	7	3	0	0	10

DID YOU KNOW?

IT STAYS IN SAN FRANCISCO

According to San Francisco Travel calculations, the Foster Farms Bowl has generated in excess of $140,000,000 in direct economic benefit to the City & County of San Francisco over the past decade-plus. This includes revenues from the hotel, restaurant, entertainment and transportation industries, among others.

HIGHEST-DRAFTED BOWL PLAYER

Several players who played in this game previously have been selected in the top rounds of the NFL draft. The highest-drafted player, one who could hold that distinction for quite some time, is Georgia Tech's Calvin Johnson. "Megatron," now an all-pro wide receiver, was the second player taken in the first round of the 2007 draft by the Detroit Lions.

LONGEST-TENURED NFL PLAYER

This honor goes to Washington Redskins cornerback DeAngelo Hall. Hall played in the inaugural San Francisco game, back in 2002, for Virginia Tech. The Hokies beat Air Force in that initial encounter. Hall has played for Atlanta [2004-07], Oakland [2008] and Washington [2008-present].

PAC-12 PRESENCE

The Pac-12 [re-branded in 2011 with the addition of Colorado and Utah] has had a team in the game in 2006-07-08-09-11-12-13, represented respectively by UCLA, Oregon State, Cal, USC, UCLA again, Arizona State & Washington. Overall record: 5-2. The Big Ten has made one appearance to date; in 2011 Illinois defeated UCLA.

MULTIPLE APPEARANCES

Navy became the third institution to play multiple times in the game. The Midshipmen previously came to San Francisco in 2004 and defeated New Mexico 34-19 and lost to Arizona State 62-28 in the 2013 contest. UCLA played in the 2006 Emerald Bowl and 2011 Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl. Boston College leads all schools with three separate appearances, the 2003 Diamond Walnut San Francisco Bowl, 2009 Emerald Bowl and 2010 Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl.

BEST OF THEM ALL?

While many great collegiate players, not to mention the many who have gone on to NFL stardom, have played in this game, one stands above all others. Luke Kuechly of Boston College is the only player in game history to be named the outstanding defensive player on two different occasions. Kuechly, who led all FBS players in total tackles as both a sophomore & junior, was named top defender after the Eagles' contest with USC in 2009. He followed that up in 2010 against Nevada. Making his feat even more remarkable, Kuechly was on the losing side each time. He was a first round draft choice [9th overall] of the Carolina Panthers in 2012. As a professional, Kuechly has been named to the Pro Bowl each of the past two seasons.

THE LARGEST MEDIA FOOTPRINT

With its new 6-year arrangement between the Big Ten Conference & Pac-12 Conference, the Foster Farms Bowl becomes part of the largest TV/media footprint in all of college football. Collectively, the two conferences comprise 26 institutions/teams, 14 in the Big Ten, 12 in the Pac-12. In terms of TV coverage, Big Ten and/or Pac-12 teams are located in each of the four North American time zones and extend all the way from California to the Eastern Seaboard. Of the top 35 TV markets coast-to-coast, conference schools are found within the ADI of 21 and six of the top 10. At least five different Big Ten teams will take part in the Foster Farms Bowl between now and 2019.

CHICKEN IS WHAT'S FOR DINNER. . .OR ANYTIME

The Foster Farms Bowl is the fifth current bowl game sponsor associated with the poultry industry. The others are the Chick-fil-A Bowl in Atlanta; the Buffalo Wild Wings Citrus Bowl in Orlando; the Popeyes Bahamas Bowl in Nassau and the Zaxby's Heart of Dallas Bowl in Dallas.

NEVER ON MONDAY

But every other day of the week. Through the past 12 years, the Bay Area's Bowl game has been played once on Tuesday [also on Tuesday this time], twice on Wednesday, twice on Thursday, twice on Friday, four times on Saturday and once on Sunday.

NEVER ON CHRISTMAS

The game has been played on December 26th once, on the 27th three times, on the 28th once, on the 29th two times, on the 30th once and on the 31st three times. One game was played in January, on the 9th, in 2011 when Nevada met Boston College.
