A New Era Begins: The new era of JMU football begins today as Head Coach Everett Withers leads the 2014 Dukes in the season opener at Big Ten Conference-newcomer Maryland. The game is being televised on the Big Ten Network, with Joe Beninati on the call, Scott McBrien with the analysis and Frank Hanrahan on the sidelines.

The Coaches: James Madison Head Coach Everett Withers (Appalachian State, '86) is in his first season at JMU and his second as a head coach overall with a 7-6 record.

Maryland Head Coach Randy Edsall (Syracuse, '80) is in his fourth year of coaching the Terrapins, with a 13-24 mark, and 16th season as a head coach overall, sporting an 87-94 record.

History With Maryland: This will be the third time that the two schools have met on the playing field, with Maryland having won both games. It is also the third time in the last 16 years that the two team have met in the season opener and the previous two were close. In 1998, Maryland earned a 23-15 victory over JMU, while the 2009 matchup ended up in overtime, with the Terps escaping with a 38-35 win.

Withers Takes the Reins: Head Coach Everett Withers has taken over the leadership of the JMU football program for the 2014 season. Withers is just the sixth head coach in the program's 42-year history.

JMU Coaching History

- Challace McMillin (1972-84)
- Joe Purzycki (1985-90)
- Rip Scherer (1991-94)
- Alex Wood (1995-98)
- Mickey Matthews (1999-2013)
- Everett Withers (2014)

Opening the Season Has Mixed

Results: As a NCAA varsity program JMU is 22-18-1 in season-opening games, but since moving to the Football Championship Subdivision (formerly Division I-AA) in 1980, the Dukes are 17-17 in season-openers.

In the FCS, JMU has started a season against a Football Bowl Subdivision opponent 10 times (0-10 record), an FCS opponent 17 times (10-7 record) and a Division II opponent seven times (7-0 record).

Head Coach Everett Withers is 1-0 in his coaching career in season openers, with his win over his current squad, JMU, in the 2011 game when he was interim head coach at North Carolina.

This is in remembrance for those who died in the Oklahoma State University tragedy, Jan. 27, 2001, including fellow sports information contact and friend Will Hancock. Will was an individual who demonstrated daily what it meant to be a true professional, a mentor and a quality person. He will be missed and our hearts continue to go out to all his family and friends.

Road Season Openers: JMU has begun 13 of 35 varsity years on the road, where the Dukes are 3-9-1. JMU's season-opening road wins have been over Washington & Lee (24-22) in 1974, Appalachian State (24-20) in 1983, and East Tennessee State (14-9) in 1985 in Coach Joe Purzycki's first JMU game.

Since the 1985 game at East Tennessee State, JMU has opened on the road eight times, all against FBS opponents.

JMU's Sept. 1, 2007 game at North Carolina marked the first time the Dukes opened a season on the road since 1999 when they started the season at Virginia Tech.

JMU Football History: The 2014 season is JMU's 43rd season of football, its 41st varsity football season, its 36th season with football scholarship players and its 35th season competing at what is now the NCAA's Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) level, formerly Division I-AA.

JMU began football in 1972, moved to a recognized varsity schedule in 1974, first awarded scholarships for the 1979 season and moved to Division I-AA in 1980. JMU moved from Division III to Division II in 1979 and to then-Division I-AA for the 1980 season.

JMU's top seasons in addition to winning the 2004 NCAA Division I-AA championship (13-2) have been in 2008 when the Dukes reached the FCS semifinals as the playoffs' top-seeded team and compiled a 12-2 record, 2007 (8-4, NCAA playoffs), 2006 (9-3, NCAA playoffs), 1999 (8-4, NCAA playoffs), 1995 (8-4, NCAA playoffs), 1994 (10-3, NCAA playoffs, second round), 1991 (9-4, NCAA playoffs, second round), 1987 (9-3, NCAA playoffs), 1982 (8-3), 1978 (8-2, No. 9, Division III), and 1975 (9-0-1, College Division).

James Madison Football On TV: The Dukes will be on television seven times this year, with four of the five home games at the friendly confines of Bridgeforth Stadium among that list. The first will be the season opener at FBS Maryland, Aug. 30 as part of the Big Ten Network package.

JMU was picked for six games as part of the CAA's television package, starting with the Sept. 20 game at Villanova televised on Comcast SportsNet (CSN) with a 12:30 p.m. kickoff. The following week, Madison returns home to host Delaware Sept. 27, which will be a 4 p.m., kickoff for the CSN broadcast. On Friday night prior to the UD game, the Duke Club will host its annual Duke Club Auction in the Bridgeforth Stadium Club Level.

The final CSN TV game for the Dukes will be the Oct. 11 Family Weekend tilt with defending CAA champion and 2013 National runner-up Towson, a game scheduled for a 12:30 p.m. start as the final of three CSN TV games.

The William & Mary contest for Homecoming on Nov. 1 will be a 3:30 p.m. start and the first time JMU will appear on the American Sports Network, a new CAA broadcast partner. Another Madison road contest will be shown, as JMU and Richmond on Nov. 15 will be shown nationally on NBC Sports Network at 12:30 p.m.. JMU will honor its 2014 Hall of Fame class on Nov. 21, prior to the regular-season finale against CAA-newcomer Elon on Nov. 22, shown on ASN starting at noon.

All JMU home games are live videostreamed by MadiZONE HD SportsNete presented by the JMU Alumni Association on JMUSports.com. The ones that are part of the CAA television package are blacked out in the regions that the TV broadcasts will be carried.

Road Challenges: JMU will find the challenges on the road, playing seven of its 12 regular season contests away from home. After the game at Football Bowl Subdivision opponent Maryland, the Dukes will travel to Lehigh, who is also receiving votes in both major Football Championship Subdivision polls. CAA road opponents Villanova (#12/13) and Richmond (#20/24) continue to make the road challenging throughout the season. Of the seven opponents this year, six of them won at least five games last year and had a combined 22-18 mark at their home fields last year.

Taking on FBS Teams Not Kind to JMU: Against NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision teams that still compete in the division, JMU has a 4-18 record. The Dukes last played an FBS opponent last season, dropping a tough 35-33 decision at Akron.

Opponent	JMU Rec.	Last
Akron	0-1	2013
Ball State	0-1	1997
Duke	0-1	2008
Maryland	0-2	2009
Navy	2-1	1990
North Carolina	0-2	2011
Virginia	1-2	1983
Virginia Tech	1-6	2010
West Virginia	0-2	2012

Of JMU's 22 games against FBS teams, 10 of the previous contests have been season-openers. JMU started the 1988 season at Navy, the 1991, 1992 and 1999 seasons at Virginia Tech, the 1997 season at Ball State, the 1998 season at Maryland, the 2007 and 2011 seasons at North Carolina, the 2008 season at Duke and 2009 at Maryland.

JAMES MADISON MEDIA INFORMATION

Weekly Press Conference

Coach Withers will have a weekly press conference on Mondays at noon of game weeks at O'Neill's Grill in Harrisonburg. The press conference will be streamed live on MadiZONE HD SportsNet presented by JMU Alumni Association.

The weekly press luncheon will have a group question-and-answer session with Coach Withers, as well as the ability to do one-on-one interviews. If you would like to speak with an individual player, please let John Martin know and we will attempt to make arrangements, based on the student-athlete's availability due to classes.

Credential Requests

All media outlets that wish to cover James Madison football games at Bridgeforth Stadium must submit their requests for credentials in writing, preferably on the credential request form, at least one week prior to the home contest, unless requesting a season pass. John Martin will then notify you if the request has been granted, so please provide a method of contact. Press credentials WILL NOT be issued to spouses, friends or children.

Possession of a season credential does not guarantee a seat in the Bridgeforth Stadium Press Box seating area. To assure yourself of a seat, you must notify John Martin of your intention to cover a particular game. All seat assignments will be made on a first-come, first-served basis.

Single-game press credentials can be picked up in the James Madison Athletics Communications office during the week of a home contest. If credentials are requested and approved, they will only be mailed if the request is granted at least two weeks prior to game. Any credentials not picked up will be left at the Gate B will call window.

Credentials must be worn and visible at all times, as there will be people verifying credentials. All credentials are non-transferrable. Your credential will get you access to the stadium, press box, sidelines (photographers only with appropriate vest) and post-game interview area underneath the student stands across from the visiting team lockerroom. There will be no access to either lockerroom for interviews. We also request that photographers not photograph or take video images of any injury evaluation on the field or sidelines, due to the HIPAA privacy laws.

Phone Lines

Any phone lines needed for a particular game must be requested at least 72 hours prior to the game. All long-distance costs associated with the phone line are the responsibility of the media member/outlet utilizing them.

Internet Access

For those with laptop computers that can automatically select an IP address, there are Internet connections available in the football press box. Please know that the University server does track all Internet usage, including in the press box, for inappropriate use.

Preseason CAA Poll: JMU was picked to finish eighth in the 2014 preseason poll, but did garner one first-place vote. New Hampshire, who finished third in the conference last season, topped the poll with 15 of the 24 first-place votes, while Villanova (two first-place votes) and Richmond (three) checked in at second and third, respectively. William and Mary received the other three first-place votes as the fourth-place pick, followed by 2013 national runner-up Towson, Delaware and Maine, last year's CAA Champion, in fifth, sixth and seventh.

Last Meeting - Terps Escape With Overtime Win in 2009: Maryland freshman Nick Ferrara kicked a 26-yard field goal in overtime to lift the host Terps to a 38-35 non-conference football victory over James Madison.

JMU rallied from a 21-6 deficit to take leads of 28-21 and 35-28 during the final half, but Maryland tied the score with just more than five minutes left in regulation. JMU then failed to move for a first down and missed on a long field goal try on its overtime possession before Ferrara's kick gave Maryland the win.

JMU gained only one yard during its overtime series before settling for a 41-yard field goal try. Maryland had runs of five, seven and six yards to reach the JMU seven during its overtime possession before taking a two-yard loss and kicking the game-winning field goal on third down.

JMU had a 417-359 advantage in yards of total offense, but the Dukes were penalized 11 times for 105 yards and gave up an 81-yard kickoff return for a touchdown.

Junior quarterback Drew Dudzik led the JMU offense, throwing for 141 yards and two touchdowns and running for 122 yards and a score.

Maryland quarterback Chris Turner threw for 236 yards and a touchdown and ran for 28 yards and a score. Turner's 27-yard touchdown pass to Adrian Cannon with 5:09 left in the fourth quarter allowed Maryland to tie the score at 35-35. (Complete recap on page 18.)

Last Time Out - Dukes Fall At Eventual National Runner-Up Towson: The James Madison football team battled throughout but could not overcome a few key plays against them and lost at No. 5/7 Towson, 28-17, Nov. 23. With the season finale loss, the Dukes ended at 6-6 overall and 3-5 in the Colonial Athletic Association, while the Tigers ended the regular season at 10-2 and 6-2 in the league.

Sophomore quarterback Michael Birdsong had more than 300 yards of total offense, rushing for a career-high 136 yards on 26 carries. The 136 yards were the third most for a Duke this season. Birdsong was also 20-for-39 for 170 yards, one touchdown and two interceptions. Redshirt-senior linebacker Stephon Robertson finished with 11 tackles, including one tackle for loss, to finish with 141 tackses this season and 445 for his career.

For Towson, All-American running back Terrance West was limited to 100 yards but had three scores on 22 carries, more than 60 yards below his season average. Quarterback Peter Athens was 21-for-30 for 171 yards, one touchdown and one interception. (Complete recap on page 19.)

Marlowe Preseason Honors: Senior Dean Marlowe is one of the top returning player for the Dukes, having earned Second Team All-Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) honors last season as a safety and third team honors as a punt returner. Selected as an All-CAA safety in each of his first three years, Marlowe recorded 77 total tackles, including 37 solo stops, one interception and eight passes defended last season. He ranked 12th among league defensive backs with 6.4 tackles per game, including a career-high 13 against Stony Brook, and was named to The Sports Network Preseason All-America Third Team earlier this summer.

In 2012, Marlowe earned First Team All-CAA as the only sophomore on the CAA defensive first team and was selected as First Team All-State by both the Roanoke Times and Virginia Sports Information Directors Association. As a sophomore, Marlowe recorded 82 tackles on the year including 44 solos, 5.0 for loss, seven passes defended, a team-high tying three interceptions, one forced fumble and one safety.

Newcomers Making an Impact: Looking at the two-deep for James Madison to start the 2014 season, there are a lot of new faces for the Dukes and first-year Head Coach Everett Withers. On the offensive side of the ball, five slated starters are Football Bowl Subdivision transfers into the program this year, with four total freshmen and eight transfers total (including one junior college) on the two-deep. For the defense, two transfers are among the starters while seven other freshmen add to the depth of the lineup.

FBS Transfers to JMU on Two-Deep (including former school and year)

Offense: 2 Vad Lee - Georgia Tech (2014)
 6 Sean Tapley - North Carolina (2014)
 13 Ishmael Hyman - Kansas (2014)
 30 Alden Hill - Tennessee (2014)
 61 A.J. Bolden - Toledo (2014)
 69 Nick Appel - North Carolina (2014)
 77 Austin Lane - Syracuse (2011)

Defense: 1 Titus Till - Maryland (2012)
 21 Jeremiah Wilson - Maryland (2012)
 95 Xavier Gates - Kansas State (2014)

A Familiarity On the Other Side: For JMU seniors Titus Till and Jeremiah Wilson, a few of the players on the other sideline will be familiar to the duo. Till and Wilson both started their careers at Maryland and played during the 2011 season for current UM Head Coach Randy Edsall. From there, the pair transferred to Harrisonburg and have spent the past two seasons as part of the JMU program and will make their final season opener in Byrd Stadium.

A New But Not Inexperienced Signal Caller: For the third time in three years, the Dukes will open the season with a new quarterback leading the charge, but this one has a strong base of experience to count on. Redshirt-junior Vad Lee transferred to JMU in the spring and went through both spring and fall drills to earn the starting job here. For the past two years, he had been the man under center at Georgia Tech. Coincidentally in 2012, he came in off the bench against Maryland to score a pair of rushing touchdowns and lead the Ramblin' Wreck to a 33-13 victory in Byrd Stadium.

Brown Showed His Catches Count: Redshirt-senior Daniel Brown made his presence felt last season. After missing the opening game due to injury, Brown led the Dukes with 42 catches for 665 yards and eight touchdowns. He ranked eighth in the league at 60.5 receiving yards per game. Against UAlbany, Brown had three touchdown catches, tying a school and stadium single-game record. His 98 yards on five catches at Delaware was a personal career best.

His eight touchdowns on the season tied for the second-best single season in school history with David McLeod (1991) and L.C. Baker (2006).

Seeing Double???: Looking on the head shot rosters of the two teams in today's game, you might think you were seeing double. However, you wouldn't be as JMU freshman linebacker David Ezeagwu will be against his twin brother today, Maryland freshman defensive back Daniel Ezeagwu. It won't be the only brothers on opposite sites, as Dukes' redshirt-freshman Jordan Brown is the younger brother of Maryland starting quarterback C.J. Brown.

Smith Experienced On Both Sides of the Ball: Senior DeAndre' Smith showed his versatility for Madison in his career, spending significant time on both sides of the football. He tallied his best game of his career at Richmond, Oct. 20, 2012. Smith had six receptions for career highs of 122 yards and two touchdowns. From the 2012 season, Smith was the top receiving returner for last year's squad with 323 yards last year on 29 catches (second among returners) and two scores.

In 2013, Smith had 10 catches for 126 yards with a long of 30. However, he missed part of two and a half games due to an ankle injury. He returned in the CAA opener at Delaware, making four catches for 41 yards.

Due to injuries and depth issues, Smith moved over to defensive back for the Richmond game and remained there. In his five games on the defensive side, he had 17 tackles (11 of them solo) and two interceptions, including an 86-yard touchdown return in a home victory over Villanova.

This fall, Smith has spent time in camp on both sides of the football, with an emphasis lately on working out at wide receiver.

Dukes in the Show: JMU is well represented in the NFL on the 2013 rosters entering the season. The Dukes have three former players that were on opening day rosters for the 2013 season. Linebacker Akeem Jordan spent his first six years in the NFL with the Philadelphia Eagles, spent last year with the Kansas City Chiefs and is now with the Washington Redskins. Starting his fifth season in the NFL is former defensive end turned linebacker Arthur Moats (Pittsburgh Steelers). Additionally, second-year offensive lineman Earl Watford is with the Arizona Cardinals. From last year's squad, offensive tackle Josh Wells is currently in camp with the Jacksonville Jaguars while defensive lineman Jordan Stanton is with the New York Giants.

Former Duke Haley Enshrined in College Football Hall of Fame:

Former James Madison football All-American Charles Haley was enshrined in the College Football Hall Of Fame, July 15-16, 2011, in South Bend, Ind. He was the first ever player from a CAA school and sixth person overall (five previous were coaches) to be elected to the Hall.

Haley was a four year starter at JMU from 1982-85. He was a two-time All-American and a three-time Defensive MVP at Madison. As a senior at JMU, Haley was voted a 1985 Associated Press First-Team I-AA All-American and both the Richmond Touchdown Club and Roanoke Times & World News' State Defensive Player of the Year. He leads JMU's all-time tackles list with 506, including three seasons of more than 100 tackles, and his 22 tackles at Shippensburg during the 1983 season still ranks as the eighth-highest single-game total in JMU history. He also added three interceptions and 17 quarterback sacks to his total.

In 1986, after his senior season Haley was selected in the fourth round of the NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers, as he was the No. 96 pick overall, the highest ever in school history. The first ever JMU player to be drafted into the NFL, Haley went on to become the only player in the league's history to win five Super Bowls, two with the 49ers and three with the Dallas Cowboys. He was also selected to five Pro Bowls during his career, as well as being a two-time First-Team All-Pro and 1990 NFC Defensive Player of the Year. He finished his professional career with 100.5 sacks, including a career-high 16 in 1990. He had eight fumble recoveries and scored one touchdown in the NFL. He retired in 1999 before becoming an assistant coach for the Detroit Lions.

Dukes Historically in the NFL: In addition to the former Dukes currently active with professional football organizations, JMU's leading all-time performers include several other players who have enjoyed success in the NFL - placekicker Scott Norwood (1978-81), wide receiver Gary Clark (1980-83), defensive end Charles Haley (1982-85), linebacker Dion Foxx (1990-93), wide receiver Macey Brooks (1993-96), running back Curtis Keaton (1998-99), tight end Ed Perry (1993-96) and return specialist Delvin Joyce (1997-2000).

Norwood received All-Pro honors as a placekicker with the Buffalo Bills. Clark was All-Pro with the Washington Redskins and a member of two Super Bowl title teams and later played with the Arizona Cardinals and Miami Dolphins. He was selected in the first round of the first United States Football League draft in 1984.

Haley was the first player to be a member of five Super Bowl title teams while playing with the San Francisco 49ers and the Dallas Cowboys. He was the first Duke to be a first-team Division I-AA All-America and the first Duke chosen in the NFL draft (San Francisco, 1986, fourth round). He is JMU's career tackles leader.

Foxx played with the Miami Dolphins. Brooks was with the Dallas Cowboys and Chicago Bears.

Keaton was with the Cincinnati Bengals and New Orleans Saints after being the 1999 Atlantic 10 offensive player of the year when he ran for 1,719 yards and 20 touchdowns.

Perry was a tight end and long snapper with the Miami Dolphins and Kansas City Chiefs after being Miami's sixth-round 1997 draft pick and first-team All-Yankee Football Conference during each of his final three collegiate seasons.

Joyce was a return specialist for the New York Giants and New York Jets. He ended his career at JMU as the only player in Division I-AA history with 1,000 yards in each of the career statistical categories of rushing, receiving, punt returns and kickoff returns and as the all-time Division I-AA leader in punt return yards and combined kick return yards. He holds many of JMU's career kick return marks and is the program's all-time leader in all-purpose yards with 5,659.

Two other former Dukes saw extensive time during the 2007 preseason with NFL teams, including tailback Alvin Banks (2003-06) with the New York Jets and offensive lineman Corey Davis (2003-06) with the Buffalo Bills. Justin Rascati, JMU's starting quarterback from 2004-06, briefly was with the Chicago Bears. Former tight end Mike Caussin spent time with Buffalo Bills (active) and Jacksonville Jaguars (practice squad) last season.

Maryland freshman Nick Ferrara kicked a 26-yard field goal in overtime to lift the host Terrapins to a 38-35 non-conference football victory over James Madison Saturday.

JMU rallied from a 21-6 deficit to take leads of 28-21 and 35-28 during the final half, but Maryland tied the score with just more than five minutes left in regulation. JMU then failed to move for a first down and missed on a long field goal try on its overtime possession before Ferrara's kick gave Maryland the win.

JMU gained only one yard during its overtime series before settling for a 41-yard field goal try. Maryland had runs of five, seven and six yards to reach the JMU seven during its overtime possession before taking a two-yard loss and kicking the game-winning field goal on third down.

JMU had a 417-359 advantage in yards of total offense, but the Dukes were penalized 11 times for 105 yards and gave up an 81-yard kickoff return for a touchdown.

Junior quarterback Drew Dudzik led the JMU offense, throwing for 141 yards and two touchdowns and running for 122 yards and a score.

Maryland quarterback Chris Turner threw for 236 yards and a touchdown and ran for 28 yards and a score. Turner's 27-yard touchdown pass to Adrian Cannon with 5:09 left in the fourth quarter allowed Maryland to tie the score at 35-35.

After trailing 21-6, JMU got to within 21-14 on a four-yard touchdown run by junior tailback Jamal Sullivan 2:06 before halftime and took advantage two Maryland turnovers to take a 28-21 lead late during the fourth quarter.

Sophomore tailback Corwin Acker's recovery of a Maryland fumble on a punt return set up a 45-yard scoring drive that allowed JMU to pull into a 21-21 tie, and sophomore weak safety Jon Williams' 62-yard interception return for a touchdown gave JMU a 28-21 lead with 1:38 left in the third quarter.

After Ferrara's recovery, the Dukes scored in six plays. A 28-yard pass from Dudzik to senior tight end Charlie Newman got JMU to the Terrapin 14. Penalties for an illegal block and illegal procedure set the Dukes back, but Dudzik hit sophomore tailback Scott Noble with a 15-yard pass and connected with senior tight end Mike Caussin on a 15-yard touchdown pass with 3:05 left in the third period.

Williams' interception return that gave JMU its 28-21 lead came on the third play of Maryland's next possession. Williams stepped in front of the intended receiver as Turner rolled right and threw back to his left, and he sprinted along the sideline to score.

The James Madison football team battled throughout but could not overcome a few key plays against them and lost at No. 5/7 Towson, 28-17, Nov. 23. With the season finale loss, the Dukes ended at 6-6 overall and 3-5 in the Colonial Athletic Association, while the Tigers end the regular season at 10-2 and 6-2 in the league.

Sophomore quarterback Michael Birdsong had more than 300 yards of total offense, rushing for a career-high 136 yards on 26 carries. The 136 yards were the third most for a Duke this season. Birdsong was also 20-for-39 for 170 yards, one touchdown and two interceptions. Redshirt-senior linebacker Stephon Robertson finished with 11 tackles, including one tackle for loss, to finish with 141 tackles this season and 445 for his career.

For Towson, All-American running back Terrance West was limited to 100 yards but had three scores on 22 carries, more than 60 yards below his season average. Quarterback Peter Athens was 21-for-30 for 171 yards, one touchdown and one interception.

JMU got on the board first on its second drive, marching 73 yards in nine plays. On fourth-and-15 at the Towson 29, Birdsong found wide receiver Anthony Rose on a streak route down the middle for a touchdown. Kicker Cameron Starke hit the point after attempts and the Dukes led 7-0 with 6:24 to go in the first quarter.

On the ensuing possession, Towson looked to be stopped at the JMU 28 but a roughing the passer penalty gave the Tigers an extension to their drive. The hosts converted it, as running back Terrance West broke a tackle, bounced outside and went in from seven yards out and the game was tied at seven with 1:47 to go in the first quarter.

The two teams exchanged interceptions with Towson getting the second one at the JMU 33. West took it in from six yards out and the Tigers led 14-7 with 5:40 to play in the first half.

After a bad snap on a JMU fourth down gave the Tigers the ball at the JMU 45, Towson got one last score in the closing seconds of the half. Quarterback Peter Athens scrambled out of pressure and found Connor Frazier in the open and he went in for the 35-yard touchdown to make it 21-7 at the halftime break.

The Dukes got on the board in the second half with their opening drive, going 33 yards in 10 plays before the drive halted at the Towson 4. Starke came in and connected from 21 yards out to make it 21-10 Towson with 6:20 to play in the third quarter.

After a failed field goal attempt, the Dukes forced a Towson 3-and-out. Redshirt-senior Dae'Quan Scott caught the punt at the Towson 46, picked up a pair of key blocks and scooted into the end zone for his second punt return touchdown of the season. Starke connected again on the PAT and the lead was down to four at 21-17 late in the third quarter.
