SATURDAY, NOV. 29 • 3:30 p.m.

Byrd Stadium (51,802) • College Park, Md.

THE GAME

- Rutgers closes out its inaugural regular season in the Big Ten with a meeting against fellow league newcomer Maryland Saturday in College Park, Md.
- Kickoff is set for 3:30 p.m. with live coverage on ESPN. Adam Amin, John Congemi and Quint Kessenich will call the game for ESPN.
- Coverage on the Rutgers IMG Sports Network begins at 2:30 p.m. with Marc Malusis and Jamaal Westerman on the pregame show. Chris Carlin, Ray Lucas and Anthony Fucilli have the game broadcast at noon. Fans can listen to the game on WCTC-1450 AM in Central Jersey, 710-WOR AM Radio in New York City and 610-WIP AM in Philadelphia.

THE SERIES

- In a series that began in 1920, Maryland leads the all-time series 5-4. The two teams have not met since 2009 when Rutgers earned a 34-13 victory in College Park over the Terps.
- Saturday's game marks the return of two former Terrapin football letterwinners now on the Rutgers coaching staff - offensive coordinator Ralph Friedgen and defensive line coach Jim Panagos. Friedgen directed the Terrapins to unprecedented heights in his tenure, taking the program to seven bowl games, including a pair of New Year's Day appearances, and a school-record five bowl victories. Prior to Friedgen's arrival, Maryland had just one bowl game appearance in its previous 15 seasons.
- Panagos was a two-time letterwinner at defensive tackle and led the Terrapins in sacks (5) and tackles-for-loss (12) in 1992 as a senior.

WITH A VICTORY ...

- The Scarlet Knights would finish the regular season 7-5 overall after entering the 2014 campaign with one of the nation's top 10 most difficult schedules.
- Rutgers would move to 6-2 all-time against teams coached by Randy Edsall.
- The Scarlet Knights would capture their second consecutive victory over the Terps in series play for the first time.
- Rutgers would capture its first November road victory in conference play since a 10-3 win at Cincinnati on Nov. 17, 2012.

RUTGERS ATHLETIC COMMUNICATIONS SERVICES

RUTGERS ATHLETIC COMMUNICATIONS

The Rutgers Athletic Communications Office is available to assist you with coverage of the Rutgers football program. The primary media contact for the Rutgers football program is Jason Baum and Jimmy Gill is the secondary contact for the 2014 season. Jordan Ozer will also assist in coverage.

The Athletic Communications Office is located on the first floor press box of High Point Solutions Stadium. For information regarding credentials, interviews, statistics, press conferences, etc., please call the Athletic Communications Office at 732-445-7028, visit CollegePressBox.com or e-mail Baum at jbaum@scarletknights.com.

To assist in your coverage throughout the year, please read the media information on this page. Briefly, all interviews must be arranged through the Athletic Communications Office at least one day in advance and all players, coaches and support staff will not take part in an interview unless scheduled by the Athletic Communications Office.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

All media credential requests must be submitted via email to credentials@scarletknights.com.

Admittance to the High Point Solutions Stadium Press Box is limited to working media members only. Credential requests must be made through Rutgers' credentialing email.

Please request credentials at least two weeks in advance of the game to permit sufficient time for mailing. Media credentials which cannot be mailed will be left at Media Will Call (Media Entrance) beneath the press box at High Point Solutions Stadium at Gate A.

Working space in the Rutgers Press Box is allotted on the following basis: (1) daily newspaper writers covering for next-day publication; (2) sports editors of newspapers in New Jersey, New York and Eastern Pennsylvania; (3) radio personnel for broadcast originations; (4) official school student daily newspaper; (5) approved special coverage; (6) press and TV working photographers; (7) weekly press representatives; non-originating radio representatives of AM news stations; and Internet writers for sites affiliated with established, nationally-recognized media outlets will be considered on a game-by-game basis as space permits. Visiting freelance and amateur photographers are not eligible for media credentials.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Sideline photographers and media members must follow NCAA guidelines, which prohibit entry to the bench areas.

PARKING

Media parking is located in the Green Lot, which is located behind the Indoor Practice Bubble on the E Fields. To enter the Green Lot, take River Road to Sutphen Road. Once on Sutphen, make your first left at Fitch Road and attendants will direct you to the media lot. You should request your parking at the same time you request your game credential. If time permits, both will be mailed to you. There is no day-of-game media parking list and therefore members of the media must have a media parking credential in advance of the game.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

Complete NCAA statistics, play-by-play, and quote sheets from both teams are all regular services on gameday. Upon your arrival, you will receive a press folder with a game program, flip card, updated stats and game day notes. The press box has wireless Internet access. Login information will be provided on gamedays.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS

Coach Flood and players, following the designated cooling off period, will be made available after each game to members of the media. Coach Flood's press conference will take place in the team meeting room of the Hale Center, which is located opposite the playing field from the press box.

With approximately five minutes remaining in the game, members of the media will be escorted across the field towards the Hale Center.

Rutgers' locker room is open to the media following the conclusion of Flood's press conference. The visiting team's press conference will be held in the defensive backs meeting room, inside the Hale Center, on the second floor. A member of the Rutgers Athletic Communications office will escort the visiting media to the defensive backs meeting room.

PHONES

A limited number of courtesy phones are available in the press box at High Point Solutions Stadium. The phones are all operator-assisted calls, or third-party billing calls can be made. Should you wish to have a phone installed at High Point Solutions Stadium, contact Verizon at 1-800-564-9911 or 9922.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All player interviews must be arranged through the Athletic Communications Office at least one day in advance. Players are available in person on Monday at the weekly Rutgers Football luncheon, and following practice on Tuesday and Wednesday, pending class schedules/availability.

Please consult with Jason Baum regarding availability. Player availability at other times will vary from week to week. A time mutually convenient for the player and the member of the media can be set up by the Athletic Communications Office. During a traditional game week, there will be no player interviews after Wednesday until following the game.

COACH FLOOD INTERVIEWS

All interview requests must be arranged through Jason Baum. Coach Flood will be available to the media every Monday at 11 a.m. at his weekly news conference in the team meeting room of the Hale Center, Tuesday at 12:56 p.m. on the Big Ten Teleconference and after practice on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

COVERING PRACTICE

Rutgers' preseason practices begin August 1. Throughout the season, practice will be open to the media for the first 30 minutes on Tuesday and Wednesday. Practice is closed to the media on Sunday and Thursday.

VIDEO AT PRACTICE

On Tuesday and Wednesday, video and photo access is available during individual periods of practice. Tripods are not permitted on the practice field and media members must stand at least five yards off the sideline.

WEEKLY PRESS LUNCHEON

Requested players will be available each Monday at the Rutgers football luncheon from 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. in the Audi Rutgers Club.

COLLEGEPRESSBOX.COM

Collegepressbox.com is the official media website for Big Ten football. Access and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides and more for the conference and each of the member schools throughout the season. Login information will be distributed to accredited media, or you can apply for a password by sending an e-mail to password@collegepressbox.com.

RUTGERS IMG SPORTS NETWORK

Rutgers football games will be broadcast over the Rutgers IMG Sports Network to 50,000 watt WOR 710-AM in New York City and Central Jersey's WCTC 1450-AM.

Play-by-play announcer Chris Carlin is well known to sports radio fans throughout the State of Rutgers. The 41-year-old Carlin is in his 14th year with the Rutgers Radio Network, including his 11th as the play-by-play voice of Rutgers football. Carlin is also the play-by-play voice for Rutgers basketball and is the host of Geico SportsNite on SNY and serves as co-host of "Loud Mouths" on SNY.

Former Rutgers standout quarterback Ray Lucas is in his sixth season as the color analyst on the Rutgers IMG Sports Network. The seven-year NFL veteran has also been an analyst for SNY on its New York Jets programming since 1996 and won a New York Emmy for best analyst in 2010 for his work on SNY.

Anthony "Foch" Fucilli returns for his 11th season as the Rutgers IMG Sports Network sideline reporter. Fucilli has also worked as a field producer and reporter for MSG Network since 1989.

Marc Malusis is back for his sixth year as the pre-game and post-game host on the Rutgers IMG Sports Network. The pre-game show starts one hour prior to kickoff while the post-game show stays on the air one hour following the game.

Former Rutgers defensive lineman Eric LeGrand begins his fourth season on the Rutgers IMG Sports Network. LeGrand will provide insight and commentary on the pre-game show, halftime report and post-game. In addition, LeGrand is a color analyst for home games on the radio broadcast.

Kyle Flood has done something in his first two seasons that no other coach in school history has been able to accomplish in their first two years at Rutgers – lead the Scarlet Knights to two consecutive bowl appearances. Flood, the 2012 BIG EAST Coach of the Year, guided Rutgers to its eighth bowl in the last nine seasons with last year's appearance in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl versus Notre Dame.

Flood has the second-highest total of victories for any coach after two seasons in school history. Four players garnered all-conference honors in 2013 under Flood's watch for the first time – sophomore tight end Tyler Kroft (first team), sophomore running back Paul James (first team), junior center Betim Bujari (second team) and true freshman return specialist Janarion Grant (second team).

In addition, Kroft earned All-America status from SL.com, becoming the first Rutgers tight end to be named an All-American since Marco Battaglia in 1995. Redshirt freshman middle linebacker Steve Longa earned several Freshmen All-America honors as he ended the season as the first middle linebacker at Rutgers to total over 100 tackles in a season since Gary Brackett in 2002.

Six players from the 2013 squad signed NFL free agent contracts following the 2014 NFL Draft. In all, 20 players have inked NFL contracts in Flood's first two years as head coach at Rutgers.

Flood's first year as head coach of the Rutgers football program was as memorable as any first-year coach in Rutgers' 144 years of football. Flood guided Rutgers to its first BIG EAST Championship, earned BIG EAST Coach of the Year honors and won more games (nine) than any rookie head coach in RU history. Flood was named the 29th head coach at the Birthplace of College Football on January 31, 2012.

Eight players garnered All-BIG EAST honors as the Scarlet Knights tied a school-record with a 5-2 league record. Khaseem Greene became the second player in league history to be named BIG EAST Defensive Player of the Year for two consecutive seasons.

Greene also became the fourth player in school history to be named to the Walter Camp Football Foundation All-America team, joining former RU standouts Ray Rice, Anthony Davis and Battaglia on the prestigious list. Greene and cornerback Logan Ryan both earned various All-America accolades after the 2012 campaign.

Following the championship 2012 season, a school-record seven players were selected in the 2013 NFL Draft. In addition, seven players also signed NFL free agent contracts as a total of 14 players from the 2012 squad joined the professional football ranks.

While being part of a program producing victories at a rate unprecedented in Rutgers' history, Flood has understood the value of academics for the Scarlet Knights. The Rutgers football program was the lone state university to be ranked in the top 10 percent nationally in APR for the seventh consecutive year in June.

The latest APR figure coincides with the best football team grade point average since 2000. Three players earned a perfect 4.0 GPA during the fall semester while the team grade point average of 2.96 was a record high for the team for the fourth consecutive semester.

Forty-three players finished the 2013 fall semester with a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or higher while 24 student-athletes earned Dean's List honors during the fall semester with at least a 3.5 GPA.

Off the field, Flood has made an impact in community service. He has served the past two years as the honorary coach of the New Jersey Special Olympics, serves on the honorary board of directors for Lauren's First and Goal Foundation and has taken an active role with volunteering with Embrace Kids Foundation.

Flood was one of 17 people honored by the White House among Hurricane Sandy "Champions of Change," earning the nod for Rutgers' relief efforts after the deadly fall storm hit the Northeast region. The Rutgers football program under Flood's leadership has helped raise over $175,000 for the New Jersey Hurricane Sandy Relief Fund.

The Rutgers football team helped after Hurricane Sandy in several ways, including selecting 22 kids affected by Hurricane Sandy to play a flag football game in the final five minutes of the Scarlet-White spring football game, asking game attendees to make a $5 donation and working to remind everyone that there is still a lot to do before the state fully recovers from Hurricane Sandy.

The Champions of Change program gave the White House a chance to honor groups of people doing great work in their communities.

One constant on any coaching staff with Flood is how successful those teams have fared. In 16 of Flood's 17 seasons as an assistant coach, his teams finished with winning records, including earning a National Championship at Delaware.

A highly respected figure in the coaching profession, Flood has served as the assistant head coach of the program since 2008 and has been a key part in Rutgers' six bowl appearances over his seven-year tenure as an assistant in Piscataway. In addition to his four years as the assistant head coach, Flood has been in charge of the offensive line since coming to RU in 2005.

During his time "On the Banks", the Rutgers offensive line has consistently produced top-level talent, including several of which who have gone on to the National Football League. Most recently, Anthony Davis became the highest player ever drafted in Rutgers history as the 11th overall pick of the 2010 NFL Draft. Davis has started every game of his three-year career with the San Francisco 49ers at right tackle and helped guide the 49ers to the Super Bowl in 2013.

In 2011, Flood helped tutor true freshman right tackle Kaleb Johnson into one of the nation's premier rookie offensive linemen, earning Freshman All-America honors. In addition, senior offensive guard Art Forst collected All-BIG EAST First Team honors while senior offensive guard Desmond Wynn was named to the All-BIG EAST Second Team. Wynn was signed as a free agent by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers following the 2012 NFL Draft.

During his time as an assistant coach, Flood has coached 10 All-BIG EAST First or Second Team selections on the offensive line, one All-American and two Freshman All-America honorees.

Flood has helped engineer some of the most potent offenses in Rutgers history – evident in a record-breaking 2007 season. The Scarlet Knights' offensive line ranked second in the nation with just 10 sacks allowed in addition to an RU offense that became the first in NCAA history to have a 3,000-yard passer, 2,000-yard rusher and two 1,000-yard receivers in the same season.

The Rutgers offense was ranked 18th nationally in total offense in 2007. The offensive line featured two of the top tackles in the nation in Pedro Sosa and Jeremy Zutah. Both players earned All-BIG EAST honors and were also invited to the NFL Scouting Combine in Indianapolis, with Zutah becoming a third round selection by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Flood added run game coordinator to his duties in 2007 and his offensive line helped pave the way for All-American running back Ray Rice, who rushed for a school and then-BIG EAST record 2,012 yards that season. Rice went on to become one of the most-recognizable faces in the NFL en route to consecutive Pro Bowl appearances in 2010 and 2011.

In 2006, Flood coached an offensive line that helped Rutgers to one of its most productive seasons, as the group relinquished the fewest sacks in the nation with just eight. His unit was regarded as one of the best in the country and featured Cameron Stephenson and Darnell Stapleton, both who played in the NFL. Flood's corps of hard-nosed blockers helped guide Rice to an All-America season, as he finished second in the nation with 1,794 yards.

Flood came to Rutgers after three seasons at the University of Delaware, where he helped the Blue Hens to a 30-11 record, including a 15-1 mark in 2003 en route to the NCAA FCS National Championship and a share of the Atlantic 10 title in 2004. He also served as assistant head coach and recruiting coordinator during his stint.

Prior to his three seasons at Delaware, Flood was offensive line coach at Hofstra from 1997-2001. While at Hofstra, he helped the Pride earn berths in the NCAA FCS playoffs in 1997 and 1999-2001. The Pride were among the top offensive teams in the nation during his tenure, ranking second in total offense, fourth in passing and fifth in scoring in 2001.

Flood, a 1993 graduate of Iona College, was a four-year letterwinner for the Gaels. A high school teammate of former Rutgers All-American tight end Marco Battaglia at St. Francis Prep High School in Queens, N.Y., Flood earned First Team All-Liberty Conference honors in 1991 and served as team captain of the Gaels in 1992.

Flood was a 2013 inductee into the Iona College Goal Club Hall of Fame.

Flood's first college coaching position came in 1995-96 as offensive line coach at Long Island University-C.W. Post. While coaching at C.W. Post, he helped the team to the ECAC Division II Eastern title in 1996. Flood began his coaching career at St. Francis Prep in 1993, as both offensive and defensive line coach in 1993-94.

Flood and his wife, Amy, are the proud parents of three children, Kyle, Isabella and Joseph.

Ralph Returns

Rutgers offensive coordinator Ralph Friedgen directed the Terrapins to unprecedented heights in his tenure, taking the program to seven bowl games, including a pair of New Year's Day appearances, and a school-record five bowl victories. Prior to Friedgen's arrival, Maryland had just one bowl game appearance in its previous 15 seasons.

Saturday's game will be Friedgen's first in College Park since Nov. 27, 2010 when the Terps defeated NC State 38-31.

He was the 33rd head coach in school history and ranks third in school history in career victories (75-50) and fourth in winning percentage (.600). Friedgen's 75 wins rank 10th on the Atlantic Coast Conference all-time list and are more than the Terps had (60) in the 15 years prior to his arrival.

The consensus National Coach of the Year in 2001 when he led Maryland to its first ACC title in 16 years, Friedgen ranks third in ACC history with five bowl wins and is one of eight coaches with seven or more bowl game appearances. He became the 13th coach in ACC history to amass 70 wins with the victory over Duke (Oct. 2, 2010).

He was voted ACC Coach of the Year in 2001 and 2010, the final one coming when he engineered the second-best turnaround in the FBS. Maryland improved its win total by seven games in 2010 from the previous season and posted the 14th nine-win campaign in school history after finishing 9-4, including a victory in the Military Bowl. Three of those nine-win seasons came under Friedgen.

Long overlooked as a head-coaching candidate, the Maryland alum was tapped as the Terps' top man following the 2000 season, and he wasted no time in returning the program to the glory days it achieved when Friedgen was an assistant to Bobby Ross in the 1980s.

In his first season as the Terps' grid boss, Maryland won its first seven games and eventually halted Florida State's reign as perennial ACC champion, earning the league's automatic berth in the Bowl Championship Series' FedEx Orange Bowl. By winning the ACC title that season, Friedgen became the first mentor in league history to win the championship in his first year as a head coach.

His offensive success notwithstanding, Friedgen's teams at Maryland were solid on defense, ranking among the nation's leaders annually while producing the ACC's Defensive Player of the three times (E.J. Henderson in 2001 and 2002; D'Qwell Jackson in 2005).

A 1970 graduate of Maryland, where he earned a degree in physical education, Friedgen launched his coaching career as a graduate assistant before heading off to a series of jobs that included The Citadel (1973-79), William & Mary (1980) and Murray State (1981).

Playing in Front of a Record Crowd

Rutgers played in front of the largest crowd in its 145-year history against Ohio State at Ohio Stadium. A crowd of 106,795 was in attendance for the Ohio State-Rutgers game at the Horseshoe.

At Nebraska, the Scarlet Knights played in front of 91,088 fans, the seventh largest crowd to witness a Rutgers game.

1. Rutgers at Ohio State (10/18/14)	106,795
2. Rutgers at Tennessee (9/28/02)	103,925
3. Rutgers at Penn State (10/19/91)	95,729

News and Notes ...

- Kyle Flood is the first coach in school history to lead Rutgers to bowl eligibility in each of his first three seasons as head coach.

- The senior class is bowl eligible for the fourth straight season. The only other senior classes in school history to play in four straight bowls were members of the 2008 and 2009 senior classes.

- Rutgers is 22-5 in the last four seasons when attempting at least 35 rushes in a game.

- Rutgers has scored in 27 of its 31 trips (87%) to the red zone this season. One of the trips where RU did not score in the red zone vs. Tulane was kneeling to end the game. In 2013, Rutgers finished 42-of-55 in the red zone (76.4%).

- Rutgers is one of 21 teams in the power five conference (64 teams) to reach a bowl game in at least eight of the last nine seasons (Clemson, Florida State, Georgia Tech, Virginia Tech, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, TCU, Texas, Texas Tech, West Virginia, Nebraska, Ohio State, Rutgers, Wisconsin, Oregon, Alabama, Florida, Georgia, LSU, Missouri, South Carolina).

- The Scarlet Knights are one of four Big Ten teams to be bowl eligible in nine of the previous ten seasons joining Nebraska, Ohio State and Wisconsin.

- Rutgers is 19-3 when scoring 20 points or more under Kyle Flood and 17-3 when leading after three quarters over the last three seasons.

- A stadium record crowd of 53,774 attended Rutgers' inaugural Big Ten game against Penn State on Sept. 13. The previous attendance record at High Point Solutions Stadium was 53,737 vs. Cincinnati in 2009. This season, Rutgers has sold a record amount of season tickets (over 31,000) and has sold out each of its first three Big Ten games.

- Kyle Federico has made 20 of his last 27 field goals to bring his career total to 30. He is sixth in school history in career made field goals.

- Kyle Flood is 10-1 in games played in September, winning by a combined mark of 312-153.

- Rutgers is the only school in the nation to post a shutout in each of the last eight seasons.

- Rutgers is 47-5 since 2000 when holding opponents to less than 300 yards of total offense.

- The Scarlet Knights are 40-9 since 2006 when rushing for 150 yards or more in a game.

- Since 2000, the Scarlet Knights are 52-18 when going over the 150-yard mark on the ground.

- Since 2000, Rutgers is 48-15 when holding the opponent below 100 yards rushing in a game.

- Since 2000, Rutgers is 24-3 when limiting the opponent to less than 50 yards rushing in a game.

- Rutgers was the only school in the nation to have two true freshman cornerbacks start in the same game in 2013.

- Players who have made their first career start in 2014 (7): WR Janarion Grant, WR John Tsimis, NT Kenneth Kirksey, CB Dre Boggs, RB Desmon Peoples, TE Nick Arcidiacono, LB L.J. Liston.

- Players who have made their collegiate debut in 2014 (19): H Mike Bimonte, DB Andre Hunt, LB T.J. Taylor, DL Julian Pinnix-Odrick, DL Kemoko Turay,

- Boggs and Lucy were the first two true freshman to earn playing time in 2014 on special teams. In all, five true freshmen have played for Rutgers in 2014.
- Players who made their Rutgers debut in 2014 (3): WR Andrew Turzilli, P Joey Roth, P Tim Gleeson.
- As a head coach Kyle Flood is 14-3 when leading at the half, 11-2 in games played in August or September, 10-1 when scoring over 30 points, 15-5 when having more rushing yards than the opponent and 7-4 in games decided by seven points or less.
- Rutgers has had 20 touchdown drives of less than three minutes. Four of the five touchdown drives against Howard were under two minutes, 35 seconds.
- Gary Nova has 12 career touchdown passes of at least 60 yards and four of 80 yards or more.
- 32 of Leonte Carroo's 47 catches have gone for either a first down or touchdown (68%).
- Steve Longa leads the defense with 51 tackles against the run, while Gareef Glashen leads with 36 stops versus the pass.
- The offense has scored touchdowns 14 times on plays originating outside the red zone.
- Rutgers led at halftime in each of the first six games this season.
- Rutgers has had three quarters this season holding possession for more than 10 minutes, including 10:41 in the third against Michigan (others were first against Howard and fourth at Navy). The Wolverines were held to only one yard of offense that quarter.
- Five of Andrew Turzilli's nine receptions have gone for at least 36 yards, including touchdown catches of 80 and 93 yards.
- Kemoko Turay leads the nation with three blocked kicks in 2014. Justin Francis and Jamal Merrell were the last RU players to block three kicks in a season in 2011.
- Rutgers scored 21 points in the third quarter against Indiana. That total matched the most scored by a quarter under Kyle Flood (2014: Indiana third quarter, Howard second quarter; 2013: Norfolk State first quarter; 2012: Temple third quarter, Army fourth quarter).
- In five of Rutgers' six wins this season, Rutgers trailed at some point in the game.
- The Rutgers defense allowed Indiana to convert just one third down on 15 attempts. The last time the Scarlet Knights allowed one or less third down conversion was against Norfolk State in 2013 (1-of-13). The last time that happened against an FBS opponent was in 2009 at Army (1-of-11).
- Steve Longa reached double-digit tackles for the 11th time in his career against Michigan State.
- Leonte Carroo needs 61 yards to record the seventh 1,000 yard receiving season in school history.
- The offense had a season-best 5.3 yards per rush against Indiana.
- Steve Longa went over 200 career tackles with his 11 stops against No. 10 Michigan State. He is second on the team with 208 career tackles. Kevin Snyder leads the active roster with 217 stops in his career.
- The 45 points against Indiana were the most by Rutgers in a November conference game since scoring 49 at USF (11/15/08).

Don't Call it a Comeback

Senior quarterback Gary Nova has shown throughout his career under center the ability to rally his team from behind in the fourth quarter. Nova has led Rutgers to six come-from-behind victories in the fourth quarter or overtime over his career.

The latest fourth quarter comeback win for Nova was in the 2014 opener at Washington State. Rutgers trailed 38-34 with 7:13 remaining until Nova guided the Scarlet Knights to an eight-play, 50-yard drive that ended with a Paul James touchdown to clinch the 41-38 victory.

Block Party

Since 2009, Rutgers has led all schools nationally with 41 blocked kicks/punts. During that time span, RU has scored 15 touchdowns via special teams.

The Scarlet Knights have blocked at least four kicks every year since 2007.

Rutgers is second in the nation in blocked kicks (five) in 2014. Redshirt freshman defensive end Kemoko Turay is tied for first nationally with three blocked kicks this season.

Rutgers blocked two kicks vs. Penn State – a field goal by Kemoko Turay and a punt by Leonte Carroo. It was the second consecutive game for RU with two blocks. The last time that happened was in 2010 in the games against Norfolk State and FIU.

Laviano Ready When Called Upon

Redshirt freshman quarterback Chris Laviano played well in the first extensive playing time of his career after replacing an injured Gary Nova for the final two quarters at No. 16 Nebraska.

Laviano, who had appeared in just three career games, finished 4-of-7 passing for 49 yards against the Cornhuskers. The New York native also led the team with 54 rushing yards on five carries, including a career-long 46-yard run on his first drive.

Laviano was the first RU quarterback to lead the team in rushing in a game since Jabu Lovelace rushed for 78 yards on eight attempts in a 59-0 victory over Norfolk State (Sept. 15, 2007).

Martin on the Carry

True freshman running back Robert Martin has continued to earn more playing time as the season has progressed. The Harrisburg, Pa., native is second on the team averaging 5.0 yards per carry. On the season, he has rushed for 277 yards on 55 carries and has lost just six rushing yards the entire season.

Martin had a breakout game Nov. 15 vs. Indiana. The true freshman scored three touchdowns, including a career-long 47-yard run. He finished the day with a season-best 83 rushing yards and averaged 7.5 yards per carry.

Here Comes Hicks

True freshman running back Josh Hicks provided a much needed spark in the rushing attack with a career-best 114 yards on the ground on 20 carries in the Indiana win. It was the third game this season a Scarlet Knight ran for over 100 yards, as Paul James did so at Washington State and Justin Goodwin went over 100 at Navy. Hicks also scored his first career touchdown.

The true freshman has spent time both at safety and running back this season for the Scarlet Knights.

Big Play James

The Rutgers offense will miss running back Paul James for the remainder of the 2014 season after he suffered a torn ACL in the Navy game.

James led Rutgers and ranked 32nd nationally in rushing yards with 363 yards at the time of his injury. He was averaging 5.8 yards per carry and was 10th nationally in rushing touchdowns (5) at the time of his injury.

James reached 1,000 career rushing yards on his 56-yard touchdown run in the second quarter at Washington State. It took him 174 carries to reach the mark.

By comparison, it took Ray Rice 170 career rushes to obtain 1,000 yards (2005 vs. Cincinnati). Overall, James is second in school history to Steve Simms with 5.5 yards per rush (minimum 100 carries).

James' 56-yard rushing score was the longest rushing touchdown since Jawan Jamison had a run that long to the end zone Nov. 12, 2011 at Yankee Stadium against Army. The longest before that was Mohamed Sanu's school record rush of 91 yards versus Tulane on Oct. 2, 2010.

More PJ Notes ...

- James had 100 receiving yards on two catches, including a 69-yard reception in the Howard win. His previous high for yards in a game was 30 versus Eastern Michigan Sept. 14, 2013.
- James was the first Rutgers running back to total 100 yards receiving in a game since Jim Cann against Temple (11/18/89). Cann totaled 11 receptions for 113 yards against the Owls.
- James has scored 15 career touchdowns in 15 career games.

The Kemoko Dragon

Kemoko Turay is the first Rutgers player with multiple sacks in consecutive games since Alex Silvestro in the games against Syracuse and Cincinnati in 2010.

The redshirt freshman is tied for 30th nationally and is third in the Big Ten with 7.5 sacks in 2014. He is third among all freshmen nationally with 7.5 sacks.

Turay also leads the nation with three blocked kicks in 2014. He is tied with two others for the top spot in the nation with three blocks.

Turay made quite the debut in his first game as a Scarlet Knight. Turay was the first Rutgers player with two sacks in a season opener since Justin Francis in 2011 against NC Central. George Johnson was the last player to do that against an FBS opener opponent (Buffalo, 2007) and Val Barnaby was last to do that against a power conference opener opponent (Illinois, 2005).

Carroooooo

Junior wide receiver Leonte Carroo ranks 20th nationally and second in the Big Ten with 939 receiving yards. The Edison native is 17th nationally and second in the Big Ten with eight receiving touchdowns.

Carroo leads all players in the Big Ten with 19.9 yards per reception.

Overall, Carroo leads Rutgers in receptions (47), receiving yards (939) and receiving touchdowns (8). Carroo has five 100-yard receiving games in 2014.

Carroo is already tied for fourth in Rutgers history with 17 career receiving touchdowns. Even more impressive, the 17 career receiving touchdowns have come in just 21 career games at wide receiver. Carroo played in 13 games as a true freshman in 2012 but only on special teams.

He is the only player in school history to record three touchdown receptions in a game twice along with being the first player to ever record three touchdown receptions in his first career start at wide receiver.

Carroo is tied for 10th nationally and is tied for the lead in the Big Ten with 12 receptions of 25 yards or more in 2014.

One for the Record Books

Senior Andrew Turzilli will always remember his first touchdown as a Scarlet Knight. The New Jersey native scored on a 93-yard touchdown pass from Gary Nova - the school record 60th touchdown pass of Nova's career - on the longest offensive play in stadium history at Rutgers.

Turzilli leads the nation in yards per reception (38.1).

Two Straight Bowls for Flood

Kyle Flood became the first coach in 144 years of football at Rutgers to guide the Scarlet Knights to two consecutive bowls in his first two years as head coach. Flood and Greg Schiano are the only coaches in RU history to guide the Scarlet Knights to multiple bowl appearances. Flood had 15 victories in his first two seasons as head coach at Rutgers. The 15 wins rank him second in school history for wins by a head coach in his first two seasons. Flood's nine victories in 2012 were the most by a first-year head coach in school history. He is the only coach in RU history to lead a team to a bowl and conference championship in their first season.

Plenty of Returning Experience Up Front

Rutgers returned five starters on its offensive line in 2014. The returning unit of LT Keith Lumpkin, LG Kaleb Johnson, C Betim Bujari, RG Chris Muller and RT Taj Alexander have combined to play in 173 games, including 149 career starts. Johnson leads the unit with 48 career starts in 48 games played.

2014 Captains

Two-time captains aren't particularly rare at Rutgers recently, but those achieving the distinction have had to prove they deserved the honor the second time around.

Quarterback Gary Nova did just that as a junior last year, having been replaced for the final three games after he started the previous 23 - a test of leadership, character and captaincy worthiness if there ever was one.

So it came as little surprise that the Scarlet Knights' senior quarterback attained two-time captaincy, being named one of the official team leaders along with strong safety Lorenzo Waters, defensive lineman David Milewski, defensive tackle Darius Hamilton and fullback Michael Burton following a vote of the players.

Nova joined Mike Teel (2007-08), Eric Foster (2006-07), Tres Moses (2004-05), L.J. Smith (2001-02), Gary Brackett (2001-02), Shawn Seabrooks (2001-02) and Brian Sheridan (1995 and 1997) as the eighth two-time Rutgers captain in the past 20 years.

Record Point Total in Road Opening Win

Rutgers scored 41 points in its season-opening win on the road at Washington State in Seattle - the most points scored in a win vs. FBS competition in school history for the Scarlet Knights in the first game of the season on the road.

The most points scored by RU in a victory in a season-opener on the road were 47 at Lafayette (9/29/51).

Highest Point Totals in a Road Season-Opening Win

9/29/51	Rutgers 47, Lafayette 12
9/20/69	Rutgers 44, Lafayette 22
8/28/14	Rutgers 41, Washington State 38

Aiken Becomes First B1G Player of the Week

Senior free safety Johnathan Aiken became the first player in Rutgers history to be named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week for his efforts in the win over Washington State.

The Big Ten named Aiken the defensive player of the week on Sept. 1 after totaling seven tackles and being in the center of two critical plays in the fourth quarter against the Cougars.

Aiken first forced a Washington State fumble on a punt return with just seven minutes remaining as Rutgers trailed 38-34. Teammate Anthony Cioffi recovered the fumble as it setup the game-winning touchdown for the Scarlet Knights.

On 4th-and-13 from the WSU 38 with 59 seconds remaining in the game, Aiken broke up a pass intended for River Cracraft to seal the come-from-behind 41-38 victory.

Nova & Turay Earn B1G Honors

Gary Nova and defensive end Kemoko Turay each earned conference player of the week honors. Nova is the first Big Ten Offensive Player of the Week in school history after his 404-yard performance in the win over Michigan. Turay claimed Rutgers' first Big Ten Special Teams Player of the Week honor as he blocked a Michigan field goal late in the fourth quarter to preserve the 26-24 victory.

It marked the first time Rutgers has had two players earn Big Ten Player of the Week honors. Defensive back Johnathan Aiken earned Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week honors following the Washington State victory to open the 2014 season.

Nova passed for a career-high 404 yards, the third-highest total in a game in program history. He finished 22-of-39 passing with three touchdowns and no interceptions against the Wolverines. He owns six games with at least 300 yards through the air and ranks either first or second in the Big Ten in passing efficiency, passing yards, touchdowns and yards per completion.
