#1 MARYLAND
AT #8/7 NORTH CAROLINA
 Saturday February 24 | 1:00 p.m. | ACC Network Extra
 Kenan Stadium | Chapel Hill, NC

QUICK HITS

- Top-ranked Maryland women's lacrosse team will hit the road for the second straight weekend, heading down to Chapel Hill to face off with the #8/7 Tar Heels.

- Maryland heads into this weekend's contest with a 2-0 record and No. 1 ranking after defeating William & Mary, 18-7 and No. 5/3 Florida 16-14.

- Senior attacker Megan Whittle leads the Terps with 10 points and nine goals after scoring four in the opening bout vs. William & Mary and five at No. 3 Florida. Whittle ranks eighth nationally and leads the Big Ten with 4.5 goals per game.

- Maryland has received a Big Ten honor following each of the first two games. Megan Whittle was named Big Ten Offensive Player of the Week this past week after the win over Florida, while after the first week, sophomore midfielder Lizzie Colson was named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week.

- Maryland is once again backlined by junior goalie Megan Taylor, who was named the 2017 IWLCA National Goalie of the Year and an IWLCA First Team All-American. Taylor is a two-time Big Ten Goaltender of the Year. Taylor has accumulated 12 saves through the first two games of 2018.

- Megan Whittle became the fastest player to reach 200 career goals last year and stands at 223 through two games in her senior season, to move to fourth all-time in Maryland lore. With 45 more goals, Whittle can become Maryland's career scoring leader, passing Jen Adams.

- Last season, the Terps went 23-0 in 2017 en route to the program's 14th national title. Maryland also won the Big Ten regular season and tournament titles while going undefeated for the fifth time in program history.

- Maryland is on a 65-game win streak at the Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex and hasn't lost in College Park since March 10, 2012. The Terps led the nation in attendance in 2017.

- On the road, Maryland is on a 24 game winning streak, last losing on 4/5/14 at North Carolina. This is currently the longest road winning streak in the nation.

TERPS TRAVEL TO #7/8 NORTH CAROLINA SATURDAY

Top-ranked Maryland will play its second-straight game at a top ten opponent as the Terrapins head to Chapel Hill for a 1:00 p.m. faceoff on Saturday.

LAST TIME OUT

Last weekend, the Terrapins defeated the then-No. 5 Florida Gators in Gainesville, with Megan Whittle and Jen Giles combining for nine goals. Maryland used a five-goal run in the second half to break away from the Gators, while goalie Megan Taylor finished with 11 stops.

TERPS - TAR HEELS HISTORY

Maryland leads the all-time series with North Carolina, 25-13. Under Head Coach Cathy Reese, Maryland is 13-6 in matchups against North Carolina, posting a 7-3 record against the Tar Heels in the regular season. Maryland has won three straight regular season contests vs. North Carolina.

ROAD WARRIORS

The Maryland women's lacrosse program has won 24 straight games on the road dating back almost four years, last falling to North Carolina in Chapel Hill on 4/5/14. This marks the longest current streak in the country and the longest road winning streak of Cathy Reese's tenure at Maryland.

BIG TEN HONORS:

Senior attacker Megan Whittle was named Big Ten Offensive Player of the Week after a five-goal performance at then No. 5 Florida last weekend. This honor marks Whittle's ninth Big Ten weekly honor of her career.

For her efforts in an 18-7 win over William & Mary, sophomore midfielder Lizzie Colson notched Maryland's first 2018 weekly honor, being named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week after week one. Colson tied for the team lead in both caused turnovers (two) and groundballs (two), she also ranked second on the team with three draw control wins.

WHERE THE TERPS RANK:

As a team, Maryland ranks in the top-ten in the nation in three major categories:

| Stat | NCAA Rank | BIG Rank | Value |
|--------------------------|-----------|----------|-------------------|
| Free Position Percentage | 2nd | 1st | 72.2% |
| Scoring Offense | 8th | 1st | 17 goals per game |
| Shot Percentage | 8th | 1st | 52.3% |

Individually, Megan Whittle ranks top-ten nationally and leads the Big Ten in two scoring categories:

| Stat | NCAA Rank | BIG Rank | Value |
|------------------------------|-----------|----------|-------|
| Free Position Goals Per Game | 1st | 1st | 3 |
| Goals Per Game | 8th | 1st | 4.5 |

TERPS ON TOP

Maryland is ranked No. 1 in both the Inside Lacrosse Media and IWLCA Coaches polls for the 16th straight week, going back to when the Terps were No. 2 before knocking off No. 1 North Carolina on Feb. 25 of last season at Capital One Field at Maryland Stadium.

PROTECT THIS HOUSE

Maryland is currently on 65-game win streak in College Park, dating back to March 13, 2012. In 2017, the Terps led the nation in both total attendance (16,440) and fans per game (1,265).

TOURNEY TERPS

The Terps lead the nation with 33 NCAA appearances and are also tops in wins (68), championship game appearances (20) and NCAA titles (13). Maryland made its 28th consecutive appearance in the postseason (1990-2017) last season. The Terrapins have made nine straight Final Fours (2009-17) and captured four titles in that time (2010, 14, 15, 17).

CATHY REESE

12TH SEASON AT MARYLAND/15TH OVERALL
MARYLAND '98

One of the most decorated coaches at the collegiate level, former Maryland standout and three-time IWLCA National Coach of the Year Cathy Reese led the Terps to their 14th national title in 2017.

As a student-athlete, assistant coach and head coach for the Terrapins, Reese has earned 11 NCAA Championships.

The Terps competed perfection in 2017 as the team went 23-0 and won the program's 14th national title. Maryland won both the Big Ten regular season and tournament titles. Five Terps were honored as All-Americans while Maryland featured the IWLCA National Midfielder, Defender and Goalie of the Year in Zoe Stukenberg, Nadine Hadnagy and Megan Taylor. Zoe Stukenberg went on to win the Tewaaraton Award, Maryland's sixth-straight honoree.

Maryland had a near-perfect season in 2016 as the Terps posted a 22-1 record with the only blemish coming in the national championships game. Maryland won the Big Ten regular season and tournament titles. Five Terps earned All-American honors while six players were named All-Big Ten. Taylor Cummings finished her playing career as the most decorated player in lacrosse, three-peating as the Tewaaraton and Honda Award winner and as the IWLCA National Midfielder of the Year. Alice Mercer garnered IWLCA National Defender of the Year honors.

The Terps garnered their second-straight NCAA Championship in 2015 under Reese. Maryland posted a 21-1 overall record and earned the first-ever Big Ten Regular Season Championship with a 5-0 conference record. Reese was named the IWLCA National Coach of the Year for the third time while Taylor Cummings and Megan Douty repeated as the IWLCA National Midfielder and Defender of the Year, respectively. Five Terps were named IWLCA All-Americans while eight players earned All-Big Ten honors. Cummings repeated as the Tewaaraton Award and Honda Award winner while posting her best season to date under Reese.

Reese led the Terps to their second NCAA title in five years in 2014. Maryland garnered a 23-1 record on their way to a sixth consecutive Atlantic Coast Conference title in the team's last season in the conference. Reese was named ACC Coach of the Year for a league-high seventh time. The Terps boasted six IWLCA All-American, including IWLCA National Midfielder of the Year Taylor Cummings and IWLCA National Defender of the Year Megan Douty. Cummings went on to become the first sophomore to earn the women's Tewaaraton Award. Reese capped the season with IWLCA Regional and National Coach of the Year honors.

The Terps were near perfect in 2013, going 22-1 with its lone loss coming in heartbreaking fashion in overtime against North Carolina in the national title game. Maryland won its unprecedented fifth straight ACC title and senior Katie Schwarzmann won the Tewaaraton Award for the second straight year. The Terps boasted the IWLCA Midfielder and Attacker of the Year in Schwarzmann and Alex Aust. Taylor Cummings was named ACC Rookie of the Year.

Maryland captured its conference-record fourth consecutive ACC title in 2012 and landed in the final four for the fourth straight season. Reese mentored her second Tewaaraton winner - Katie Schwarzmann - and landed four student-athletes on the IWLCA All-America list.

Reese's Terps won their third-straight conference championship in 2011 while landing in the final four of the NCAA Women's Lacrosse Championship for the third consecutive season. Maryland concluded the season with a 21-2 record, falling short in the title game to Northwestern. The Terps put together another stellar season, boasting two Tewaaraton finalists, an ACC Player of the Year and four IWLCA First Team All-Americans.

With the Terps falling just once in regular season play, Maryland wrapped up the 2010 campaign on a 10-game winning streak, which concluded in elation with a gallant comeback against five-time defending national champion Northwestern in the NCAA Women's Lacrosse Championship. Reese coached Maryland's first Tewaaraton Award winner since Jen Adams as Caitlyn McFadden was tabbed the top player in all of women's lacrosse. Four other Terrapins landed All-America status as well and Reese garnered IWLCA National Coach of the Year honors along with being named the top coach in the conference for the second straight season.

Reese had Maryland on the verge of perfection in 2009, leading the Terps to a 21-1 record, an NCAA Final Four trip and ACC Tournament and Regular Season championships. She boasted three Tewaaraton nominees, five All-Americans, five All-ACC honorees, the ACC Player and Rookie of the Year and the IWLCA Midfielder of the Year.

Reese returned to her alma mater in 2007 as the head coach and guided the Terps to a 16-4 record, including a first-place finish in the Atlantic Coast Conference at 4-1, earning the conference's Coach of the Year award. Reese continued to move Maryland in a positive direction in 2008, steering the Terps to an 18-3 record and an Atlantic Coast Conference regular season title. Once again, Reese boasted some of the top talent in the nation as senior Dana Dobbie was tabbed ACC Player of the Year in addition to being named a finalist for the Tewaaraton Trophy, given annually to the nation's best player.

Reese returned to Maryland after spending her first three seasons as head coach at the University of Denver where she guided the Pioneers to their most successful season in school history in 2006 with a 16-5 record.

Prior to lifting the Denver program to national attention, Reese spent nine seasons in College Park, four as a student-athlete and five as an assistant coach. During that span, the women's lacrosse program had one of the most successful streaks seen in collegiate women's sports history. The Terps won seven national championships in her first nine years on campus.
