#1 MARYLAND

vs. #4 BOSTON COLLEGE

Friday, May 25 | 7:30 p.m. | ESPN3

NCAA Tournament Semifinals | Kenneth P. LaValle Stadium | Stony Brook, NY

QUICK HITS

- The No. 1 seeded Maryland women's lacrosse team will play in their 10th consecutive final four this weekend, as the Terps face No. 4 seeded Boston College on Friday night at 7:30 p.m in the National Semifinals.

- The Terps are currently on a 18-game winning streak, after winning both the Big Ten Regular Season and Tournament Championships and going undefeated in regular season conference play. Currently standing at 20-1, Maryland came from behind to defeat Navy in the NCAA Quarterfinals, 17-15, to advance to their 10th straight championship weekend.

- Megan Whittle (83 goals, 15 assists) leads the team with 98 points, while Caroline Steele (58 goals, 20 assists) stands in second with 78. Whittle leads the Big Ten in many offensive categories, including goals (83), after scoring a career-best eight in the Big Ten Championship against Penn State, and points (98) and is third in the country in free position goals per game with 1.71, after scoring a career-best six against UMBC. Steele ranks third in the conference in points (78), fifth in free position percentage (57.1%), fourth in assists (20) and sixth in goals (58).

- This season, Megan Whittle both tied and passed Maryland great Jen Adams for the all-time goal lead at Maryland. Whittle tied Adams with a second half goal against Princeton, which kickstarted a game-ending 7-2 run to cap off a Terrapin comeback. Against Ohio State, Whittle broke the record on free position in the first half, going on to score three more goals. In the Terps Second Round NCAA win over Denver, Whittle passed Gail Cummings (Temple, 1984-87) for the second-most career goals in NCAA history. Whittle currently stands at 297 goals, only three away from becoming the first Terp and second NCAA women's lacrosse player to reach the 300 goal plateau.

- Maryland leads the nation with 34 NCAA appearances and are also tops in wins (71), final four appearances (26), championship game appearances (21) and NCAA titles (13). The Terps are making their 29th consecutive appearance in the postseason (1990-2018).

- The Terps have won five straight National Semifinal games. Last season, the Terps defeated Penn State, 20-10.

#2 MARYLAND BATTLES #3 BOSTON COLLEGE IN FINAL FOUR

The No. 1 seeded Maryland women's lacrosse team will play in their 10th consecutive final four this weekend, as the Terps face No. 4 seeded Boston College on Friday night at 7:30 p.m.

#2 TERPS ADVANCE TO 10TH STRAIGHT FINAL FOUR

No. 1 seeded Maryland (20-1) used a game-ending 6-1 run to come from behind and defeat Navy (18-4), 17-15, in the NCAA Quarterfinals on Saturday afternoon.

Trailing 14-11 with 15 minutes to go in the contest, Maryland would rattle off six straight goals to take a 17-14 lead that would ultimately end up with a 17-15 score.

Jen Giles led the way with seven points on four goals and three assists. Megan Whittle had three goals during the Terps 6-0 second half run to fuel the offense. Megan Taylor was sensational in the cage, tallying a season-best 13 saves including numerous point blank stops in the second half.

TERPS HISTORY WITH BOSTON COLLEGE

The Terps lead the all-time series with the Eagles, 13-0.

The two programs met last season in the National Championship game, with Maryland defeating the Eagles, 16-13. Caroline Steele tallied six goals while Taylor Hensh finished with a hat trick and Jen Giles, Megan Whittle and Kali Hartshorn each scored twice.

Boston College head coach Acacia Walker is a 2005 graduate of Maryland. Terps' head coach Cathy Reese was an assistant on the staff during Walker's college career.

CONTROLLING THE DRAW

As a team, Maryland stands second in the the nation and leads the Big Ten in draw controls per game, with 17.05, with Kali Hartshorn, Meghan Siverson and Lizzie Colson leading the charge.

Hartshorn recorded a career-best with an incredible 16 draw controls in the Big Ten Tournament Championship against Penn State. Siverson then had a career-high of her own, 13 draw controls against UMBC (2/28). Colson has recorded a career-best eight draw controls twice this season, both against Johns Hopkins in the Big Ten Tournament Semifinals (5/4) and Navy in the NCAA Quarterfinals (5/19). Maryland has 358 as a team through 21 games, with Siverson, Hartshorn and Colson combining for 283 of those (79.1%).

WHERE THE TERPS RANK:

As a team, Maryland ranks top-ten in the nation and first in the Big Ten in five major categories:

Stat	NCAA Rank	B1G Rank	Value
Draw Controls Per Game	2nd	1st	17.05
Shots Per Game	3rd	1st	37.14
Goals Per Game	4th	1st	16.33
Free Position Percentage	6th	1st	51.3%
Scoring Margin	6th	1st	6.67

Individually, Megan Whittle leads the Big Ten and ranks top ten nationally in three categories:

Stat	NCAA Rank	B1G Rank	Value
Free Position Goals Per Game	3rd	1st	1.71
Shots Per Game	4th	1st	8.52
Goals	4th	1st	83

HARTSHORN'S DOMINANCE

Kali Hartshorn has been dominant in the circle, tallying 135 draw controls this season, pacing a Maryland offense that ranks second in the country in draw controls and has outdrawn their opponents in every game but one this season. After tallying a career-best 16 draw controls in the Big Ten Tournament Championship against Penn State, Hartshorn now stands third all-time for draw controls in a single season at Maryland and stands only 9 behind the record (144).

RECORD WATCH

Numerous Terps stand towards the top of the Maryland women's lacrosse record book, in...

Single-Season Goals: Megan Whittle is five goals behind Jen Adams' record.

Single-Season Draw Controls: Kali Hartshorn is 9 draw controls behind Taylor Cummings' record.

All-Time Points: Megan Whittle is second all-time with 338 points.

All-Time Saves: Megan Taylor is fifth all-time with 510 saves.

CATHY REESE

12TH SEASON AT MARYLAND/15TH OVERALL

MARYLAND '98

One of the most decorated coaches at the collegiate level, former Maryland standout and three-time IWLCA National Coach of the Year Cathy Reese led the Terps to their 14th national title in 2017.

As a student-athlete, assistant coach and head coach for the Terrapins, Reese has earned 11 NCAA Championships.

The Terps competed perfection in 2017 as the team went 23-0 and won the program's 14th national title. Maryland won both the Big Ten regular season and tournament titles. Five Terps were honored as All-Americans while Maryland featured the IWLCA National Midfielder, Defender and Goalie of the Year in Zoe Stukenberg, Nadine Hadnagy and Megan Taylor. Zoe Stukenberg went on to win the Tewaaraton Award, Maryland's sixth-straight honoree.

Maryland had a near-perfect season in 2016 as the Terps posted a 22-1 record with the only blemish coming in the national championships game. Maryland won the Big Ten regular season and tournament titles. Five Terps earned All-American honors while six players were named All-Big Ten. Taylor Cummings finished her playing career as the most decorated player in lacrosse, three-peating as the Tewaaraton and Honda Award winner and as the IWLCA National Midfielder of the Year. Alice Mercer garnered IWLCA National Defender of the Year honors.

The Terps garnered their second-straight NCAA Championship in 2015 under Reese. Maryland posted a 21-1 overall record and earned the first-ever Big Ten Regular Season Championship with a 5-0 conference record. Reese was named the IWLCA National Coach of the Year for the third time while Taylor Cummings and Megan Doudy repeated as the IWLCA National Midfielder and Defender of the Year, respectively. Five Terps were named IWLCA All-Americans while eight players earned All-Big Ten honors. Cummings repeated as the Tewaaraton Award and Honda Award winner while posting her best season to date under Reese.

Reese led the Terps to their second NCAA title in five years in 2014. Maryland garnered a 23-1 record on their way to a sixth consecutive Atlantic Coast Conference title in the team's last season in the conference. Reese was named ACC Coach of the Year for a league-high seventh time. The Terps boasted six IWLCA All-American, including IWLCA National Midfielder of the Year Taylor Cummings and IWLCA National Defender of the Year Megan Doudy. Cummings went on to become the first sophomore to earn the women's Tewaaraton Award. Reese capped the season with IWLCA Regional and National Coach of the Year honors.

The Terps were near perfect in 2013, going 22-1 with its lone loss coming in heartbreaking fashion in overtime against North Carolina in the national title game. Maryland won its unprecedented fifth straight ACC title and senior Katie Schwarzmann won the Tewaaraton Award for the second straight year. The Terps boasted the IWLCA Midfielder and Attacker of the Year in Schwarzmann and Alex Aust. Taylor Cummings was named ACC Rookie of the Year.

Maryland captured its conference-record fourth consecutive ACC title in 2012 and landed in the final four for the fourth straight season. Reese mentored her second Tewaaraton winner - Katie Schwarzmann - and landed four student-athletes on the IWLCA All-America list.

Reese's Terps won their third-straight conference championship in 2011 while landing in the final four of the NCAA Women's Lacrosse Championship for the third consecutive season. Maryland concluded the season with a 21-2 record, falling short in the title game to Northwestern. The Terps put together another stellar season, boasting two Tewaaraton finalists, an ACC Player of the Year and four IWLCA First Team All-Americans.

With the Terps falling just once in regular season play, Maryland wrapped up the 2010 campaign on a 10-game winning streak, which concluded in elation with a gallant comeback against five-time defending national champion Northwestern in the NCAA Women's Lacrosse Championship. Reese coached Maryland's first Tewaaraton Award winner since Jen Adams as Caitlyn McFadden was tabbed the top player in all of women's lacrosse. Four other Terrapins landed All-America status as well and Reese garnered IWLCA National Coach of the Year honors along with being named the top coach in the conference for the second straight season.

Reese had Maryland on the verge of perfection in 2009, leading the Terps to a 21-1 record, an NCAA Final Four trip and ACC Tournament and Regular Season championships. She boasted three Tewaaraton nominees, five All-Americans, five All-ACC honorees, the ACC Player and Rookie of the Year and the IWLCA Midfielder of the Year.

Reese returned to her alma mater in 2007 as the head coach and guided the Terps to a 16-4 record, including a first-place finish in the Atlantic Coast Conference at 4-1, earning the conference's Coach of the Year award. Reese continued to move Maryland in a positive direction in 2008, steering the Terps to an 18-3 record and an Atlantic Coast Conference regular season title. Once again, Reese boasted some of the top talent in the nation as senior Dana Dobbie was tabbed ACC Player of the Year in addition to being named a finalist for the Tewaaraton Trophy, given annually to the nation's best player.

Reese returned to Maryland after spending her first three seasons as head coach at the University of Denver where she guided the Pioneers to their most successful season in school history in 2006 with a 16-5 record.

Prior to lifting the Denver program to national attention, Reese spent nine seasons in College Park, four as a student-athlete and five as an assistant coach. During that span, the women's lacrosse program had one of the most successful streaks seen in collegiate women's sports history. The Terps won seven national championships in her first nine years on campus.
