SIMPLY THE BEST - MARYLAND WOMEN'S LACROSSE

- The Terps have been invited to the NCAA Tournament a total of 25 times which is more than any other team in the country. Virginia, which is second, made its 22nd appearance in the postseason in 2009.
- Maryland has played the most games in the tournament (54) and has the most wins with a 39-16 record.
- The Terps have won nine NCAA Championships which is four more than the second place team. Northwestern has won its first five national titles the last five seasons while Princeton and Virginia also have three to their names.
- Maryland has won the most overtime games in the NCAA Tournament with a 6-0 record.
- Maryland has the longest winning streak in NCAA Tournament history with 21 consecutive victories from 1995-2002 and have appeared in 16 title games, more than any other school.
- Heading into the 2010 season, Maryland has more wins than any other program in the country, totaling in at 516 and also boast the top winning percentage (.806).

JOHNSON LEADS TERPS PAST NO. 7 GEORGETOWN

- Sophomore Karri Ellen Johnson netted five scores and No. 2 Maryland put up 20 goals for the second consecutive game as the Terps ran away with a 20-11 win against No. 7 Georgetown Wednesday.
- Three of Johnson's five goals came in the opening minutes of the second stanza to provide Maryland some breathing room and a six-goal cushion after an even-played first half.
- The Terrapin defense stepped up the intensity in the second half, allowing only five Hoya goals in the period. Maryland trumped Georgetown 23-10 in the draw control category, led by five from junior Brandi Jones.

SCOUTING THE EAGLES

- Boston College puts its perfect record on the line Saturday with an afternoon match against Maryland.
- BC gets the vast majority of its offensive production from Lauren Costello (20g, 18a), Brooke Blue (22g) and Kristin Igoe (17g). Costello also boasts a hefty team-high .769 shot percentage.
- The Eagles topped Holy Cross on Wednesday, 13-7, to notch its sixth win of the year. Their lone conference win has come at the hands of Virginia Tech.
- In the cage, Sheila Sarafino is surrendering 5.48 goals per game while making 37 saves.
- With a 6-0 start, BC is off to its best start in program history.
- Maryland is 5-0 all-time against Boston College all-time, including 10-5 defeat of the Eagles last season. In that match, Maryland allowed only 12 BC shots and was led offensively by three goals from Caitlyn McFadden and a pair each from Laura Merrifield and Brandi Jones.

ALL-TIME SERIES

- March 21, 2009 - Boston College 5, Maryland 10
- February 24, 2008 - Maryland 23, Boston College 10
- February 24, 2007 - Boston College 8, Maryland 18
- April 27, 2006 - Boston College 8, Maryland 21 (ACC Tournament)
- April 22, 2006 - Maryland 13, Boston College 11

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

- Despite winning the ACC championship and going a spectacular 21-1, including an undefeated record at the Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex, the Terps, which return every starter from last season, have some unfinished business to take care of --- bringing the national championship back to College Park.
- It had been five seemingly long seasons since the esteemed Maryland women's lacrosse program had advanced to the final four, but the wait finally ended in 2010 as the Terps landed in Towson for national semifinals.
- North Carolina narrowly edged Maryland, 8-7, in the Final Four.
- This year's Terps are a year older and a year wiser -- boasting possibly ten upperclassmen in their starting lineup -- and the goal has never been clearer.

TERPS TRAMPLE NO. 15 NEW HAMPSHIRE, 20-6

- No. 2 Maryland amassed 49 shots on its way to a 20-6 thrashing of No. 15 New Hampshire at a wet Field Hockey and Lacrosse Complex.
- Maryland outshot the Wildcats 49-15 and forced UNH into 22 turnovers in the match. Tewaaron nominees Karri Ellen Johnson and Sarah Mollison led the offensive explosion with four goals apiece as a total of 10 Terps notched scores on the day.
- Defensively, Maryland held its opponent to single-digit scores for the sixth consecutive time in 2010. Brittany Poist picked up a game-high four groundballs and added a pair of caused turnovers. Amanda Spinnenweber, Brandi Jones, Kate Faas and Sarah Matz all tallied two goals each to aid the Maryland offense.

MARYLAND CRUISES PAST GEORGE MASON, 16-4

- No. 2 Maryland used a ferocious 10-0 run to begin the first half en route to a 16-4 defeat of George Mason on the road.
- Maryland was able to employ the majority of its bench Tuesday as 28 Terps landed on the box score. Nine different players scored with Caitlyn McFadden leading the charge with a hat trick and four assists for a season-high seven points.
- The Terps outscored Mason 5-2 in the second period and held a significant 14-7 shot advantage in the period. A swarming Maryland defense forced Mason into 11 turnovers in the second half alone while the Patriots were successful on a mere 10-of-18 clear attempts on the match.
- Karri Ellen Johnson, Alex Aust, Amanda Spinnenweber, Brandi Jones and Katie Schwarzmann each notched two goals apiece.

TEN NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

TENACIOUS D

- George Mason's Megan Udovich finally stymied Maryland's defense with a goal with 2:33 remaining in the first half to stop Maryland's streak of 67 consecutive minutes without surrendering a goal.
- Maryland, which is allowing a mere 5.8 goals per game this season, held No. 9 Virginia scoreless the final 39:43 of last Friday's match before preventing Mason from seeing the back of the net for 27:27 to begin Tuesday's game in Fairfax.

MARYLAND DROPS VIRGINIA, 11-5

- The No. 2-ranked Maryland women's lacrosse team held No. 9 Virginia scoreless in the second half on its way to an 11-5 defeat of the Cavaliers.
- After the two perennial powerhouses battled to a 6-5 Maryland advantage through the first 30 minutes of play, the Terps held the Cavs to a mere three shots in the second stanza.
- Karri Ellen Johnson ended the day with a match-high four goals while adding an assist, two caused turnovers, a draw control and a ground ball. Sarah Mollison also tallied five points on two goals and three assists.
- Maryland held a decisive shot advantage, 33-11, and kept an opponent from reaching a double-digit goal output for the fourth consecutive time this season.

TERPS DOMINATE DUKE, 17-4

- Maryland benefited from a balanced scoring attack as the Terps toppled Duke, 17-4, on the road.
- Maryland picked up hat tricks from Katie Schwarzmann, Amanda Spinnenweber and Sarah Mollison as a total of nine players scored on the day, five of whom put up multi-goal showings.
- The Terps have now scored 17 goals in all three of their wins in 2010. Duke (4-1, 0-1 ACC), who was also averaging 17 scores per contest, was held to a season-low four goals in its conference opener. Maryland outshot the Blue Devils 32-19 for the match.
- In addition to notching three goals, Mollison added a pair of assists and a game-high five draw controls. Schwarzmann put together the most complete game of her young career at Maryland, tacking an assist, two draw controls, five ground balls and three caused turnovers onto her career-high three-goal performance.

THE 200-POINT CLUB

- With seven points against George Mason, senior Caitlyn McFadden joined Maryland's prestigious 200-point club for her career.
- The four-year starter is 11-points shy of cracking the top ten list. Former Maryland great Jen Adams leads the way with 445 career points, the most in NCAA women's lacrosse history. Maryland assistant coach Quinn Carney is fourth with 272, while head coach Cathy Reese is 11th with 217.

TERPS RALLY TO DEFEAT NO. 18 PENN STATE

- Caitlyn McFadden scored six goals as the No. 2 Maryland women's lacrosse team rallied from an early first-half deficit to drop No. 18 Penn State, 17-9.
- Maryland opened the second stanza with 11 unanswered goals, beginning with a Laura Merrifield unassisted score with a mere nine seconds elapsed in the period. McFadden, Lacrosse Magazine's National Preseason Player of the Year, knotted up the score with a pair of goals and Brandi Jones found the back of the net to give Maryland the lead with 27:01 remaining in the contest.
- Defensively, Maryland put on a clinic in the second half, allowing only three goals from a Nittany Lion offense that came into the match averaging more than ten goals per contest. Senior Katie Gallagher picked up a game-high three caused turnovers and sophomore Brittany Dipper notched her second win of the year with four saves in the cage.

TERPS WIN SEASON OPENER

- Karri Ellen Johnson, Brandi Jones, Caitlyn McFadden and Kate Faas all netted three goals apiece en route to a 17-7 victory against Richmond in the Terps' season opener at the Practice Turf Field.
- Johnson, who scored five goals in her collegiate debut at Richmond last season, also led Maryland in draw controls with seven. McFadden tacked on four assists for a team-high seven points on the day.
- Sophomore Brittany Dipper was the keeper of record after making six saves in the match. The Terps were a stellar 10-for-10 in clears. Laura Merrifield had a team-high three caused turnovers as Brittany Poist scooped up three of Maryland's 19 ground balls on the day.

- Maryland is now 17-0 all-time against Richmond.

MARYLAND LANDS FOUR ON TEWAARATON WATCH LIST

- Maryland boasted four players on the 2010 Tewaaraton Award "Watch List", announced Friday by the Greater Washington Sports Alliance.
- Seniors Caitlyn McFadden and Karissa Taylor, junior Sarah Mollison and sophomore Karri Ellen Johnson represent the Terps on this year's list.
- McFadden, who was a finalist for the Tewaaraton in 2009, returns for her second year as a captain for Maryland this season. The Phoenix, Md., native is the top returning midfielder in the nation in 2010 after being tabbed IWLCA National Midfielder of the Year as a junior.
- Taylor joins McFadden as a second-year captain for head coach Cathy Reese. The defender from Easton, Md., racked up All-America honors last season while helping guide a youth-laden Maryland squad all the way to the NCAA semifinals.
- Mollison returns for her junior campaign after leading the Terps in assists last season. The Melbourne, Australia, product was named to the watch list along with Johnson in 2009. Mollison is one of Maryland's five returning All-Americans in 2010.
- Johnson will make a run at the Tewaaraton for the second time in her short but illustrious career. The sophomore boasted the top freshman season in Maryland women's lacrosse history a year ago, tallying 74 goals, the third-highest mark in single-season program annals.

ONE FOR THE RECORD BOOKS

- Maryland crushed No. 5 Duke, 17-4, to capture its biggest win over the Blue Devils in program history.
- The 13-goal differential was the highest in Maryland women's lacrosse history against rival-Duke.
- Prior to Saturday's match in Durham, the Terps' largest defeat of the Blue Devils came early in the rivalry series with back-to-back wins against Duke in 1996 and 1997. Maryland won each of those matches by 11 scores.

TAKING NOTICE

- Maryland, which has consistently been ranked No. 2 by both major polls since the beginning of last season, has earned first-place votes for the third consecutive week.
- Northwestern has held on to the top spot the majority of the time since 2005, as the Wildcats have boasted five-straight national championships. The last time Maryland totaled multiple first-place votes was at the beginning of the 2002 season after winning the national title in 2001.
- The Terps garnered two first-place votes in the latest IWLCA poll and two in Inside Lacrosse's edition.

MCFADDEN SNAGS ACC POW HONOR

- Senior midfielder Caitlyn McFadden has been named Atlantic Coast Conference Women's Lacrosse Player of the Week for the period ending on Sunday, February 22.
- McFadden lifted the second-ranked Terps to their first road win of the 2010 campaign at No. 18 Penn State Sunday. The senior from Phoenix, Md., tallied six goals, including four in the second stanza, to help Maryland erase a three-goal, first-half deficit against the Nittany Lions. McFadden added an assist and also tallied three draw controls to lead the Terps to a 2-0 record on the year.
- McFadden is among the NCAA Division I active leaders in points and assists.

RAPID FIRE

- Historically, Maryland presents one of the most aggressive offenses in the nation, and this season is no different.
- With two games elapsed in the 2010 season, Maryland is averaging a hefty 37.3 shots per game while surrendering only 16.8.
- Karri Ellen Johnson and Caitlyn McFadden lead the way in shots with 48 and 43, respectively.

SCHWARZMANN NAMED ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

- It didn't take long for the accolades to start pouring in for rookie sensation Katie Schwarzmann.
- The midfielder was tabbed WomensLax.com Rookie of the Week after helping lead the Terps to a win of historic proportions against fifth-ranked Duke. Maryland dropped the Blue Devils in Durham by 13 goals, the largest margin of victory against Duke in program history.

- The freshman from Century High School tacked an assist, two draw controls, five ground balls and three caused turnovers onto her career-high three-goal performance.

MCFADDEN NAMED PRESEASON PLAYER OF THE YEAR

- Senior midfielder Caitlyn McFadden has been tabbed Lacrosse Magazine's Preseason National Player of the Year, as announced by the publication.
- McFadden, who helped guide the U. S. to a gold medal in the 2009 FIL World Cup in Prague this summer, was tabbed IWLCA National Midfielder of the Year last season along with a clean sweep of every ACC honor, including Player of the Year, Tournament Most Valuable Player and Scholar-Athlete of the Year. The Tewaaron Trophy finalist ended the 2009 campaign with 54 goals, 31 assists and 37 draw controls. The Phoenix, Md., native has started in every match since her arrival to College Park in 2007 and is one-goal shy of 100 career goals as a Terp.

TITLE TERPS!!

- ACC Championship MVP Caitlyn McFadden scored four goals in the second half to lift the Terps to its first title since 2003 as top-seeded Maryland downed Duke, 12-11, to win the 2009 ACC Women's Lacrosse Championship at Thompson Field on the campus of Virginia Tech.
- McFadden was named tournament MVP while teammates Brittany Dipper, Karri Ellen Johnson, Sarah Mollison, Brittany Jones and Karissa Taylor all landed on the all-tournament team.

ALL-AMERICANS RETURN

- A total of six Terps garnered regional All-American status last season with five moving on to earn national honors -- all return for Maryland this season.
- Regionally, Caitlyn McFadden, Karissa Taylor, Sarah Mollison, Brandi Jones and Karri Ellen Johnson all landed on the first team while Laura Merrifield racked up regional second team honors.
- The first team honorees advanced to national voting where McFadden and Johnson were each tabbed to the first team. Mollison and Brandi Jones landed on the second team and Taylor earned third-team accolades.
- McFadden was also named IWLCA National Midfielder of the Year.

SUMMER FUN IN PRAGUE

- A total of 16 current and former Terps competed for their respective countries in the 2009 FIL World Cup in Prague this summer.
- Included in that mix are current Maryland standouts Caitlyn McFadden, Laura Merrifield and Sarah Mollison.

- McFadden helped guide the U.S. to the gold medal, topping Mollison and Team Australia in the finals. Merrifield led her native England to the semifinals before bowing out to the U.S.

SCHWARZMANN EARNS LOFTY HONOR

- Maryland freshman Katie Schwarzmann has been tabbed "Athlete of the Decade" by the Carroll County Times.
- A three-sport standout, excelling in soccer, basketball and lacrosse, Schwarzmann was named first-team All-Decade in all three sports.

PERFECTION

- Maryland, compliments of a 19-0 record, racked up its eighth undefeated regular season following a win against Princeton, 20-12, on May 2, 2009.
- The unblemished record was the first for Maryland since 2001, when it last one the national championship.

PROTECT THIS HOUSE

- Maryland is 31-1 at home under fourth-year head coach Cathy Reese.
- The Terps have won all four games in which they have played an opponent ranked No. 1 or No. 2 at home in the past three seasons and have done it in three different locations.
- The Terps are 171-15 in College Park dating back to 1990 with 11 perfect seasons in that span.
- Records of home and away games are incomplete from 1974-89.

BRING ON THE BEST

- The Terps are not afraid to challenge the top teams in the nation and have lined up 10 top-25 squads, including six in the top 10, on their 2010 slate.
- Maryland will square off against No. 3 Penn, No. 4 North Carolina, No. 5 Duke, No. 7 Georgetown, No. 9 Princeton, No. 10 Virginia, No. 13 Stanford, No. 15 Dartmouth, No. 17 Towson and No. 18 Penn State this season. (according to IWLCA Preseason Top 25 Poll)

TERPS TAB CAPTAINS

- Sarah Mollison will join two-time captains Caitlyn McFadden, Amanda Spinnenweber and Karissa Taylor as captains for the defending ACC champions.
- McFadden, who was tabbed Lacrosse Magazine's Preseason Player of the Year, gathered a slew of awards last season, including a sweep of every conference award and IWLCA National Midfielder of the Year.
- Spinnenweber started in every match except one in 2009, tallying career-highs in goals (26), assists (9), points (35), draw controls (22), caused turnovers (10) and ground balls (16).
- Taylor picked up Third Team All-America honors last season while guiding the Terrapin defense to a 9.11 GAA. She also contributed offensively during her junior campaign, registering 10 goals and four assists.
- Mollison, a junior, started in every match for Maryland's attack in 2009, scoring 44 goals and dishing out 38 assists for the ACC champion Terps.

SISTER, SISTER

- Possibly the finest sister combination in the country, Brittany and Brandi Jones team up once again this season in the Maryland midfield.
- Brandi took her game to a new level in 2009, being tabbed an All-American and All-ACC after racking up 28 goals and 32 assists as a sophomore for the ACC champion Terrapins.
- Brittany had a breakout season in 2009 notching career-highs in goals (33), assists (8), points (41), and draw controls (23). She was named to the ACC All-Tournament Team after scoring four goals and adding two draw controls in Maryland's run to the title.
- In 2010, Brandi has racked up 16 points on 10 goals and six assists while Brittany has six goals and two assists on the year.

MD WLAX SWEEPS ACC AWARDS

- Caitlyn McFadden headlined the 2009 ACC Women's Lacrosse individual postseason honors. The Tewaaraton Trophy finalist was recognized alongside freshman Karri Ellen Johnson and Terrapin head coach Cathy Reese.
- McFadden helped make it three-in-a-row for Maryland as Dana Dobbie won the coveted Player of the Year honor in 2007 and 2008. She was also named ACC Tournament MVP and Scholar-Athlete of the Year.
- Johnson secured Rookie of the Year honors after a tremendous freshman campaign in which she tallied team-highs in goals and draw controls.
- Reese garnered her second ACC Coach of the Year honor in only three seasons at the helm of the Maryland program. Reese guided the Terps to a 21-1 record and an ACC title in 2009.

HALL OF FAME COACHES

- Over the offseason, both head coach Cathy Reese and assistant coach Quinn Carney were awarded the prestigious honor of being named to various Hall of Fames.
- Carney was inducted into the New Jersey Lacrosse Hall of Fame while Reese landed in the Greater Baltimore Chapter of the U.S. Lacrosse Hall of Fame in January.

Third Season

Maryland '98

Former Maryland standout Cathy Reese is in her third season at the helm of the Terrapins' women's lacrosse program after revitalizing a team hungry to return to the national forefront.

Reese has led the Terps to an unblemished 21-0 record in 2009, including a convincing 5-0 ACC mark. The Ellicott City, Md., native captured her second ACC Coach of the Year award in 2009 while guiding the Terps to league-high tallies in goals, assists, points, shots and shot percentage, while mustering the team's highest win total since 2001. Reese has also notched her first ACC championship and her third-straight ACC Player of the Year as Tewaaron Trophy finalist Caitlyn McFadden garnered the award.

Reese continued to move Maryland in a positive direction in 2008, steering the Terps to an 18-3 record and an Atlantic Coast Conference regular season title. Once again, Reese boasted some of the top talent in the nation as senior Dana Dobbie was tabbed ACC Player of the Year in addition to being named a finalist for the Tewaaron Trophy, given annually to the nation's best player. Dobbie and fellow seniors Kelly Kasper and Lauren Cohen joined sophomore Caitlyn McFadden on the All-America team while Kasper accompanied Dobbie as a Tewaaron finalist. The Terps' 18-3 record was the best for the program since 2003 as Maryland punched its ticket to the NCAA Tournament for the 18th consecutive season.

Reese returned to her alma mater in 2007 as the head coach and guided the Terps to a 16-4 record, including a first-place finish in the Atlantic Coast Conference at 4-1, earning the conference's Coach of the Year award.

Maryland had bowed out of the NCAA Tournament in the first round the previous two seasons, but Reese's Terps advanced to the quarterfinals for the first time since 2004 and had the most wins since 2003. Included in those 16 wins were a pair against teams ranked No. 1 and No. 2 in the country against North Carolina and Duke, respectively.

Reese's guidance produced more than just team success. Dana Dobbie was a finalist for the Tewaaron Trophy, given annually to the nation's best player, and was the ACC Player of the Year. In addition, Dobbie along with Becky Clipp, Kelly Kasper, and Krista Pellizzi were named All-Americans.

Reese returned to Maryland after spending her first three seasons as head coach at the University of Denver where she guided the Pioneers to their most successful season in school history in 2006. Denver finished that year with a 16-5 record and rattled off 11-straight wins over the course of 43 days. The 11-game win streak was more victories than the school had seen in an entire season as its eight wins in 2003 was the most in a season for the Pioneers prior to 2006.

For a program that saw limited success since its inception in 1999, Reese proved that she is a winner. With a 4-1 Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) record, the Pioneers won its first-ever regular season championship in 2006. For her efforts, Reese was named the 2006 MPSF Coach of the Year. In addition, two of her student-athletes were also given season-ending awards as Denver swept the conference accolades. Kristie Leggio was tabbed the Player of the Year and Karen Morton was the Newcomer of the Year.

Leggio, Stephanie Greenlees, and Kelly O'Connell were each recognized as all-regional performers in 2006. It was the first time in program history that a Pioneer student-athlete was recognized by the IWLC/US Lacrosse committee.

In her three seasons in the Mile High City, 11 student-athletes were named to the All-MPSF Team. Not only did her students excel on the field, but they also achieved in the classroom as Denver student-athletes were named to the Academic All-Conference team 11 times.

Prior to lifting the Denver program to national attention, Reese spent nine seasons in College Park, four as a student-athlete and five as an assistant coach. During that span, the women's lacrosse program had one of the most successful streaks seen in collegiate women's sports history. The Terps won seven national championships in her first nine years on campus. That is the third-longest streak in women's NCAA history in any sport.

When Reese first stepped foot on campus as a freshman, it was impossible to gauge how successful she and the Terps would be. Maryland did not lose in her first two seasons as a student-athlete, and it did not lose until midway through her junior campaign. In all, Reese and the Terps went 50-straight games without a loss. In her playing career, Reese guided the Terps to an incredible 75-4 record. In her first three seasons as assistant coach, the Terps went 65-1. Her total record with Maryland in her first nine seasons was 169-19. The Terps also made the NCAA quarterfinals in 2002 and advanced to the national semifinals in 2003 before Reese took the reins at Denver.

As a student-athlete from 1995-98, she was a two-time All-America selection. As a senior, she was tabbed the NCAA Tournament Most Valuable Player and was the second-leading scorer on that championship team with 58 goals and 25 assists. She finished her career with 140 goals, 77 assists, and 217 points. Her 77 assists is tied for eighth all-time at Maryland and her 217 points is 11th.

Reese graduated in 1998 with a degree in speech communications. She and her husband, Brian, have three children, Riley, who is three years old, and Brody, who was born September 24, 2006. Reese gave birth to her first girl, Cayden Elizabeth, on March 12.

Game Recaps

Game #1 • February 15 Richmond, Va. Maryland 17, UMass 6

Senior Kelly Kasper scored a career high six goals as the No. 6 Maryland women's lacrosse team beat Massachusetts, 17-7, in the Terrapins' season opener on February 23 at McGuirk Stadium. Sophomore Caitlyn McFadden also recorded career highs in goals and points with four and five, respectively.

The Terps hounded UMass all day and forced 29 turnovers while allowing the Minutewomen to convert just 10 of 18 clear opportunities. Maryland also owned a 40-15 shot advantage as a bulk of the possession was spent on the Terps' attack.

Seniors Lauren Cohen and Dana Dobbie also recorded hat tricks on the day. Dobbie added two assists while Cohen tallied one. Senior Katie Princiotta dished out two assists and classmate Casey Magor recorded a goal and an assist.

Game #18 • April 30 Princeton, N.J.

Maryland 18, Princeton 9

Senior leadership proved to be the difference as the No. 4 Maryland women's lacrosse team took down No. 6 Princeton, 18-9, on April 30 at Class of 1952 Stadium. The seniors accounted for 21 of the 23 points Maryland scored in the most lopsided decision in the series since 1984.

Dana Dobbie led the Terps with five goals and an assist while securing seven draw controls. Her 62 goals this season ranks seventh on the single-season ledger at Maryland while her 111 draw controls is the second most in a season in NCAA history. She is just three away from claiming the top spot from Georgetown's Cocco Stanwick who had 113 in 2006.

Kelly Kasper scored four goals and added two assists while Lauren Cohen recorded a hat trick and also had an assist. Casey Magor chipped in with two goals and an assist while Katie Princiotta had a pair of goals.

Game #19 • May 3
Baltimore, Md.
Maryland 20, Loyola 4

Senior Dana Dobbie broke the NCAA single-season draw control record on May 3 in a 20-4 win at Loyola at Diane Geppi-Aikens Field. Dobbie collected three in the game and now has 114 this year which tops Georgetown's Coco Stanwick who had 113 in 2006. Four Maryland players picked up hat tricks in the win.

Dobbie, who is already the NCAA career draw control leader, now has 322 in her four seasons. The previous record holder was Gloria Lozano of Georgetown who had 223 from 2001-04. Lozano set her record in 74 games while Dobbie eclipsed her mark in just 48 games.

Dobbie added four goals in the win as did junior Kate Faas off the bench. Senior Kelly Kasper recorded three goals and two assists which all came in the first half. Freshman Laura Merrifield also picked up a hat trick and senior Katie Princiotto contributed with a goal and a pair of assists. Senior Allie Buote was strong in goal with eight saves.
